35 Contend, Yahweh, with those who contend with me. Fight against those who fight against me.² and stand up for my help. Take hold of shield and buckler,³ Tell my soul, "I am your salvation." Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me.⁴ Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded. Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor.⁵ Yahweh's angel driving them on. Let them be as chaff before the wind,⁶ Yahweh's angel pursuing them. Let their way be dark and slippery,⁷ Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul. For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me.⁸ Let his net that he has hidden catch himself. Let him fall into that destruction. Let destruction come on him unawares.⁹ It shall rejoice in his salvation. My soul shall be joyful in Yahweh.¹⁰ who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him; yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him?" All my bones shall say, "Yahweh, who is like you,¹¹ They ask me about things that I don't know about. Unrighteous witnesses rise up.¹² to the bereaving of my soul. They reward me evil for good,¹³ I afflicted my soul with fasting. My prayer returned into my own bosom. But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.¹⁴ I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother. I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother.¹⁵ The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it. They tore at me, and didn't cease. But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together.¹⁶ they gnashed their teeth at me. Like the profane mockers in feasts,¹⁷ Rescue my soul from their destruction, my precious life from the lions. Lord, how long will you look on?¹⁸ I will praise you among many people. I will give you thanks in the great assembly.¹⁹ neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes. Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me;²⁰ but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land. For they don't speak peace,²¹ They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!" Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me.²² Lord, don't be far from me. You have seen it, Yahweh. Don't keep silent.²³ My Lord, contend for me! Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God!²⁴ Don't let them gloat over me. Vindicate me, Yahweh my God, according to your righteousness.²⁵ Don't let them say, "We have swallowed him up!" Don't let them say in their heart, "Aha! That's the way we want it!"²⁶ Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me. Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity.²⁷ Yes, let them say continually, "Yahweh be magnified, who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant!" Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause.²⁸ My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.

36 An inner sanctuary is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked: "There is no fear of God before his eyes."² too much to detect and hate his sin. For he flatters himself in his own eyes,³ He has ceased to be wise and to do good. The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit.⁴ He sets himself in a way that is not good. He doesn't abhor evil. He plots iniquity on his bed.⁵ Your faithfulness reaches to the skies. Your loving kindness, Yahweh, is in the heavens.⁶ Your judgments are like a great deep. Yahweh, you preserve man and animal. Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.⁷ The children of men take refuge under the shadow of your wings. How precious is your loving kindness, God!⁸ You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures. They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house.⁹ In your light shall we see light. For with you is the spring of life.¹⁰ your righteousness to the upright in heart. Oh continue your loving kindness to those who know you,¹¹ Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me away. Don't let the foot of pride come against me.¹² They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise. There the workers of iniquity are fallen.

37 Don't fret because of evildoers, neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness.² and wither like the green herb. For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,³ Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture. Trust in Yahweh, and do good.⁴ and he will give you the desires of your heart. Also delight yourself in Yahweh,⁵ Trust also in him, and he will do this: Commit your way to Yahweh.⁶ and your justice as the noon day sun. he will make your righteousness go out as the light,⁷ Don't fret because of him who prospers in his way, because of the man who makes wicked plots happen. Rest in Yahweh, and wait patiently for him.⁸ Don't fret, it leads only to evil-doing. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath.⁹ but those who wait for Yahweh shall inherit the land. For evildoers shall be cut off,¹⁰ Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't there. For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more.¹¹ and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace. But the humble shall inherit the land,¹² and gnashes at him with his teeth. The wicked plots against the just,¹³ for he sees that his day is coming. The Lord will laugh at him,¹⁴ to cast down the poor and needy, to kill those who are upright on the path. The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, ¹⁵Their bows shall be broken. Their sword shall enter into their own heart. ¹⁶than the abundance of many wicked. Better is a little that the righteous has, ¹⁷but Yahweh upholds the righteous. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, ¹⁸Their inheritance shall be forever. Yahweh knows the days of the perfect. ¹⁹In the days of famine they shall be satisfied. They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil. ²⁰The enemies of Yahweh shall be like the beauty of the fields. They will vanish— vanish like smoke. But the wicked shall perish. ²¹but the righteous give generously. The wicked borrow, and don't pay back, ²²Those who are cursed by him shall be cut off. For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land. ²³He delights in his way. A man's goings are established by Yahweh. ²⁴for Yahweh holds him up with his hand. Though he stumble, he shall not fall, ²⁵yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his children begging for bread. I have been young, and now am old, ²⁶^{xviii} is blessed. All day long he deals graciously, and lends. ²⁷Live securely forever. Depart from evil, and do good. ²⁸and doesn't forsake his saints. They are preserved forever, but the children of the wicked shall be cut off. For Yahweh loves justice, ²⁹and live in it forever. The righteous shall inherit the land, ³⁰His tongue speaks justice. The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom. ³¹None of his steps shall slide. The law of his God is in his heart. ³²and seeks to kill him. The wicked watches the righteous, ³³nor condemn him when he is judged. Yahweh will not leave him in his hand, ³⁴and he will exalt you to inherit the land. When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it. Wait for Yahweh, and keep his way, ³⁵spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil. I have seen the wicked in great power, ³⁶Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found. But he passed away, and behold, he was not. ³⁷for there is a future for the man of peace. Mark the perfect man, and see the upright, ³⁸The future of the wicked shall be cut off. As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together. ³⁹He is their stronghold in the time of trouble. But the salvation of the righteous is from Yahweh. ⁴⁰He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, Because they have taken refuge in him. Yahweh helps them, and rescues them.

38Yahweh, don't rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in your hot displeasure. ²your hand presses hard on me. For your arrows have pierced me, ³neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin. There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation, ⁴As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me. For my iniquities have gone over my head. ⁵because of my foolishness. My wounds are loathsome and corrupt, ⁶I go mourning all day long. I am pained and bowed down greatly. ⁷There is no soundness in my flesh. For my waist is filled with burning.

⁸I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart. I am faint and severely bruised. ⁹My groaning is not hidden from you. Lord, all my desire is before you. ¹⁰My strength fails me. As for the light of my eyes, it has also left me. My heart throbs. ¹¹My kinsmen stand far away. My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague. ¹²Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all day long. They also who seek after my life lay snares. ¹³I am as a mute man who doesn't open his mouth. But I, as a deaf man, don't hear. ¹⁴in whose mouth are no reproofs. Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear, ¹⁵You will answer, Lord my God. For in you, Yahweh, do I hope. ¹⁶or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips." For I said, "Don't let them gloat over me, ¹⁷My pain is continually before me. For I am ready to fall. ¹⁸I will be sorry for my sin. For I will declare my iniquity. ¹⁹Those who hate me without reason are numerous. But my enemies are vigorous and many. ²⁰because I follow what is good. They who also render evil for good are adversaries to me, ²¹My God, don't be far from me. Don't forsake me, Yahweh. ²²Lord, my salvation. Hurry to help me, 39I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue. I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me." ²I held my peace, even from good. My sorrow was stirred. I was mute with silence. ³While I meditated, the fire burned: My heart was hot within me. I spoke with my tongue: ⁴"Yahweh, show me my end, what is the measure of my days. Let me know how frail I am. ⁵My lifetime is as nothing before you. Behold, you have made my days hand widths. Surely every man stands as a breath." Selah. ⁶Surely they busy themselves in vain. He heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather. "Surely every man walks like a shadow. ⁷My hope is in you. Now, Lord, what do I wait for? ⁸Don't make me the reproach of the foolish. Deliver me from all my transgressions. ⁹I didn't open my mouth, because you did it. I was mute. ¹⁰I am overcome by the blow of your hand. Remove your scourge away from me. ¹¹You consume his wealth like a moth. When you rebuke and correct man for iniquity, Surely every man is but a breath." Selah. ¹²Don't be silent at my tears. a foreigner, as all my fathers were. "Hear my prayer, Yahweh, and give ear to my cry. For I am a stranger with you, ¹³before I go away, and exist no more." Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, 40I waited patiently for Yahweh. He turned to me, and heard my cry. ²out of the miry clay. and gave me a firm place to stand. He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, He set my feet on a rock, ³Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Yahweh. He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God. ⁴and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust, ⁵and your thoughts which are toward us. If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered. Many, Yahweh, my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, They can't be declared back to you. ⁶You have opened my ears. You have not required burnt offering and sin offering. Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire. ⁷It is written about me in the book in the scroll. Then I said, "Behold, I have come. ⁸Yes, your law is within my heart." I delight to do your will, my God. ⁹Behold, I will not seal my lips, Yahweh, you know. I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly. ¹⁰I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation. I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly. I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart. ¹¹Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me. Don't withhold your tender mercies from me, Yahweh. ¹²My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up. My heart has failed me. For innumerable evils have surrounded me. They are more than the hairs of my head. ¹³Hurry to help me, Yahweh. Be pleased, Yahweh, to deliver me. ¹⁴Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt. Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it. ¹⁵Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!" ¹⁶Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let Yahweh be exalted!" Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. ¹⁷May the Lord think about me. Don't delay, my God. But I am poor and needy. You are my help and my deliverer.

41 Blessed is he who considers the poor. Yahweh will deliver him in the day of evil. ²He shall be blessed on the earth, and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies. Yahweh will preserve him, and keep him alive. ³and restore him from his bed of illness. Yahweh will sustain him on his sickbed, ⁴Heal me, for I have sinned against you." I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me! ⁵"When will he die, and his name perish?" My enemies speak evil against me: ⁶His heart gathers iniquity to itself. When he goes abroad, he tells it. If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood. ⁷They imagine the worst for me. All who hate me whisper together against me. ⁸Now that he lies he shall rise up no more." "An evil disease", they say, "has afflicted him. ⁹who ate bread with me, has lifted up his heel against me. Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, ¹⁰that I may repay them. But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me, and raise me up, ¹¹because my enemy doesn't triumph over me. By this I know that you delight in me, ¹²and set me in your presence forever. As for me, you uphold me in my integrity, ¹³from everlasting and to everlasting! Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, Amen and amen.

shall I come and appear before God? My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. ³while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?" My tears have been my food day and night, ⁴how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to God's house, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day. These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, ⁵Why are you disturbed within me? For I shall still praise him for the saving help of his presence. Why are you in despair, my soul? Hope in God! ⁶Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan, the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar. My God, my soul is in despair within me. ⁷All your waves and your billows have swept over me. Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls. ⁸In the night his song shall be with me: a prayer to the God of my life. Yahweh ^{xx} will command his loving kindness in the daytime. ⁹Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?" I will ask God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me? ¹⁰while they continually ask me, "Where is your God?" As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, ¹¹Why are you disturbed within me? the saving help of my countenance, and my God. Why are you in despair, my soul? Hope in God! For I shall still praise him, 43 Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation. Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked men. ²Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me? ³Let them lead me. Let them bring me to your holy hill, To your tents. Oh, send out your light and your truth. ⁴to God, my exceeding joy. Then I will go to the altar of God, I will praise you on the harp, God, my God. ⁵Why are you disturbed within me? For I shall still praise him: my Savior, my helper, and my God. Why are you in despair, my soul? Hope in God!

44 We have heard with our ears, God; our fathers have told us, what work you did in their days, in the days of old. ²but you planted them. but you spread them abroad. You drove out the nations with your hand, You afflicted the peoples, ³neither did their own arm save them; because you were favorable to them. For they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword, but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your face, ⁴Command victories for Jacob! You are my King, God. ⁵Through your name, will we tread them under who rise up against us. Through you, will we push down our adversaries. ⁶neither shall my sword save me. For I will not trust in my bow, ⁷and have shamed those who hate us. But you have saved us from our adversaries, ⁸we will give thanks to your name forever. In God we have made our boast all day long, Selah. ⁹and don't go out with our armies. But now you rejected us, and brought us to dishonor, ¹⁰Those who hate us take plunder for themselves. You make us turn back from the adversary. ¹¹and have scattered us among the nations. You have made us like sheep for food, ¹²and have gained nothing from their sale. You sell your people for nothing, ¹³a scoffing and a derision to those who are around us. You make us a reproach to our neighbors, ¹⁴a shaking of the head among the peoples. You make us a byword among the nations, ¹⁵and shame covers my face, All day long my dishonor is before me, ¹⁶At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses, because of the enemy and the avenger. ¹⁷yet have we not forgotten you, Neither have we been false to your covenant. All this has come on us, ¹⁸neither have our steps strayed from your path, Our heart has not turned back, ¹⁹Though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals, and covered us with the shadow of death. ²⁰or spread out our hands to a strange god; If we have forgotten the name of our God, ²¹won't God search this out? For he knows the secrets of the heart. ²²We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter. Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long. ²³^{xxi} Don't reject us forever. Wake up! Arise! ²⁴and forget our affliction and our oppression? Why do you hide your face, ²⁵Our body clings to the earth. For our soul is bowed down to the dust. ²⁶Redeem us for your loving kindness' sake. Rise up to help us.

45My heart overflows with a noble theme. I recite my verses for the king. My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer. ²Grace has anointed your lips, therefore God has blessed you forever. You are the most excellent of the sons of men. ³your splendor and your majesty. Strap your sword on your thigh, mighty one: ⁴Let your right hand display awesome deeds. In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness. ⁵The nations fall under you, with arrows in the heart of the king's enemies. Your arrows are sharp. ⁶A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom. Your throne, God, is forever and ever. ⁷Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows. You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness. ⁸Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad. All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia. ⁹At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir. Kings' daughters are among your honorable women. ¹⁰Forget your own people, and also your father's house. Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear. ¹¹So the king will desire your beauty, honor him, for he is your lord. ¹²The rich among the people entreat your favor. The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift. ¹³Her clothing is interwoven with gold. The princess inside is all glorious. ¹⁴The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you. She shall be led to the king in embroidered work. ¹⁵They shall enter into the king's palace. With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led. ¹⁶You shall make them princes in all the earth. Your sons will take the place of your fathers. ¹⁷Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks forever and ever. I will make your name to be remembered in all generations.

46God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. ²though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas; Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes, ³though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling. Selah. ⁴the holy place of the tents of the Most High. There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad, ⁵God will help her at dawn. God is within her. She shall not be moved. ⁶He lifted his voice, and the earth melted. The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved. ⁷The God of Jacob is our refuge. Yahweh of Armies is with us. Selah. ⁸what desolations he has made in the earth. Come, see Yahweh's works, ⁹He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear. He burns the chariots in the fire. He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. ¹⁰I will be exalted among the nations. I will be exalted in the earth." "Be still, and know that I am God. ¹¹The God of Jacob is our refuge. Yahweh of Armies is with us. Selah.

47Oh clap your hands, all you nations. Shout to God with the voice of triumph! ²He is a great King over all the earth. For Yahweh Most High is awesome. ³and peoples under our feet. He subdues nations under us, ⁴the glory of Jacob whom he loved. He chooses our inheritance for us, Selah. ⁵Yahweh with the sound of a trumpet. God has gone up with a shout, ⁶Sing praises to our King, sing praises. Sing praise to God, sing praises. ⁷Sing praises with understanding. For God is the King of all the earth. ⁸God sits on his holy throne. God reigns over the nations. ⁹For the shields of the earth belong to God. He is greatly exalted! The princes of the peoples are gathered together, the people of the God of Abraham.

48Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised, in the city of our God, in his holy mountain. ²is Mount Zion, on the north sides, the city of the great King. Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, ³God has shown himself in her citadels as a refuge. ⁴they passed by together. For, behold, the kings assembled themselves, ⁵They were dismayed. They hurried away. They saw it, then they were amazed. ⁶pain, as of a woman in travail. Trembling took hold of them there, ⁷With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish. ⁸in the city of Yahweh of Armies, in the city of our God. As we have heard, so we have seen, God will establish it forever. Selah. ⁹in the middle of your temple. We have thought about your loving kindness, God, ¹⁰so is your praise to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of righteousness. As is your name, God, ¹¹Let the daughters of Judah rejoice, Because of your judgments.

Let Mount Zion be glad! ¹²Number its towers. Walk about Zion, and go around her. ¹³Consider her palaces, that you may tell it to the next generation. Mark well her bulwarks. ¹⁴He will be our guide even to death. For this God is our God forever and ever.

49Hear this, all you peoples. Listen, all you inhabitants of the world, ²both low and high, rich and poor together. ³My heart shall utter understanding. My mouth will speak words of wisdom. ⁴I will open my riddle on the harp. I will incline my ear to a proverb. ⁵When iniquity at my heels surrounds me? Why should I fear in the days of evil, ⁶and boast in the multitude of their riches— Those who trust in their wealth, ⁷none of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give God a ransom for him. ⁸no payment is ever enough, For the redemption of their life is costly, ⁹That he should live on forever, that he should not see corruption. ¹⁰likewise the fool and the senseless perish, and leave their wealth to others. For he sees that wise men die; ¹¹and their dwelling places to all generations. They name their lands after themselves. Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever, ¹²He is like the animals that perish. But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure. ¹³and of those who approve their sayings. This is the destiny of those who are foolish, Selah. ¹⁴Death shall be their shepherd. ^{xxii} far from their mansion. They are appointed as a flock for Sheol. ^{xxiii} The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning. ¹⁵for he will receive me. But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol, ^{xxiv} Selah. ¹⁶when the glory of his house is increased. Don't be afraid when a man is made rich, ¹⁷His glory shall not descend after him. For when he dies he shall carry nothing away. ¹⁸and men praise you when you do well for yourself— Though while he lived he blessed his soul— ¹⁹he shall go to the generation of his fathers. They shall never see the light. ²⁰is like the animals that perish. A man who has riches without understanding,

50The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, speaks, and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset. ²God shines out. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, ³A fire devours before him. It is very stormy around him. Our God comes, and does not keep silent. ⁴to the earth, that he may judge his people: He calls to the heavens above, ⁵those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice." "Gather my saints together to me, ⁶for God himself is judge. The heavens shall declare his righteousness, Selah. ⁷Israel, and I will testify against you. "Hear, my people, and I will speak; I am God, your God. ⁸Your burnt offerings are continually before me. I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices. ⁹nor male goats from your pens. I have no need for a bull from your stall, ¹⁰and the livestock on a thousand hills. For every animal of the forest is mine, ¹¹The wild animals of the field are mine. I know all the birds of the mountains. ¹²for the world is mine, and all that is in it. If I were hungry, I would not tell you, ¹³or drink the blood of goats? Will I eat the flesh of bulls, ¹⁴Pay your vows to the Most High. Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving. ¹⁵I will deliver you, and you will honor me." Call on me in the day of trouble. ¹⁶"What right do you have to declare my statutes, that you have taken my covenant on your lips, But to the wicked God says, ¹⁷since you hate instruction, and throw my words behind you? ¹⁸and have participated with adulterers. When you saw a thief, you consented with him, ¹⁹Your tongue frames deceit. "You give your mouth to evil. ²⁰You slander your own mother's son. You sit and speak against your brother. ²¹You thought that I was just like you. I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes. You have done these things, and I kept silent. ²²lest I tear you into pieces, and there be no one to deliver. "Now consider this, you who forget God, ²³and prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him." Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me, 51Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness. According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions. ²Cleanse me from my sin. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity. ³My sin is constantly before me. For I know my transgressions. ⁴and done that which is evil in your sight; and justified when you judge. Against you, and you only, have I sinned, that you may be proved right when you speak, ⁵In sin my mother conceived me. Behold, I was born in iniquity. ⁶You teach me wisdom in the inmost place. Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts. ⁷Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean. ⁸That the bones which you have broken may rejoice. Let me hear joy and gladness, ⁹and blot out all of my iniquities. Hide your face from my sins, ¹⁰Renew a right spirit within me. Create in me a clean heart, O God. ¹¹and don't take your holy Spirit from me. Don't throw me from your presence, ¹²Uphold me with a willing spirit. Restore to me the joy of your salvation. ¹³Sinners shall be converted to you. Then I will teach transgressors your ways. ¹⁴My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness. Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God, the God of my salvation. ¹⁵My mouth shall declare your praise. Lord, open my lips. ¹⁶You have no pleasure in burnt offering. For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it. ¹⁷A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit. ¹⁸Build the walls of Jerusalem. Do well in your good pleasure to Zion. ¹⁹in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings. Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

52Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man? God's loving kindness endures continually. ²like a sharp razor, working deceitfully. Your tongue plots destruction, ³lying rather than speaking the truth. You love evil more than good, Selah. ⁴you deceitful tongue. You love all devouring words, ⁵He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. God will likewise destroy you forever. Selah. ⁶and laugh at him, saying, The righteous also will see it, and fear, ⁷but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness." "Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength, ⁸I trust in God's loving kindness forever and ever. But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house. ⁹I will hope in your name, for it is good, in the presence of your saints. I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it.

53The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity. There is no one who does good. ²to see if there are any who understood, who seek after God. God looks down from heaven on the children of men, ³They have become filthy together. There is no one who does good, no, not one. Every one of them has gone back. ⁴who eat up my people as they eat bread, and don't call on God? Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!

54Save me, God, by your name. Vindicate me in your might. ²Listen to the words of my mouth. Hear my prayer, God. ³Violent men have sought after my soul. They haven't set God before them. For strangers have risen up against me. Selah. ⁴The Lord is the one who sustains my soul. Behold, God is my helper. ⁵Destroy them in your truth. He will repay the evil to my enemies. ⁶I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good. With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you. ⁷My eye has seen triumph over my enemies. For he has delivered me out of all trouble.

55Listen to my prayer, God. Don't hide yourself from my supplication. ²I am restless in my complaint, and moan, Attend to me, and answer me. ³Because of the voice of the enemy, Because of the oppression of the wicked. In anger they hold a grudge against me. For they bring suffering on me. ⁴The terrors of death have fallen on me. My heart is severely pained within me. ⁵Horror has overwhelmed me. Fearfulness and trembling have come on me. ⁶Then I would fly away, and be at rest. I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove! ⁷I would lodge in the wilderness." Behold, then I would wander far off. Selah. ⁸"I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm." ⁹for I have seen violence and strife in the city. Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language, ¹⁰Malice and abuse are also within her. Day and night they prowl around on its walls. ¹¹Threats and lies don't depart from her streets. Destructive forces are within her. ¹²then I could have endured it. then I would have hidden myself from him. For it was not an enemy who insulted me, Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me, ¹³my companion, and my familiar friend. But it was you, a man like me, ¹⁴We walked in God's house with company. We took sweet fellowship together. ^{15xxv} For wickedness is among them, in their dwelling. Let death come suddenly on them. ¹⁶Yahweh will save me. As for me, I will call on God. ¹⁷He will hear my voice. Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress. ¹⁸although there are many who oppose me. He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me, ¹⁹will hear, and answer them. who don't fear God. God, who is enthroned forever, Selah. They never change, ²⁰He has violated his covenant. He raises his hands against his friends. ²¹but his heart was war. yet they were drawn swords. His mouth was smooth as butter, His words were softer than oil, ²²He will never allow the righteous to be moved. Cast your burden on Yahweh, and he will sustain you. ²³Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days, but I will trust in you. But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction.

56Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up. All day long, he attacks and oppresses me. ²for they are many who fight proudly against me. My enemies want to swallow me up all day long, ³I will put my trust in you. When I am afraid, ⁴In God, I put my trust. What can flesh do to me? In God, I praise his word. I will not be afraid. ⁵All their thoughts are against me for evil. All day long they twist my words. ⁶watching my steps, they are eager to take my life. They conspire and lurk, ⁷In anger cast down the peoples, God. Shall they escape by iniquity? ⁸You put my tears into your bottle. Aren't they in your book? You number my wanderings. ⁹I know this, that God is for me. Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call. ¹⁰In Yahweh, I will praise his word. In God, I will praise his word. ¹¹I will not be afraid. What can man do to me? I have put my trust in God. ¹²I will give thank offerings to you. Your vows are on me, God. ¹³and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living. For you have delivered my soul from death, 57Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for my soul takes refuge in you. until disaster has passed. Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge, ²I cry out to God Most High, to God who accomplishes my requests for me. ³He rebukes the one who is pursuing me. He will send from heaven, and save me, Selah. God will send out his loving kindness and his truth. ⁴I lie among those who are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword. My soul is among lions. ⁵Let your glory be above all the earth! Be exalted, God, above the heavens! ⁶My soul is bowed down. They fall into the middle of it themselves. They have prepared a net for my steps. They dig a pit before me. Selah. ⁷I will sing, yes, I will sing praises. My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast. ⁸I will wake up the dawn. Wake up, my glory! Wake up, lute and harp! ⁹I will sing praises to you among the nations. I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples. ¹⁰and your truth to the skies. For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens, ¹¹Let your glory be over all the earth. Be exalted, God, above the heavens.

58Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent ones? Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of men? ²You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth. No, in your heart you plot injustice. ³They are wayward as soon as they are born, speaking lies. The wicked go astray from the womb. ⁴like a deaf cobra that stops its ear, Their poison is like the poison of a snake; ⁵which doesn't listen to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful the charmer may be. ⁶Break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh. Break their teeth, God, in their mouth. ⁷When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt. Let them vanish like water that flows away. ⁸like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun. Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away, ⁹he will sweep away the green and the burning alike. Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns, ¹⁰He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked; The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance. ¹¹Most certainly there is a God who judges the earth." so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous.

59Deliver me from my enemies, my God. Set me on high from those who rise up against me. ²Save me from the bloodthirsty men. Deliver me from the workers of iniquity. ³The mighty gather themselves together against me, not for my disobedience, nor for my sin, Yahweh. For, behold, they lie in wait for my soul. ⁴Rise up, behold, and help me! I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me. ⁵rouse yourself to punish the nations. Show no mercy to the wicked traitors. You, Yahweh God of Armies, the God of Israel, Selah. ⁶and prowl around the city. They return at evening, howling like dogs, ⁷Swords are in their lips, "For", they say, "who hears us?" Behold, they spew with their mouth. ⁸You scoff at all the nations. But you, Yahweh, laugh at them. ⁹for God is my high tower. Oh, my Strength, I watch for you, ¹⁰God will let me look at my enemies in triumph. My God will go before me with his loving kindness. ¹¹Scatter them by your power, and bring them down, Lord our shield. Don't kill them, or my people may forget. ¹²let them be caught in their pride, for the curses and lies which they utter. For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, ¹³Consume them, and they will be no more. to the ends of the earth. Consume them in wrath. Let them know that God rules in Jacob, Selah. ¹⁴Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city. At evening let them return. ¹⁵and wait all night if they aren't satisfied. They shall wander up and down for food, ¹⁶Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in the morning. a refuge in the day of my distress. But I will sing of your strength. For you have been my high tower, ¹⁷For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy. To you, my strength, I will sing praises.

60God, you have rejected us. You have broken us down. Restore us, again. You have been angry. ²You have torn it. for it quakes. You have made the land tremble. Mend its fractures, ³You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger. You have shown your people hard things. ⁴that it may be displayed because of the truth. You have given a banner to those who fear you, Selah. ⁵save with your right hand, and answer us. So that your beloved may be delivered, ⁶"I will triumph. I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth. God has spoken from his sanctuary: ⁷Ephraim also is the defense of my head. Judah is my scepter. Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine. ⁸I will throw my shoe on Edom. I shout in triumph over Philistia." Moab is my wash basin. ⁹Who has led me to Edom? Who will bring me into the strong city? ¹⁰You don't go out with our armies, God. Haven't you, God, rejected us? ¹¹for the help of man is vain. Give us help against the adversary, ¹²for it is he who will tread down our adversaries. Through God we shall do valiantly, 61Hear my cry, God. Listen to my prayer. ²Lead me to the rock that is higher than I. From the end of the earth, I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed. ³a strong tower from the enemy. For you have been a refuge for me, ⁴I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings. I will dwell in your tent forever. Selah. ⁵You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name. For you, God, have heard my vows. ⁶his years shall be for generations. You will prolong the king's life; ⁷Appoint your loving kindness and truth, that they may preserve him. He shall be enthroned in God's presence forever. ⁸that I may fulfill my vows daily. So I will sing praise to your name forever, and my salvation, my fortress—³would all of you throw him down, Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence? How long will you assault a man, ⁴They delight in lies. They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place. Selah. ⁵for my expectation is from him. My soul, wait in silence for God alone, ⁶I will not be shaken. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress. ⁷The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. With God is my salvation and my honor. ⁸Pour out your heart before him. God is a refuge for us. Trust in him at all times, you people. Selah. ⁹and men of high degree are a lie. They are together lighter than a breath. Surely men of low degree are just a breath, In the balances they will go up. ¹⁰Don't become vain in robbery. don't set your heart on them. Don't trust in oppression. If riches increase, ¹¹twice I have heard this, that power belongs to God. God has spoken once; ¹²for you reward every man according to his work. Also to you, Lord, belongs loving kindness, 63God, you are my God. I will earnestly seek you. My flesh longs for you, in a dry and weary land, where there is no water. My soul thirsts for you. ²watching your power and your glory. So I have seen you in the sanctuary, ³my lips shall praise you. Because your loving kindness is better than life, ⁴I will lift up my hands in your name. So I will bless you while I live. ⁵My mouth shall praise you with joyful lips, My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food. ⁶when I remember you on my bed, and think about you in the night watches. ⁷I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings. For you have been my help. ⁸Your right hand holds me up. My soul stays close to you. ⁹shall go into the lower parts of the earth. But those who seek my soul, to destroy it, ¹⁰They shall be jackal food. They shall be given over to the power of the sword. ¹¹Everyone who swears by him will praise him, for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced. But the king shall rejoice in God.

shall be glad in Yahweh,

65Praise waits for you, God, in Zion. To you shall vows be performed. ²to you all men will come. You who hear prayer, ³but you atoned for our transgressions. Sins overwhelmed me, ⁴that he may live in your courts. We will be filled with the goodness of your house, your holy temple. Blessed is one whom you choose, and cause to come near, ⁵God of our salvation. of those who are far away on the sea; By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us, You who are the hope of all the ends of the earth, ⁶having armed yourself with strength; Who by his power forms the mountains, ⁷the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations. who stills the roaring of the seas, ⁸You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy. They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders. ⁹You greatly enrich it. You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it. You visit the earth, and water it. The river of God is full of water. ¹⁰You level its ridges. You soften it with showers. You bless it with a crop. You drench its furrows. ¹¹Your carts overflow with abundance. You crown the year with your bounty. ¹²The hills are clothed with gladness. The wilderness grasslands overflow. ¹³The valleys also are clothed with grain. They also sing. The pastures are covered with flocks. They shout for joy!

66Make a joyful shout to God, all the earth! ²Sing to the glory of his name! Offer glory and praise! ³Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to you. Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds! ⁴and will sing to you; they will sing to your name." All the earth will worship you, Selah. ⁵awesome work on behalf of the children of men. Come, and see God's deeds—⁶They went through the river on foot. There, we rejoiced in him. He turned the sea into dry land. ⁷His eyes watch the nations. Don't let the rebellious rise up against him. He rules by his might forever. Selah. ⁸Make the sound of his praise heard, Praise our God, you peoples! ⁹and doesn't allow our feet to be moved. who preserves our life among the living, ¹⁰You have refined us, as silver is refined. For you, God, have tested us. ¹¹You laid a burden on our backs. You brought us into prison. ¹²We went through fire and through water, but you brought us to the place of abundance. You allowed men to ride over our heads. ¹³I will pay my vows to you, I will come into your temple with burnt offerings. ¹⁴which my lips promised, and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress. ¹⁵with the offering of rams, I will offer bulls with goats. I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals, Selah. ¹⁶I will declare what he has done for my soul. Come, and hear, all you who fear God. ¹⁷He was extolled with my tongue. I cried to him with my mouth. ¹⁸the Lord wouldn't have listened. If I cherished sin in my heart, ¹⁹He has heard the voice of my prayer. But most certainly, God has listened. ²⁰nor his loving kindness from me. Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer, 67May God be merciful to us, bless us, and cause his face to shine on us. Selah. ²and your salvation among all nations, That your way may be known on earth, ³Let all the peoples praise you. let the peoples praise you, God. ⁴for you will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations on earth. Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, Selah. ⁵Let all the peoples praise you. Let the peoples praise you, God. ⁶God, even our own God, will bless us. The earth has yielded its increase. ⁷All the ends of the earth shall fear him. God will bless us.

68Let God arise! Let his enemies be scattered! Let them who hate him also flee before him. ²so drive them away. so let the wicked perish at the presence of God. As smoke is driven away, As wax melts before the fire, ³Let them rejoice before God. Yes, let them rejoice with gladness. But let the righteous be glad. ⁴Extol him who rides on the clouds: Rejoice before him! Sing to God! Sing praises to his name! to Yah, his name! ⁵is God in his holy habitation. A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, ⁶but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land. God sets the lonely in families. He brings out the prisoners with singing, ⁷when you marched through the wilderness... God, when you went out before your people, Selah. ⁸The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai— at the presence of God, the God of Israel. The earth trembled. ⁹You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary. You, God, sent a plentiful rain. ¹⁰You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor. Your congregation lived therein. ¹¹The ones who proclaim it are a great company. The Lord announced the word. ¹²She who waits at home divides the plunder, “Kings of armies flee! They flee!” ¹³while you sleep among the camp fires, the wings of a dove sheathed with silver, her feathers with shining gold. ¹⁴it snowed on Zalmon. When the Almighty scattered kings in her, ¹⁵The mountains of Bashan are rugged. The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains. ¹⁶at the mountain where God chooses to reign? Yes, Yahweh will dwell there forever. Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains, ¹⁷The Lord is among them, from Sinai, into the sanctuary. The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands. ¹⁸You have led away captives. yes, among the rebellious also, that Yah God might dwell there. You have ascended on high. You have received gifts among men, ¹⁹even the God who is our salvation. Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, Selah. ²⁰To Yahweh, the Lord, belongs escape from death. God is to us a God of deliverance. ²¹the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness. But God will strike through the head of his enemies, ²²I will bring you again from the depths of the sea; The Lord said, “I will bring you again from Bashan, ²³that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies.” That you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, ²⁴even the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary. They have seen your processions, God, ²⁵among the ladies playing with tambourines, The singers went before, the minstrels followed after, ²⁶even the Lord in the assembly of Israel!” “Bless God in the congregations, ²⁷the princes of Judah, their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. There is little Benjamin, their ruler, ²⁸Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us. Your God has commanded your strength. ²⁹kings shall bring presents to you. Because of your temple at Jerusalem, ³⁰the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples. Scatter the nations that delight in war. Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver. ³¹Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God. Princes shall come out of Egypt. ³²Sing praises to the Lord! Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth! Selah. ³³behold, he utters his voice, a mighty voice. To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old; ³⁴His excellency is over Israel, his strength is in the skies. Ascribe strength to God! ³⁵The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people. Praise be to God! You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries.

69Save me, God, for the waters have come up to my neck! ²I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold. ³My throat is dry. My eyes fail, looking for my God. I am weary with my crying. ⁴Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty. I have to restore what I didn't take away. Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head. ⁵My sins aren't hidden from you. God, you know my foolishness. ⁶Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Israel. Don't let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Lord Yahweh of Armies. ⁷Shame has covered my face. Because for your sake, I have borne reproach. ⁸an alien to my mother's children. I have become a stranger to my brothers, ⁹The reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me. For the zeal of your house consumes me. ¹⁰that was to my reproach. When I wept and I fasted, ¹¹I became a byword to them. When I made sackcloth my clothing, ¹²I am the song of the drunkards. Those who sit in the gate talk about me. ¹³God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation. But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh, in an acceptable time. ¹⁴Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters. Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink. ¹⁵neither let the deep swallow me up. Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me. Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me, ¹⁶According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me. Answer me, Yahweh, for your loving kindness is good. ¹⁷for I am in distress. Answer me speedily! Don't hide your face from your servant, ¹⁸Ransom me because of my enemies. Draw near to my soul, and redeem it. ¹⁹My adversaries are all before you. You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor. ²⁰I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; for comforters, but I found none. Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness. ²¹In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink. They also gave me gall for my food. ²²May it become a retribution and a trap. Let their table before them become a snare. ²³Let their backs be continually bent. Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see. ²⁴Let the fierceness of your anger overtake them. Pour out your indignation on them. ²⁵Let no one dwell in their tents. Let their habitation be desolate. ²⁶They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt. For they persecute him whom you have wounded. ²⁷Don't let them come into your righteousness. Charge them with crime upon crime. ²⁸and not be written with the righteous. Let them be blotted out of the book of life, ²⁹Let your salvation, God, protect me. But I am in pain and distress. ³⁰and will magnify him with thanksgiving. I will praise the name of God with a song, ³¹or a bull that has horns and hoofs. It will please Yahweh better than an ox, ³²You who seek after God, let your heart live. The humble have seen it, and are glad. ³³and doesn't despise his captive people. For Yahweh hears the needy, ³⁴the seas, and everything that moves therein! Let heaven and earth praise him; ³⁵They shall settle there, and own it. For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah. ³⁶Those who love his name shall dwell therein. The children also of his servants shall inherit it.

70Hurry, God, to deliver me. Come quickly to help me, Yahweh. ²Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace. Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul. ³Who say, "Aha! Aha!" Let them be turned because of their shame ⁴Let those who love your salvation continually say, "Let God be exalted!" Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you. ⁵Come to me quickly, God. Yahweh, don't delay. But I am poor and needy. You are my help and my deliverer.

71In you, Yahweh, I take refuge. Never let me be disappointed. ²Turn your ear to me, and save me. Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me. ³Give the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress. Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go. ⁴from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, ⁵my confidence from my youth. For you are my hope, Lord Yahweh; ⁶You are he who took me out of my mother's womb. I will always praise you. I have relied on you from the womb. ⁷but you are my strong refuge. I am a marvel to many, ⁸with your honor all the day. My mouth shall be filled with your praise, ⁹Don't forsake me when my strength fails. Don't reject me in my old age. ¹⁰Those who watch for my soul conspire together, For my enemies talk about me. ¹¹saying, "God has forsaken him. Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him." ¹²My God, hurry to help me. God, don't be far from me. ¹³Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn who want to harm me. Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed. ¹⁴and will add to all of your praise. But I will always hope, ¹⁵and of your salvation all day, though I don't know its full measure. My mouth will tell about your righteousness, ¹⁶I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours alone. I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁷Until now, I have declared your wondrous works. God, you have taught me from my youth. ¹⁸until I have declared your strength to the next generation, your might to everyone who is to come. Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired, God, don't forsake me, ¹⁹you have done great things. God, who is like you? Your righteousness also, God, reaches to the heavens; ²⁰you will let me live. You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth. You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles, ²¹and comfort me again. Increase my honor, ²²I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy One of Israel. I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God. ²³My soul, which you have redeemed, sings praises to you! My lips shall shout for joy! ²⁴for they are disappointed, and they are confounded, who want to harm me. My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long, 72God, give the king your justice; your righteousness to the royal son. ²and your poor with justice. He will judge your people with righteousness, ³The hills bring the fruit of righteousness. The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people. ⁴He will save the children of the needy, and will break the oppressor in pieces. He will judge the poor of the people. ⁵and as long as the moon, throughout all generations. They shall fear you while the sun endures; ⁶as showers that water the earth. He will come down like rain on the mown grass, ⁷and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more. In his days, the righteous shall flourish, ⁸from the River to the ends of the earth. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, ⁹His enemies shall lick the dust. Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him. ¹⁰The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute. ¹¹All nations shall serve him. Yes, all kings shall fall down before him. ¹²the poor, who has no helper. For he will deliver the needy when he cries; ¹³He will save the souls of the needy. He will have pity on the poor and needy. ¹⁴Their blood will be precious in his sight. He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence. ¹⁵Men shall pray for him continually. They shall bless him all day long. They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba. ¹⁶Its fruit sways like Lebanon. Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field. Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land. ¹⁷His name continues as long as the sun. All nations will call him blessed. His name endures forever. Men shall be blessed by him. ¹⁸who alone does marvelous deeds. Praise be to Yahweh God, the God of Israel, ¹⁹Let the whole earth be filled with his glory! Blessed be his glorious name forever! Amen and amen. ²⁰This ends the prayers by David, the son of Jesse.

73 Surely God ^{xxvi} is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart. ²My steps had nearly slipped. But as for me, my feet were almost gone. ³when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. For I was envious of the arrogant, ⁴but their strength is firm. For there are no struggles in their death, ⁵neither are they plagued like other men. They are free from burdens of men, ⁶Violence covers them like a garment. Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck. ⁷Their minds pass the limits of conceit. Their eyes bulge with fat. ⁸In arrogance, they threaten oppression. They scoff and speak with malice. ⁹Their tongue walks through the earth. They have set their mouth in the heavens. ¹⁰and they drink up waters of abundance. Therefore their people return to them, ¹¹Is there knowledge in the Most High?" They say, "How does God know? ¹²Being always at ease, they increase in riches. Behold, these are the wicked. ¹³and washed my hands in innocence, Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart, ¹⁴and punished every morning. For all day long have I been plagued, ¹⁵behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children. If I had said, "I will speak thus"; ¹⁶it was too painful for me; When I tried to understand this, ¹⁷and considered their latter end. Until I entered God's sanctuary, ¹⁸You throw them down to destruction. Surely you set them in slippery places. ¹⁹They are completely swept away with terrors. How they are suddenly destroyed! ^{20xxvii} when you awake, you will despise their fantasies. As a dream when one wakes up, ²¹I was embittered in my heart. For my soul was grieved. ²²I was a brute beast before you. I was so senseless and ignorant. ²³You have held my right hand. Nevertheless, I am continually with you. ²⁴and afterward receive me to glory. You will guide me with your counsel, ²⁵There is no one on earth whom I desire besides you. Whom do I have in heaven? ²⁶but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. My flesh and my heart fails, ²⁷You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you. For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish. ^{28xxviii} my refuge, that I may tell of all your works. But it is good for me to come close to God.

^{xxvi}Psalm 73:1 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is " (Elohim).

^{xxviii}Psalm 73:28 "Yahweh" is God's proper Name, sometimes rendered "LORD" (all caps) in other translations.

74 God, why have you rejected us forever? Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture? ²which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance; Mount Zion, in which you have lived. Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old, ³all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary. Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, ⁴They have set up their standards as signs. Your adversaries have roared in the middle of your assembly. ⁵cutting through a thicket of trees. They behaved like men wielding axes, ⁶Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers. ⁷They have burned your sanctuary to the ground. They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name. ⁸They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped. They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely." ⁹There is no longer any prophet, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long. We see no miraculous signs. ¹⁰Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever? How long, God, shall the adversary reproach? ¹¹Take it out of your pocket and consume them! Why do you draw back your hand, even your right hand? ¹²working salvation throughout the earth. Yet God is my King of old, ¹³You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters. You divided the sea by your strength. ¹⁴You gave him as food to people and desert creatures. You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces. ¹⁵You dried up mighty rivers. You opened up spring and stream. ¹⁶You have prepared the light and the sun. The day is yours, the night is also yours. ¹⁷You have made summer and winter. You have set all the boundaries of the earth. ¹⁸Foolish people have blasphemed your name. Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you, Yahweh. ¹⁹Don't forget the life of your poor forever. Don't deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts. ²⁰for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the earth. Honor your covenant, ²¹Let the poor and needy praise your name. Don't let the oppressed return ashamed. ²²Remember how the foolish man mocks you all day. Arise, God! Plead your own cause. ²³The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually. Don't forget the voice of your adversaries.

75 We give thanks to you, God. We give thanks, for your Name is near. Men tell about your wondrous works. ²I will judge blamelessly. When I choose the appointed time, ³I firmly hold its pillars. The earth and all its inhabitants quake. Selah. ⁴I said to the wicked, "Don't lift up the horn. I said to the arrogant, "Don't boast!" ⁵Don't speak with a stiff neck." Don't lift up your horn on high. ⁶nor yet from the south, comes exaltation. For neither from the east, nor from the west, ⁷He puts down one, and lifts up another. But God is the judge. ⁸full of foaming wine mixed with spices. Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs. For in Yahweh's hand there is a cup, He pours it out. ⁹I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. But I will declare this forever: ¹⁰but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up. I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, 76In Judah, God is known. His name is great in Israel. ²His dwelling place in Zion. His tabernacle is also in Salem; ³the shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war. There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow, Selah. ⁴more than mountains of game. Glorious are you, and excellent, ⁵they have slept their last sleep. None of the men of war can lift their hands. Valiant men lie plundered, ⁶both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep. At your rebuke, God of Jacob, ⁷Who can stand in your sight when you are angry? You, even you, are to be feared. ⁸The earth feared, and was silent, You pronounced judgment from heaven. ⁹when God arose to judgment, to save all the afflicted ones of the earth. Selah. ¹⁰The survivors of your wrath are restrained. Surely the wrath of man praises you. ¹¹Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared. Make vows to Yahweh your God, and fulfill them! ¹²He is feared by the kings of the earth. He will cut off the spirit of princes.

77My cry goes to God! Indeed, I cry to God for help, and for him to listen to me. ²My hand was stretched out in the night, and didn't get tired. My soul refused to be comforted. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord. ³I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed. I remember God, and I groan. Selah. ⁴I am so troubled that I can't speak. You hold my eyelids open. ⁵the years of ancient times. I have considered the days of old, ⁶I consider in my own heart; my spirit diligently inquires: I remember my song in the night. ⁷Will he be favorable no more? "Will the Lord reject us forever? ⁸Does his promise fail for generations? Has his loving kindness vanished forever? ⁹Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?" Has God forgotten to be gracious? Selah. ¹⁰the years of the right hand of the Most High." Then I thought, "I will appeal to this: ¹¹for I will remember your wonders of old. I will remember Yah's deeds; ¹²and consider your doings. I will also meditate on all your work, ¹³What god is great like God? Your way, God, is in the sanctuary. ¹⁴You have made your strength known among the peoples. You are the God who does wonders. ¹⁵the sons of Jacob and Joseph. You have redeemed your people with your arm, Selah. ¹⁶The waters saw you, and they writhed. The depths also convulsed. The waters saw you, God. ¹⁷The skies resounded with thunder. Your arrows also flashed around. The clouds poured out water. ¹⁸The lightnings lit up the world. The earth trembled and shook. The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind. ¹⁹your paths through the great waters. Your footsteps were not known. Your way was through the sea; ²⁰by the hand of Moses and Aaron. You led your people like a flock, 78Hear my teaching, my people. Turn your ears to the words of my mouth. ²I will utter dark sayings of old, I will open my mouth in a parable. ³and our fathers have told us. Which we have heard and known, ⁴telling to the generation to come the praises of Yahweh, his strength, and his wondrous deeds that he has done. We will not hide them from their children, ⁵and appointed a teaching in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children; For he established a testimony in Jacob, ⁶who should arise and tell their children, that the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born; ⁷and not forget God's deeds, but keep his commandments, that they might set their hope in God, ⁸a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that didn't make their hearts loyal, whose spirit was not steadfast with God. and might not be as their fathers, ⁹turned back in the day of battle. The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, ¹⁰and refused to walk in his law. They didn't keep God's covenant, ¹¹his wondrous deeds that he had shown them. They forgot his doings, ¹²in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, ¹³He made the waters stand as a heap. He split the sea, and caused them to pass through. ¹⁴and all night with a light of fire. In the daytime he also led them with a cloud, ¹⁵and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths. He split rocks in the wilderness, ¹⁶and caused waters to run down like rivers. He brought streams also out of the rock, ¹⁷to rebel against the Most High in the desert. Yet they still went on to sin against him, ¹⁸by asking food according to their desire. They tempted God in their heart ¹⁹They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness? Yes, they spoke against God. ²⁰and streams overflowed. Will he provide flesh for his people?" Behold, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out, Can he give bread also? ²¹A fire was kindled against Jacob, anger also went up against Israel, Therefore Yahweh heard, and was angry. ²²and didn't trust in his salvation. because they didn't believe in God, ²³and opened the doors of heaven. Yet he commanded the skies above, ²⁴and gave them food from the sky. He rained down manna on them to eat, ²⁵He sent them food to the full. Man ate the bread of angels. ²⁶By his power he guided the south wind. He caused the east wind to blow in the sky. ²⁷winged birds as the sand of the seas. He rained also flesh on them as the dust; ²⁸around their habitations. He let them fall in the middle of their camp, ²⁹He gave them their own desire. So they ate, and were well filled. ³⁰Their food was yet in their mouths, They didn't turn from their cravings. ³¹when the anger of God went up against them, killed some of their fattest, and struck down the young men of Israel. ³²and didn't believe in his wondrous works. For all this they still sinned, ³³and their years in terror. Therefore he consumed their days in vanity, ³⁴They returned and sought God earnestly. When he killed them, then they inquired after him. ³⁵the Most High God, their redeemer. They remembered that God was their rock, ³⁶and lied to him with their tongue. But they flattered him with their mouth, ³⁷neither were they faithful in his covenant. For their heart was not right with him, ³⁸Yes, many times he turned his anger away, and didn't stir up all his wrath. But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them. ³⁹a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again. He remembered that they were but flesh, ⁴⁰and grieved him in the desert! How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, ⁴¹and provoked the Holy One of Israel. They turned again and tempted God, ⁴²nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary; They didn't remember his hand, ⁴³his wonders in the field of Zoan, how he set his signs in Egypt, ⁴⁴and their streams, so that they could not drink. he turned their rivers into blood, ⁴⁵and frogs, which destroyed them. He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them; ⁴⁶and their labor to the locust. He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, ⁴⁷their sycamore fig trees with frost. He destroyed their vines with hail, ⁴⁸and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. He gave over their livestock also to the hail, ⁴⁹wrath, indignation, and trouble, and a band of angels of evil. He threw on them the fierceness of his anger, ⁵⁰He didn't spare their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence, He made a path for his anger. ⁵¹the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham. and struck all the firstborn in Egypt, ⁵²and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. But he led out his own people like sheep, ⁵³but the sea overwhelmed their enemies. He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid, ⁵⁴to this mountain, which his right hand had taken. He brought them to the border of his sanctuary, ⁵⁵allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. He also drove out the nations before them, ⁵⁶and didn't keep his testimonies; Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God, ⁵⁷They were turned aside like a deceitful bow. but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers. ⁵⁸and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, ⁵⁹and greatly abhorred Israel; When God heard this, he was angry, ⁶⁰the tent which he placed among men; So that he abandoned the tent of Shiloh, ⁶¹his glory into the adversary's hand. and delivered his strength into captivity, ⁶²and was angry with his inheritance. He also gave his people over to the sword, ⁶³Their virgins had no wedding song. Fire devoured their young men. ⁶⁴and their widows couldn't weep. Their priests fell by the sword, ⁶⁵like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine. Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep, ⁶⁶He put them to a perpetual reproach. He struck his adversaries backward. ⁶⁷and didn't choose the tribe of Ephraim, Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph, ⁶⁸Mount Zion which he loved. But chose the tribe of Judah, ⁶⁹like the earth which he has established forever. He built his sanctuary like the heights, ⁷⁰and took him from the sheepfolds; He also chose David his servant, ⁷¹he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob, his people, and Israel, his inheritance. from following the ewes that have their young, ⁷²and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands. So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, 79God, the nations have come into your inheritance. They have defiled your holy temple. They have laid Jerusalem in heaps. ²the flesh of your saints to the animals of the earth. They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky, ³There was no one to bury them. Their blood they have shed like water around Jerusalem. ⁴a scoffing and derision to those who are around us. We have become a reproach to our neighbors, ⁵Will you be angry forever? Will your jealousy burn like fire? How long, Yahweh? ⁶on the kingdoms that don't call on your name; Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you; ⁷and destroyed his homeland. For they have devoured Jacob, ⁸Let your tender mercies speedily meet us, for we are in desperate need. Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us. ⁹Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake. Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your name. ¹⁰Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes, that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out. Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?" ¹¹According to the greatness of your power, preserve those who are sentenced to death. Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you. ¹²their reproach with which they have reproached you, Lord. Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom ¹³will give you thanks forever. We will praise you forever, to all generations. So we, your people and sheep of your pasture,

80Hear us, Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock, you who sit above the cherubim, shine out. ²Come to save us! Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might! ³Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved. Turn us again, God. ⁴How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people? Yahweh God of Armies, ⁵and given them tears to drink in large measure. You have fed them with the bread of tears, ⁶Our enemies laugh among themselves. You make us a source of contention to our neighbors. ⁷Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved. Turn us again, God of Armies. ⁸You drove out the nations, and planted it. You brought a vine out of Egypt. ⁹It took deep root, and filled the land. You cleared the ground for it. ¹⁰Its boughs were like God's cedars. The mountains were covered with its shadow. ¹¹Its shoots to the River. It sent out its branches to the sea, ¹²so that all those who pass by the way pluck it? Why have you broken down its walls, ¹³The wild animals of the field feed on it. The boar out of the wood ravages it. ¹⁴Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine, Turn again, we beg you, God of Armies. ¹⁵the branch that you made strong for yourself. the stock which your right hand planted, ¹⁶It's cut down. They perish at your rebuke. It's burned with fire. ¹⁷on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself. Let your hand be on the man of your right hand, ¹⁸Revive us, and we will call on your name. So we will not turn away from you. ¹⁹Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved. Turn us again, Yahweh God of Armies.

81 Sing aloud to God, our strength! Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob! ²the pleasant lyre with the harp. Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine, ³at the full moon, on our feast day. Blow the trumpet at the New Moon, ⁴an ordinance of the God of Jacob. For it is a statute for Israel, ⁵when he went out over the land of Egypt, I heard a language that I didn't know. He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony, ⁶His hands were freed from the basket. "I removed his shoulder from the burden. ⁷I answered you in the secret place of thunder. I tested you at the waters of Meribah." You called in trouble, and I delivered you. Selah. ⁸Israel, if you would listen to me! "Hear, my people, and I will testify to you, ⁹neither shall you worship any foreign god. There shall be no strange god in you, ¹⁰who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it. I am Yahweh, your God, ¹¹Israel desired none of me. But my people didn't listen to my voice. ¹²that they might walk in their own counsels. So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts, ¹³that Israel would walk in my ways! Oh that my people would listen to me, ¹⁴and turn my hand against their adversaries. I would soon subdue their enemies, ¹⁵and their punishment would last forever. The haters of Yahweh would cringe before him, ¹⁶I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock." But he would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat.

82 God presides in the great assembly. He judges among the gods. ²and show partiality to the wicked?" "How long will you judge unjustly, Selah. ³Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed. "Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless. ⁴Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked." Rescue the weak and needy. ⁵They walk back and forth in darkness. All the foundations of the earth are shaken. They don't know, neither do they understand. ⁶all of you are sons of the Most High. I said, "You are gods, ⁷and fall like one of the rulers." Nevertheless you shall die like men, ⁸for you inherit all of the nations. Arise, God, judge the earth,

83 God, don't keep silent. Don't keep silent, and don't be still, God. ²Those who hate you have lifted up their heads. For, behold, your enemies are stirred up. ³They plot against your cherished ones. They conspire with cunning against your people. ⁴that the name of Israel may be remembered no more." "Come," they say, "let's destroy them as a nation, ⁵They form an alliance against you. For they have conspired together with one mind. ⁶Moab, and the Hagrites; The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites; ⁷Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre; Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek; ⁸They have helped the children of Lot. Assyria also is joined with them. Selah. ⁹as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon; Do to them as you did to Midian, ¹⁰who became as dung for the earth. who perished at Endor, ¹¹yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna; Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb; ¹²who said, "Let us take possession of God's pasture lands." ¹³like chaff before the wind. My God, make them like tumbleweed; ¹⁴as the flame that sets the mountains on fire, As the fire that burns the forest, ¹⁵so pursue them with your tempest, and terrify them with your storm. ¹⁶that they may seek your name, Yahweh. Fill their faces with confusion, ¹⁷Yes, let them be confounded and perish; Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever. ¹⁸are the Most High over all the earth. that they may know that you alone, whose name is Yahweh,

84 How lovely are your dwellings, Yahweh of Armies! ²My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of Yahweh. ³and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young, near your altars, Yahweh of Armies, my King, and my God. Yes, the sparrow has found a home, ⁴They are always praising you. Blessed are those who dwell in your house. Selah. ⁵who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage. Blessed are those whose strength is in you; ⁶Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings. Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs. ⁷Everyone of them appears before God in Zion. They go from strength to strength. ⁸Listen, God of Jacob. Yahweh, God of Armies, hear my prayer. Selah. ⁹look at the face of your anointed. Behold, God our shield, ¹⁰I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness. For a day in your courts is better than a thousand. ¹¹Yahweh will give grace and glory. He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly. For Yahweh God is a sun and a shield. ¹²blessed is the man who trusts in you. Yahweh of Armies,

85 Yahweh, you have been favorable to your land. You have restored the fortunes of Jacob. ²You have covered all their sin. You have forgiven the iniquity of your people. Selah. ³You have turned from the fierceness of your anger. You have taken away all your wrath. ⁴and cause your indignation toward us to cease. Turn us, God of our salvation, ⁵Will you draw out your anger to all generations? Will you be angry with us forever? ⁶that your people may rejoice in you? Won't you revive us again, ⁷Grant us your salvation. Show us your loving kindness, Yahweh. ⁸for he will speak peace to his people, his saints; but let them not turn again to folly. I will hear what God, Yahweh, will speak, ⁹that glory may dwell in our land. Surely his salvation is near those who fear him, ¹⁰Righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Mercy and truth meet together. ¹¹Righteousness has looked down from heaven. Truth springs out of the earth. ¹²Our land will yield its increase. Yes, Yahweh will give that which is good. ¹³And prepares the way for his steps. Righteousness goes before him, 86Hear, Yahweh, and answer me, for I am poor and needy. ²You, my God, save your servant who trusts in you. Preserve my soul, for I am godly. ³for I call to you all day long. Be merciful to me, Lord, ⁴for to you, Lord, do I lift up my soul. Bring joy to the soul of your servant, ⁵abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you. For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive; ⁶Listen to the voice of my petitions. Hear, Yahweh, my prayer. ⁷for you will answer me. In the day of my trouble I will call on you, ⁸nor any deeds like your deeds. There is no one like you among the gods, Lord, ⁹They shall glorify your name. All nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord. ¹⁰You are God alone. For you are great, and do wondrous things. ¹¹I will walk in your truth. Make my heart undivided to fear your name. Teach me your way, Yahweh. ¹²I will glorify your name forever more. I will praise you, Lord my God, with my whole heart. ^{13xxxix} For your loving kindness is great toward me. ¹⁴A company of violent men have sought after my soul, and they don't hold regard for you before them. God, the proud have risen up against me. ¹⁵slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth. But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, ¹⁶Give your strength to your servant. Save the son of your servant. Turn to me, and have mercy on me! ¹⁷that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed, because you, Yahweh, have helped me, and comforted me. Show me a sign of your goodness, 87His foundation is in the holy mountains. ²Yahweh loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob. ³Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God. Selah. ⁴Behold, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia: "This one was born there." I will record Rahab ^{xxx} and Babylon among those who acknowledge me. ⁵the Most High himself will establish her. Yes, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one was born in her"; ⁶"This one was born there." Yahweh will count, when he writes up the peoples, Selah. ⁷"All my springs are in you." Those who sing as well as those who dance say, ^{xxxix}Psalm 86:13 Sheol is the place of the dead.

^{xxx}Psalm 87:4 Rahab is a reference to Egypt.

88Yahweh, the God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before you. ²Turn your ear to my cry. Let my prayer enter into your presence. ^{3xxxix} For my soul is full of troubles. ⁴I am like a man who has no help, I am counted among those who go down into the pit. ⁵set apart among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, whom you remember no more. They are cut off from your hand. ⁶in the darkest depths. You have laid me in the lowest pit, ⁷You have afflicted me with all your waves. Your wrath lies heavily on me. Selah. ⁸You have made me an abomination to them. I am confined, and I can't escape. You have taken my friends from me. ⁹I have called on you daily, Yahweh. I have spread out my hands to you. My eyes are dim from grief. ¹⁰Do the departed spirits rise up and praise you? Do you show wonders to the dead? Selah. ¹¹Or your faithfulness in Destruction? Is your loving kindness declared in the grave? ¹²Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness? Are your wonders made known in the dark? ¹³In the morning, my prayer comes before you. But to you, Yahweh, I have cried. ¹⁴Why do you hide your face from me? Yahweh, why do you reject my soul? ¹⁵While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted. I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up. ¹⁶Your terrors have cut me off. Your fierce wrath has gone over me. ¹⁷They completely engulfed me. They came around me like water all day long. ¹⁸and my friends into darkness. You have put lover and friend far from me,

89I will sing of the loving kindness of Yahweh forever. With my mouth, I will make known your faithfulness to all generations. ²You established the heavens. Your faithfulness is in them." I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever. ³I have sworn to David, my servant, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one, ⁴and build up your throne to all generations.'" 'I will establish your offspring ^{xxxii} forever, Selah. ⁵your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones. The heavens will praise your wonders, Yahweh; ⁶Who among the sons of the heavenly beings is like Yahweh, For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh? ⁷to be feared above all those who are around him? a very awesome God in the council of the holy ones, ⁸Yah, your faithfulness is around you. Yahweh, God of Armies, who is a mighty one, like you? ⁹When its waves rise up, you calm them. You rule the pride of the sea. ¹⁰You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm. You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain. ¹¹The earth also is yours; the world and its fullness. You have founded them. The heavens are yours. ¹²Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name. The north and the south, you have created them. ¹³Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted. You have a mighty arm. ¹⁴Loving kindness and truth go before your face. 90 Lord, ^{xxxvi} you have been our dwelling place for all generations. ²Before the mountains were born, before you had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God. ³"Return, you children of men." You turn man to destruction, saying, ⁴like a watch in the night. For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past, ⁵In the morning they sprout like new grass. You sweep them away as they sleep. ⁶By evening, it is withered and dry. In the morning it sprouts and springs up. ⁷We are troubled in your wrath. For we are consumed in your anger. ⁸our secret sins in the light of your presence. You have set our iniquities before you, ⁹We bring our years to an end as a sigh. For all our days have passed away in your wrath. ¹⁰or even by reason of strength eighty years; yet their pride is but labor and sorrow, for it passes quickly, and we fly away. The days of our years are seventy, ¹¹your wrath according to the fear that is due to you? Who knows the power of your anger, ¹²that we may gain a heart of wisdom. So teach us to number our days, ¹³How long? Have compassion on your servants! Relent, Yahweh! ^{xxxvii} ¹⁴that we may rejoice and be glad all our days. Satisfy us in the morning with your loving kindness, ¹⁵for as many years as we have seen evil. Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, ¹⁶your glory to their children. guard you in all your ways. For he will put his angels in charge of you, ¹²so that you won't dash your foot against a stone. They will bear you up in their hands, ¹³You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot. You will tread on the lion and cobra. ¹⁴I will set him on high, because he has known my name. "Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him. ¹⁵I will be with him in trouble. I will deliver him, and honor him. He will call on me, and I will answer him. ¹⁶and show him my salvation." I will satisfy him with long life, 92It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh, to sing praises to your name, Most High; ²and your faithfulness every night, to proclaim your loving kindness in the morning, ³and with the melody of the lyre. with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp, ⁴I will triumph in the works of your hands. For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your work. ⁵Your thoughts are very deep. How great are your works, Yahweh! ⁶neither does a fool understand this: A senseless man doesn't know, ⁷and all the evildoers flourish, they will be destroyed forever. though the wicked spring up as the grass, ⁸But you, Yahweh, are on high forever more. ⁹for, behold, your enemies shall perish. All the evildoers will be scattered. For, behold, your enemies, Yahweh, ¹⁰I am anointed with fresh oil. But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox. ¹¹My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me. My eye has also seen my enemies. ¹²He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree. ¹³They will flourish in our God's courts. They are planted in Yahweh's house. ¹⁴They will be full of sap and green, They will still produce fruit in old age. ¹⁵to show that Yahweh is upright. and there is no unrighteousness in him. He is my rock, 93Yahweh reigns! He is clothed with majesty! Yahweh is armed with strength. It can't be moved. The world also is established. ²You are from everlasting. Your throne is established from long ago. ³the floods have lifted up their voice. The floods lift up their waves. The floods have lifted up, Yahweh, ⁴the mighty breakers of the sea, Yahweh on high is mighty. Above the voices of many waters, ⁵Holiness adorns your house, Yahweh, forever more. Your statutes stand firm.

94Yahweh, you God to whom vengeance belongs, you God to whom vengeance belongs, shine out. ²Pay back the proud what they deserve. Rise up, you judge of the earth. ³how long will the wicked triumph? Yahweh, how long will the wicked, ⁴All the evildoers boast. They pour out arrogant words. ⁵and afflict your heritage. They break your people in pieces, Yahweh, ⁶and murder the fatherless. They kill the widow and the alien, ⁷neither will Jacob's God consider." They say, "Yah will not see, ⁸you fools, when will you be wise? Consider, you senseless among the people; ⁹He who formed the eye, won't he see? He who implanted the ear, won't he hear? ¹⁰He who teaches man knows. He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish? ¹¹that they are futile. Yahweh knows the thoughts of man, ¹²and teach out of your law; Blessed is the man whom you discipline, Yah, ¹³until the pit is dug for the wicked. that you may give him rest from the days of adversity, ¹⁴neither will he forsake his inheritance. For Yahweh won't reject his people, ¹⁵All the upright in heart shall follow it. For judgment will return to righteousness. ¹⁶Who will stand up for me against the evildoers? Who will rise up for me against the wicked? ¹⁷my soul would have soon lived in silence. Unless Yahweh had been my help, ¹⁸Your loving kindness, Yahweh, held me up. When I said, "My foot is slipping!" ¹⁹your comforts delight my soul. In the multitude of my thoughts within me, ²⁰which brings about mischief by statute? Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you, ²¹and condemn the innocent blood. They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, ²²my God, the rock of my refuge. But Yahweh has been my high tower, ²³and will cut them off in their own wickedness. Yahweh, our God, will cut them off. He has brought on them their own iniquity, 95Oh come, let's sing to Yahweh. Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation! ²Let's extol him with songs! Let's come before his presence with thanksgiving. ³a great King above all gods. For Yahweh is a great God, ⁴The heights of the mountains are also his. In his hand are the deep places of the earth. ⁵His hands formed the dry land. The sea is his, and he made it. ⁶Let's kneel before Yahweh, our Maker, Oh come, let's worship and bow down. ⁷We are the people of his pasture, and the sheep in his care. for he is our God. Today, oh that you would hear his voice! ⁸Don't harden your heart, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, ⁹tested me, and saw my work. when your fathers tempted me, ¹⁰and said, "It is a people that errs in their heart. They have not known my ways." Forty long years I was grieved with that generation, ¹¹"They won't enter into my rest." Therefore I swore in my wrath, 96Sing to Yahweh a new song! Sing to Yahweh, all the earth. ²Bless his name! Proclaim his salvation from day to day! Sing to Yahweh! ³his marvelous works among all the peoples. Declare his glory among the nations, ⁴He is to be feared above all gods. For great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised! ⁵but Yahweh made the heavens. For all the gods of the peoples are idols, ⁶Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary. Honor and majesty are before him. ⁷ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength. Ascribe to Yahweh, you families of nations, ⁸Bring an offering, and come into his courts. Ascribe to Yahweh the glory due to his name.

⁹Tremble before him, all the earth. Worship Yahweh in holy array. ¹⁰The world is also established. It can't be moved. He will judge the peoples with equity. Say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns." ¹¹Let the sea roar, and its fullness! Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice. ¹²Let the field and all that is in it exult! Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy ¹³before Yahweh; for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. the peoples with his truth. He will judge the world with righteousness, 97Yahweh reigns! Let the earth rejoice! Let the multitude of islands be glad! ²Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne. Clouds and darkness are around him. ³and burns up his adversaries on every side. A fire goes before him, ⁴The earth sees, and trembles. His lightning lights up the world. ⁵at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth. The mountains melt like wax at the presence of Yahweh, ⁶All the peoples have seen his glory. The heavens declare his righteousness. ⁷who boast in their idols. ^{xxxviii} Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images, ⁸The daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of your judgments, Yahweh. Zion heard and was glad. ⁹You are exalted far above all gods. For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth. ¹⁰He preserves the souls of his saints. He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked. You who love Yahweh, hate evil. ¹¹and gladness for the upright in heart. Light is sown for the righteous, ¹²Give thanks to his holy Name. Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous people!

98Sing to Yahweh a new song, for he has done marvelous things! His right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him. ²He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations. Yahweh has made known his salvation. ³All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel. ⁴Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises! Make a joyful noise to Yahweh, all the earth! ⁵with the harp and the voice of melody. Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp, ⁶make a joyful noise before the King, Yahweh. With trumpets and sound of the ram's horn, ⁷the world, and those who dwell therein. Let the sea roar with its fullness; ⁸Let the mountains sing for joy together. Let the rivers clap their hands. ⁹for he comes to judge the earth. and the peoples with equity. Let them sing before Yahweh, He will judge the world with righteousness, 99Yahweh reigns! Let the peoples tremble. He sits enthroned among the cherubim. Let the earth be moved. ²He is high above all the peoples. Yahweh is great in Zion. ³He is Holy! Let them praise your great and awesome name. ⁴You do establish equity. You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob. The King's strength also loves justice. ⁵Worship at his footstool. He is Holy! Exalt Yahweh our God. ⁶Samuel among those who call on his name; they called on Yahweh, and he answered them. Moses and Aaron were among his priests, ⁷They kept his testimonies, the statute that he gave them. He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud. ⁸You are a God who forgave them, although you took vengeance for their doings. You answered them, Yahweh our God. ⁹Worship at his holy hill, for Yahweh, our God, is holy! Exalt Yahweh, our God.

100Shout for joy to Yahweh, all you lands! ²Serve Yahweh with gladness. Come before his presence with singing. ³It is he who has made us, and we are his. We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Know that Yahweh, he is God. ⁴into his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, and bless his name. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, ⁵His loving kindness endures forever, his faithfulness to all generations. For Yahweh is good.

101I will sing of loving kindness and justice. To you, Yahweh, I will sing praises. ²When will you come to me? I will walk within my house with a blameless heart. I will be careful to live a blameless life. ³I hate the deeds of faithless men. They will not cling to me. I will set no vile thing before my eyes. ⁴I will have nothing to do with evil. A perverse heart will be far from me. ⁵I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited. I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor. ⁶that they may dwell with me. he will serve me. My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, He who walks in a perfect way, ⁷He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes. He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house. ⁸to cut off all the workers of iniquity from Yahweh's city. Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land;

102Hear my prayer, Yahweh! Let my cry come to you. ²Turn your ear to me. Answer me quickly in the day when I call. Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress. ³My bones are burned as a torch. For my days consume away like smoke. ⁴for I forget to eat my bread. My heart is blighted like grass, and withered, ⁵my bones stick to my skin. By reason of the voice of my groaning, ⁶I have become as an owl of the waste places. I am like a pelican of the wilderness. ⁷I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop. ⁸Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse. My enemies reproach me all day. ⁹and mixed my drink with tears, For I have eaten ashes like bread, ¹⁰for you have taken me up, and thrown me away. Because of your indignation and your wrath, ¹¹I have withered like grass. My days are like a long shadow. ¹²your renown endures to all generations. But you, Yahweh, will remain forever; ¹³for it is time to have pity on her. Yes, the set time has come. You will arise and have mercy on Zion; ¹⁴and have pity on her dust. For your servants take pleasure in her stones, ¹⁵all the kings of the earth your glory. So the nations will fear Yahweh's name; ¹⁶He has appeared in his glory. For Yahweh has built up Zion. ¹⁷and has not despised their prayer. He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, ¹⁸A people which will be created will praise Yah. This will be written for the generation to come. ¹⁹From heaven, Yahweh saw the earth; For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary. ²⁰to free those who are condemned to death; to hear the groans of the prisoner; ²¹and his praise in Jerusalem; that men may declare Yahweh's name in Zion, ²²the kingdoms, to serve Yahweh. when the peoples are gathered together, ²³He shortened my days. He weakened my strength along the course. ²⁴Your years are throughout all generations. I said, "My God, don't take me away in the middle of my days. ²⁵The heavens are the work of your hands. Of old, you laid the foundation of the earth. ²⁶Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment. You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed. They will perish, but you will endure. ²⁷Your years will have no end. But you are the same. ²⁸^{xxxix} will be established before you." The children of your servants will continue.

103Praise Yahweh, my soul! All that is within me, praise his holy name! ²and don't forget all his benefits; Praise Yahweh, my soul, ³who heals all your diseases; who forgives all your sins; ⁴who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies; who redeems your life from destruction; ⁵so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. who satisfies your desire with good things, ⁶and justice for all who are oppressed. Yahweh executes righteous acts, ⁷his deeds to the children of Israel. He made known his ways to Moses, ⁸slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness. Yahweh is merciful and gracious, ⁹neither will he stay angry forever. He will not always accuse; ¹⁰nor repaid us for our iniquities. He has not dealt with us according to our sins, ¹¹so great is his loving kindness toward those who fear him. For as the heavens are high above the earth, ¹²so far has he removed our transgressions from us. As far as the east is from the west, ¹³so Yahweh has compassion on those who fear him. Like a father has compassion on his children, ¹⁴He remembers that we are dust. For he knows how we are made. ¹⁵As a flower of the field, so he flourishes. As for man, his days are like grass. ¹⁶Its place remembers it no more. For the wind passes over it, and it is gone. ¹⁷his righteousness to children's children; But Yahweh's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear him, ¹⁸to those who remember to obey his precepts. to those who keep his covenant, ¹⁹His kingdom rules over all. Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens. ²⁰who are mighty in strength, who fulfill his word, obeying the voice of his word. Praise Yahweh, you angels of his, ²¹you servants of his, who do his pleasure. Praise Yahweh, all you armies of his, ²²in all places of his dominion. Praise Yahweh, my soul! Praise Yahweh, all you works of his,

104Bless Yahweh, my soul. Yahweh, my God, you are very great. You are clothed with honor and majesty. ²He stretches out the heavens like a curtain. He covers himself with light as with a garment. ³He makes the clouds his chariot. He walks on the wings of the wind. He lays the beams of his rooms in the waters. ⁴his servants flames of fire. He makes his messengers ^{x1} winds; ⁵that it should not be moved forever. He laid the foundations of the earth, ⁶The waters stood above the mountains. You covered it with the deep as with a cloak. ⁷At the voice of your thunder they hurried away. At your rebuke they fled. ⁸the valleys sank down, to the place which you had assigned to them. The mountains rose, ⁹that they don't turn again to cover the earth. You have set a boundary that they may not pass over; ¹⁰They run among the mountains. He sends springs into the valleys. ¹¹The wild donkeys quench their thirst. They give drink to every animal of the field. ¹²They sing among the branches. The birds of the sky nest by them. ¹³The earth is filled with the fruit of your works. He waters the mountains from his rooms. ¹⁴and plants for man to cultivate, that he may produce food out of the earth: He causes the grass to grow for the livestock, ¹⁵oil to make his face to shine, and bread that strengthens man's heart. wine that makes glad the heart of man, ¹⁶the cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted; Yahweh's trees are well watered, ¹⁷The stork makes its home in the cypress trees. where the birds make their nests. ¹⁸The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers. The high mountains are for the wild goats. ¹⁹The sun knows when to set. He appointed the moon for seasons. ²⁰in which all the animals of the forest prowl. You make darkness, and it is night, ²¹and seek their food from God. The young lions roar after their prey, ²²and lay down in their dens. The sun rises, and they steal away, ²³to his labor until the evening. Man goes out to his work, ²⁴In wisdom have you made them all. The earth is full of your riches. Yahweh, how many are your works! ²⁵in which are innumerable living things, both small and large animals. There is the sea, great and wide, ²⁶and leviathan, whom you formed to play there. There the ships go, ²⁷that you may give them their food in due season. These all wait for you, ²⁸You open your hand; they are satisfied with good. You give to them; they gather. ²⁹you take away their breath: they die, and return to the dust. You hide your face: they are troubled; ³⁰You renew the face of the ground. You send out your Spirit and they are created. ³¹Let Yahweh rejoice in his works. Let Yahweh's glory endure forever. ³²He touches the mountains, and they smoke. He looks at the earth, and it trembles. ³³I will sing praise to my God while I have any being. I will sing to Yahweh as long as I live. ³⁴I will rejoice in Yahweh. Let your meditation be sweet to him. ³⁵Let the wicked be no more. Bless Yahweh, my soul. Praise Yah! Let sinners be consumed out of the earth.

105 Give thanks to Yahweh! Call on his name! Make his doings known among the peoples. ²Tell of all his marvelous works. Sing to him, sing praises to him! ³Let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice. Glory in his holy name. ⁴Seek his face forever more. Seek Yahweh and his strength. ⁵his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth, Remember his marvelous works that he has done; ⁶you children of Jacob, his chosen ones. you offspring ^{xli} of Abraham, his servant, ⁷His judgments are in all the earth. He is Yahweh, our God. ⁸the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, He has remembered his covenant forever, ⁹his oath to Isaac, the covenant which he made with Abraham, ¹⁰to Israel for an everlasting covenant, and confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute; ¹¹the lot of your inheritance"; saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan, ¹²yes, very few, and foreigners in it. when they were but a few men in number, ¹³from one kingdom to another people. They went about from nation to nation, ¹⁴Yes, he reprov'd kings for their sakes, He allowed no one to do them wrong. ¹⁵Do my prophets no harm!" "Don't touch my anointed ones! ¹⁶He destroyed the food supplies. He called for a famine on the land. ¹⁷Joseph was sold for a slave. He sent a man before them. ¹⁸His neck was locked in irons, They bruised his feet with shackles. ¹⁹and Yahweh's word proved him true. until the time that his word happened, ²⁰even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free. The king sent and freed him; ²¹and ruler of all of his possessions; He made him lord of his house, ²²and to teach his elders wisdom. to discipline his princes at his pleasure, ²³Jacob lived in the land of Ham. Israel also came into Egypt. ²⁴and made them stronger than their adversaries. He increased his people greatly, ²⁵to conspire against his servants. He turned their heart to hate his people, ²⁶and Aaron, whom he had chosen. He sent Moses, his servant, ²⁷and wonders in the land of Ham. They performed miracles among them, ²⁸They didn't rebel against his words. He sent darkness, and made it dark. ²⁹and killed their fish. He turned their waters into blood, ³⁰even in the rooms of their kings. Their land swarmed with frogs, ³¹and lice in all their borders. He spoke, and swarms of flies came, ³²with lightning in their land. He gave them hail for rain, ³³and shattered the trees of their country. He struck their vines and also their fig trees, ³⁴and the grasshoppers, without number, He spoke, and the locusts came, ³⁵and ate up the fruit of their ground. ate up every plant in their land; ³⁶the first fruits of all their manhood. He struck also all the firstborn in their land, ³⁷There was not one feeble person among his tribes. He brought them out with silver and gold. ³⁸for the fear of them had fallen on them. Egypt was glad when they departed, ³⁹fire to give light in the night. He spread a cloud for a covering, ⁴⁰and satisfied them with the bread of the sky. They asked, and he brought quails, ⁴¹They ran as a river in the dry places. He opened the rock, and waters gushed out. ⁴²and Abraham, his servant. For he remembered his holy word, ⁴³his chosen with singing. He brought his people out with joy, ⁴⁴They took the labor of the peoples in possession, He gave them the lands of the nations. ⁴⁵and observe his laws. Praise Yah! that they might keep his statutes, 106 Praise Yahweh! Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever. ²or fully declare all his praise? Blessed are those who keep justice. ⁴Visit me with your salvation, Remember me, Yahweh, with the favor that you show to your people. ⁵that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, that I may glory with your inheritance. that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, ⁶We have committed iniquity. We have done wickedly. We have sinned with our fathers. ⁷They didn't remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses, but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea. Our fathers didn't understand your wonders in Egypt. ⁸that he might make his mighty power known. Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, ⁹so he led them through the depths, as through a desert. He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up; ¹⁰and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. He saved them from the hand of him who hated them, ¹¹There was not one of them left. The waters covered their adversaries. ¹²They sang his praise. Then they believed his words. ¹³They didn't wait for his counsel, They soon forgot his works. ¹⁴but gave in to craving in the desert, and tested God in the wasteland. ¹⁵but sent leanness into their soul. He gave them their request, ¹⁶and Aaron, Yahweh's saint. They envied Moses also in the camp, ¹⁷and covered the company of Abiram. The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, ¹⁸The flame burned up the wicked. A fire was kindled in their company. ¹⁹and worshiped a molten image. They made a calf in Horeb, ²⁰for an image of a bull that eats grass. Thus they exchanged their glory ²¹who had done great things in Egypt, They forgot God, their Savior, ²²Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and awesome things by the Red Sea. ²³had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them. Therefore he said that he would destroy them, ²⁴They didn't believe his word, Yes, they despised the pleasant land. ²⁵but murmured in their tents, and didn't listen to Yahweh's voice. ²⁶that he would overthrow them in the wilderness, Therefore he

They joined themselves also to Baal Peor,²⁹ The plague broke in on them. Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds.³⁰ so the plague was stopped. Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment,³¹ for all generations to come. That was credited to him for righteousness,³² so that Moses was troubled for their sakes; They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,³³ he spoke rashly with his lips. because they were rebellious against his spirit,³⁴ as Yahweh commanded them, They didn't destroy the peoples,³⁵ but mixed themselves with the nations, and learned their works.³⁶ which became a snare to them. They served their idols,³⁷ Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.³⁸ They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan. The land was polluted with blood.³⁹ and prostituted themselves in their deeds. Thus were they defiled with their works,⁴⁰ He abhorred his inheritance. Therefore Yahweh burned with anger against his people.⁴¹ Those who hated them ruled over them. He gave them into the hand of the nations.⁴² They were brought into subjection under their hand. Their enemies also oppressed them.⁴³ but they were rebellious in their counsel, and were brought low in their iniquity. Many times he delivered them,⁴⁴ when he heard their cry. Nevertheless he regarded their distress,⁴⁵ and repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses. He remembered for them his covenant,⁴⁶ by all those who carried them captive. He made them also to be pitied⁴⁷ gather us from among the nations, to give thanks to your holy name, to triumph in your praise! Save us, Yahweh, our God,⁴⁸ from everlasting even to everlasting! 116 I love Yahweh, because he listens to my voice, and my cries for mercy. ²therefore I will call on him as long as I live. Because he has turned his ear to me, ³^{xlix} got a hold of me. I found trouble and sorrow. The cords of death surrounded me, ⁴"Yahweh, I beg you, deliver my soul." Then I called on Yahweh's name: ⁵Yes, our God is merciful. Yahweh is Gracious and righteous. ⁶I was brought low, and he saved me. Yahweh preserves the simple. ⁷for Yahweh has dealt bountifully with you. Return to your rest, my soul, ⁸my eyes from tears, and my feet from falling. For you have delivered my soul from death, ⁹I will walk before Yahweh in the land of the living. ¹⁰"I was greatly afflicted." I believed, therefore I said, ¹¹"All men are liars." I said in my haste, ¹²What will I give to Yahweh for all his benefits toward me? ¹³I will take the cup of salvation, and call on Yahweh's name. ¹⁴yes, in the presence of all his people. I will pay my vows to Yahweh, ¹⁵Precious in Yahweh's sight is the death of his saints. ¹⁶I am your servant, the son of your servant. You have freed me from my chains. Yahweh, truly I am your servant. ¹⁷and will call on Yahweh's name. I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving, ¹⁸yes, in the presence of all his people, I will pay my vows to Yahweh, ¹⁹in the middle of you, Jerusalem. in the courts of Yahweh's house, Praise Yah!

in man. It is better to take refuge in Yahweh,⁹ than to put confidence in princes. It is better to take refuge in Yahweh,¹⁰ but in Yahweh's name, I cut them off. All the nations surrounded me,¹¹ In Yahweh's name I indeed cut them off. They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded me.¹² They are quenched like the burning thorns. In Yahweh's name I cut them off. They surrounded me like bees.¹³ but Yahweh helped me. You pushed me back hard, to make me fall,¹⁴ He has become my salvation. Yah is my strength and song.¹⁵ "The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly. The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous.¹⁶ The right hand of Yahweh does valiantly!" The right hand of Yahweh is exalted!¹⁷ and declare Yah's works. I will not die, but live,¹⁸ but he has not given me over to death. Yah has punished me severely,¹⁹ I will enter into them. I will give thanks to Yah. Open to me the gates of righteousness.²⁰ the righteous will enter into it. This is the gate of Yahweh;²¹ and have become my salvation. I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me,²² The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner.²³ It is marvelous in our eyes. This is Yahweh's doing.²⁴ We will rejoice and be glad in it! This is the day that Yahweh has made.²⁵ Yahweh, we beg you, send prosperity now. Save us now, we beg you, Yahweh!²⁶ We have blessed you out of Yahweh's house. Blessed is he who comes in Yahweh's name!²⁷ Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar. Yahweh is God, and he has given us light.²⁸ You are my God, I will exalt you. You are my God, and I will give thanks to you.²⁹ for his loving kindness endures forever. Oh give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good, 119 Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to Yahweh's law.² who seek him with their whole heart. Blessed are those who keep his statutes,³ They walk in his ways. Yes, they do nothing wrong.⁴ that we should fully obey them. You have commanded your precepts,⁵ to obey your statutes! Oh that my ways were steadfast⁶ when I consider all of your commandments. Then I wouldn't be disappointed,⁷ when I learn your righteous judgments. I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart,⁸ Don't utterly forsake me. I will observe your statutes.⁹ By living according to your word. How can a young man keep his way pure?¹⁰ Don't let me wander from your commandments. With my whole heart, I have sought you.¹¹ that I might not sin against you. I have hidden your word in my heart,¹² Teach me your statutes. Blessed are you, Yahweh.¹³ I have declared all the ordinances of your mouth. With my lips,¹⁴ as much as in all riches. I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,¹⁵ and consider your ways. I will meditate on your precepts,¹⁶ I will not forget your word. I will delight myself in your statutes.¹⁷ I will live and I will obey your word. Do good to your servant.¹⁸ that I may see wondrous things out of your law.

Open my eyes,¹⁹ Don't hide your commandments from me. I am a stranger on the earth.²⁰ My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.²¹ who wander from your commandments. You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,²² for I have kept your statutes. Take reproach and contempt away from me,²³ your servant will meditate on your statutes. Though princes sit and slander me,²⁴ and my counselors. Indeed your statutes are my delight,²⁵ Revive me according to your word! My soul is laid low in the dust.²⁶ Teach me your statutes. I declared my ways, and you answered me.²⁷ Then I will meditate on your wondrous works. Let me understand the teaching of your precepts!²⁸ strengthen me according to your word. My soul is weary with sorrow:²⁹ Grant me your law graciously! Keep me from the way of deceit.³⁰ I have set your ordinances before me. I have chosen the way of truth.³¹ Don't let me be disappointed. I cling to your statutes, Yahweh.³² for you have set my heart free. I run in the path of your commandments,³³ I will keep them to the end. Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your statutes.³⁴ Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart. Give me understanding, and I will keep your law.³⁵ for I delight in them. Direct me in the path of your commandments,³⁶ not toward selfish gain. Turn my heart toward your statutes,³⁷ Revive me in your ways. Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.³⁸ that you may be feared. Fulfill your promise to your servant,³⁹ for your ordinances are good. Take away my disgrace that I dread,⁴⁰ Revive me in your righteousness. Behold, I long for your precepts!⁴¹ your salvation, according to your word. Let your loving kindness also come to me, Yahweh,⁴² for I trust in your word. So I will have an answer for him who reproaches me,⁴³ for I put my hope in your ordinances. Don't snatch the word of truth out of my mouth,⁴⁴ forever and ever. So I will obey your law continually,⁴⁵ for I have sought your precepts. I will walk in liberty,⁴⁶ and will not be disappointed. I will also speak of your statutes before kings,⁴⁷ because I love them. I will delight myself in your commandments,⁴⁸ I will meditate on your statutes. I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love.⁴⁹ because you gave me hope. Remember your word to your servant,⁵⁰ for your word has revived me. This is my comfort in my affliction,⁵¹ but I don't swerve from your law. The arrogant mock me excessively,⁵² and have comforted myself. I remember your ordinances of old, Yahweh,⁵³ because of the wicked who forsake your law. Indignation has taken hold on me,⁵⁴ in the house where I live. Your statutes have been my songs,⁵⁵ and I obey your law. I have remembered your name, Yahweh, in the night,⁵⁶ that I keep your precepts. This is my way,⁵⁷ I promised to obey your words. Yahweh is my portion.⁵⁸ Be merciful to me according to your word. I sought your favor with my whole heart.⁵⁹ and turned my steps to your statutes. I considered my ways,⁶⁰ to obey your commandments. I will hurry, and not delay,⁶¹ but

I won't forget your law. The ropes of the wicked bind me, ⁶²because of your righteous ordinances. At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you, ⁶³of those who observe your precepts. I am a friend of all those who fear you, ⁶⁴Teach me your statutes. The earth is full of your loving kindness, Yahweh. ⁶⁵according to your word, Yahweh. Do good to your servant, ⁶⁶for I believe in your commandments. Teach me good judgment and knowledge, ⁶⁷but now I observe your word. Before I was afflicted, I went astray; ⁶⁸Teach me your statutes. You are good, and do good. ⁶⁹With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts. The proud have smeared a lie upon me. ⁷⁰but I delight in your law. Their heart is as callous as the fat, ⁷¹that I may learn your statutes. It is good for me that I have been afflicted, ⁷²The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver. ⁷³Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments. Your hands have made me and formed me. ⁷⁴because I have put my hope in your word. Those who fear you will see me and be glad, ⁷⁵that in faithfulness you have afflicted me. Yahweh, I know that your judgments are righteous, ⁷⁶according to your word to your servant. Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort, ⁷⁷for your law is my delight. Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live; ⁷⁸I will meditate on your precepts. Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully. ⁷⁹They will know your statutes. Let those who fear you turn to me. ⁸⁰that I may not be disappointed. Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees, ⁸¹I hope in your word. My soul faints for your salvation. ⁸²I say, "When will you comfort me?" My eyes fail for your word. ⁸³I don't forget your statutes. For I have become like a wine-skin in the smoke. ⁸⁴When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me? How many are the days of your servant? ⁸⁵contrary to your law. The proud have dug pits for me, ⁸⁶They persecute me wrongfully. Help me! All of your commandments are faithful. ⁸⁷but I didn't forsake your precepts. They had almost wiped me from the earth, ⁸⁸so I will obey the statutes of your mouth. Preserve my life according to your loving kindness, ⁸⁹Yahweh, your word is settled in heaven forever. ⁹⁰You have established the earth, and it remains. Your faithfulness is to all generations. ⁹¹for all things serve you. Your laws remain to this day, ⁹²I would have perished in my affliction. Unless your law had been my delight, ⁹³for with them, you have revived me. I will never forget your precepts, ⁹⁴Save me, for I have sought your precepts. I am yours. ⁹⁵I will consider your statutes. The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me. ⁹⁶but your commands are boundless. I have seen a limit to all perfection, ⁹⁷It is my meditation all day. How I love your law! ⁹⁸for your commandments are always with me. Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, ⁹⁹for your testimonies are my meditation. I have more understanding than all my teachers, ¹⁰⁰because

I have kept your precepts. I understand more than the aged, ¹⁰¹that I might observe your word. I have kept my feet from every evil way, ¹⁰²for you have taught me. I have not turned aside from your ordinances, ¹⁰³more than honey to my mouth! How sweet are your promises to my taste, ¹⁰⁴therefore I hate every false way. Through your precepts, I get understanding; ¹⁰⁵and a light for my path. Your word is a lamp to my feet, ¹⁰⁶that I will obey your righteous ordinances. I have sworn, and have confirmed it, ¹⁰⁷Revive me, Yahweh, according to your word. I am afflicted very much. ¹⁰⁸Yahweh, teach me your ordinances. Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth. ¹⁰⁹yet I won't forget your law. My soul is continually in my hand, ¹¹⁰yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts. The wicked have laid a snare for me, ¹¹¹for they are the joy of my heart. I have taken your testimonies as a heritage forever, ¹¹²even to the end. I have set my heart to perform your statutes forever, ¹¹³but I love your law. I hate double-minded men, ¹¹⁴I hope in your word. You are my hiding place and my shield. ¹¹⁵that I may keep the commandments of my God. Depart from me, you evildoers, ¹¹⁶Let me not be ashamed of my hope. Uphold me according to your word, that I may live. ¹¹⁷and will have respect for your statutes continually. Hold me up, and I will be safe, ¹¹⁸for their deceit is in vain. You reject all those who stray from your statutes, ¹¹⁹Therefore I love your testimonies. You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross. ¹²⁰I am afraid of your judgments. My flesh trembles for fear of you. ¹²¹Don't leave me to my oppressors. I have done what is just and righteous. ¹²²Don't let the proud oppress me. Ensure your servant's well-being. ¹²³for your righteous word. My eyes fail looking for your salvation, ¹²⁴Teach me your statutes. Deal with your servant according to your loving kindness. ¹²⁵that I may know your testimonies. I am your servant. Give me understanding, ¹²⁶for they break your law. It is time to act, Yahweh, ¹²⁷yes, more than pure gold. Therefore I love your commandments more than gold, ¹²⁸I hate every false way. Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right. ¹²⁹therefore my soul keeps them. Your testimonies are wonderful, ¹³⁰It gives understanding to the simple. The entrance of your words gives light. ¹³¹for I longed for your commandments. I opened my mouth wide and panted, ¹³²as you always do to those who love your name. Turn to me, and have mercy on me, ¹³³Don't let any iniquity have dominion over me. Establish my footsteps in your word. ¹³⁴so I will observe your precepts. Redeem me from the oppression of man, ¹³⁵Teach me your statutes. Make your face shine on your servant. ¹³⁶because they don't observe your law. Streams of tears run down my eyes, ¹³⁷Your judgments are upright. You are righteous, Yahweh. ¹³⁸They are fully trustworthy. You have commanded your statutes in righteousness. ¹³⁹because my enemies ignore your words. My zeal wears me out, ¹⁴⁰and your servant loves them. Your promises have been thoroughly tested, ¹⁴¹I don't forget your precepts. I am small and despised. ¹⁴²Your law is truth. Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness. ¹⁴³Your commandments are my delight. Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me. ¹⁴⁴Give me understanding, that I may live. Your testimonies are righteous forever. ¹⁴⁵Answer me, Yahweh! I will keep your statutes. I have called with my whole heart. ¹⁴⁶I will obey your statutes. I have called to you. Save me! ¹⁴⁷I put my hope in your words. I rise before dawn and cry for help. ¹⁴⁸that I might meditate on your word. My eyes stay open through the night watches, ¹⁴⁹Revive me, Yahweh, according to your ordinances. Hear my voice according to your loving kindness. ¹⁵⁰They are far from your law. They draw near who follow after wickedness. ¹⁵¹All your commandments are truth. You are near, Yahweh. ¹⁵²that you have founded them forever. Of old I have known from your testimonies, ¹⁵³for I don't forget your law. Consider my affliction, and deliver me, ¹⁵⁴Revive me according to your promise. Plead my cause, and redeem me! ¹⁵⁵for they don't seek your statutes. Salvation is far from the wicked, ¹⁵⁶Revive me according to your ordinances. Great are your tender mercies, Yahweh. ¹⁵⁷I haven't swerved from your testimonies. Many are my persecutors and my adversaries. ¹⁵⁸because they don't observe your word. I look at the faithless with loathing, ¹⁵⁹Revive me, Yahweh, according to your loving kindness. Consider how I love your precepts. ¹⁶⁰Every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever. All of your words are truth. ¹⁶¹but my heart stands in awe of your words. Princes have persecuted me without a cause, ¹⁶²as one who finds great plunder. I rejoice at your word, ¹⁶³I love your law. I hate and abhor falsehood. ¹⁶⁴because of your righteous ordinances. Seven times a day, I praise you, ¹⁶⁵Nothing causes them to stumble. Those who love your law have great peace. ¹⁶⁶I have done your commandments. I have hoped for your salvation, Yahweh. ¹⁶⁷I love them exceedingly. My soul has observed your testimonies. ¹⁶⁸for all my ways are before you. I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies, ¹⁶⁹Give me understanding according to your word. Let my cry come before you, Yahweh. ¹⁷⁰Deliver me according to your word. Let my supplication come before you. ¹⁷¹for you teach me your statutes. Let my lips utter praise, ¹⁷²for all your commandments are righteousness. Let my tongue sing of your word, ¹⁷³for I have chosen your precepts. Let your hand be ready to help me, ¹⁷⁴Your law is my delight. I have longed for your salvation, Yahweh. ¹⁷⁵Let your ordinances help me. Let my soul live, that I may praise you. ¹⁷⁶Seek your servant, for I don't forget your commandments. I have gone astray like a lost sheep.

120In my distress, I cried to Yahweh. He answered me. ²from a deceitful tongue. Deliver my soul, Yahweh, from lying lips, ³you deceitful tongue? What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you, ⁴with coals of juniper. Sharp arrows of the mighty, ⁵that I dwell among the tents of Kedar! Woe is me, that I live in Meshech, ⁶with him who hates peace. My soul has had her dwelling too long ⁷but when I speak, they are for war. I am for peace, 121I will lift up my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from? ²who made heaven and earth. My help comes from Yahweh, ³He who keeps you will not slumber. He will not allow your foot to be moved. ⁴will neither slumber nor sleep. Behold, he who keeps Israel ⁵Yahweh is your shade on your right hand. Yahweh is your keeper. ⁶nor the moon by night. The sun will not harm you by day, ⁷He will keep your soul. Yahweh will keep you from all evil. ⁸from this time forward, and forever more. Yahweh will keep your going out and your coming in,

122I was glad when they said to me, "Let's go to Yahweh's house!" ²Our feet are standing within your gates, Jerusalem; ³Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact together; ⁴according to an ordinance for Israel, to give thanks to Yahweh's name. where the tribes go up, even Yah's tribes, ⁵the thrones of David's house. For there are set thrones for judgment, ⁶Those who love you will prosper. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem. ⁷and prosperity within your palaces. Peace be within your walls, ⁸I will now say, "Peace be within you." For my brothers' and companions' sakes, ⁹I will seek your good. For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God, 123To you I do lift up my eyes, you who sit in the heavens. ²as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes look to Yahweh, our God, until he has mercy on us. Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, ³for we have endured much contempt. Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us, ⁴with the contempt of the proud. Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease,

124If it had not been Yahweh who was on our side, let Israel now say, ²when men rose up against us; if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side, ³when their wrath was kindled against us; then they would have swallowed us up alive, ⁴the stream would have gone over our soul; then the waters would have overwhelmed us, ⁵then the proud waters would have gone over our soul. ⁶who has not given us as a prey to their teeth. Blessed be Yahweh, ⁷The snare is broken, and we have escaped. Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare. ⁸who made heaven and earth. Our help is in Yahweh's name, more. As the mountains surround Jerusalem, ³so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil. For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous; ⁴to those who are upright in their hearts. Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good, ⁵Yahweh will lead them away with the workers of iniquity. But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, Peace be on Israel.

126When Yahweh brought back those who returned to Zion, we were like those who dream. ²and our tongue with singing. "Yahweh has done great things for them." Then our mouth was filled with laughter, Then they said among the nations, ³and we are glad. Yahweh has done great things for us, ⁴like the streams in the Negev. Restore our fortunes again, Yahweh, ⁵Those who sow in tears will reap in joy. ⁶He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing, will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

128Blessed is everyone who fears Yahweh, who walks in his ways. ²You will be happy, and it will be well with you. For you will eat the labor of your hands. ³in the innermost parts of your house; your children like olive plants, around your table. Your wife will be as a fruitful vine, ⁴Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears Yahweh. ⁵May Yahweh bless you out of Zion, and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life. ⁶Peace be upon Israel. Yes, may you see your children's children.

129Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up. Let Israel now say, ²yet they have not prevailed against me. many times they have afflicted me from my youth up, ³They made their furrows long. The plowers plowed on my back. ⁴He has cut apart the cords of the wicked. Yahweh is righteous. ⁵all those who hate Zion. Let them be disappointed and turned backward, ⁶which withers before it grows up; Let them be as the grass on the housetops, ⁷nor he who binds sheaves, his bosom. with which the reaper doesn't fill his hand, ⁸"The blessing of Yahweh be on you. We bless you in Yahweh's name." Neither do those who go by say, 130Out of the depths I have cried to you, Yahweh. ²Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.

Lord, hear my voice. ³Lord, who could stand? If you, Yah, kept a record of sins, ⁴therefore you are feared. But there is forgiveness with you, ⁵My soul waits. I hope in his word. I wait for Yahweh. ⁶more than watchmen for the morning. My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long for the morning; ⁷for with Yahweh there is loving kindness. With him is abundant redemption. Israel, hope in Yahweh, ⁸He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

131Yahweh, my heart isn't haughty, nor my eyes lofty; nor do I concern myself with great matters, or things too wonderful for me. ²like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me. Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, ³from this time forward and forever more. Israel, hope in Yahweh, 132Yahweh, remember David and all his affliction, ²and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob: how he swore to Yahweh, ³nor go up into my bed; "Surely I will not come into the structure of my house, ⁴or slumber to my eyelids; I will not give sleep to my eyes, ⁵a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob." until I find out a place for Yahweh, ⁶We found it in the field of Jaar: Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah. ⁷We will worship at his footstool. "We will go into his dwelling place. ⁸you, and the ark of your strength. Arise, Yahweh, into your resting place; ⁹Let your saints shout for joy!" Let your priest be clothed with righteousness. ¹⁰don't turn away the face of your anointed one. For your servant David's sake, ¹¹He will not turn from it: "I will set the fruit of your body on your throne. Yahweh has sworn to David in truth. ¹²my testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forever more." If your children will keep my covenant, ¹³He has desired it for his habitation. For Yahweh has chosen Zion. ¹⁴Here I will live, for I have desired it. "This is my resting place forever. ¹⁵I will satisfy her poor with bread. I will abundantly bless her provision. ¹⁶Her saints will shout aloud for joy. Her priests I will also clothe with salvation. ¹⁷I have ordained a lamp for my anointed. There I will make the horn of David to bud. ¹⁸but on himself, his crown will be resplendent." I will clothe his enemies with shame,

133See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity! ²that ran down on the beard, even Aaron's beard; that came down on the edge of his robes; It is like the precious oil on the head, ³that comes down on the hills of Zion: for there Yahweh gives the blessing, even life forever more. like the dew of Hermon,

134Look! Praise Yahweh, all you servants of Yahweh, who stand by night in Yahweh's house! ²Praise Yahweh! Lift up your hands in the sanctuary. ³even he who made heaven and earth. May Yahweh bless you from Zion;

135Praise Yah! Praise Yahweh's name! Praise him, you servants of Yahweh, ²in the courts of our God's house. you who stand in Yahweh's house, ³Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant. Praise Yah, for Yahweh is good. ⁴Israel for his own possession. For Yah has chosen Jacob for himself; ⁵that our Lord is above all gods. For I know that Yahweh is great, ⁶in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps; Whatever Yahweh pleased, that he has done, ⁷who makes lightnings with the rain; who brings the wind out of his treasuries; who causes the clouds to rise from the ends of the earth; ⁸both of man and animal; Who struck the firstborn of Egypt, ⁹on Pharaoh, and on all his servants; Who sent signs and wonders into the middle of you, Egypt, ¹⁰and killed mighty kings, who struck many nations, ¹¹Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan, Sihon king of the Amorites, ¹²a heritage to Israel, his people. and gave their land for a heritage, ¹³your renown, Yahweh, throughout all generations. Your name, Yahweh, endures forever; ¹⁴and have compassion on his servants. For Yahweh will judge his people, ¹⁵the work of men's hands. The idols of the nations are silver and gold, ¹⁶They have eyes, but they can't see. They have mouths, but they can't speak. ¹⁷neither is there any breath in their mouths. They have ears, but they can't hear; ¹⁸yes, everyone who trusts in them. Those who make them will be like them; ¹⁹House of Aaron, praise Yahweh! House of Israel, praise Yahweh! ²⁰You who fear Yahweh, praise Yahweh! House of Levi, praise Yahweh! ²¹Who dwells at Jerusalem. Blessed be Yahweh from Zion, Praise Yah!

136Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good; for his loving kindness endures forever. ²for his loving kindness endures forever. Give thanks to the God of gods; ³for his loving kindness endures forever: Give thanks to the Lord of lords; ⁴for his loving kindness endures forever: To him who alone does great wonders; ⁵for his loving kindness endures forever: To him who by understanding made the heavens; ⁶for his loving kindness endures forever: To him who spread out the earth above the waters; ⁷for his loving kindness endures forever: To him who made the great lights; ⁸for his loving kindness endures forever; The sun to rule by day; ⁹for his loving kindness endures forever: The moon and stars to rule by night; ¹⁰for his loving kindness endures forever; To him who struck down the Egyptian firstborn; ¹¹for his loving kindness endures forever; And brought out Israel from among them; ¹²for his loving kindness endures forever: With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm; ¹³for his loving kindness endures forever; To him who divided the Red Sea apart; ¹⁴for his loving kindness endures forever; And made Israel to pass through the middle of it; ¹⁵for his loving kindness endures forever: But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Red Sea; ¹⁶for his loving kindness endures forever: To him who led his people through the wilderness; ¹⁷for his loving kindness endures forever; To him who struck great kings; ¹⁸for his loving kindness endures forever: And killed mighty kings; ¹⁹for his loving kindness endures forever; Sihon king of the Amorites; ²⁰for his loving kindness endures forever; Og king of Bashan; ²¹for his loving kindness endures forever; And gave their land as an inheritance; ²²for his loving kindness endures forever: Even a heritage to Israel his servant; ²³for his loving kindness endures forever; Who remembered us in our low estate; ²⁴for his loving kindness endures forever: And has delivered us from our adversaries; ²⁵for his loving kindness endures forever. Who gives food to every creature; ²⁶for his loving kindness endures forever. Oh give thanks to the God of heaven;

137By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down. Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion. ²we hung up our harps. On the willows in that land, ³Those who tormented us demanded songs of joy: "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!" For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs. ⁴How can we sing Yahweh's song in a foreign land? ⁵let my right hand forget its skill. If I forget you, Jerusalem, ⁶if I don't prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy. Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I don't remember you; ⁷the day of Jerusalem; who said, "Raze it! Raze it even to its foundation!" Remember, Yahweh, against the children of Edom, ⁸he will be happy who rewards you, as you have served us. Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, ⁹who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock. Happy shall he be,

138I will give you thanks with my whole heart. ¹ I will sing praises to you. ²and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth; for you have exalted your Name and your Word above all. I will bow down toward your holy temple, ³You encouraged me with strength in my soul. In the day that I called, you answered me. ⁴for they have heard the words of your mouth. All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh, ⁵for great is Yahweh's glory. Yes, they will sing of the ways of Yahweh; ⁶but the proud, he knows from afar. For though Yahweh is high, yet he looks after the lowly; ⁷You will stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies. Your right hand will save me. Though I walk in the middle of trouble, you will revive me. ⁸your loving kindness, Yahweh, endures forever. Don't forsake the works of your own hands. Yahweh will fulfill that which concerns me;

139Yahweh, you have searched me, and you know me. ²You perceive my thoughts from afar. You know my sitting down and my rising up. ³and are acquainted with all my ways. You search out my path and my lying down, ⁴but, behold, Yahweh, you know it altogether. For there is not

Our oxen will pull heavy loads. ¹⁵Happy are the people whose God is Yahweh. Happy are the people who are in such a situation.

145 I will exalt you, my God, the King. I will praise your name forever and ever. ²I will extol your name forever and ever. Every day I will praise you. ³His greatness is unsearchable. Great is Yahweh, and greatly to be praised! ⁴and will declare your mighty acts. One generation will commend your works to another, ⁵of your wondrous works, I will meditate. Of the glorious majesty of your honor, ⁶I will declare your greatness. Men will speak of the might of your awesome acts. ⁷and will sing of your righteousness. They will utter the memory of your great goodness, ⁸slow to anger, and of great loving kindness. Yahweh is gracious, merciful, ⁹His tender mercies are over all his works. Yahweh is good to all. ¹⁰Your saints will extol you. All your works will give thanks to you, Yahweh. ¹¹and talk about your power; They will speak of the glory of your kingdom, ¹²the glory of the majesty of his kingdom. to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, ¹³Your dominion endures throughout all generations. ^{liii} Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. Yahweh is faithful in all his words, ¹⁴and raises up all those who are bowed down. Yahweh upholds all who fall, ¹⁵You give them their food in due season. The eyes of all wait for you. ¹⁶and satisfy the desire of every living thing. You open your hand, ¹⁷and gracious in all his works. Yahweh is righteous in all his ways, ¹⁸to all who call on him in truth. Yahweh is near to all those who call on him, ¹⁹He also will hear their cry, and will save them. He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him. ²⁰but all the wicked he will destroy. Yahweh preserves all those who love him, ²¹Let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever. Proverbs

1The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel: ²to discern the words of understanding; to know wisdom and instruction; ³in righteousness, justice, and equity; to receive instruction in wise dealing, ⁴knowledge and discretion to the young man: to give prudence to the simple, ⁵that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsel: that the wise man may hear, and increase in learning; ⁶the words and riddles of the wise. to understand a proverb, and parables, ⁷but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction. The fear of Yahweh ⁱ is the beginning of knowledge; ⁸and don't forsake your mother's teaching: My son, listen to your father's instruction, ⁹and chains around your neck. for they will be a garland to grace your head, ¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you, don't consent. ¹¹Let's lay in wait for blood; let's lurk secretly for the innocent without cause; If they say, "Come with us, ¹²and whole, like those who go down into the pit. let's swallow them up alive like Sheol, ⁱⁱ ¹³We'll fill our houses with plunder. We'll find all valuable wealth. ¹⁴We'll all have one purse." You shall cast your lot among us. ¹⁵Keep your foot from their path, My son, don't walk on the path with them. ¹⁶They hurry to shed blood. for their feet run to evil. ¹⁷For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird: ¹⁸They lurk secretly for their own lives. but these lay wait for their own blood. ¹⁹It takes away the life of its owners. So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain. ²⁰She utters her voice in the public squares. Wisdom calls aloud in the street. ²¹At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her words: She calls at the head of noisy places. ²²How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery, and fools hate knowledge? "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? ²³ⁱⁱⁱ I will pour out my spirit on you. I will make known my words to you. Turn at my reproof. ²⁴I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention; Because I have called, and you have refused; ²⁵and wanted none of my reproof; but you have ignored all my counsel, ²⁶I will mock when calamity overtakes you; I also will laugh at your disaster. ²⁷when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind;

Don't enter into the path of the wicked. ¹⁵Turn from it, and pass on. Avoid it, and don't pass by it. ¹⁶Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall. For they don't sleep, unless they do evil. ¹⁷and drink the wine of violence. For they eat the bread of wickedness, ¹⁸that shines more and more until the perfect day. But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light, ¹⁹They don't know what they stumble over. The way of the wicked is like darkness. ²⁰Turn your ear to my sayings. My son, attend to my words. ²¹Keep them in the center of your heart. Let them not depart from your eyes. ²²and health to their whole body. For they are life to those who find them, ²³for out of it is the wellspring of life. Keep your heart with all diligence, ²⁴Put corrupt lips far from you. Put away from yourself a perverse mouth. ²⁵Fix your gaze directly before you. Let your eyes look straight ahead. ²⁶Let all of your ways be established. Make the path of your feet level. ²⁷Remove your foot from evil. Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left.

5My son, pay attention to my wisdom. Turn your ear to my understanding: ²that your lips may preserve knowledge. that you may maintain discretion, ³Her mouth is smoother than oil, For the lips of an adulteress drip honey. ⁴and as sharp as a two-edged sword. But in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, ⁵ Her feet go down to death. ⁶Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it. She gives no thought to the way of life. ⁷Don't depart from the words of my mouth. Now therefore, my sons, listen to me. ⁸Don't come near the door of her house, Remove your way far from her. ⁹and your years to the cruel one; lest you give your honor to others, ¹⁰and your labors enrich another man's house. lest strangers feast on your wealth, ¹¹when your flesh and your body are consumed, You will groan at your latter end, ¹²and my heart despised reproof; and say, “How I have hated instruction, ¹³nor turned my ear to those who instructed me! neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, ¹⁴among the gathered assembly.” I have come to the brink of utter ruin, ¹⁵running water out of your own well. Drink water out of your own cistern, ¹⁶streams of water in the public squares? Should your springs overflow in the streets, ¹⁷not for strangers with you. Let them be for yourself alone, ¹⁸Rejoice in the wife of your youth. Let your spring be blessed. ¹⁹let her breasts satisfy you at all times. Be captivated always with her love. A loving doe and a graceful deer— ²⁰Why embrace the bosom of another? For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress? ²¹He examines all his paths. For the ways of man are before Yahweh’s eyes. ²²The cords of his sin hold him firmly. The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him. ²³In the greatness of his folly, he will go astray. He will die for lack of instruction.

6My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor, if you have struck your hands in pledge for a stranger; ²You are ensnared with the words of your mouth. You are trapped by the words of your mouth. ³since you have come into the hand of your neighbor. Press your plea with your neighbor. Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, Go, humble yourself. ⁴nor slumber to your eyelids. Give no sleep to your eyes, ⁵like a bird from the snare of the fowler. Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter, ⁶Consider her ways, and be wise; Go to the ant, you sluggard. ⁷which having no chief, overseer, or ruler, ⁸provides her bread in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest. ⁹When will you arise out of your sleep? How long will you sleep, sluggard? ¹⁰a little folding of the hands to sleep: A little sleep, a little slumber, ¹¹and your scarcity as an armed man. so your poverty will come as a robber, ¹²is he who walks with a perverse mouth; A worthless person, a man of iniquity, ¹³who motions with his fingers; who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet, ¹⁴who devises evil continually, who always sows discord. in whose heart is perverseness, ¹⁵He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy. Therefore his calamity will come suddenly. ¹⁶yes, seven which are an abomination to him: There are six things which Yahweh hates; ¹⁷hands that shed innocent blood; haughty eyes, a lying tongue, ¹⁸feet that are swift in running to mischief, a heart that devises wicked schemes, ¹⁹and he who sows discord among brothers. a false witness who utters lies, ²⁰and don’t forsake your mother’s teaching. My son, keep your father’s commandment, ²¹Tie them around your neck. Bind them continually on your heart. ²²When you sleep, it will watch over you. When you awake, it will talk with you. When you walk, it will lead you. ²³and the law is light. Reproofs of instruction are the way of life, For the commandment is a lamp, ²⁴from the flattery of the wayward wife’s tongue. to keep you from the immoral woman, ²⁵neither let her captivate you with her eyelids. Don’t lust after her beauty in your heart, ²⁶The adulteress hunts for your precious life. For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread. ²⁷and his clothes not be burned? Can a man scoop fire into his lap, ²⁸and his feet not be scorched? Or can one walk on hot coals, ²⁹Whoever touches her will not be unpunished. So is he who goes in to his neighbor’s wife. ³⁰if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry: Men don’t despise a thief, ³¹He shall give all the wealth of his house. but if he is found, he shall restore seven times. ³²He who does it destroys his own soul. He who commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding. ³³His reproach will not be wiped away. He will get wounds and dishonor. ³⁴He won’t spare in the day of vengeance. For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband. ³⁵neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts. He won’t regard any ransom, 7My son, keep my words. Lay up my commandments within you. ²Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye. Keep my commandments and live! ³Write them on the tablet of your heart. Bind them on your fingers. ⁴Call understanding your relative, Tell wisdom, “You are my sister.” ⁵from the foreigner who flatters with her words. that they may keep you from the strange woman, ⁶I looked out through my lattice. For at the window of my house, ⁷I discerned among the youths a young man void of understanding, I saw among the simple ones. ⁸he went the way to her house, passing through the street near her corner, ⁹in the middle of the night and in the darkness. in the twilight, in the evening of the day, ¹⁰and with crafty intent. Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute, ¹¹Her feet don’t stay in her house. She is loud and defiant. ¹²and lurking at every corner. Now she is in the streets, now in the squares, ¹³With an impudent face she said to him: So she caught him, and kissed him. ¹⁴Today I have paid my vows. “Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me. ¹⁵to diligently seek your face, and I have found you. Therefore I came out to meet you, ¹⁶with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt. I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, ¹⁷I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. ¹⁸Let’s solace ourselves with loving. Come, let’s take our fill of loving until the morning. ¹⁹He has gone on a long journey. For my husband isn’t at home. ²⁰He will come home at the full moon.” He has taken a bag of money with him. ²¹With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him. With persuasive words, she led him astray. ²²as an ox goes to the slaughter, as a fool stepping into a noose. He followed her immediately, ²³as a bird hurries to the snare, and doesn’t know that it will cost his life. Until an arrow strikes through his liver, ²⁴Pay attention to the words of my mouth. Now therefore, sons, listen to me. ²⁵Don’t go astray in her paths, Don’t let your heart turn to her ways. ²⁶Yes, all her slain are a mighty army. for she has thrown down many wounded. ²⁷going down to the rooms of death. Her house is the way to Sheol, ^{vi}

8Doesn't wisdom cry out? Doesn't understanding raise her voice? ²where the paths meet, she stands. On the top of high places by the way, ³at the entry doors, she cries aloud: Beside the gates, at the entry of the city, ⁴I send my voice to the sons of mankind. "To you men, I call! ⁵You fools, be of an understanding heart. You simple, understand prudence. ⁶The opening of my lips is for right things. Hear, for I will speak excellent things. ⁷Wickedness is an abomination to my lips. For my mouth speaks truth. ⁸There is nothing crooked or perverse in them. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness. ⁹right to those who find knowledge. They are all plain to him who understands, ¹⁰knowledge rather than choice gold. Receive my instruction rather than silver; ¹¹All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it. For wisdom is better than rubies. ¹²Find out knowledge and discretion. "I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling. ¹³I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth. The fear of Yahweh is to hate evil. ¹⁴I have understanding and power. Counsel and sound knowledge are mine. ¹⁵and princes decree justice. By me kings reign, ¹⁶nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth. By me princes rule; ¹⁷Those who seek me diligently will find me. I love those who love me. ¹⁸enduring wealth, and prosperity. With me are riches, honor, ¹⁹my yield than choice silver. My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold; ²⁰in the middle of the paths of justice; I walk in the way of righteousness, ²¹I fill their treasuries. That I may give wealth to those who love me. ²²before his deeds of old. "Yahweh possessed me in the beginning of his work, ²³before the earth existed. I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, ²⁴when there were no springs abounding with water. When there were no depths, I was born, ²⁵before the hills, I was born; Before the mountains were settled in place, ²⁶nor the beginning of the dust of the world. while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, ²⁷when he set a circle on the surface of the deep, When he established the heavens, I was there; ²⁸when the springs of the deep became strong, when he established the clouds above, ²⁹that the waters should not violate his commandment, when he marked out the foundations of the earth; when he gave to the sea its boundary, ³⁰I was a delight day by day, always rejoicing before him, then I was the craftsman by his side. ³¹My delight was with the sons of men. Rejoicing in his whole world. ³²for blessed are those who keep my ways. "Now therefore, my sons, listen to me, ³³Don't refuse it. Hear instruction, and be wise. ³⁴watching daily at my gates, waiting at my door posts. Blessed is the man who hears me, ³⁵and will obtain favor from Yahweh. For whoever finds me, finds life, ³⁶All those who hate me love death." But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.

9Wisdom has built her house. She has carved out her seven pillars. ²She has mixed her wine. She has also set her table. She has prepared her meat. ³She cries from the highest places of the city: She has sent out her maidens. ⁴As for him who is void of understanding, she says to him, "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!" ⁵Drink some of the wine which I have mixed! "Come, eat some of my bread, ⁶Walk in the way of understanding." Leave your simple ways, and live. ⁷He who reproveth a wicked man invites abuse. He who corrects a mocker invites insult. ⁸Reprove a wise man, and he will love you. Don't reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you. ⁹Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning. Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser. ¹⁰The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding. The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom. ¹¹The years of your life will be increased. For by me your days will be multiplied. ¹²If you mock, you alone will bear it. If you are wise, you are wise for yourself. ¹³Undisciplined, and knows nothing. The foolish woman is loud, ¹⁴on a seat in the high places of the city, She sits at the door of her house, ¹⁵who go straight on their ways, To call to those who pass by, ¹⁶as for him who is void of understanding, she says to him, "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here." ¹⁷Food eaten in secret is pleasant." "Stolen water is sweet. ¹⁸^{vii} But he doesn't know that the departed spirits are there, 10but a foolish son brings grief to his mother. A wise son makes a glad father; The proverbs of Solomon. ²but righteousness delivers from death. Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, ³but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked. Yahweh will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry, ⁴but the hand of the diligent brings wealth. He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand, ⁵but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame. He who gathers in summer is a wise son, ⁶but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. Blessings are on the head of the righteous, ⁷but the name of the wicked will rot. The memory of the righteous is blessed, ⁸but a chattering fool will fall. The wise in heart accept commandments, ⁹but he who perverts his ways will be found out. He who walks blamelessly walks surely, ¹⁰but a chattering fool will fall. One winking with the eye causes sorrow, ¹¹but violence covers the mouth of the wicked. The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life, ¹²but love covers all wrongs. Hatred stirs up strife, ¹³but a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding. Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has discernment, ¹⁴but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin. Wise men lay up knowledge, ¹⁵The destruction of the poor is their poverty. The rich man's wealth is his strong city.

^{vi}Proverbs 7:27 Sheol is the place of the dead.

¹⁶The increase of the wicked leads to sin. The labor of the righteous leads to life. ¹⁷but he who forsakes reproof leads others astray. He is in the way of life who heeds correction, ¹⁸He who utters a slander is a fool. He who hides hatred has lying lips. ¹⁹but he who restrains his lips does wisely. In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience, ²⁰The heart of the wicked is of little worth. The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver. ²¹but the foolish die for lack of understanding. The lips of the righteous feed many, ²²and he adds no trouble to it. Yahweh's blessing brings wealth, ²³but wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure. It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness, ²⁴but the desire of the righteous will be granted. What the wicked fear, will overtake them, ²⁵but the righteous stand firm forever. When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more; ²⁶so is the sluggard to those who send him. As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, ²⁷but the years of the wicked shall be shortened. The fear of Yahweh prolongs days, ²⁸but the hope of the wicked will perish. The prospect of the righteous is joy, ²⁹but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity. The way of Yahweh is a stronghold to the upright, ³⁰but the wicked will not dwell in the land. The righteous will never be removed, ³¹but the perverse tongue will be cut off. The mouth of the righteous produces wisdom, ³²but the mouth of the wicked is perverse. The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,

11A false balance is an abomination to Yahweh, but accurate weights are his delight. ²but with humility comes wisdom. When pride comes, then comes shame, ³but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them. The integrity of the upright shall guide them, ⁴but righteousness delivers from death. Riches don't profit in the day of wrath, ⁵but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way, ⁶but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires. The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, ⁷and expectation of power comes to nothing. When a wicked man dies, hope perishes, ⁸and the wicked takes his place. A righteous person is delivered out of trouble, ⁹but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge. With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor, ¹⁰When the wicked perish, there is shouting. When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices. ¹¹but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked. By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted, ¹²but a man of understanding holds his peace. One who despises his neighbor is void of wisdom, ¹³but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret. One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, ¹⁴but in the multitude of counselors there is victory. Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls, ¹⁵but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure. He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it, ¹⁶but violent men obtain riches. A gracious woman obtains honor, ¹⁷but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh. The merciful man does good to his own soul, ¹⁸but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward. Wicked people earn deceitful wages, ¹⁹He who pursues evil gets death. He who is truly righteous gets life. ²⁰but those whose ways are blameless are his delight. Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to Yahweh, ²¹viii of the righteous will be delivered. Most certainly, the evil man will not be unpunished, ²²is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion. Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, ²³The expectation of the wicked is wrath. The desire of the righteous is only good. ²⁴There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty. There is one who scatters, and increases yet more. ²⁵He who waters shall be watered also himself. The liberal soul shall be made fat. ²⁶but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it. People curse someone who withholds grain, ²⁷but he who searches after evil, it shall come to him. He who diligently seeks good seeks favor, ²⁸but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf. He who trusts in his riches will fall, ²⁹The foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart. He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind. ³⁰He who is wise wins souls. The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life. ³¹how much more the wicked and the sinner! Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth;

12Whoever loves correction loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid. ²but he will condemn a man of wicked devices. A good man shall obtain favor from Yahweh, ³but the root of the righteous shall not be moved. A man shall not be established by wickedness, ⁴but a disgraceful wife is as rottenness in his bones. A worthy woman is the crown of her husband, ⁵but the advice of the wicked is deceitful. The thoughts of the righteous are just, ⁶but the speech of the upright rescues them. The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood, ⁷but the house of the righteous shall stand. The wicked are overthrown, and are no more, ⁸but he who has a warped mind shall be despised. A man shall be commended according to his wisdom, ⁹than he who honors himself, and lacks bread. Better is he who is lightly esteemed, and has a servant, ¹⁰but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. A righteous man respects the life of his animal, ¹¹but he who chases fantasies is void of understanding. He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread, ¹²but the root of the righteous flourishes. The wicked desires the plunder of evil men, ¹³but the righteous shall come out of trouble. An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips, ¹⁴The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to him. A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth. ¹⁵but he who is wise listens to counsel. The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, ¹⁶but one who overlooks an insult is prudent. A fool shows his annoyance the same day, ¹⁷but a false witness lies. He who is truthful testifies honestly,¹⁸ but the tongue of the wise heals. There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword,¹⁹ but a lying tongue is only momentary. Truth's lips will be established forever,²⁰ but joy comes to the promoters of peace. Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,²¹ but the wicked shall be filled with evil. No mischief shall happen to the righteous,²² but those who do the truth are his delight. Lying lips are an abomination to Yahweh,²³ but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness. A prudent man keeps his knowledge,²⁴ but laziness ends in slave labor. The hands of the diligent ones shall rule,²⁵ but a kind word makes it glad. Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down,²⁶ but the way of the wicked leads them astray. A righteous person is cautious in friendship,²⁷ but the possessions of diligent men are prized. The slothful man doesn't roast his game,²⁸ in its path there is no death. In the way of righteousness is life;

13A wise son listens to his father's instruction, but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.² but the unfaithful crave violence. By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things;³ One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin. He who guards his mouth guards his soul.⁴ but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied. The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing,⁵ but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace. A righteous man hates lies,⁶ but wickedness overthrows the sinner. Righteousness guards the way of integrity,⁷ There are some who pretend to be poor, yet have great wealth. There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing.⁸ but the poor hear no threats. The ransom of a man's life is his riches,⁹ but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out. The light of the righteous shines brightly,¹⁰ but with ones who take advice is wisdom. Pride only breeds quarrels,¹¹ but he who gathers by hand makes it grow. Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away,¹² but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life. Hope deferred makes the heart sick,¹³ but he who respects a command will be rewarded. Whoever despises instruction will pay for it,¹⁴ to turn from the snares of death. The teaching of the wise is a spring of life,¹⁵ but the way of the unfaithful is hard. Good understanding wins favor;¹⁶ but a fool exposes folly. Every prudent man acts from knowledge,¹⁷ but a trustworthy envoy gains healing. A wicked messenger falls into trouble,¹⁸ but he who heeds correction shall be honored. Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline,¹⁹ but fools detest turning from evil. Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul,²⁰ but a companion of fools suffers harm. One who walks with wise men grows wise,²¹ but prosperity rewards the righteous. Misfortune pursues sinners,²² but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous. A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children,²³ but injustice sweeps it away. An abundance of food is in poor people's fields,²⁴ but one who loves him is careful to discipline him. One who spares the rod hates his son,²⁵ but the belly of the wicked goes hungry. The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul, 14Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.² but he who is perverse in his ways despises him. He who walks in his uprightness fears Yahweh,³ but the lips of the wise protect them. The fool's talk brings a rod to his back,⁴ but much increase is by the strength of the ox. Where no oxen are, the crib is clean,⁵ but a false witness pours out lies. A truthful witness will not lie,⁶ but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person. A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it,⁷ for you won't find knowledge on his lips. Stay away from a foolish man,⁸ but the folly of fools is deceit. The wisdom of the prudent is to think about his way,⁹ but among the upright there is good will. Fools mock at making atonement for sins,¹⁰ he will not share these with a stranger. The heart knows its own bitterness and joy;¹¹ but the tent of the upright will flourish. The house of the wicked will be overthrown,¹² but in the end it leads to death. There is a way which seems right to a man,¹³ and mirth may end in heaviness. Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful,¹⁴ likewise a good man will be rewarded for his ways. The unfaithful will be repaid for his own ways;¹⁵ but the prudent man carefully considers his ways. A simple man believes everything,¹⁶ but the fool is hot headed and reckless. A wise man fears, and shuns evil,¹⁷ and a crafty man is hated. He who is quick to become angry will commit folly,¹⁸ but the prudent are crowned with knowledge. The simple inherit folly,¹⁹ and the wicked at the gates of the righteous. The evil bow down before the good,²⁰ but the rich person has many friends. The poor person is shunned even by his own neighbor,²¹ but blessed is he who has pity on the poor. He who despises his neighbor sins,²² But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good. Don't they go astray who plot evil?²³ but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty. In all hard work there is profit,²⁴ but the folly of fools crowns them with folly. The crown of the wise is their riches,²⁵ but a false witness is deceitful. A truthful witness saves souls,²⁶ and he will be a refuge for his children. In the fear of Yahweh is a secure fortress,²⁷ turning people from the snares of death. The fear of Yahweh is a fountain of life,²⁸ but in the lack of people is the destruction of the prince. In the multitude of people is the king's glory,²⁹ but he who has a quick temper displays folly. He who is slow to anger has great understanding,³⁰ but envy rots the bones. The life of the body is a heart at peace,³¹ but he who is kind to the needy honors him. He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker,³² but in death, the righteous has a refuge. The wicked is brought down in his calamity,³³ and is even made known in the inward part of fools. Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding,³⁴ but sin is a disgrace to any people. Righteousness exalts a nation,

³⁵but his wrath is toward one who causes shame. The king's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely, 15A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger. ²but the mouth of fools gush out folly. The tongue of the wise commends knowledge, ³keeping watch on the evil and the good. Yahweh's eyes are everywhere, ⁴but deceit in it crushes the spirit. A gentle tongue is a tree of life, ⁵but he who heeds reproof shows prudence. A fool despises his father's correction, ⁶but the income of the wicked brings trouble. In the house of the righteous is much treasure, ⁷not so with the heart of fools. The lips of the wise spread knowledge; ⁸but the prayer of the upright is his delight. The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, ⁹but he loves him who follows after righteousness. The way of the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, ¹⁰whoever hates reproof shall die. There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way: ¹¹how much more than the hearts of the children of men! Sheol^{ix} and Abaddon are before Yahweh— ¹²he will not go to the wise. A scoffer doesn't love to be reproofed; ¹³but an aching heart breaks the spirit. A glad heart makes a cheerful face; ¹⁴but the mouths of fools feed on folly. The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge, ¹⁵but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast. All the days of the afflicted are wretched, ¹⁶than great treasure with trouble. Better is little, with the fear of Yahweh, ¹⁷than a fattened calf with hatred. Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is, ¹⁸but one who is slow to anger appeases strife. A wrathful man stirs up contention, ¹⁹but the path of the upright is a highway. The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch, ²⁰but a foolish man despises his mother. A wise son makes a father glad, ²¹but a man of understanding keeps his way straight. Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom, ²²but in a multitude of counselors they are established. Where there is no counsel, plans fail; ²³How good is a word at the right time! Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth. ^{24x} The path of life leads upward for the wise, ²⁵but he will keep the widow's borders intact. Yahweh will uproot the house of the proud, ²⁶but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing. Yahweh detests the thoughts of the wicked, ²⁷but he who hates bribes will live. He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house, ²⁸but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil. The heart of the righteous weighs answers, ²⁹but he hears the prayer of the righteous. Yahweh is far from the wicked, ³⁰Good news gives health to the bones. The light of the eyes rejoices the heart. ³¹and will be at home among the wise. The ear that listens to reproof lives, ³²but he who listens to reproof gets understanding. He who refuses correction despises his own soul, ³³Before honor is humility. The fear of Yahweh teaches wisdom.

16The plans of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from Yahweh. ²but Yahweh weighs the motives. All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; ³and your plans shall succeed. Commit your deeds to Yahweh, ⁴yes, even the wicked for the day of evil. Yahweh has made everything for its own end— ⁵they shall certainly not be unpunished. Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to Yahweh: ⁶By the fear of Yahweh men depart from evil. By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for. ⁷he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. When a man's ways please Yahweh, ⁸than great revenues with injustice. Better is a little with righteousness, ⁹but Yahweh directs his steps. A man's heart plans his course, ¹⁰He shall not betray his mouth. Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king. ¹¹all the weights in the bag are his work. Honest balances and scales are Yahweh's; ¹²for the throne is established by righteousness. It is an abomination for kings to do wrong, ¹³They value one who speaks the truth. Righteous lips are the delight of kings. ¹⁴but a wise man will pacify it. The king's wrath is a messenger of death, ¹⁵His favor is like a cloud of the spring rain. In the light of the king's face is life. ¹⁶Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver. How much better it is to get wisdom than gold! ¹⁷He who keeps his way preserves his soul. The highway of the upright is to depart from evil. ¹⁸and a haughty spirit before a fall. Pride goes before destruction, ¹⁹than to divide the plunder with the proud. It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, ²⁰Whoever trusts in Yahweh is blessed. He who heeds the Word finds prosperity. ²¹Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction. The wise in heart shall be called prudent. ²²but the punishment of fools is their folly. Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it, ²³and adds learning to his lips. The heart of the wise instructs his mouth, ²⁴sweet to the soul, and health to the bones. Pleasant words are a honeycomb, ²⁵but in the end it leads to death. There is a way which seems right to a man, ²⁶for his mouth urges him on. The appetite of the laboring man labors for him; ²⁷His speech is like a scorching fire. A worthless man devises mischief. ²⁸A whisperer separates close friends. A perverse man stirs up strife. ²⁹and leads him in a way that is not good. A man of violence entices his neighbor, ³⁰one who compresses his lips, is bent on evil. One who winks his eyes to plot perversities, ³¹It is attained by a life of righteousness. Gray hair is a crown of glory. ³²one who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city. One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty; ³³but its every decision is from Yahweh. The lot is cast into the lap,

for gold, ⁴A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue. An evildoer heeds wicked lips. ⁵He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished. Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker. ⁶the glory of children are their parents. Children's children are the crown of old men; ⁷much less do lying lips fit a prince. Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool, ⁸wherever he turns, he prospers. A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it; ⁹but he who repeats a matter separates best friends. He who covers an offense promotes love; ¹⁰than a hundred lashes into a fool. A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding ¹¹therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him. An evil man seeks only rebellion; ¹²rather than a fool in his folly. Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, ¹³evil shall not depart from his house. Whoever rewards evil for good, ¹⁴therefore stop contention before quarreling breaks out. The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, ¹⁵both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh. He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, ¹⁶since he has no understanding? Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, ¹⁷and a brother is born for adversity. A friend loves at all times; ¹⁸and becomes collateral in the presence of his neighbor. A man void of understanding strikes hands, ¹⁹One who builds a high gate seeks destruction. He who loves disobedience loves strife. ²⁰and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble. One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity, ²¹The father of a fool has no joy. He who becomes the father of a fool grieves. ²²but a crushed spirit dries up the bones. A cheerful heart makes good medicine, ²³to pervert the ways of justice. A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, ²⁴but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth. Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, ²⁵and bitterness to her who bore him. A foolish son brings grief to his father, ²⁶nor to flog officials for their integrity. Also to punish the righteous is not good, ²⁷He who is even tempered is a man of understanding. He who spares his words has knowledge. ²⁸When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning. Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise.

18An unfriendly man pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment. ²but only in revealing his own opinion. A fool has no delight in understanding, ³and with shame comes disgrace. When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, ⁴The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook. The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters. ⁵nor to deprive the innocent of justice. To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good, ⁶and his mouth invites beatings. A fool's lips come into strife, ⁷and his lips are a snare to his soul. A fool's mouth is his destruction, ⁸they go down into a person's innermost parts. The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels: ⁹is brother to him who is a master of destruction. One who is slack in his work ¹⁰the righteous run to him, and are safe. Yahweh's name is a strong tower: ¹¹like an unscalable wall in his own imagination. The rich man's wealth is his strong city, ¹²but before honor is humility. Before destruction the heart of man is proud, ¹³that is folly and shame to him. He who gives answer before he hears, ¹⁴but a crushed spirit, who can bear? A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness, ¹⁵The ear of the wise seeks knowledge. The heart of the discerning gets knowledge. ¹⁶and brings him before great men. A man's gift makes room for him, ¹⁷until another comes and questions him. He who pleads his cause first seems right; ¹⁸and keeps strong ones apart. The lot settles disputes, ¹⁹and disputes are like the bars of a fortress. A brother offended is more difficult than a fortified city; ²⁰With the harvest of his lips he is satisfied. A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth. ²¹those who love it will eat its fruit. Death and life are in the power of the tongue; ²²and obtains favor of Yahweh. Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing, ²³but the rich answer harshly. The poor plead for mercy, ²⁴but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother. A man of many companions may be ruined, 19Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool. ²nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the way. It isn't good to have zeal without knowledge; ³his heart rages against Yahweh. The foolishness of man subverts his way; ⁴but the poor is separated from his friend. Wealth adds many friends, ⁵He who pours out lies shall not go free. A false witness shall not be unpunished. ⁶and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts. Many will entreat the favor of a ruler, ⁷how much more do his friends avoid him! He pursues them with pleas, but they are gone. All the relatives of the poor shun him: ⁸He who keeps understanding shall find good. He who gets wisdom loves his own soul. ⁹He who utters lies shall perish. A false witness shall not be unpunished. ¹⁰much less for a servant to have rule over princes. Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool, ¹¹It is his glory to overlook an offense. The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger. ¹²but his favor is like dew on the grass. The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion, ¹³A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping. A foolish son is the calamity of his father. ¹⁴but a prudent wife is from Yahweh. House and riches are an inheritance from fathers, ¹⁵The idle soul shall suffer hunger. Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep. ¹⁶but he who is contemptuous in his ways shall die. He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul, ¹⁷he will reward him. He who has pity on the poor lends to Yahweh; ¹⁸don't be a willing party to his death. Discipline your son, for there is hope; ¹⁹for if you rescue him, you must do it again. A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty, ²⁰that you may be wise in your latter end. Listen to counsel and receive instruction, ²¹but Yahweh's counsel will prevail. There are many plans in a man's heart, ²²A poor man is better than a liar. That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness. ²³he rests and will not be touched by trouble. The fear of Yahweh leads to life, then contentment; ²⁴he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again. The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; ²⁵rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge. Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence; ²⁶is a son who causes shame and brings reproach. He who robs his father and drives away his mother, ²⁷you will stray from the words of knowledge. If you stop listening to instruction, my son, ²⁸and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity. A corrupt witness mocks justice, ²⁹and beatings for the backs of fools. Penalties are prepared for scoffers, 20Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler. Whoever is led astray by them is not wise. ²He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own life. The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion. ³but every fool will be quarreling. It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife; ⁴therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing. The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter; ⁵but a man of understanding will draw it out. Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; ⁶but who can find a faithful man? Many men claim to be men of unfailing love, ⁷Blessed are his children after him. A righteous man walks in integrity. ⁸scatters away all evil with his eyes. A king who sits on the throne of judgment ⁹I am clean and without sin?" Who can say, "I have made my heart pure. ¹⁰both of them alike are an abomination to Yahweh. Differing weights and differing measures, ¹¹whether his work is pure, and whether it is right. Even a child makes himself known by his doings, ¹²Yahweh has made even both of them. The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, ¹³Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread. Don't love sleep, lest you come to poverty. ¹⁴but when he is gone his way, then he boasts. "It's no good, it's no good," says the buyer; ¹⁵but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel. There is gold and abundance of rubies; ¹⁶and hold him in pledge for a wayward woman. Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger; ¹⁷but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel. Fraudulent food is sweet to a man, ¹⁸by wise guidance you wage war! Plans are established by advice; ¹⁹therefore don't keep company with him who opens wide his lips. He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; ²⁰his lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness. Whoever curses his father or his mother, ²¹won't be blessed in the end. An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning, ²²Wait for Yahweh, and he will save you. Don't say, "I will pay back evil." ²³and dishonest scales are not pleasing. Yahweh detests differing weights, ²⁴how then can man understand his way? A man's steps are from Yahweh; ²⁵then later to consider his vows. It is a snare to a man to make a rash dedication, ²⁶and drives the threshing wheel over them. A wise king winnows out the wicked, ²⁷searching all his innermost parts. The spirit of man is Yahweh's lamp, ²⁸His throne is sustained by love. Love and faithfulness keep the king safe. ²⁹The splendor of old men is their gray hair. The glory of young men is their strength. ³⁰and beatings purge the innermost parts. Wounding blows cleanse away evil, 21The king's heart is in Yahweh's hand like the water-courses. He turns it wherever he desires. ²but Yahweh weighs the hearts. Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, ³is more acceptable to Yahweh than sacrifice. To do righteousness and justice ⁴the lamp of the wicked, is sin. A high look, and a proud heart, ⁵and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty. The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit; ⁶is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death. Getting treasures by a lying tongue ⁷because they refuse to do what is right. The violence of the wicked will drive them away, ⁸but the conduct of the innocent is upright. The way of the guilty is devious, ⁹than to share a house with a contentious woman. It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, ¹⁰his neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes. The soul of the wicked desires evil; ¹¹When the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge. When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom. ¹²and brings the wicked to ruin. The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked, ¹³he will also cry out, but shall not be heard. Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the poor, ¹⁴and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath. A gift in secret pacifies anger; ¹⁵but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity. It is joy to the righteous to do justice; ¹⁶shall rest in the assembly of the departed spirits. The man who wanders out of the way of understanding ¹⁷He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich. He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man. ¹⁸the treacherous for the upright. The wicked is a ransom for the righteous; ¹⁹than with a contentious and fretful woman. It is better to dwell in a desert land, ²⁰but a foolish man swallows it up. There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise; ²¹finds life, righteousness, and honor. He who follows after righteousness and kindness ²²and brings down the strength of its confidence. A wise man scales the city of the mighty, ²³keeps his soul from troubles. Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue ²⁴he works in the arrogance of pride. The proud and haughty man, "scoffer" is his name; ²⁵for his hands refuse to labor. The desire of the sluggard kills him, ²⁶but the righteous give and don't withhold. There are those who covet greedily all day long; ²⁷how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind! The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination: ²⁸and a man who listens speaks to eternity. A false witness will perish, ²⁹but as for the upright, he establishes his ways. A wicked man hardens his face; ³⁰nor counsel against Yahweh. There is no wisdom nor understanding ³¹but victory is with Yahweh. The horse is prepared for the day of battle;

22A good name is more desirable than great riches, and loving favor is better than silver and gold. ²Yahweh is the maker of them all. The rich and the poor have this in common: ³but the simple pass on, and suffer for it. A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself; ⁴is wealth, honor, and life. The result of humility and the fear of Yahweh ⁵whoever guards his soul stays from them. Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked: ⁶and when he is old he will not depart from it. Train up a child in the way he should go, ⁷The borrower is servant to the lender. The rich rule over the poor. ⁸and the rod of his fury will be destroyed. He who sows wickedness reaps trouble, ⁹for he shares his food with the poor. He who has a generous eye will be blessed; ¹⁰yes, quarrels and insults will stop. Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out; ¹¹is the king's friend. He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully ¹²but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful. Yahweh's eyes watch over knowledge; ¹³I will be killed in the streets!" The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside! ¹⁴he who is under Yahweh's wrath will fall into it. The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit: ¹⁵the rod of discipline drives it far from him. Folly is bound up in the heart of a child: ¹⁶both come to poverty. Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich, ¹⁷Apply your heart to my teaching. Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise. ¹⁸if all of them are ready on your lips. For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you, ¹⁹I teach you today, even you. That your trust may be in Yahweh, ²⁰of counsel and knowledge, Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things ²¹to give sound answers to the ones who sent you? To teach you truth, reliable words, ²²and don't crush the needy in court; Don't exploit the poor, because he is poor; ²³and plunder the life of those who plunder them. for Yahweh will plead their case, ²⁴and don't associate with one who harbors anger: Don't befriend a hot-tempered man, ²⁵and ensnare your soul. lest you learn his ways, ²⁶of those who are collateral for debts. Don't you be one of those who strike hands, ²⁷why should he take away your bed from under you? If you don't have means to pay, ²⁸which your fathers have set up. Don't move the ancient boundary stone, ²⁹He will serve kings. He won't serve obscure men. Do you see a man skilled in his work?

lose your good words. The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up, ⁹for he will despise the wisdom of your words. Don't speak in the ears of a fool, ¹⁰Don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless: Don't move the ancient boundary stone. ¹¹He will plead their case against you. for their Defender is strong. ¹²and your ears to the words of knowledge. Apply your heart to instruction, ¹³If you punish him with the rod, he will not die. Don't withhold correction from a child. ¹⁴^{xi} Punish him with the rod, ¹⁵then my heart will be glad, even mine: My son, if your heart is wise, ¹⁶when your lips speak what is right. yes, my heart will rejoice, ¹⁷but rather fear Yahweh all the day long. Don't let your heart envy sinners; ¹⁸and your hope will not be cut off. Indeed surely there is a future hope, ¹⁹and keep your heart on the right path! Listen, my son, and be wise, ²⁰or those who gorge themselves on meat: Don't be among ones drinking too much wine, ²¹and drowsiness clothes them in rags. for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor; ²²and don't despise your mother when she is old. Listen to your father who gave you life, ²³Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding. Buy the truth, and don't sell it. ²⁴Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him. The father of the righteous has great joy. ²⁵Let her who bore you rejoice! Let your father and your mother be glad! ²⁶and let your eyes keep in my ways. My son, give me your heart; ²⁷and a wayward wife is a narrow well. For a prostitute is a deep pit; ²⁸and increases the unfaithful among men. Yes, she lies in wait like a robber, ²⁹Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaints? Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes? Who has woe? ³⁰those who go to seek out mixed wine. Those who stay long at the wine; ³¹when it sparkles in the cup, when it goes down smoothly. Don't look at the wine when it is red, ³²and poisons like a viper. In the end, it bites like a snake, ³³and your mind will imagine confusing things. Your eyes will see strange things, ³⁴or as he who lies on top of the rigging: Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the middle of the sea, ³⁵They beat me, and I don't feel it! When will I wake up? I can do it again. I can find another." "They hit me, and I was not hurt!

24Don't be envious of evil men; neither desire to be with them: ²and their lips talk about mischief. for their hearts plot violence, ³by understanding it is established; Through wisdom a house is built; ⁴with all rare and beautiful treasure. by knowledge the rooms are filled ⁵and a knowledgeable man increases strength; A wise man has great power; ⁶and victory is in many advisors. for by wise guidance you wage your war; ⁷he doesn't open his mouth in the gate. Wisdom is too high for a fool: ⁸will be called a schemer. One who plots to do evil ⁹The mocker is detested by men. The schemes of folly are sin. ¹⁰your strength is small. If you falter in the time of trouble, ¹¹Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter! Rescue those who are being led away to death! ¹²doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it? Shall he not render to every man according to his work? If you say, "Behold, we didn't know this"; He who keeps your soul, doesn't he know it? ¹³the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste: My son, eat honey, for it is good; ¹⁴if you have found it, then there will be a reward, your hope will not be cut off. so you shall know wisdom to be to your soul; ¹⁵Don't destroy his resting place: Don't lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous. ¹⁶but the wicked are overthrown by calamity. for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again; ¹⁷Don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown; Don't rejoice when your enemy falls. ¹⁸and he turn away his wrath from him. lest Yahweh see it, and it displease him, ¹⁹neither be envious of the wicked: Don't fret yourself because of evildoers; ²⁰and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out. for there will be no reward to the evil man; ²¹Don't join those who are rebellious: My son, fear Yahweh and the king. ²²the destruction from them both—who knows? for their calamity will rise suddenly; ²³To show partiality in judgment is not good. These also are sayings of the wise. ²⁴peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor him— He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous"; ²⁵and a rich blessing will come on them. but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, ²⁶is like a kiss on the lips. An honest answer ²⁷and get your fields ready. Afterwards, build your house. Prepare your work outside, ²⁸Don't deceive with your lips. Don't be a witness against your neighbor without cause. ²⁹I will render to the man according to his work." Don't say, "I will do to him as he has done to me; ³⁰by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; I went by the field of the sluggard, ³¹Its surface was covered with nettles, and its stone wall was broken down. Behold, it was all grown over with thorns. ³²I saw, and received instruction: Then I saw, and considered well. ³³a little folding of the hands to sleep; a little sleep, a little slumber, ³⁴and your want as an armed man. so your poverty will come as a robber,

⁹Debate your case with your neighbor, and don't betray the confidence of another; ¹⁰lest one who hears it put you to shame, and your bad reputation never depart. ¹¹is like apples of gold in settings of silver. A word fitly spoken ¹²so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear. As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, ¹³so is a faithful messenger to those who send him; for he refreshes the soul of his masters. As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, ¹⁴so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively. As clouds and wind without rain, ¹⁵A soft tongue breaks the bone. By patience a ruler is persuaded. ¹⁶Eat as much as is sufficient for you, lest you eat too much, and vomit it. Have you found honey? ¹⁷lest he be weary of you, and hate you. Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, ¹⁸is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow. A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor ¹⁹is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot. Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble ²⁰or vinegar on soda, so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart. As one who takes away a garment in cold weather, ²¹If he is thirsty, give him water to drink: If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat. ²²and Yahweh will reward you. for you will heap coals of fire on his head, ²³so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face. The north wind produces rain: ²⁴than to share a house with a contentious woman. It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, ²⁵so is good news from a far country. Like cold water to a thirsty soul, ²⁶so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked. Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well, ²⁷nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor. It is not good to eat much honey; ²⁸is a man whose spirit is without restraint. Like a city that is broken down and without walls

26Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool. ²like a darting swallow, so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest. Like a fluttering sparrow, ³a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools! A whip is for the horse, ⁴lest you also be like him. Don't answer a fool according to his folly, ⁵lest he be wise in his own eyes. Answer a fool according to his folly, ⁶is cutting off feet and drinking violence. One who sends a message by the hand of a fool ⁷so is a parable in the mouth of fools. Like the legs of the lame that hang loose: ⁸so is he who gives honor to a fool. As one who binds a stone in a sling, ⁹so is a parable in the mouth of fools. Like a thorn bush that goes into the hand of a drunkard, ¹⁰so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by. As an archer who wounds all, ¹¹so is a fool who repeats his folly. As a dog that returns to his vomit, ¹²There is more hope for a fool than for him. Do you see a man wise in his own eyes? ¹³A fierce lion roams the streets!" The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road! ¹⁴so does the sluggard on his bed. As the door turns on its hinges, ¹⁵He is too lazy to bring it back to his mouth. The sluggard buries his hand in the dish. ¹⁶than seven men who answer with discretion. The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes ¹⁷is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own. Like one who grabs a dog's ears ¹⁸Like a madman who shoots torches, arrows, and death, ¹⁹is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?" ²⁰Without gossip, a quarrel dies down. For lack of wood a fire goes out. ²¹and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to kindling strife. As coals are to hot embers, ²²they go down into the innermost parts. The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels, ²³are the lips of a fervent one with an evil heart. Like silver dross on an earthen vessel ²⁴but he harbors evil in his heart. A malicious man disguises himself with his lips, ²⁵for there are seven abominations in his heart. When his speech is charming, don't believe him; ²⁶but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly. His malice may be concealed by deception, ²⁷Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him. Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it. ²⁸and a flattering mouth works ruin. A lying tongue hates those it hurts;

27Don't boast about tomorrow; for you don't know what a day may bring. ²and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips. Let another man praise you, ³and sand is a burden; but a fool's provocation is heavier than both. A stone is heavy, ⁴and anger is overwhelming; but who is able to stand before jealousy? Wrath is cruel, ⁵than hidden love. Better is open rebuke ⁶although the kisses of an enemy are profuse. Faithful are the wounds of a friend; ⁷but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet. A full soul loathes a honeycomb; ⁸so is a man who wanders from his home. As a bird that wanders from her nest, ⁹so does earnest counsel from a man's friend. Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart; ¹⁰Don't go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster: better is a neighbor who is near than a distant brother. Don't forsake your friend and your father's friend. ¹¹and bring joy to my heart, then I can answer my tormentor. Be wise, my son, ¹²but the simple pass on, and suffer for it. A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge; ¹³Hold it for a wayward woman! Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger. ¹⁴it will be taken as a curse by him. He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning, ¹⁵and a contentious wife are alike: A continual dropping on a rainy day ¹⁶or like grasping oil in his right hand. restraining her is like restraining the wind, ¹⁷so a man sharpens his friend's countenance. Iron sharpens iron; ¹⁸He who looks after his master shall be honored. Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit. ¹⁹so a man's heart reflects the man. Like water reflects a face, ²⁰and a man's eyes are never satisfied. Sheol ^{xii} and Abaddon are never satisfied; ²¹and the furnace for gold; but man is refined by his praise. The crucible is for silver, ²²yet his foolishness will not be removed from him. Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, ²³and pay attention to your herds: Know well the state of your flocks, ²⁴nor does even the crown endure to all generations. for riches are not forever, ²⁵the grasses of the hills are gathered in. The hay is removed, and the new growth appears, ²⁶and the goats are the price of a field. The lambs are for your clothing, ²⁷for your family's food, and for the nourishment of your servant girls. There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food, 28The wicked flee when no one pursues; but the righteous are as bold as a lion. ²but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge. In rebellion, a land has many rulers, ³is like a driving rain which leaves no crops. A needy man who oppresses the poor ⁴but those who keep the law contend with them. Those who forsake the law praise the wicked; ⁵but those who seek Yahweh understand it fully. Evil men don't understand justice; ⁶than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich. Better is the poor who walks in his integrity, ⁷but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father. Whoever keeps the law is a wise son; ⁸gathers it for one who has pity on the poor. He who increases his wealth by excessive interest ⁹even his prayer is an abomination. He who turns away his ear from hearing the law, ¹⁰he will fall into his own trap; but the blameless will inherit good. Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, ¹¹but the poor who has understanding sees through him. The rich man is wise in his own eyes; ¹²but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves. When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; ¹³but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy. He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper, ¹⁴but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble. Blessed is the man who always fears; ¹⁵so is a wicked ruler over helpless people. As a roaring lion or a charging bear, ¹⁶One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days. A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment. ¹⁷no one will support him. A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death; ¹⁸but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly. Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; ¹⁹but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty. One who works his land will have an abundance of food; ²⁰but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished. A faithful man is rich with blessings; ²¹yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread. To show partiality is not good; ²²and doesn't know that poverty waits for him. A stingy man hurries after riches, ²³than one who flatters with the tongue. One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor ²⁴He is a partner with a destroyer. Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It's not wrong." ²⁵but one who trusts in Yahweh will prosper. One who is greedy stirs up strife; ²⁶but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe. One who trusts in himself is a fool; ²⁷but one who closes his eyes will have many curses. One who gives to the poor has no lack; ²⁸but

when they perish, the righteous thrive. When the wicked rise, men hide themselves;

29He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy. ²but when the wicked rule, the people groan. When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; ³but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth. Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father; ⁴but he who takes bribes tears it down. The king by justice makes the land stable, ⁵spreads a net for his feet. A man who flatters his neighbor ⁶but the righteous can sing and be glad. An evil man is snared by his sin, ⁷The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge. The righteous care about justice for the poor. ⁸but wise men turn away anger. Mockers stir up a city, ⁹the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace. If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man, ¹⁰and they seek the life of the upright. The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity; ¹¹but a wise man brings himself under control. A fool vents all of his anger, ¹²all of his officials are wicked. If a ruler listens to lies, ¹³Yahweh gives sight to the eyes of both. The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: ¹⁴his throne shall be established forever. The king who fairly judges the poor, ¹⁵but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother. The rod of correction gives wisdom, ¹⁶but the righteous will see their downfall. When the wicked increase, sin increases; ¹⁷yes, he will bring delight to your soul. Correct your son, and he will give you peace; ¹⁸but one who keeps the law is blessed. Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; ¹⁹Though he understands, yet he will not respond. A servant can't be corrected by words. ²⁰There is more hope for a fool than for him. Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? ²¹will have him become a son in the end. He who pampers his servant from youth ²²and a wrathful man abounds in sin. An angry man stirs up strife, ²³but one of lowly spirit gains honor. A man's pride brings him low, ²⁴He takes an oath, but dares not testify. Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul. ²⁵but whoever puts his trust in Yahweh is kept safe. The fear of man proves to be a snare, ²⁶but a man's justice comes from Yahweh. Many seek the ruler's favor, ²⁷and the upright in their ways detest the wicked. A dishonest man detests the righteous,

Ecclesiastes

1The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem: 2“Vanity of vanities,” says the Preacher; “Vanity of vanities, all is vanity.” 3What does man gain from all his labor in which he labors under the sun? 4One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth remains forever. 5The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hurries to its place where it rises. 6The wind goes toward the south, and turns around to the north. It turns around continually as it goes, and the wind returns again to its courses. 7All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place where the rivers flow, there they flow again. 8All things are full of weariness beyond uttering. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. 9That which has been is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. 10Is there a thing of which it may be said, “Behold, ⁱ this is new?” It has been long ago, in the ages which were before us. 11There is no memory of the former; neither shall there be any memory of the latter that are to come, among those that shall come after. 12I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God ⁱⁱ has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. 14I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 15That which is crooked can’t be made straight; and that which is lacking can’t be counted. 16I said to myself, “Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.” 17I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. 18For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

2I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure”; and behold, this also was vanity. 2I said of laughter, “It is foolishness”; and ⁱEcclesiastes 1:10 “Behold”, from , “ means look at, take notice, observe, see, or gaze at. It is often used as an interjection.

ⁱⁱEcclesiastes 1:13 The Hebrew word rendered “God” is “ (Elohim).

of mirth, “What does it accomplish?” 3I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. 4I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. 5I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. 6I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. 7I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; 8I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. 9So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. 10Whatever my eyes desired, I didn’t keep from them. I didn’t withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. 11Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun. 12I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the king’s successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. 13Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. 14The wise man’s eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. 15Then I said in my heart, “As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?” Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. 16For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool! 17So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. 18I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. 19Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. ²⁰Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. ²¹For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²²For what has a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? ²³For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. ²⁴There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. ²⁵For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? ²⁶For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

³For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven: ²and a time to die; and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to be born, a time to plant, ³and a time to heal; and a time to build up; a time to kill, a time to break down, ⁴and a time to laugh; and a time to dance; a time to weep, a time to mourn, ⁵and a time to gather stones together; and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to cast away stones, a time to embrace, ⁶and a time to lose; and a time to cast away; a time to seek, a time to keep, ⁷and a time to sew; and a time to speak; a time to tear, a time to keep silence, ⁸and a time to hate; and a time for peace. a time to love, a time for war, ⁹What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? ¹⁰I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. ¹²I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. ¹³Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. ¹⁴I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. ¹⁵That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away. ¹⁶Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. ¹⁷I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." ¹⁸I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. ¹⁹For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. ²⁰All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. ²¹Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?" ²²Therefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

⁴Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. ²Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. ³Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. ⁴Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind. ⁵The fool folds his hands together and ruins himself. ⁶Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and chasing after wind. ⁷Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. ⁸There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. "For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment?" This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business. ⁹Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. ¹⁰For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. ¹¹Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? ¹²If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. ¹³Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. ¹⁴For out of prison he came out to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. ¹⁵I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. ¹⁶There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

⁵Guard your steps when you go to God's house; for to draw near to listen is better than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they don't know that they do evil. ²Don't be rash with your mouth, and don't let your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. ³For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. ⁴When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. ⁵It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. ⁶Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God. ⁸If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them. ⁹Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field. ¹⁰He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. ¹¹When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes? ¹²The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep. ¹³There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. ¹⁴Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. ¹⁵As he came out of his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. ¹⁶This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? ¹⁷All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath. ¹⁸Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. ¹⁹Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. ²⁰For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

6There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: ²a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease. ³If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: ⁴for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. ⁵Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. ⁶Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place? ⁷All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. ⁸For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? ⁹Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. ¹⁰Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. ¹¹For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? ¹²For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

7A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. ²It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. ³Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. ⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. ⁵It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. ⁶For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. ⁷Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. ⁸Better is the end of a thing than its beginning. The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. ⁹Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. ¹⁰Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this. ¹¹Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. ¹²For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it. ¹³Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? ¹⁴In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him. ¹⁵All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. ¹⁶Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? ¹⁷Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? ¹⁸It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that don't withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come out of them all. ¹⁹Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. ²⁰Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. ²¹Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; ²²for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. ²³All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, “I will be wise”; but it was far from me. ²⁴That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? ²⁵I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness. ²⁶I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her. ²⁷“Behold, I have found this,” says the Preacher, “to one another, to find out the scheme; ²⁸which my soul still seeks; but I have not found. One man among a thousand have I found; but I have not found a woman among all those. ²⁹Behold, this only have I found: that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes.”

⁸Who is like the wise man? And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man’s wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed. ²I say, “Keep the king’s command!” because of the oath to God. ³Don’t be hasty to go out of his presence. Don’t persist in an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him, ⁴for the king’s word is supreme. Who can say to him, “What are you doing?” ⁵Whoever keeps the commandment shall not come to harm, and his wise heart will know the time and procedure. ⁶For there is a time and procedure for every purpose, although the misery of man is heavy on him. ⁷For he doesn’t know that which will be; for who can tell him how it will be? ⁸There is no man who has power over the spirit to contain the spirit; neither does he have power over the day of death. There is no discharge in war; neither shall wickedness deliver those who practice it. ⁹All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. ¹⁰So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. ¹¹Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. ¹²Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. ¹³But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he doesn’t fear God. ¹⁴There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. ¹⁵Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun. ¹⁶When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), ¹⁷then I saw all the work of God, that man can’t find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won’t find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won’t be able to find it.

⁹For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn’t know it; all is before them. ²All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn’t sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. ³This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. ⁴For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵For the living know that they will die, but the dead don’t know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. ⁶Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun. ⁷Go your way—eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works. ⁸Let your garments be always white, and don’t let your head lack oil. ⁹Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun. ¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, ⁱⁱⁱ where you are going. ¹¹I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. ¹²For man also doesn’t know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them. ¹³I have also seen wisdom under the sun in this way, and it seemed great to me. ¹⁴There was a little city, and few men within it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it. ¹⁵Now a poor wise man was found in it, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. ¹⁶Then I said, “Wisdom is better than strength.” Nevertheless the poor man’s

wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. ¹⁷The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him who rules among fools. ¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

11for you shall find it after many days. Cast your bread on the waters; ²for you don't know what evil will be on the earth. Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; ³and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be. If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; ⁴and he who regards the clouds won't reap. He who observes the wind won't sow; ⁵nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child; even so you don't know the work of God who does all. As you don't know what is the way of the wind, ⁶and in the evening don't withhold your hand; for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both will be equally good. In the morning sow your seed, ⁷and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun. Truly the light is sweet, ⁸but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity. Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; ⁹and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment. Rejoice, young man, in your youth, ¹⁰and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity. Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, 12before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you will say, "I have no pleasure in them"; Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, ²and the clouds return after the rain; Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened, ³and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look out of the windows are darkened, in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, ⁴when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low; and the doors shall be shut in the street; ⁵and terrors will be on the way; and the almond tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets: yes, they shall be afraid of heights, ⁶or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the spring, or the wheel broken at the cistern, before the silver cord is severed, ⁷and the spirit returns to God who gave it. and the dust returns to the earth as it was, ⁸"Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher. "All is vanity!" ⁹Further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. ¹¹The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. ¹²Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. ¹³This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. ¹⁴For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Song of Solomon

1The Song of songs, which is Solomon's. ²for your love is better than wine. Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; ³Your name is oil poured out, therefore the virgins love you. Your oils have a pleasing fragrance. ⁴Let us hurry. The king has brought me into his rooms. We will praise your love more than wine! Take me away with you. We will be glad and rejoice in you. They are right to love you. ⁵you daughters of Jerusalem, like Kedar's tents, like Solomon's curtains. I am dark, but lovely, ⁶because the sun has scorched me. They made me keeper of the vineyards. I haven't kept my own vineyard. Don't stare at me because I am dark, My mother's sons were angry with me. ⁷where you graze your flock, where you rest them at noon; For why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions? Tell me, you whom my soul loves, ⁸follow the tracks of the sheep. Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents. If you don't know, most beautiful among women, ⁹to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots. I have compared you, my love, ¹⁰your neck with strings of jewels. Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings, ¹¹with studs of silver. We will make you earrings of gold, ¹²my perfume spread its fragrance. While the king sat at his table, ¹³that lies between my breasts. My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, ¹⁴from the vineyards of En Gedi. My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms ¹⁵Behold, you are beautiful. Your eyes are doves. Behold, ¹ you are beautiful, my love. ¹⁶and our couch is verdant. Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant; ¹⁷Our rafters are firs. The beams of our house are cedars.

2I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys. ²so is my love among the daughters. As a lily among thorns, ³so is my beloved among the sons. his fruit was sweet to my taste. As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, I sat down under his shadow with great delight, ⁴His banner over me is love. He brought me to the banquet hall. ⁵refresh me with apples; For I am faint with love. Strengthen me with raisins, ⁶His right hand embraces me. His left hand is under my head. ⁷by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires.

I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, ⁸Behold, he comes, leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills. The voice of my beloved! ⁹Behold, he stands behind our wall! He glances through the lattice. My beloved is like a roe or a young deer. He looks in at the windows. ¹⁰"Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away. My beloved spoke, and said to me, ¹¹The rain is over and gone. For, behold, the winter is past. ¹²The time of the singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land. The flowers appear on the earth. ¹³The vines are in blossom. They give out their fragrance. and come away." The fig tree ripens her green figs. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, ¹⁴In the hiding places of the mountainside, Let me see your face. Let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely. My dove in the clefts of the rock, ¹⁵the little foxes that plunder the vineyards; for our vineyards are in blossom. Catch for us the foxes, ¹⁶He browses among the lilies. My beloved is mine, and I am his. ¹⁷turn, my beloved, and be like a roe or a young deer on the mountains of Bether. Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, 3I sought him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him. By night on my bed, ²in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves. I sought him, but I didn't find him. I will get up now, and go about the city; ³"Have you seen him whom my soul loves?" The watchmen who go about the city found me; ⁴when I found him whom my soul loves. until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the room of her who conceived me. I had scarcely passed from them, I held him, and would not let him go, ⁵by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that you not stir up, nor awaken love, until it so desires. I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, ⁶perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all spices of the merchant? Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, ⁷Sixty mighty men are around it, of the mighty men of Israel. Behold, it is Solomon's carriage! ⁸Every man has his sword on his thigh, because of fear in the night. They all handle the sword, and are expert in war. ⁹of the wood of Lebanon. King Solomon made himself a carriage ¹⁰its bottom of gold, its seat of purple, the middle of it being paved with love, from the daughters of Jerusalem. He made its pillars of silver, ¹¹with the crown with which his mother has crowned him, in the day of his weddings, in the day of the gladness of his heart. Go out, you daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon, ⁴Behold, you are beautiful. Your hair is as a flock of goats, that descend from Mount Gilead. Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Behold, you are beautiful, my love. ²which have come up from the washing, where every one of them has twins. None is bereaved among them. Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock, ³Your mouth is lovely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil. Your lips are like scarlet thread. ⁴whereon a thousand shields hang, all the shields of the mighty men. Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory, ⁵that are twins of a roe, which feed among the lilies. Your two breasts are like two fawns ⁶I will go to the mountain of myrrh, to the hill of frankincense. Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee away, ⁷There is no spot in you. You are all beautiful, my love. ⁸with me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, ⁹You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride. ¹⁰How much better is your love than wine! The fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices! How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride! ¹¹Honey and milk are under your tongue. The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon. Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb. ¹²a locked up spring, a sealed fountain. A locked up garden is my sister, my bride; ¹³henna with spike-nard plants, Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits: ¹⁴spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree; myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, ¹⁵a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, flowing streams from Lebanon. ¹⁶Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out. and taste his precious fruits. Awake, north wind; and come, you south! Let my beloved come into his garden, ⁵I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride. I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved. Eat, friends! ²It is the voice of my beloved who knocks: "Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled; for my head is filled with dew, and my hair with the dampness of the night." I was asleep, but my heart was awake. ³I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them? I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on? ⁴My heart pounded for him. My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening. ⁵My hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, on the handles of the lock. I rose up to open for my beloved. ⁶but my beloved left; and had gone away. I looked for him, but I didn't find him. I called him, but he didn't answer. I opened to my beloved; My heart went out when he spoke. ⁷They beat me. They bruised me. The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me. The watchmen who go about the city found me. ⁸If you find my beloved, that you tell him that I am faint with love. I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, ⁹you fairest among women? Isaiah 1The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. ²ⁱ has spoken: and they have rebelled against me. Hear, heavens, “I have nourished and brought up children, ³and the donkey his master’s crib; but Israel doesn’t know, my people don’t consider.” The ox knows his owner, ⁴a people loaded with iniquity, ⁱⁱ of evildoers, children who deal corruptly! They have despised the Holy One of Israel. They are estranged and backward. Ah sinful nation, They have forsaken Yahweh. ⁵that you revolt more and more? and the whole heart faint. Why should you be beaten more, The whole head is sick, ⁶wounds, welts, and open sores. They haven’t been closed, neither bandaged, neither soothed with oil. From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it: ⁷Your cities are burned with fire. Strangers devour your land in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. Your country is desolate. ⁸like a hut in a field of melons, like a besieged city. The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, ⁹we would have been as Sodom; we would have been like Gomorrah. Unless Yahweh of Armies had left to us a very small remnant, ¹⁰ⁱⁱⁱ you people of Gomorrah! Hear Yahweh’s word, you rulers of Sodom! ¹¹“I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed animals. I don’t delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of male goats. “What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?”, says Yahweh. ¹²who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts? When you come to appear before me, ¹³Incense is an abomination to me; new moons, Sabbaths, and convocations: I can’t bear with evil assemblies. Bring no more vain offerings. ¹⁴They are a burden to me. I am weary of bearing them. My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts. ¹⁵Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear. Your hands are full of blood. When you spread out your hands, I will hide my eyes from you. ¹⁶Put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes. Cease to do evil. will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy. ⁶There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

⁵Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard. My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill. ²gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest vine, built a tower in the middle of it, and also cut out a wine press therein. but it yielded wild grapes. He dug it up, He looked for it to yield grapes, ³please judge between me and my vineyard. “Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, ⁴Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes? What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? ⁵I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up. I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down. Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. ⁶It won’t be pruned nor hoed, but it will grow briars and thorns. I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it.” I will lay it a wasteland. ⁷and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for justice, but, behold, oppression; for righteousness, but, behold, a cry of distress. For the vineyard of Yahweh of Armies is the house of Israel, ⁸who lay field to field, until there is no room, and you are made to dwell alone in the middle of the land! Woe to those who join house to house, ⁹even great and beautiful, unoccupied. In my ears, Yahweh of Armies says: “Surely many houses will be desolate, ¹⁰^{vii} of seed shall yield an ephah.” ^{viii} For ten acres ^{ix} of vineyard shall yield one bath, ^x ¹¹who stay late into the night, until wine inflames them! Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; ¹²but they don’t respect the work of Yahweh, neither have they considered the operation of his hands. The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts; ¹³Their honorable men are famished, and their multitudes are parched with thirst. Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge. ¹⁴and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, their multitude, their pomp, and he who rejoices among them, descend into it. Therefore Sheol ^{xi} has enlarged its desire, ¹⁵mankind is humbled, and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled; So man is brought low, ¹⁶and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness. but Yahweh of Armies is exalted in justice, ¹⁷and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich. Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, ¹⁸and wickedness as with cart rope; Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, ¹⁹and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it!” Who say, “Let him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it; ²⁰who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; and sweet for bitter! Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put bitter for sweet, ²¹and prudent in their own sight! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, ²²and champions at mixing strong drink; Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, ²³but deny justice for the innocent! who acquit the guilty for a bribe, ²⁴and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust; and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, because they have rejected the law of Yahweh of Armies, ²⁵and he has stretched out his hand against them, and has struck them. and their dead bodies are as refuse in the middle of the streets. but his hand is still stretched out. Therefore Yahweh’s anger burns against his people, The mountains tremble, For all this, his anger is not turned away, ²⁶and he will whistle for them from the end of the earth. Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly. He will lift up a banner to the nations from far, ²⁷no one shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the belt of their waist be untied, nor the strap of their sandals be broken: No one shall be weary nor stumble among them; ²⁸and all their bows bent. and their wheels like a whirlwind. whose arrows are sharp, Their horses’ hoofs will be like flint, ²⁹They will roar like young lions. and seize their prey and carry it off, and there will be no one to deliver. Their roaring will be like a lioness. Yes, they shall roar, ³⁰If one looks to the land behold, darkness and distress. The light is darkened in its clouds. They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea.

⁶In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. ²Above him stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings. With two he covered his face. With two he covered his feet. With two he flew. ³The whole earth is full of his glory!” “Holy, holy, holy, is Yahweh of Armies! One called to another, and said, ⁴The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵Then I said, “Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell among a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, Yahweh of Armies!” ⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. ⁷He touched my mouth with it, and said, “Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven.” ⁸I heard the Lord’s voice, saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!"⁹but don't understand; but don't perceive.' 'You hear indeed, and you see indeed, He said, "Go, and tell this people,¹⁰Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed." Make the heart of this people fat, lest they see with their eyes,¹¹and houses without man, and the land becomes utterly waste, "Until cities are waste without inhabitant, Then I said, "Lord, how long?" He answered,¹²And Yahweh has removed men far away, and the forsaken places are many within the land.¹³that also will in turn be consumed: so the holy seed is its stock." If there is a tenth left in it, as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stock remains when they are felled;

7In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.²David's house was told, "Syria is allied with Ephraim." His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind.³Then Yahweh said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway of the fuller's field.⁴Tell him, 'Be careful, and keep calm. Don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking torches, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.⁵Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying,⁶"Let's go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let's divide it among ourselves, and set up a king within it, even the son of Tabeel."⁷This is what the Lord Yahweh says: "It shall not stand, neither shall it happen."⁸For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people;⁹and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established."¹⁰Yahweh spoke again to Ahaz, saying,¹¹"Ask a sign of Yahweh your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above."¹²But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, neither will I tempt Yahweh."¹³He said, "Listen now, house of David. Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God also?¹⁴Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.^{xiii}¹⁵He shall eat butter and honey when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good.¹⁶For before the child knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken.¹⁷Yahweh will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.¹⁸It will happen in that day that Yahweh will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.¹⁹They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures.²⁰In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.²¹It shall happen in that day that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep;²²and it shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter: for everyone will eat butter and honey that is left within the land.²³It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels,^{xiii} shall be for briers and thorns.²⁴People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land will be briers and thorns.²⁵All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending out of oxen, and for the treading of sheep."

8Yahweh said to me, "Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man's pen, 'For Maher Shalal Hash Baz';^{xiv}²and I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."³I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then Yahweh said to me, "Call his name 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz.'⁴For before the child knows how to say, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria."⁵Yahweh spoke to me yet again, saying,⁶"Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;⁷now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks.⁸It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings will fill the width of your land, Immanuel.⁹Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered!¹⁰Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand: for God is with us."¹¹For Yahweh spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,¹²"Don't say, 'A conspiracy!' concerning all about which this people say, 'A conspiracy!' neither fear their threats, nor be terrorized."¹³Yahweh of Armies is who you must respect as holy. He is the one you must fear. He is the one you must dread. ¹⁴He will be a sanctuary, but for both houses of Israel, he will be a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁵Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured.” ¹⁶Wrap up the testimony. Seal the law among my disciples. ¹⁷I will wait for Yahweh, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. ¹⁸Behold, I and the children whom Yahweh has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yahweh of Armies, who dwells in Mount Zion. ¹⁹When they tell you, “Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter:” shouldn’t a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰Turn to the law and to the testimony! If they don’t speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. ²¹They will pass through it, very distressed and hungry; and it will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their king and by their God. They will turn their faces upward, ²²and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

9But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. ²Those who lived in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light has shined. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. ³You have increased their joy. You have multiplied the nation. They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the plunder. ⁴For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian. ⁵For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. ⁶For to us a child is born. To us a son is given; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, on David’s throne, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this. ⁸and it falls on Israel. The Lord sent a word into Jacob, ⁹including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart, All the people will know, ¹⁰but we will build with cut stone. but we will put cedars in their place.” “The bricks have fallen, The sycamore fig trees have been cut down, ¹¹and will stir up his enemies, Therefore Yahweh will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, ¹²The Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind; and they will devour

Israel with open mouth. but his hand is stretched out still. For all this, his anger is not turned away, ¹³neither have they sought Yahweh of Armies. Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, ¹⁴palm branch and reed, in one day. Therefore Yahweh will cut off from Israel head and tail, ¹⁵and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail. The elder and the honorable man is the head, ¹⁶and those who are led by them are destroyed. For those who lead this people lead them astray; ¹⁷neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows; and every mouth speaks folly. but his hand is stretched out still. Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, for everyone is profane and an evildoer, For all this his anger is not turned away, ¹⁸It devours the briars and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke. For wickedness burns like a fire. ¹⁹and the people are the fuel for the fire. No one spares his brother. Through Yahweh of Armies’ wrath, the land is burnt up; ²⁰and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied. One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry; Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm: ²¹Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. but his hand is stretched out still. For all this his anger is not turned away, 10Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive decrees; ²to deprive the needy from justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their plunder, and that they may make the fatherless their prey! ³What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth? ⁴and will fall under the slain. but his hand is stretched out still. For all this his anger is not turned away, They will only bow down under the prisoners, ⁵Alas Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation! ⁶I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me will I give him a command to take the plunder and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. ⁷However he doesn’t mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations. ⁸For he says, “Aren’t all of my princes kings? ⁹Isn’t Calno like Carchemish? Isn’t Hamath like Arpad? Isn’t Samaria like Damascus?” ¹⁰As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria; ¹¹shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? ¹²Therefore it will happen that, when the Lord has performed his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his haughty looks. ¹³For he has said, “By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom;

for I have understanding; and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers. ¹⁴My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, have I gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped.” ¹⁵Should an ax brag against him who chops with it? Should a saw exalt itself above him who saws with it? As if a rod should lift those who lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up someone who is not wood. ¹⁶Therefore the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, will send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory a burning will be kindled like the burning of fire. ¹⁷The light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. ¹⁸He will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body. It will be as when a standard bearer faints. ¹⁹The remnant of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child could write their number. ²⁰It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. ²¹A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. ²²For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness. ²³For the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, will make a full end, and that determined, throughout all the earth. ²⁴Therefore the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, says “My people who dwell in Zion, don’t be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strike you with the rod, and lift up his staff against you, as Egypt did. ²⁵For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you will be accomplished, and my anger will be directed to his destruction.” ²⁶Yahweh of Armies will stir up a scourge against him, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. His rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up like he did against Egypt. ²⁷It will happen in that day, that his burden will depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil. ²⁸He has come to Aiath. He has passed through Migron. At Michmash he stores his baggage. ²⁹They have gone over the pass. They have taken up their lodging at Geba. Ramah trembles. Gibeah of Saul has fled. ³⁰Cry aloud with your voice, daughter of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! You poor Anathoth! ³¹Madmenah is a fugitive. The inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety. ³²This very day he will halt at Nob. He shakes his hand at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. ³³Behold, the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low. ³⁴He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

11A shoot will come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit. ²the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yahweh. Yahweh’s Spirit will rest on him: ³neither decide by the hearing of his ears; His delight will be in the fear of Yahweh. He will not judge by the sight of his eyes, ⁴and decide with equity for the humble of the earth. and with the breath of his lips he will kill the wicked. but with righteousness he will judge the poor, He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth; ⁵and faithfulness the belt of his waist. Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, ⁶and the leopard will lie down with the young goat; The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf together; and a little child will lead them. The wolf will live with the lamb, ⁷Their young ones will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the ox. The cow and the bear will graze. ⁸and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper’s den. The nursing child will play near a cobra’s hole, ⁹for the earth will be full of the knowledge of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea. They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; ¹⁰It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious. ¹¹It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. ¹²He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. ¹³The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won’t envy Judah, and Judah won’t persecute Ephraim. ¹⁴They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west. Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them. ¹⁵Yahweh will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals. ¹⁶There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

12In that day you will say, “I will give thanks to you, Yahweh; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me. ²Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Yah, Yahweh, is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation.” ³Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation. ⁴In that day you will say, “Give thanks to Yahweh! Call on his name. Declare his doings among the peoples. Proclaim that his name is exalted!

⁵Sing to Yahweh, for he has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth! ⁶Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy One of Israel is great among you!”

13The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw: ²Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. ³I have commanded my consecrated ones; yes, I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones. ⁴The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Yahweh of Armies is mustering the army for the battle. ⁵They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Yahweh, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. ⁶Wail; for the day of Yahweh is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. ⁷Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone’s heart will melt. ⁸They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a woman in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame. ⁹Behold, the day of Yahweh comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. ¹⁰For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going out, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. ¹¹I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the haughtiness of the terrible. ¹²I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir. ¹³Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in Yahweh of Armies’ wrath, and in the day of his fierce anger. ¹⁴It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land. ¹⁵Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. ¹⁶Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped. ¹⁷Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. ¹⁸Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children. ¹⁹Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans’ pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. ²⁰It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there. ²¹But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there. ²²Wolves will cry in their fortresses, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

14For Yahweh will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob. ²The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in Yahweh’s land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. ³It will happen in the day that Yahweh will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, ⁴that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, “How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased!” ⁵Yahweh has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers, ⁶who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that no one restrained. ⁷The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out song. ⁸Yes, the cypress trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, “Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us.” ⁹Sheol^{xv} from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the departed spirits for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. ¹⁰They all will answer and ask you, “Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?” ¹¹Your pomp is brought down to Sheol,^{xvi} with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you. ¹²How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low! ¹³You said in your heart, “I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! ¹⁴I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!” ¹⁵Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol,^{xvii} to the depths of the pit. ¹⁶Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, “Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; ¹⁷who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who didn’t release his prisoners to their home?” ¹⁸All the kings of the nations, sleep in glory, everyone in his own house. ¹⁹But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. ²⁰You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land.

^{xv}Isaiah 14:9 Sheol is the place of the dead.

^{xvi}Isaiah 14:11 Sheol is the place of the dead.

^{xvii}Isaiah 14:15 Sheol is the place of the dead.

You have killed your people. The offspring ^{xviii} of evildoers will not be named forever. ²¹Prepare for slaughter of his children because of the iniquity of their fathers, that they not rise up and possess the earth, and fill the surface of the world with cities. ²²“I will rise up against them,” says Yahweh of Armies, “and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son’s son,” says Yahweh. ²³“I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruction,” says Yahweh of Armies. ²⁴Yahweh of Armies has sworn, saying, “Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: ²⁵that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread him under foot on my mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders. ²⁶This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. ²⁷For Yahweh of Armies has planned, and who can stop it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?” ²⁸This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died. ²⁹Don’t rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent’s root an adder will emerge, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent. ³⁰The firstborn of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed. ³¹Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks. ³²What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That Yahweh has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

15The burden of Moab: for in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. ²They have gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads. Every beard is cut off. ³In their streets, they clothe themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly. ⁴Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them. ⁵My heart cries out for Moab! Her nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for on the way to Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. ⁶For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. ⁷Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows. ⁸For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab; its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer Elim. ⁹For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

16Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. ²For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. ³Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the middle of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Don’t betray the fugitive! ⁴Let my outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortionist is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases. The oppressors are consumed out of the land. ⁵A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness. ⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing. ⁷Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. ⁸For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea. ⁹Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen. ¹⁰Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop. ¹¹Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres. ¹²It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail. ¹³This is the word that Yahweh spoke concerning Moab in time past. ¹⁴But now Yahweh has spoken, saying, “Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble.”

17The burden of Damascus: “Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. ²The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and no one shall make them afraid. ³The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel,” says Yahweh of Armies. ⁴“It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean. ⁵It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleans grain in the valley of Rephaim. ⁶Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree," says Yahweh, the God of Israel. ⁷In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel. ⁸They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherah poles, or the incense altars. ⁹In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation. ¹⁰For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings. ¹¹In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. ¹²Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! ¹³The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. ¹⁴At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt within it. ²I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. ³The spirit of Egypt will fail within it. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. ⁴I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies. ⁵The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. ⁶The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away. ⁷The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. ⁸The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. ⁹Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded. ¹⁰The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul. ¹¹The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?" ¹²Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what Yahweh of Armies has purposed concerning Egypt. ¹³The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes. ¹⁴Yahweh has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the middle of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. ¹⁵Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do. ¹⁶In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of Yahweh of Armies's hand, which he shakes over them. ¹⁷The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of Yahweh of Armies, which he determines against it. ¹⁸In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Yahweh of Armies. One will be called "The city of destruction." ¹⁹In that day, there will be an altar to Yahweh in the middle of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to Yahweh at its border. ²⁰It will be for a sign and for a witness to Yahweh of Armies in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to Yahweh because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them. ²¹Yahweh will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know Yahweh in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will vow a vow to Yahweh, and will perform it. ²²Yahweh will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to Yahweh, and he will be entreated by them, and will heal them. ²³In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. ²⁴In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing within the earth; ²⁵because Yahweh of Armies has blessed them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

20In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; ²at that time Yahweh spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your shoes from off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. ³Yahweh said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, ⁴so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. ⁶The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, 'Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?'"

21The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land. ²A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media's sighing. ³Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have taken hold on me, like the pains of a woman in labor. I am in so much pain that I can't hear. I so am dismayed that I can't see. ⁴My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me. ⁵They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princes, oil the shield! ⁶For the Lord said to me, "Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees. ⁷When he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall listen diligently with great attentiveness." ⁸He cried like a lion: "Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post. ⁹Behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs." He answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of her gods are broken to the ground. ¹⁰You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor!" That which I have heard from Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, I have declared to you. ¹¹The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?" ¹²The watchman said,

"The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again." ¹³The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites. ¹⁴They brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. ¹⁵For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. ¹⁶For the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail, ¹⁷and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be few; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has spoken it."

22The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? ²You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. ³All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. ⁴Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people. ⁵For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains." ⁶Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. ⁷Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. ⁸He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. ⁹You saw the breaches of David's city, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. ¹⁰You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you didn't look to him who had done this, neither did you have respect for him who purposed it long ago. ¹²In that day, the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, called to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to dressing in sackcloth: ¹³and behold, joy and gladness, killing cattle and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die." ¹⁴Yahweh of Armies revealed himself in my ears, "Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies. ¹⁵Thus says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, "Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, ¹⁶'What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?' Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock!" ¹⁷Behold, Yahweh will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, he will grasp you firmly. ¹⁸He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your lord's house. ¹⁹I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station. ²⁰It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, ²¹and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. ²²I will lay the key of David's house on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. ²³I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father's house. ²⁴They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers. ²⁵"In that day," says Yahweh of Armies, "the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for Yahweh has spoken it."

23The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. ²Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. ³On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. ⁴Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, "I have not travailed, nor given birth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins." ⁵When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. ⁶Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast! ⁷Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel? ⁸Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? ⁹Yahweh of Armies has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. ¹⁰Pass through your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more. ¹¹He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. Yahweh has ordered the destruction of Canaan's strongholds. ¹²He said, "You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest." ¹³Behold, the land of the Chaldeans. This people was not. The Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers. They overthrew its palaces. They made it a ruin. ¹⁴Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste! ¹⁵It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. ¹⁶Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody.

Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. ¹⁷It will happen after the end of seventy years that Yahweh will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. ¹⁸Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to Yahweh. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before Yahweh, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

24Behold, Yahweh makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. ²It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. ³The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for Yahweh has spoken this word. ⁴The earth mourns and fades away. The world languishes and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. ⁵The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. ⁶Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. ⁷The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh. ⁸The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases. ⁹They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. ¹⁰The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no man may come in. ¹¹There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone. ¹²The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. ¹³For it will be so within the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done. ¹⁴These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of Yahweh. They cry aloud from the sea. ¹⁵Therefore glorify Yahweh in the east, even the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea! ¹⁶From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous! But I said, "I pine away! I pine away! woe is me!" The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. ¹⁷Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabitant the earth. ¹⁸It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the middle of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. ¹⁹The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. ²⁰The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again. ²¹It shall happen in that day that Yahweh will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. ²²They shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited. ²³Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Yahweh of Armies will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before his elders will be glory.

25Yahweh, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth. ²For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city. It will never be built. ³Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you. ⁴For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. ⁵As the heat in a dry place will you bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low. ⁶In this mountain, Yahweh of Armies will make all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines. ⁷He will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. ⁸He has swallowed up death forever! The Lord Yahweh will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of his people away from off all the earth, for Yahweh has spoken it. ⁹It shall be said in that day, "Behold, this is our God! We have waited for him, and he will save us! This is Yahweh! We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation!" ¹⁰For in this mountain Yahweh's hand will rest. Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. ¹¹He will spread out his hands in the middle of it, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands. ¹²He has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

26God appoints salvation for walls and bulwarks. "We have a strong city. In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah: ²the one which keeps faith. Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter: ³because he trusts in you. You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, ⁴for in Yah, Yahweh, is an everlasting Rock. Trust in Yahweh forever; ⁵He lays it low. He lays it low even to the ground. He brings it even to the dust. For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city. ⁶Even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy." The foot shall tread it down; ⁷You who are upright make the path of the righteous level. The way of the just is uprightness. ⁸Yes, in the way of your judgments, Yahweh, have we waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul. ⁹With my soul have I desired you in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me will I seek you earnestly; for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. ¹⁰Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not see Yahweh's majesty. ¹¹Yahweh, your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see; but they will see your zeal for the people, and be disappointed. Yes, fire will consume your adversaries. ¹²Yahweh, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also done all our work for us. ¹³Yahweh our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us, but by you only will we make mention of your name. ¹⁴The dead shall not live. The departed spirits shall not rise. Therefore you have visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish. ¹⁵You have increased the nation, O Yahweh. You have increased the nation! You are glorified! You have enlarged all the borders of the land. ¹⁶Yahweh, in trouble they have visited you. They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them. ¹⁷Like as a woman with child, who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so we have been before you, Yahweh. ¹⁸We have been with child. We have been in pain. We gave birth, it seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. ¹⁹Your dead shall live. My dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast out the departed spirits. ²⁰Come, my people, enter into your rooms, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation is past. ²¹For, behold, Yahweh comes out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

27In that day, Yahweh with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea. ²In that day, sing to her, "A pleasant vineyard! ³I, Yahweh, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day. ⁴Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briars and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together. ⁵Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me. Let him make peace with me." ⁶In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. ⁷Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? ⁸In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. ⁹Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherah poles and the incense altars shall rise no more. ¹⁰For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. ¹¹When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor. ¹²It will happen in that day, that Yahweh will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel. ¹³It will happen in that day that a great trumpet will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship Yahweh in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

28Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine! ²Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his hand. ³The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. ⁴The fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. ⁵In that day, Yahweh of Armies will become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people; ⁶and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. ⁷They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. ⁸For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. ⁹Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? ¹⁰For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. ¹¹But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language; ¹²to whom he said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to weary"; and "This is the refreshing"; yet they would not hear. ¹³Therefore Yahweh's word will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken. ¹⁴Therefore hear Yahweh's word, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem:

¹⁵"Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol ^{xix} are we in agreement. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood.'" ¹⁶Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, "Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not act hastily. ¹⁷I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. ¹⁸Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol ^{xx} shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it. ¹⁹As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message." ²⁰For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap oneself in. ²¹For Yahweh will rise up as on Mount Perazim. He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to pass his act, his extraordinary act. ²²Now therefore don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, on the whole earth. ²³Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech! ²⁴Does he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods? ²⁵When he has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place? ²⁶For his God instructs him in right judgment, and teaches him. ²⁷For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod. ²⁸Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses don't grind it. ²⁹This also comes out from Yahweh of Armies, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

29Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around; ²then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to me as an altar hearth. ^{xxi} ³I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you. ⁴You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. ⁵But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly. ⁶She will be visited by Yahweh of Armies with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire. ⁷The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night. ⁸It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that. ⁹Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. ¹⁰For Yahweh has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and he has covered your heads, the seers. ¹¹All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, "Read this, please"; and he says, "I can't, for it is sealed:" ¹²and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please"; and he says, "I can't read." ¹³The Lord said, "Because this people draws near with their mouth and with their lips to honor me, but they have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which has been taught; ¹⁴therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hidden." ¹⁵Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from Yahweh, and whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?" ¹⁶You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about him who made it, "He didn't make me"; or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding?" ¹⁷Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest? ¹⁸In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness. ¹⁹The humble also will increase their joy in Yahweh, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. ²⁰For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off— ²¹who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for the arbiter in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony. ²²Therefore Yahweh, who redeemed Abraham, says concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale. ²³But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the middle of him, they will sanctify my name.

Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. ²⁴They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."

30"Woe to the rebellious children", says Yahweh, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin, ²who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked my advice; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! ³Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. ⁴For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. ⁵They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach." ⁶The burden of the animals of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people. ⁷For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore have I called her Rahab who sits still. ⁸Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever. ⁹For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear Yahweh's law; ¹⁰who tell the seers, "Don't see!" and to the prophets, "Don't prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant things. Prophecy deceits. ¹¹Get out of the way. Turn aside from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us." ¹²Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, "Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on it; ¹³therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. ¹⁴He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken piece a piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern." ¹⁵For thus said the Lord Yahweh, the Holy One of Israel, "You will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will be in quietness and in confidence." You refused, ¹⁶but you said, "No, for we will flee on horses"; therefore you will flee; and, "We will ride on the swift"; therefore those who pursue you will be swift. ¹⁷One thousand will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill. ¹⁸Therefore Yahweh will wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you, for Yahweh is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him. ¹⁹For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears you, he will answer you.

²⁰Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden any more, but your eyes will see your teachers; ²¹and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way. Walk in it." ²²You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, "Go away!" ²³He will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures. ²⁴The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory feed, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. ²⁵There shall be brooks and streams of water on every lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. ²⁶Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that Yahweh binds up the fracture of his people, and heals the wound they were struck with. ²⁷Behold, Yahweh's name comes from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke. His lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a devouring fire. ²⁸His breath is as an overflowing stream that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction; and a bridle that leads to ruin will be in the jaws of the peoples. ²⁹You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to Yahweh's mountain, to Israel's Rock. ³⁰Yahweh will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the descent of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and hailstones. ³¹For through Yahweh's voice the Assyrian will be dismayed. He will strike him with his rod. ³²Every stroke of the rod of punishment, which Yahweh will lay on him, will be with the sound of tambourines and harps. He will fight with them in battles, brandishing weapons. ³³For his burning place has long been ready. Yes, for the king it is prepared. He has made its pyre deep and large with fire and much wood. Yahweh's breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

31Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don't seek Yahweh! ²and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity. Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster, ³and their horses flesh, and not spirit. and he who is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; When Yahweh stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble, ⁴if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for their noise, so Yahweh of Armies will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights. For Yahweh says to me, "As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey, ⁵He will protect and deliver it. He will pass over and preserve it." As birds hovering, so Yahweh of Armies will protect Jerusalem. ⁶Return to him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel. ⁷For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin which your own hands have made for you. ⁸and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour him. and his young men will become subject to forced labor. He will flee from the sword, "The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of man; ⁹and his princes will be afraid of the banner," and his furnace in Jerusalem. His rock will pass away by reason of terror, says Yahweh, whose fire is in Zion, 32Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in justice. ²and a covert from the storm, as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a large rock in a weary land. A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, ³and the ears of those who hear will listen. The eyes of those who see will not be dim, ⁴and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly. The heart of the rash will understand knowledge, ⁵nor the scoundrel be highly respected. The fool will no longer be called noble, ⁶and his heart will work iniquity, to practice profanity, and to utter error against Yahweh, To make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. For the fool will speak folly, ⁷He devises wicked devices to destroy the humble with lying words, even when the needy speaks right. The ways of the scoundrel are evil. ⁸and he will continue in noble things. But the noble devises noble things; ⁹You careless daughters, give ear to my speech! Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear my voice! ¹⁰for the vintage shall fail. The harvest won't come. For days beyond a year you will be troubled, you careless women; ¹¹Be troubled, you careless ones! Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked, and put sackcloth on your waist. Tremble, you women who are at ease! ¹²for the fruitful vine. Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, ¹³yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city. Thorns and briers will come up on my people's land; ¹⁴The populous city will be deserted. The hill and the watchtower will be for dens forever, a delight for wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks; For the palace will be forsaken. ¹⁵and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is considered a forest. Until the Spirit is poured on us from on high, ¹⁶and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field. Then justice will dwell in the wilderness; ¹⁷and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. The work of righteousness will be peace; ¹⁸in safe dwellings, and in quiet resting places. My people will live in a peaceful habitation, ¹⁹and

the city is leveled completely. Though hail flattens the forest,²⁰ who send out the feet of the ox and the donkey. Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, 33Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed; and who betray, but nobody betrayed you! and when you have finished betrayal, you will be betrayed. When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed; ²Be our strength every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble. Yahweh, be gracious to us. We have waited for you. ³When you lift yourself up, the nations are scattered. At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled. ⁴Men will leap on it as locusts leap. Your plunder will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers. ⁵He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. Yahweh is exalted, for he dwells on high. ⁶The fear of Yahweh is your treasure. There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge. ⁷the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly. Behold, their valiant ones cry outside; ⁸The traveling man ceases. The covenant is broken. He has despised the cities. He doesn't respect man. The highways are desolate. ⁹Lebanon is confounded and withers away. Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare. The land mourns and languishes. ¹⁰"Now I will lift myself up. Now I will be exalted. "Now I will arise," says Yahweh; ¹¹You will give birth to stubble. Your breath is a fire that will devour you. You will conceive chaff. ¹²like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire. The peoples will be like the burning of lime, ¹³and, you who are near, acknowledge my might." Hear, you who are far off, what I have done; ¹⁴Trembling has seized the godless ones. Who among us can live with everlasting burning? The sinners in Zion are afraid. Who among us can live with the devouring fire? ¹⁵and speaks blamelessly; He who despises the gain of oppressions, who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking at evil— He who walks righteously, ¹⁶His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks. His bread will be supplied. His waters will be sure. he will dwell on high. ¹⁷They will see a distant land. Your eyes will see the king in his beauty. ¹⁸Where is he who counted? Where is he who weighed? Where is he who counted the towers? Your heart will meditate on the terror. ¹⁹a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend, with a strange language that you can't understand. You will no longer see the fierce people, ²⁰Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, a tent that won't be removed. nor will any of its cords be broken. Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals. Its stakes will never be plucked up, ²¹a place of wide rivers and streams, in which no galley with oars will go, neither will any gallant ship pass by there. But there Yahweh will be with us in majesty, ²²Yahweh is our lawgiver. Yahweh is our king. He will save us. For Yahweh is our judge. ²³They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast. They couldn't spread the sail. The lame took the prey. Your rigging is untied. Then the prey of a great plunder was divided. ²⁴The people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity. The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick."

34Come near, you nations, to hear! Listen, you peoples. Let the earth and all it contains hear; the world, and everything that comes from it. ²and angry with all their armies. He has given them over for slaughter. For Yahweh is enraged against all the nations, He has utterly destroyed them. ³and the stench of their dead bodies will come up; and the mountains will melt in their blood. Their slain will also be cast out, ⁴The sky will be rolled up like a scroll, and all its armies will fade away, as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree. All of the army of the sky will be dissolved. ⁵Behold, it will come down on Edom, and on the people of my curse, for judgment. For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky. ⁶It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for Yahweh has a sacrifice in Bozrah, And a great slaughter in the land of Edom. Yahweh's sword is filled with blood. ⁷and the young bulls with the mighty bulls; and their land will be drunken with blood, and their dust made greasy with fat. The wild oxen will come down with them, ⁸a year of recompense for the cause of Zion. For Yahweh has a day of vengeance, ⁹its dust into sulfur, And its land will become burning pitch. Its streams will be turned into pitch, ¹⁰Its smoke will go up forever. From generation to generation, it will lie waste. No one will pass through it forever and ever. It won't be quenched night nor day. ¹¹The owl and the raven will dwell in it. and the plumb line of emptiness. But the pelican and the porcupine will possess it. He will stretch the line of confusion over it, ¹²and all its princes shall be nothing. They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none shall be there; ¹³nettles and thistles in its fortresses; and it will be a habitation of jackals, a court for ostriches. Thorns will come up in its palaces, ¹⁴and the wild goat will cry to his fellow. and shall find herself a place of rest. The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves, ^{xxii} shall settle there, ¹⁵and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade. Yes, the kites will be gathered there, every one with her mate. The arrow snake will make her nest there, ¹⁶not one of these will be missing. none will lack her mate. For my mouth has commanded, and his Spirit has gathered them. Search in the book of Yahweh, and read: ¹⁷and his hand has divided it to them with a measuring line. They shall possess it forever. From generation to generation they will dwell in it. He has cast the lot for them, desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose. ²and rejoice even with joy and singing. Lebanon's glory will be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon. They will see Yahweh's glory, the excellence of our God. It will blossom abundantly, ³and make firm the feeble knees. Strengthen the weak hands, ⁴Don't be afraid. Behold, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution. He will come and save you. Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong. ⁵and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, ⁶and the tongue of the mute will sing; for waters will break out in the wilderness, and streams in the desert. Then the lame man will leap like a deer, ⁷and the thirsty ground springs of water. Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals, where they lay. The burning sand will become a pool, ⁸and it will be called The Holy Way. but it will be for those who walk in the Way. Wicked fools will not go there. A highway will be there, a road, The unclean shall not pass over it, ⁹nor will any ravenous animal go up on it. They will not be found there; but the redeemed will walk there. No lion will be there, ¹⁰and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy will be on their heads. and sorrow and sighing will flee away." The Yahweh's ransomed ones will return, They will obtain gladness and joy,

to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and don't speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall." ¹²But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" ¹³Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴Thus says the king, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you. ¹⁵Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, "Yahweh will surely deliver us. This city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" ¹⁶Don't listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; ¹⁷until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "Yahweh will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? ²⁰Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?'" ²¹But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was, "Don't answer him." ²²Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37When king Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into Yahweh's house. ²He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'Today is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to give birth. ⁴It may be Yahweh your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'" ⁵So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Yahweh says, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. ⁷Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"'" ⁸So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. ⁹He heard news concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" ¹¹Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?" ¹⁴Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to Yahweh's house, and spread it before Yahweh. ¹⁵Hezekiah prayed to Yahweh, saying, ¹⁶"Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷Turn your ear, Yahweh, and hear. Open your eyes, Yahweh, and behold. Hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. ¹⁸Truly, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land, ¹⁹and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. ²⁰Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are Yahweh, even you only." ²¹Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Yahweh, the God of Israel says, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word which Yahweh has spoken concerning him. The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. ²³Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. ²⁴By your servants, have you defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. ²⁵I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt." ²⁶Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. ²⁷Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the house-tops, and like a field before its crop has grown. ²⁸But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. ²⁹Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. ³⁰This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. ³¹The remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. ³²For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of Yahweh of Armies will perform this.' ³³Therefore Yahweh says concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. ³⁴By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come to this city,' says Yahweh. ³⁵'For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.'" ³⁶Yahweh's angel went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. ³⁷So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there. ³⁸As he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

38In those days was Hezekiah sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, "Yahweh says, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.'" ²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to Yahweh, ³and said, "Remember now, Yahweh, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Hezekiah wept bitterly. ⁴Then Yahweh's word came to Isaiah, saying, ⁵"Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'Yahweh says, the God of David your father, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. ⁶I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. ⁷This shall be the sign to you from Yahweh, that Yahweh will do this thing that he has spoken. ⁸Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down.'" ⁹The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness. ¹⁰I am deprived of the residue of my years." I said, "In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol. ^{xxiii} ¹¹Yah in the land of the living. I will see man no more with the inhabitants of the world. I said, "I won't

My dwelling is removed, I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life.¹³ He breaks all my bones like a lion. From day even to night you will make an end of me. I waited patiently until morning.¹⁴ I moaned like a dove. My eyes weaken looking upward. Lord, I am oppressed. Be my security." I chattered like a swallow or a crane.¹⁵ He has both spoken to me, and himself has done it. I will walk carefully all my years because of the anguish of my soul. What will I say?¹⁶ and my spirit finds life in all of them: you restore me, and cause me to live. Lord, men live by these things;¹⁷ but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; for you have cast all my sins behind your back. Behold, for peace I had great anguish,¹⁸ Death can't celebrate you. For Sheol^{xxiv} can't praise you. Those who go down into the pit can't hope for your truth.¹⁹ The father shall make known your truth to the children. The living, the living, he shall praise you, as I do today.²⁰ Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in Yahweh's house. Yahweh will save me.²¹ Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover."²² Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I will go up to Yahweh's house?"

39 At that time, Merodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered.² Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them.³ Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from to you?" Hezekiah said, "They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon."⁴ Then he asked, "What have they seen in your house?" Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."⁵ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of Yahweh of Armies: ⁶'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until today, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left,' says Yahweh. ⁷'They will take away your sons who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon's palace.'" ⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "Yahweh's word which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days." comfortably to Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of Yahweh's hand double for all her sins."³ "Prepare the way of Yahweh in the wilderness! Make a level highway in the desert for our God. The voice of one who calls out,⁴ and every mountain and hill shall be made low. The uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain. Every valley shall be exalted,⁵ and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Yahweh has spoken it." Yahweh's glory shall be revealed,⁶ The voice of one saying, "Cry!" One said, "What shall I cry?" and all its glory is like the flower of the field. "All flesh is like grass,⁷ the flower fades, because Yahweh's breath blows on it. Surely the people are like grass. The grass withers,⁸ the flower fades; but the word of our God stands forever." The grass withers,⁹ You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength. Lift it up. Don't be afraid. Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold, your God!" You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain.¹⁰ and his arm will rule for him. Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. Behold, the Lord Yahweh will come as a mighty one,¹¹ He will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom. He will gently lead those who have their young. He will feed his flock like a shepherd.¹² and marked off the sky with his span, and calculated the dust of the earth in a measuring basket, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance? Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand,¹³ or has taught him as his counselor? Who has directed Yahweh's Spirit,¹⁴ and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Who did he take counsel with,¹⁵ and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance. Behold, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing. Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket,¹⁶ nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering. Lebanon is not sufficient to burn,¹⁷ They are regarded by him as less than nothing, and vanity. All the nations are like nothing before him.¹⁸ Or what likeness will you compare to him? To whom then will you liken God?¹⁹ and the goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts silver chains for it. A workman has cast an image,²⁰ He seeks a skillful workman to set up an engraved image for him that will not be moved. He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot.²¹ Haven't you heard, yet? Haven't you been told from the beginning? Haven't you understood from the foundations of the earth? Haven't you known?²² and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in; It is he who sits above the circle of the earth,²³ who brings princes to nothing; who makes the judges of the earth like meaningless.²⁴ They are sown scarcely. Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground. He merely blows on them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble. They are planted scarcely. ²⁵Who is my equal?" says the Holy One. "To whom then will you liken me? ²⁶and see who has created these, who brings out their army by number. He calls them all by name. by the greatness of his might, and because he is strong in power, Not one is lacking. Lift up your eyes on high, ²⁷and speak, Israel, "My way is hidden from Yahweh, and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?" Why do you say, Jacob, ²⁸Haven't you heard? The everlasting God, Yahweh, The Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't faint. He isn't weary. His understanding is unsearchable. Haven't you known? ²⁹He increases the strength of him who has no might. He gives power to the weak. ³⁰and the young men utterly fall; Even the youths faint and get weary, ³¹But those who wait for Yahweh will renew their strength. They will mount up with wings like eagles. They will run, and not be weary. They will walk, and not faint.

41 "Keep silent before me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength. then let them speak. Let's meet together for judgment. Let them come near, ²Who called him to his foot in righteousness? He hands over nations to him, and makes him rule over kings. He gives them like the dust to his sword, like the driven stubble to his bow. Who has raised up one from the east? ³and passes by safely, Even by a way that he had not gone with his feet. He pursues them, ⁴calling the generations from the beginning? I, Yahweh, the first, and with the last, I am he." Who has worked and done it, ⁵The ends of the earth tremble. They approach, and come. The islands have seen, and fear. ⁶They say to their brothers, "Be strong!" Everyone helps his neighbor. ⁷He who smoothes with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good"; and he fastens it with nails, that it might not totter. So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith. ⁸Jacob whom I have chosen, ^{xxv} of Abraham my friend, "But you, Israel, my servant, ⁹You whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from its corners, and said to you, 'You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you away;' ¹⁰Don't be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Yes, I will help you. Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness. Don't you be afraid, for I am with you. ¹¹Those who strive with you will be like nothing, and shall perish. Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed and confounded. ¹²even those who contend with you. Those who war against you will be as nothing, as a non-existent thing. You will seek them, and won't find them, ¹³saying to you, 'Don't be afraid. I will help you.' For I, Yahweh your God, will hold your right hand, ¹⁴and you men of Israel. I will help you," says Yahweh, "and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. Don't be afraid, you worm Jacob, ¹⁵You will Produce your cause," says Yahweh. ²²Declare the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or show us things to come. "Let them announce, and declare to us what shall happen. ²³that we may know that you are gods. that we may be dismayed, and see it together. Declare the things that are to come hereafter, Yes, do good, or do evil, ²⁴and your work is of nothing. He who chooses you is an abomination. Behold, you are of nothing, ²⁵from the rising of the sun, one who calls on my name; and he shall come on rulers as on mortar, and as the potter treads clay. "I have raised up one from the north, and he has come; ²⁶And before, that we may say, 'He is right?' Surely, there is no one who shows. Surely, there is no one who hears your words. He won't break a bruised reed. ⁴until he has set justice in the earth, and the islands will wait for his law." He will not fail nor be discouraged, ⁵he who created the heavens and stretched them out, he who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it, he who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk in it. I will not give my glory to another, nor my praise to engraved images. “I am Yahweh. ⁹and I declare new things. I tell you about them before they come up.” Behold, the former things have happened, ¹⁰and his praise from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the islands and their inhabitants. Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices, ¹²and declare his praise in the islands. Let them give glory to Yahweh, ¹³He will stir up zeal like a man of war. He will raise a war cry. Yes, he will shout aloud. He will triumph over his enemies. Yahweh will go out like a mighty man. ¹⁴I have been quiet and restrained myself. Now I will cry out like a travailing woman. I will both gasp and pant. “I have been silent a long time. ¹⁵and dry up all their herbs. I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools. I will destroy mountains and hills, ¹⁶I will lead them in paths that they don’t know. I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. I will do these things, and I will not forsake them. I will bring the blind by a way that they don’t know. ¹⁷who tell molten images, ‘You are our gods’ will be turned back. They will be utterly disappointed. “Those who trust in engraved images, ¹⁸and look, you blind, that you may see. “Hear, you deaf, ¹⁹Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is as blind as he who is at peace, and as blind as Yahweh’s servant? Who is blind, but my servant? ²⁰His ears are open, but he doesn’t listen. You see many things, but don’t observe. ²¹and make it honorable. It pleased Yahweh, for his righteousness’ sake, to magnify the law, ²²All of them are snared in holes, and they are hidden in prisons. and a plunder, and no one says, ‘Restore them!’ But this is a robbed and plundered people. They have become captives, and no one delivers; ²³Who will listen and hear for the time to come? Who is there among you who will give ear to this? ²⁴and Israel to the robbers? Didn’t Yahweh, he against whom we have sinned? For they would not walk in his ways, and they disobeyed his law. Who gave Jacob as plunder, ²⁵and the strength of battle; and it set him on fire all around, but he didn’t know; and it burned him, but he didn’t take it to heart.” Therefore he poured the fierceness of his anger on him,

Bring out the blind people who have eyes, ⁹and let the peoples be assembled. and show us former things? or let them hear, and say, “That is true.” Let all the nations be gathered together, Who among them can declare this, Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified; ¹⁰“With my servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe me, and understand that I am he. neither will there be after me. “You are my witnesses,” says Yahweh, Before me there was no God formed, ¹¹and besides me there is no savior. I myself am Yahweh; ¹²and there was no strange god among you. says Yahweh, “and I am God. I have declared, I have saved, and I have shown; Therefore you are my witnesses”, ¹³and there is no one who can deliver out of my hand. I will work, and who can hinder it?” Yes, since the day was I am he; ¹⁴Yahweh, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: “For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing. ¹⁵I am Yahweh, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.” ¹⁶and a path in the mighty waters says: Yahweh, who makes a way in the sea, ¹⁷the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they shall not rise; they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick): who brings out the chariot and horse, ¹⁸and don’t consider the things of old. “Don’t remember the former things, ¹⁹It springs out now. Don’t you know it? and rivers in the desert. Behold, I will do a new thing. I will even make a way in the wilderness, ²⁰the jackals and the ostriches; to give drink to my people, my chosen, The animals of the field shall honor me, because I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, ²¹the people which I formed for myself, that they might declare my praise. ²²but you have been weary of me, Israel. One will say, 'I am Yahweh's;' ⁶and his Redeemer, Yahweh of Armies, says: and besides me there is no God. This is what Yahweh, the King of Israel, "I am the first, and I am the last; ⁷Who will call, and will declare it, and set it in order for me, since I established the ancient people? and that will happen. Who is like me? Let them declare the things that are coming, ⁸neither be afraid. and shown it? Is there a God besides me? I don't know any other Rock." Don't fear, Haven't I declared it to you long ago, You are my witnesses. Indeed, there is not. ⁹The things that they delight in will not profit. Their own witnesses don't see, nor know, that they may be disappointed. Everyone who makes an engraved image is vain. ¹⁰or molds an image that is profitable for nothing? Who has fashioned a god, ¹¹and the workmen are mere men. Let them stand up. They will fear. They will be put to shame together. 48"Hear this, house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel, and have come out of the waters of Judah. and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness You swear by Yahweh's name, ²and rely on the God of Israel; Yahweh of Armies is his name); (for they call themselves citizens of the holy city, ³yes, they went out of my mouth, and I revealed them. I did them suddenly, and they happened. I have declared the former things from of old; ⁴and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow brass; Because I knew that you are obstinate, ⁵before it came to pass I showed it to you; lest you should say, 'My idol has done them, and my engraved image, and my molten image, has commanded them.' therefore I have declared it to you from of old; ⁶see all this. And you, won't you declare it? even hidden things, which you have not known. You have heard it; "I have shown you new things from this time, ⁷and before today you didn't hear them; lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them.' They are created now, and not from of old; ⁸yes, you didn't know; yes, from of old your ear was not opened: and were called a transgressor from the womb. Yes, you didn't hear; for I knew that you dealt very treacherously, ⁹and for my praise I hold it back for you, so that I don't cut you off. For my name's sake, I will defer my anger, ¹⁰but not as silver. I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. Behold, I have refined you, ¹¹for my own sake, I will do it; I will not give my glory to another. For my own sake, for how would my name be profaned? ¹²and Israel my called: I am the first, I am also the last. "Listen to me, O Jacob, I am he; ¹³and my right hand has spread out the heavens. when I call to them, they stand up together. Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, ¹⁴who among them has declared these things? and his arm will be against the Chaldeans. "Assemble yourselves, all of you, and hear; He whom Yahweh loves will do what he likes to Babylon, ¹⁵yes, I have called him. and he shall make his way prosperous. I, even I, have spoken; I have brought him, ¹⁶from the time that it happened, I was there." with his Spirit. "From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; Now the Lord Yahweh has sent me, "Come near to me and hear this: ¹⁷your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel says: who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go. Yahweh, "I am Yahweh your God, ¹⁸Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea. Oh that you had listened to my commandments! ¹⁹and the descendants of your body like its grains. His name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me." Your offspring ^{xxxix} also would have been as the sand, ²⁰Flee from the Chaldeans! tell it even to the end of the earth: say, "Yahweh has redeemed his servant Jacob!" Leave Babylon! With a voice of singing announce this, ²¹He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them. He split the rock also, and the waters gushed out. They didn't thirst when he led them through the deserts. ²²"There is no peace", says Yahweh, "for the wicked."

49Listen, islands, to me. Listen, you peoples, from afar: from the inside of my mother he has mentioned my name. Yahweh has called me from the womb; ²He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand. He has kept me close in his quiver. He has made my mouth like a sharp sword. He has made me a polished shaft. ³Israel, in whom I will be glorified." He said to me, "You are my servant; ⁴I have spent my strength in vain for nothing; and my reward with my God." But I said, "I have labored in vain. yet surely the justice due to me is with Yahweh, ⁵to bring Jacob again to him, and to gather Israel to him, for I am honorable in Yahweh's eyes, and my God has become my strength. Now Yahweh says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, ⁶and to restore the preserved of Israel? that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth." Indeed, he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, I will also give you as a light to the nations, ⁷says to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers: princes, and they shall worship; because of Yahweh who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you." Yahweh, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, "Kings shall see and rise up; ⁸and in a day of salvation I have helped you. to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage: Yahweh says, "In an acceptable time I have answered you, I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, ⁹to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves!' and their pasture shall be on all treeless heights. saying to those who are bound, 'Come out!'; "They shall feed along the paths, ¹⁰neither shall the heat nor sun strike them: for he who has mercy on them will

I will make all my mountains a road, ¹²and behold, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.” Behold, these shall come from afar; ¹³and break out into singing, mountains: and will have compassion on his afflicted. Sing, heavens; and be joyful, earth; for Yahweh has comforted his people, ¹⁴and the Lord has forgotten me.” But Zion said, “Yahweh has forsaken me, ¹⁵that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yet I will not forget you! “Can a woman forget her nursing child, Yes, these may forget, ¹⁶your walls are continually before me. Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands. ¹⁷Your destroyers and those who devastated you will leave you. Your children hurry. ¹⁸all these gather themselves together, and come to you. and dress yourself with them, like a bride. Lift up your eyes all around, and see: As I live,” says Yahweh, “you shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament, ¹⁹and your land that has been destroyed, and those who swallowed you up will be far away. “For, as for your waste and your desolate places, surely now that land will be too small for the inhabitants, ²⁰This place is too small for me. Give me a place to live in.’ The children of your bereavement will say in your ears, ²¹and am solitary, an exile, and wandering back and forth? Behold, I was left alone. Where were these?” Then you will say in your heart, ‘Who has conceived these for me, since I have been bereaved of my children, Who has brought these up? ²²and lift up my banner to the peoples; and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders. Thus says the Lord Yahweh, “Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, ²³and their queens your nursing mothers. and lick the dust of your feet; and those who wait for me shall not be disappointed.” Kings shall be your foster fathers, They will bow down to you with their faces to the earth, Then you will know that I am Yahweh; ²⁴or the lawful captives be delivered? Shall the plunder be taken from the mighty, ²⁵and the plunder retrieved from the fierce; and I will save your children. But Yahweh says, “Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, for I will contend with him who contends with you, ²⁶and they will be drunk on their own blood, as with sweet wine. and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.” I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; Then all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior, 50Yahweh says, “Where is the bill of your mother’s divorce, with which I have put her away? or to which of my creditors have I sold you? and your mother was put away for your transgressions. Behold, you were sold for your iniquities, ²when I called, why was there no one to answer? or have I no power to deliver? I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. Why, when I came, was there no one? Is my hand shortened at all, that it can’t redeem? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea. ³and I make sackcloth their covering.” I clothe the heavens with blackness, ⁴that I may know how to sustain with words him who is weary. he wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught. The Lord Yahweh has given me the tongue of those who are taught, He wakens morning by morning, ⁵and I was not rebellious. I have not turned back. The Lord Yahweh has opened my ear, ⁶and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair. I didn’t hide my face from shame and spitting. I gave my back to those who beat me, ⁷Therefore I have not been confounded. and I know that I shall not be disappointed. For the Lord Yahweh will help me. Therefore I have set my face like a flint, ⁸Who will bring charges against me? Who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. He who justifies me is near. Let us stand up together. ⁹Who is he who will condemn me? The moths will eat them up. Behold, the Lord Yahweh will help me! Behold, they will all grow old like a garment. ¹⁰and obeys the voice of his servant? and has no light, and rely on his God. Who among you fears Yahweh, He who walks in darkness, let him trust in Yahweh’s name, ¹¹who adorn yourselves with torches around yourselves; and among the torches that you have kindled. Behold, all you who kindle a fire, walk in the flame of your fire, You will have this from my hand: You will lie down in sorrow.

For Yahweh has comforted Zion. Joy and gladness will be found therein, ⁴and hear me, my nation: and I will establish my justice for a light to the peoples. “Listen to me, my people; for a law will go out from me, ⁵My salvation has gone out, and my arms will judge the peoples. and they will trust my arm. My righteousness is near. The islands will wait for me, ⁶and look on the earth beneath; and the earth will wear out like a garment; and its inhabitants will die in the same way: and my righteousness will not be abolished. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, for the heavens will vanish away like smoke, but my salvation will be forever, ⁷the people in whose heart is my law: and don’t be dismayed at their insults. “Listen to me, you who know righteousness, Don’t fear the reproach of men, ⁸and the worm will eat them like wool; and my salvation to all generations.” For the moth will eat them up like a garment, but my righteousness will be forever, ⁹Awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. who

Isn't it you who cut Rahab in pieces, ¹⁰the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? Isn't it you who dried up the sea, ¹¹and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be on their heads. Sorrow and sighing shall flee away. Those ransomed by Yahweh will return, They will obtain gladness and joy. ¹²Who are you, that you are afraid of man who shall die, and of the son of man who will be made as grass? "I, even I, am he who comforts you. ¹³who stretched out the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth? when he prepares to destroy? Where is the fury of the oppressor? Have you forgotten Yahweh your Maker, Do you live in fear continually all day because of the fury of the oppressor, ¹⁴and he will not die and go down into the pit, and his bread will not fail. The captive exile will speedily be freed; ¹⁵so that its waves roar: Yahweh of Armies is his name. For I am Yahweh your God, who stirs up the sea, ¹⁶and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, and lay the foundations of the earth, and tell Zion, 'You are my people.'" I have put my words in your mouth, that I may plant the heavens, ¹⁷Stand up, Jerusalem, you who have drunk from Yahweh's hand the cup of his wrath. and drained it. Awake, awake! You have drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, ¹⁸and there is no one who takes her by the hand among all the sons who she has brought up. There is no one to guide her among all the sons to whom she has given birth; ¹⁹who will grieve with you?— and famine and the sword. How can I comfort you? These two things have happened to you— desolation and destruction, ²⁰They lie at the head of all the streets, like an antelope in a net. the rebuke of your God. Your sons have fainted. They are full of the Yahweh's wrath, ²¹and drunken, but not with wine: Therefore now hear this, you afflicted, ²²your God who pleads the cause of his people, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath. You will not drink it any more: Thus says your Lord Yahweh, "Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, ²³who have said to your soul, 'Bow down, that we may walk over you;' and you have laid your back as the ground, like a street to those who walk over." and I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, 52Awake, awake! Put on your strength, Zion. Put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city: for from now on the uncircumcised and the unclean will no more come into you. ²Arise, sit up, Jerusalem! Release yourself from the bonds of your neck, captive daughter of Zion! Shake yourself from the dust! ³and you will be redeemed without money." For Yahweh says, "You were sold for nothing; ⁴and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause. "My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there: For thus says the Lord Yahweh: ⁵"seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? "and my name is

How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, ⁸together they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when Yahweh returns to Zion. Your watchmen lift up their voice, ⁹sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for Yahweh has comforted his people. He has redeemed Jerusalem. Break out into joy, ¹⁰and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Yahweh has made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; ¹¹Go out from among her! Cleanse yourselves, you who carry Yahweh's vessels. Depart, depart, go out from there; touch no unclean thing! ¹²neither shall you go by flight: and the God of Israel will be your rear guard. For you shall not go out in haste, for Yahweh will go before you; ¹³He will be exalted and lifted up, and will be very high. Behold, my servant will deal wisely. ¹⁴(his appearance was marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men), Just as many were astonished at you ¹⁵Kings will shut their mouths at him: for they will see that which had not been told them; and they will understand that which they had not heard. so he will cleanse ^{xxxii} many nations.

53Who has believed our message? To whom has the arm of Yahweh been revealed? ²and as a root out of dry ground. When we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. For he grew up before him as a tender plant, He has no good looks or majesty. ³and rejected by men; and acquainted with disease. and we didn't respect him. He was despised, a man of suffering, He was despised as one from whom men hide their face; ⁴and carried our suffering; struck by God, and afflicted. Surely he has borne our sickness, yet we considered him plagued, ⁵He was crushed for our iniquities. and by his wounds we are healed. But he was pierced for our transgressions. The punishment that brought our peace was on him; ⁶Everyone has turned to his own way; and Yahweh has laid on him the iniquity of us all. All we like sheep have gone astray. ⁷yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth. and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he didn't open his mouth. He was oppressed, As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, ⁸and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of my people? Yes, truth is lacking; Yahweh saw it, ¹⁶and wondered that there was no intercessor. and his righteousness sustained him. He saw that there was no man, Therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; ¹⁷and a helmet of salvation on his head. and was clad with zeal as a mantle. He put on righteousness as a breastplate, He put on garments of vengeance for clothing, ¹⁸he will repay as appropriate, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; he will repay the islands their due. According to their deeds, ¹⁹and his glory from the rising of the sun; which Yahweh's breath drives. So shall they fear Yahweh's name from the west, for he will come as a rushing stream, ²⁰and to those who turn from disobedience in Jacob," says Yahweh. "A Redeemer will come to Zion, ²¹"As for me, this is my covenant with them," says Yahweh. "My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your offspring, ^{xxxix}nor out of the mouth of your offspring's offspring," says Yahweh, "from henceforth and forever."

60"Arise, shine; for your light has come, and Yahweh's glory has risen on you. ²and thick darkness the peoples; and his glory shall be seen on you. For, behold, darkness will cover the earth, but Yahweh will arise on you, ³and kings to the brightness of your rising. Nations will come to your light, ⁴they all gather themselves together. They come to you. and your daughters will be carried in arms. "Lift up your eyes all around, and see: Your sons will come from far away, ⁵and your heart will thrill and be enlarged; The wealth of the nations will come to you. Then you shall see and be radiant, because the abundance of the sea will be turned to you. ⁶the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah. They will bring gold and frankincense, and will proclaim the praises of Yahweh. A multitude of camels will cover you, All from Sheba will come. ⁷The rams of Nebaioth will serve you. and I will beautify my glorious house. All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered together to you. They will be accepted as offerings on my altar; ⁸and as the doves to their windows? "Who are these who fly as a cloud, ⁹and the ships of Tarshish first, their silver and their gold with them, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you. Surely the islands will wait for me, to bring your sons from far, for the name of Yahweh your God, ¹⁰and their kings will serve you: but in my favor have I had mercy on you. "Foreigners will build up your walls, for in my wrath I struck you, ¹¹Your gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive. ¹²For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall

The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you; They will call you Yahweh’s City, ¹⁵so that no one passed through you, a joy of many generations. “Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, I will make you an eternal excellency, ¹⁶and will nurse from royal breasts. your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. You will also drink the milk of the nations, Then you will know that I, Yahweh, am your Savior, ¹⁷for iron I will bring silver; for wood, brass, and for stones, iron. and righteousness your ruler. For brass I will bring gold; I will also make peace your governor, ¹⁸nor desolation or destruction within your borders; and your gates Praise. Violence shall no more be heard in your land, but you will call your walls Salvation, ¹⁹nor will the brightness of the moon give light to you, and your God will be your glory. The sun will be no more your light by day; but Yahweh will be your everlasting light, ²⁰nor will your moon withdraw itself; and the days of your mourning will end. Your sun will not go down any more, for Yahweh will be your everlasting light, ²¹They will inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. Then your people will all be righteous. ²²and the small one a strong nation. I, Yahweh, will do this quickly in its time.” The little one will become a thousand, 61The Lord Yahweh’s Spirit is on me; because Yahweh has anointed me to preach good news to the humble. to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to those who are bound; He has sent me to bind up the broken hearted, ²and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to proclaim the year of Yahweh’s favor, ³to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; the planting of Yahweh, that he may be glorified. to provide for those who mourn in Zion, that they may be called trees of righteousness, ⁴They will raise up the places long devastated. that have been devastated for many generations. They will rebuild the old ruins. They will repair the ruined cities, ⁵and foreigners will work your fields and your vineyards. Strangers will stand and feed your flocks, ⁶Men will call you the servants of our God. and you will boast in their glory. But you will be called Yahweh’s priests. You will eat the wealth of the nations, ⁷Instead of dishonor, they will rejoice in their portion. Everlasting joy will be to them. Instead of your shame you will have double. Therefore in their land, they will possess double. ⁸I hate robbery and iniquity. and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. “For I, Yahweh, love justice. I will give them their reward in truth, ⁹and their offspring among the peoples. ^{x1} which Yahweh has blessed.” Their offspring ^{xii} will be known among the nations, All who see them will acknowledge them, ¹⁰My soul will be joyful in my God; He has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. I will greatly rejoice in Yahweh! for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation. ¹¹and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring up; so the Lord Yahweh will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations. For as the earth produces its bud, 62For Zion’s sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, and her salvation like a burning lamp. until her righteousness shines out like the dawn, ²and all kings your glory, which Yahweh’s mouth will name. You will also be a crown of beauty in Yahweh’s hand, ⁴nor will your land be called Desolate any more: ^{xliii} and your land will be married. You will not be called Forsaken any more; ^{xliiii} for Yahweh delights in you, ⁵so your sons will marry you. so your God will rejoice over you. For as a young man marries a virgin, As a bridegroom rejoices over his bride, ⁶They will never be silent day nor night. I have set watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem. You who call on Yahweh, take no rest, ⁷and give him no rest, until he establishes, and until he makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. ⁸and by the arm of his strength, and foreigners will not drink your new wine, for which you have labored; Yahweh has sworn by his right hand, “Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; ⁹and those who have gathered it will drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.” but those who have harvested it will eat it, and praise Yahweh; ¹⁰Prepare the way of the people! Gather out the stones! Lift up a banner for the peoples. Go through, go through the gates! me: and trampled them in my wrath. and I have stained all my clothing. "I have trodden the wine press alone; Yes, I trod them in my anger, Their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments, ⁴and the year of my redeemed has come. For the day of vengeance was in my heart, ⁵therefore my own arm brought salvation to me; and my own wrath upheld me. I looked, and there was no one to help; and I wondered that there was no one to uphold: ⁶and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth." I trod down the peoples in my anger, ⁷and the praises of Yahweh, according to all that Yahweh has given to us, which he has given to them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses. I will tell of the loving kindnesses of Yahweh and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, ⁸children who will not deal falsely;" so he became their Savior. For he said, "Surely, they are my people, ⁹and the angel of his presence saved them. He bore them, and carried them all the days of old. In all their affliction he was afflicted, In his love and in his pity he redeemed them. ¹⁰and grieved his holy Spirit. and he himself fought against them. But they rebelled, Therefore he turned and became their enemy, ¹¹Moses and his people, saying, Where is he who put his Holy Spirit among them?" Then he remembered the days of old, "Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? ¹²Who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name? Who caused his glorious arm to be at Moses' right hand? ¹³like a horse in the wilderness, so that they didn't stumble? Who led them through the depths, ¹⁴Yahweh's Spirit caused them to rest. So you led your people, to make yourself a glorious name. As the livestock that go down into the valley, ¹⁵and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory. The yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me. Look down from heaven, Where are your zeal and your mighty acts? ¹⁶though Abraham doesn't know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us. Our Redeemer from everlasting is your name. We have been in sin for a long time. Shall we be saved? You meet him who rejoices and does righteousness, Behold, you were angry, and we sinned. ⁶and all our righteousness is like a polluted garment. and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. For we have all become like one who is unclean, We all fade like a leaf; ⁷who stirs himself up to take hold of you; and have consumed us by means of our iniquities. There is no one who calls on your name, for you have hidden your face from us, ⁸We are the clay, and you our potter. We all are the work of your hand. But now, Yahweh, you are our Father. ⁹and don't remember iniquity forever. we are all your people. Jeremiah

1The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. 2Yahweh's word ⁱ came to him in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. 4Now Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 5Before you were born, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations." "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. 6Then I said, "Ah, Lord ⁱⁱ Yahweh! Behold, ⁱⁱⁱ I don't know how to speak; for I am a child." 7But Yahweh said to me, "Don't say, 'I am a child;' for you must go to whomever I send you, and you must say whatever I command you. 8Don't be afraid because of them, for I am with you to rescue you," says Yahweh. 9Then Yahweh stretched out his hand, and touched my mouth. Then Yahweh said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth. 10Behold, I have today set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant." 11Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree." 12Then Yahweh said to me, "You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it." 13Yahweh's word came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?" I said, "I see a boiling cauldron; and it is tipping away from the north." 14Then Yahweh said to me, "Out of the north, evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. 15and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah. "They will come, and they will each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says Yahweh. 16in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands. I will utter my judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, 17"You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and say to them all that I command you. Don't be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. 18For, behold, I have made you today a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. 19They will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you", says Yahweh, "to rescue you."

2Yahweh's word came to me, saying, 2the love of your weddings; in a land that was not sown. "I remember for you the kindness of your youth, how you went after me in the wilderness, "Go, and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'Yahweh says, 3the first fruits of his increase. Evil shall come on them,'" says Yahweh." Israel was holiness to Yahweh, All who devour him shall be held guilty. 4Hear Yahweh's word, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel! 5that they have gone far from me, and have become worthless? "What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, and have walked after worthless vanity, Yahweh says, 6who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that no one passed through, and where no man lived?' They didn't say, 'Where is Yahweh who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, 7to eat its fruit and its goodness; and made my heritage an abomination. I brought you into a plentiful land, but when you entered, you defiled my land, 8and those who handle the law didn't know me. and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and followed things that do not profit. The priests didn't say, 'Where is Yahweh?' The rulers also transgressed against me, 9"and I will contend with your children's children. "Therefore I will yet contend with you," says Yahweh, 10and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing. For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see; 11which really are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit. Has a nation changed its gods, 12and be horribly afraid. Be very desolate," says Yahweh. "Be astonished, you heavens, at this, 13they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. "For my people have committed two evils: 14Is he a born into

Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts. ³⁵Surely his anger has turned away from me.’ because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’ “Yet you said, ‘I am innocent. “Behold, I will judge you, ³⁶You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria. Why do you go about so much to change your ways? ³⁷for Yahweh has rejected those in whom you trust, and you won’t prosper with them. You will also leave that place with your hands on your head;

3“They say, ‘If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and becomes another man’s, should he return to her again?’ Wouldn’t that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me,” says Yahweh. ²“Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been lain with? You have sat waiting for them by the road, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness. ³Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a prostitute’s forehead. You refused to be ashamed. ⁴Will you not from this time cry to me, ‘My Father, you are the guide of my youth?’ ⁵“Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?’ Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way.” ⁶Moreover, Yahweh said to me in the days of Josiah the king, “Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and has played the prostitute there. ⁷I said after she had done all these things, ‘She will return to me;’ but she didn’t return; and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. ⁸I saw when, for this very cause, that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, had no fear; but she also went and played the prostitute. ⁹Because she took her prostitution lightly, the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with wood. ¹⁰Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense,” says Yahweh. ¹¹Yahweh said to me, “Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. ¹²Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, ‘Return, you backsliding Israel,’ says Yahweh; ‘I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,’ says Yahweh. ‘I will not keep anger forever. ¹³Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against Yahweh your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice,’ says Yahweh.” ¹⁴“Return, backsliding children,” says Yahweh; “for I am a husband to you. I will take one of you from a city, and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion. ¹⁵I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶It will come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days," says Yahweh, "they will no longer say, 'the ark of Yahweh's covenant!' It will not come to mind. They won't remember it. They won't miss it, nor will another be made. ¹⁷At that time they will call Jerusalem 'Yahweh's Throne;' and all the nations will be gathered to it, to Yahweh's name, to Jerusalem. They will no longer walk after the stubbornness of their evil heart. ¹⁸In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers. ¹⁹"But I said, 'How I desire to put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations!' and I said, 'You shall call me "My Father", and shall not turn away from following me.' ²⁰"Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel," says Yahweh. ²¹A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten Yahweh their God. ²²Return, you backsliding children, and I will heal your backsliding. "Behold, we have come to you; for you are Yahweh our God. ²³Truly in vain is help from the hills, the tumult on the mountains. Truly the salvation of Israel is in Yahweh our God. ²⁴But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against Yahweh our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed Yahweh our God's voice."

⁴"If you will return, Israel," says Yahweh, "if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you shall not be removed; ²and you shall swear, 'As Yahweh lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory." ³For Yahweh says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, "Break up your fallow ground, and don't sow among thorns. ⁴Circumcise yourselves to Yahweh, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. ⁵Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, 'Blow the trumpet in the land!' Cry aloud and say, 'Assemble yourselves! Let us go into the fortified cities!' ⁶Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety! Don't wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction." ⁷A lion has gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he has gone out from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. ⁸For this clothe yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of Yahweh hasn't turned back from us. ⁹"It shall happen at that day," says Yahweh, "that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder." ¹⁰Then I said, "Ah, Lord Yahweh! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall have peace;' whereas the sword reaches to the heart." ¹¹At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; ¹²a full wind from these shall come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them." ¹³Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind; his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! For we are ruined. ¹⁴Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you? ¹⁵For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: ¹⁶"Tell the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, 'Watchers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me,'" says Yahweh. ¹⁸"Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart." ¹⁹My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can't hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. ²⁰Destruction on destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment. ²¹How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet? ²²"For my people are foolish, they don't know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but to do good they have no knowledge." ²³I saw the earth, and, behold, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. ²⁴I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. ²⁵I saw, and behold, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. ²⁶I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of Yahweh, before his fierce anger. ²⁷For Yahweh says, "The whole land shall be a desolation; yet will I not make a full end. ²⁸For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it." ²⁹Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they go into the thickets, and climb up on the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein. ³⁰You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with makeup, you make yourself beautiful in vain. Your lovers despise you. They seek your life. ³¹For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who gives birth to her first child, the voice of the

⁵"Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in its wide places, if you can find a man, if there are any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. ²Though they say, 'As Yahweh lives;' surely they swear falsely." ³O Yahweh, don't your eyes look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return. ⁴Then I said, "Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they don't know the way of Yahweh, nor the law of their God. ⁵I will go to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of Yahweh, and the law of their God." But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. ⁶Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; everyone who goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding is increased. ⁷"How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the prostitutes' houses. ⁸They were as fed horses roaming at large: everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife. ⁹Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says Yahweh; "and shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? ¹⁰"Go up on her walls, and destroy; but don't make a full end. Take away her branches; for they are not Yahweh's. ¹¹For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me," says Yahweh. ¹²They have denied Yahweh, and said, "It is not he; neither shall evil come on us; neither shall we see sword nor famine. ¹³The prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them." ¹⁴Therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies says, "Because you speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. ¹⁵Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far, house of Israel," says Yahweh. "It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know, neither understand what they say. ¹⁶Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty men. ¹⁷They shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds. They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword. ¹⁸"But even in those days," says Yahweh, "I will not make a full end with you. ¹⁹It will happen, when you say, 'Why has Yahweh our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Just like you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.' ²⁰"Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, ²¹'Hear now this, foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and don't see; who have ears, and don't hear: ²²Don't you fear me?' says Yahweh 'Won't you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? and though its waves toss themselves, yet they can't prevail; though they roar, yet they can't pass over it.' ²³"But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. ²⁴Neither do they say in their heart, 'Let us now fear Yahweh our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.' ²⁵"Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. ²⁶For among my people are found wicked men. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap. They catch men. ²⁷As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich. ²⁸They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excel in deeds of wickedness. They don't plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they don't judge the right of the needy. ²⁹"Shall I not punish for these things?" says Yahweh. "Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? ³⁰"An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land. ³¹The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?

hold, Yahweh's word has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. ¹¹and on the assembly of young men together; the aged with him who is full of days. "Pour it out on the children in the street, for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, Therefore I am full of Yahweh's wrath. I am weary with holding in. ¹²their fields and their wives together; Their houses shall be turned to others, for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land, says Yahweh." ¹³and from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely. "For from their least even to their greatest, everyone is given to covetousness; ¹⁴saying, 'Peace, peace!' when there is no peace. They have healed also the hurt of my people superficially, ¹⁵No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush. at the time that I visit them, they shall be cast down," says Yahweh. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; ¹⁶Yahweh says, "Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, 'Where is the good way?' and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not walk in it.' ¹⁷I set watchmen over you, saying, 'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!' But they said, 'We will not listen!' ¹⁸Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them. ¹⁹Hear, earth! Behold, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. ²⁰To what purpose comes there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me." ²¹Therefore Yahweh says, "Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend shall perish." ²²Yahweh says, "Behold, a people comes from the north country. A great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ²³They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion." ²⁴We have heard its report; our hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. ²⁵Don't go out into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror, are on every side. ²⁶Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes! Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come on us. ²⁷"I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way. ²⁸They are all grievous rebels, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. ²⁹The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. ³⁰Men will call them rejected silver, because Yahweh has rejected them."

⁷The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²"Stand in the gate of Yahweh's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, 'Hear Yahweh's word, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship Yahweh.'" ³Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, "Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. ⁴Don't trust in lying words, saying, 'Yahweh's temple, Yahweh's temple, Yahweh's temple, are these.' ⁵For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; ⁶if you don't oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: ⁷then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forever more. ⁸Behold, you trust in lying words, that can't profit. ⁹Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, ¹⁰and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, 'We are delivered;' that you may do all these abominations? ¹¹Has this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it," says Yahweh. ¹²"But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. ¹³Now, because you have done all these works," says Yahweh, "and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you didn't hear; and I called you, but you didn't answer: ¹⁴therefore will I do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. ¹⁵I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole offspring ^{vi} of Ephraim. ¹⁶"Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up a cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. ¹⁷Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. ¹⁹Do they provoke me to anger? says Yahweh. "Don't they provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?" ²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: "Behold, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on man, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched." ²¹Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: "Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat. ²²For I didn't speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

^{vi}Jeremiah 7:15 or, seed

²³but this thing I commanded them, saying, ‘Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.’ ²⁴But they didn’t listen nor turn their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. ²⁵Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: ²⁶yet they didn’t listen to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers. ²⁷“You shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you. ²⁸You shall tell them, ‘This is the nation that has not listened to Yahweh their God’s voice, nor received instruction. Truth has perished, and is cut off from their mouth.’ ²⁹Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for Yahweh has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. ³⁰“For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight,” says Yahweh. “They have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. ³¹They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I didn’t command, nor did it come into my mind. ³²Therefore behold, the days come”, says Yahweh, “that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter; for they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. ³³The dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth; and no one shall frighten them away. ³⁴Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.”

backsliding? ⁶No one repents of his wickedness, saying, “What have I done?” as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle. I listened and heard, but they didn’t say what is right. Everyone turns to his course, ⁷and the turtle-dove, the swallow, and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people don’t know Yahweh’s law. Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times; ⁸But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has worked falsely. “How do you say, “We are wise, and Yahweh’s law is with us?” ⁹They are dismayed and trapped. What kind of wisdom is in them? The wise men are disappointed. Behold, they have rejected Yahweh’s word. ¹⁰and their fields to those who shall possess them. from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely. Therefore will I give their wives to others, For everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; ¹¹“Peace, peace,” when there is no peace. They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, ¹²No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says Yahweh. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? therefore they shall fall among those who fall; ¹³no grapes shall be on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; shall pass away from them.” “I will utterly consume them, says Yahweh: and the things that I have given them ¹⁴Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against Yahweh. “Why do we sit still? for Yahweh our God has put us to silence, ¹⁵and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay! We looked for peace, but no good came; ¹⁶at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembles; the city and those who dwell therein.” The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; ¹⁷adders among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you,” says Yahweh. “For, behold, I will send serpents, ¹⁸My heart is faint within me. Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! ¹⁹“Isn’t Yahweh in Zion? Isn’t her King in her?” and with foreign vanities?” Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: “Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, ²⁰the summer is ended, and we are not saved.” “The harvest is past, ²¹I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: ²²is there no physician there? Is there no balm in Gilead? Why then isn’t the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

⁹Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! ²Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they are all adulter-

ers, an assembly of treacherous men. ³They bend their tongue, as their bow, for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they don't know me, says Yahweh. ⁴Take heed everyone of his neighbor, and don't trust in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. ⁵They will deceive everyone his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. ⁶Your habitation is in the middle of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, says Yahweh. ⁷Therefore Yahweh of Armies says, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how should I deal with the daughter of my people? ⁸Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he lays wait for him. ⁹Shall I not visit them for these things? says Yahweh; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? ¹⁰For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that no one passes through; neither can men hear the voice of the livestock; both the birds of the sky and the animals are fled, they are gone. ¹¹I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant. ¹²Who is the wise man, that may understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of Yahweh has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that no one passes through? ¹³Yahweh says, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein, ¹⁴but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them; ¹⁵therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. ¹⁶I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them. ¹⁷Yahweh of Armies says, Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the skillful women, that they may come: ¹⁸and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. ¹⁹For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we ruined! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings. ²⁰Yet hear Yahweh's word, you women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor lamentation. ²¹For death has come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets. ²²Speak, Yahweh says, The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester; and no one shall gather them. ²³Yahweh says, Don't let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, don't let the rich man glory in his riches; ²⁴but let him who glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am Yahweh who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, says Yahweh. ²⁵Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will punish all those who are circumcised in uncircumcision: ²⁶Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.

his inheritance: Yahweh of Armies is his name. ¹⁷Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege. ¹⁸For Yahweh says, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it. ¹⁹Woe is me because of my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it. ²⁰My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children have gone away from me, and they are no more. There is no one to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. ²¹For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of Yahweh: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. ²²The voice of news, behold, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals. ²³Yahweh, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. ²⁴Yahweh, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing. ²⁵Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, and on the families that don't call on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

11The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; ³and say to them, Yahweh, the God of Israel says: Cursed is the man who doesn't hear the words of this covenant, ⁴which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; ⁵that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today. Then answered I, and said, Amen, Yahweh. ⁶Yahweh said to me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. ⁷For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. ⁸Yet they didn't obey, nor turn their ear, but walked everyone in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they didn't do them. ⁹Yahweh said to me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. ¹¹Therefore Yahweh says, Behold, I will bring evil on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not listen to them. ¹²Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal. ¹⁴Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble. ¹⁵What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has worked lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from you? when you do evil, then you rejoice. ¹⁶Yahweh called your name, A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire on it, and its branches are broken. ¹⁷For Yahweh of Armies, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have worked for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal. ¹⁸Yahweh gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings. ¹⁹But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I didn't know that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. ²⁰But, Yahweh of Armies, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause. ²¹Therefore Yahweh says concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, You shall not prophesy in Yahweh's name, that you not die by our hand; ²²therefore Yahweh of Armies says, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; ²³and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

12You are righteous, Yahweh, when I contend with you; yet I would reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? why are all they at ease who deal very treacherously? ²You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they produce fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. ³But you, Yahweh, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. ⁴How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? for the wickedness of those who dwell therein, the animals are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our latter end. ⁵If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? and though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan? ⁶For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: don't believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you. ⁷I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. ⁸My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. ⁹Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? are the birds of prey against her all around? Go, assemble all the animals of the field, bring them to devour. ¹⁰Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. ¹¹They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart. ¹²Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of Yahweh devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace. ¹³They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing; and you shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of Yahweh. ¹⁴Yahweh says against all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵It shall happen, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. ¹⁶It shall happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, As Yahweh lives; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the middle of my people. ¹⁷But if they will not hear, then I will pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, says Yahweh.

13Yahweh says to me, Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and don't put it in water. ²So I bought a belt according to Yahweh's word, and put it on my waist. ³Yahweh's word came to me the second time, saying, ⁴Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock. ⁵So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as Yahweh commanded me. ⁶After many days, Yahweh said to me, Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there. ⁷Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the belt was marred, it was profitable for nothing. ⁸Then Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁹Yahweh says, In this way I will mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing. ¹¹For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so have I caused to cling to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, says Yahweh; that they may be to me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. ¹²Therefore you shall speak to them this word: Yahweh, the God of Israel says, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall tell you, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? ¹³Then you shall tell them, Yahweh says, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. ¹⁴I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says Yahweh: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them. ¹⁵Hear, and give ear; don't be proud; for Yahweh has spoken. ¹⁶Give glory to Yahweh your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it gross darkness. ¹⁷But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because Yahweh's flock is taken captive. ¹⁸Say to the king and to the queen mother, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your headdresses have come down, even the crown of your glory. ¹⁹The cities of the South are shut up, and there is no one to open them: Judah is carried away captive, all of it; it is wholly carried away captive. ²⁰Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? ²¹What will you say, when he shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail? ²²If you say in your heart, Why are these things come on me? for the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence. ²³Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. ²⁴Therefore will I scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness. ²⁵This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me, says Yahweh; because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. ²⁶Therefore will I also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame shall appear. ²⁷I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, Jerusalem! You will not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?

14Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. ²Judah mourns, and its gates languish, they sit in black on the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. ³Their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are disappointed and confounded, and cover their heads. ⁴Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed, they cover their heads. ⁵Yes, the hind also in the field calves, and forsakes her young, because there is no grass. ⁶The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage. ⁷Though our iniquities testify against us, work for your name's sake, Yahweh; for our rebellions are many; we have sinned against you. ⁸You hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night? ⁹Why should you be like a scared man, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, Yahweh, are in the middle of us, and we are called by your name; don't leave us. ¹⁰Yahweh says to this people, Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore Yahweh does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. ¹¹Yahweh said to me, Don't pray for this people for their good. ¹²When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. ¹³Then I said, Ah, Lord Yahweh! behold, the prophets tell them, You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place. ¹⁴Then Yahweh said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I didn't send them, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke I to them: they prophesy to you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart. ¹⁵Therefore Yahweh says concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I didn't send them, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. ¹⁶The people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have no one to bury them—they, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness on them. ¹⁷You shall say this word to them, Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. ¹⁸If I go out into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then, behold, those who are sick with famine! for both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge. ¹⁹Have you utterly rejected Judah? has your soul loathed Zion? why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay! ²⁰We acknowledge, Yahweh, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you. ²¹Do not abhor us, for your name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of your glory:

remember, don't break your covenant with us. ²²Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? or can the sky give showers? Aren't you he, Yahweh our God? therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.

15Then Yahweh said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go out. ²It shall happen, when they tell you, Where shall we go out? Then you shall tell them, Yahweh says: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity. ³I will appoint over them four kinds, says Yahweh: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy. ⁴I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. ⁵For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? or who will bemoan you? or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare? ⁶You have rejected me, says Yahweh, you have gone backward: therefore have I stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting. ⁷I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they didn't return from their ways. ⁸Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly. ⁹She who has borne seven languishes; she has given up the spirit; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she has been disappointed and confounded: and their residue will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, says Yahweh. ¹⁰Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; yet everyone of them curses me. ¹¹Yahweh said, Most certainly I will strengthen you for good; most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. ¹²Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and brass? ¹³Your substance and your treasures will I give for a plunder without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders. ¹⁴I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you don't know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn on you. ¹⁵Yahweh, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; you are patient, so don't take me away. Know that for your sake I have suffered reproach. ¹⁶Your words were found, and I ate them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, Yahweh, God of Armies. ¹⁷I didn't sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation. ¹⁸Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, like waters that fail? ¹⁹Therefore Yahweh says, If you return, then I will bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take out the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth: they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them. ²⁰I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says Yahweh. ²¹I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.

16Yahweh's word came also to me, saying, ²You shall not take a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place. ³For Yahweh says concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land: ⁴They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. ⁵For Yahweh says, Don't enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says Yahweh, even loving kindness and tender mercies. ⁶Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; ⁷neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. ⁸You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink. ⁹For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. ¹⁰It shall happen, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall tell you, Why has Yahweh pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against Yahweh our God? ¹¹Then you shall tell them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, says Yahweh, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; ¹²and you have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, you walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you don't listen to me: ¹³therefore will I cast you out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods

day and night; for I will show you no favor. ¹⁴Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that it shall no more be said, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; ¹⁵but, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them. I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers. ¹⁶Behold, I will send for many fishermen, says Yahweh, and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. ¹⁷For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes. ¹⁸First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations. ¹⁹Yahweh, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit. ²⁰Shall a man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods? ²¹Therefore behold, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Yahweh.

he shall be a fool. ¹²A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary. ¹³Yahweh, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you shall be disappointed. Those who depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken Yahweh, the spring of living waters. ¹⁴Heal me, O Yahweh, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for you are my praise. ¹⁵Behold, they tell me, Where is Yahweh's word? let it come now. ¹⁶As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face. ¹⁷Don't be a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil. ¹⁸Let them be disappointed who persecute me, but let not me be disappointed; let them be dismayed, but don't let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction. ¹⁹Thus said Yahweh to me: Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; ²⁰and tell them, Hear Yahweh's word, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: ²¹Yahweh says, Be careful, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; ²²neither carry a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, neither do any work: but make the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. ²³But they didn't listen, neither turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. ²⁴It shall happen, if you diligently listen to me, says Yahweh, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein; ²⁵then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. ²⁶They shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to Yahweh's house. ²⁷But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then I will kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

¹⁸The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words. ³Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was making a work on the wheels. ⁴When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

⁵Then Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁶House of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter? says Yahweh. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel. ⁷At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; ⁸if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. ⁹At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; ¹⁰if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them. ¹¹Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Yahweh says: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return you now everyone from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings. ¹²But they say, It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of his evil heart. ¹³Therefore Yahweh says: Ask now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. ¹⁴Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? Shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up? ¹⁵For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up; ¹⁶to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. ¹⁷I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. ¹⁸Then they said, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. ¹⁹Give heed to me, Yahweh, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. ²⁰Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them. ²¹Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men struck of the sword in battle. ²²Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. ²³Yet, Yahweh, you know all their counsel against me to kill me; don't forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal you with them in the time of your anger.

¹⁹Thus said Yahweh, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; ²and go out to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you; ³and say, Hear Yahweh's word, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle. ⁴Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they didn't know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, ⁵and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I didn't command, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind: ⁶therefore, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter. ⁷I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies will I give to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. ⁸I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. ⁹I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat everyone the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, shall distress them. ¹⁰Then you shall break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you, ¹¹and shall tell them, Yahweh of Armies says: Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that can't be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. ¹²Thus will I do to this place, says Yahweh, and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth: ¹³and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods. ¹⁴Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, where Yahweh had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of Yahweh's house, and said to all the people: ¹⁵Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.

20Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in Yahweh's house, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. ²Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in Yahweh's house. ³On the next day, Pashhur released Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, Yahweh has not called your name Pashhur, but Magormissabib. ⁴For Yahweh says, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword. ⁵Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all the precious things of it, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them captives, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. ⁶You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely. ⁷Yahweh, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded; you are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I am become a laughing-stock all the day, every one mocks me. ⁸For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and destruction! because Yahweh's word is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day. ⁹If I say, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can't. ¹⁰For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce him, say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall; perhaps he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him. ¹¹But Yahweh is with me as an awesome mighty one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten. ¹²But, Yahweh of Armies, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause. ¹³Sing to Yahweh, praise Yahweh; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evil-doers. ¹⁴Cursed is the day in which I was born: don't let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. ¹⁵Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A boy is born to you; making him very glad. ¹⁶Let that man be as the cities which Yahweh overthrew, and didn't repent: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; ¹⁷because he didn't kill me from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great. ¹⁸Why did I come out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

21The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, ²Please inquire of Yahweh for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: perhaps Yahweh will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us. ³Then Jeremiah said to them, You shall tell Zedekiah: ⁴Yahweh, the God of Israel says, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the middle of this city. ⁵I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. ⁶I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal: they shall die of a great pestilence. ⁷Afterward, says Yahweh, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. ⁸To this people you shall say, Yahweh says: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey. ¹⁰For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good, says Yahweh: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. ¹¹Touching the house of the king of Judah, hear Yahweh's word: ¹²House of David, Yahweh says, Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go out like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. ¹³Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain, says Yahweh; you that say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? ¹⁴I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says Yahweh; and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is around her.

22 Thus said Yahweh: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, ²Say, Hear Yahweh's word, king of Judah, who sits on David's throne, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. ³Yahweh says: Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on David's throne, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. ⁵But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says Yahweh, that this house shall become a desolation. ⁶For Yahweh says concerning the house of the king of Judah: You are Gilead to me, the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited. ⁷I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. ⁸Many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, Why has Yahweh done thus to this great city? ⁹Then they shall answer, Because they abandoned the covenant of Yahweh their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them. ¹⁰Don't weep for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. ¹¹For Yahweh says touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went out of this place: He shall not return there any more. ¹²But in the place where they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more. ¹³Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice; who uses his neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give him his hire; ¹⁴who says, I will build me a wide house and spacious rooms, and cuts him out windows; and it is ceiling with cedar, and painted with vermilion. ¹⁵Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Didn't your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? then it was well with him. ¹⁶He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this to know me? says Yahweh. ¹⁷But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. ¹⁸Therefore Yahweh says concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! They shall not lament for him, saying Ah lord! or, Ah his glory! ¹⁹He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast out beyond the gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed. ²¹I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your way from your youth, that you didn't obey my voice. ²²The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. ²³Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you, the pain as of a woman in travail! ²⁴As I live, says Yahweh, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you there; ²⁵and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. ²⁷But to the land t which their soul longs to return, there shall they not return. ²⁸Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? is he a vessel in which no one delights? why are they cast out, he and his offspring, ^{vii} and are cast into the land which they don't know? ²⁹O earth, earth, earth, hear Yahweh's word. ³⁰Yahweh says, Write you this man childless, a man who shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his offspring ^{viii} prosper, sitting on David's throne, and ruling in Judah.

23Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says Yahweh. ²Therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says against the shepherds who feed my people: You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings, says Yahweh. ³I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. ⁴I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking, says Yahweh. ⁵Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ⁶In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name by which he shall be called: Yahweh our righteousness. ⁷Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that they shall no more say, As Yahweh lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; ⁸but, As Yahweh lives, who brought up and who led the offspring ^{ix} of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them. They shall dwell in their own land. ⁹Concerning the prophets. My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of Yahweh, and because of his holy words. ¹⁰For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. Their course is evil, and their might is not right; ¹¹for both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house have I found their wickedness, says Yahweh. ¹²Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation, says Yahweh. ¹³I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. ¹⁴In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one returns from his wickedness: they have all become to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah. ¹⁵Therefore Yahweh of Armies says concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone out into all the land. ¹⁶Yahweh of Armies says, Don't listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of Yahweh. ¹⁷They say continually to those who despise me, Yahweh has said, You shall have peace; and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, No evil shall come on you. ¹⁸For who has stood in the council of Yahweh, that he should perceive and hear his word? who has marked my word, and heard it? ¹⁹Behold, Yahweh's storm, his wrath, has gone out. Yes, a whirling storm. It shall burst on the head of the wicked. ²⁰Yahweh's anger shall not return, until he has executed, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you shall understand it perfectly. ²¹I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I didn't speak to them, yet they prophesied. ²²But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. ²³Am I a God at hand, says Yahweh, and not a God afar off? ²⁴Can any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him? says Yahweh. Don't I fill heaven and earth? says Yahweh. ²⁵I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. ²⁶How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart? ²⁷who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal. ²⁸The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? says Yahweh. ²⁹Isn't my word like fire? says Yahweh; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? ³⁰Therefore behold, I am against the prophets, says Yahweh, who steal my words everyone from his neighbor. ³¹Behold, I am against the prophets, says Yahweh, who use their tongues, and say, He says. ³²Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says Yahweh, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I didn't send them, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all, says Yahweh. ³³When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden of Yahweh? Then you shall tell them, What burden! I will cast you off, says Yahweh. ³⁴As for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, The burden of Yahweh, I will even punish that man and his house. ³⁵You shall say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, What has Yahweh answered? and, What has Yahweh spoken? ³⁶You shall mention the burden of Yahweh no more: for every man's own word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living

God, of Yahweh of Armies our God. ³⁷You shall say to the prophet, What has Yahweh answered you? and, What has Yahweh spoken? ³⁸But if you say, The burden of Yahweh; therefore Yahweh says: Because you say this word, The burden of Yahweh, and I have sent to you, saying, You shall not say, The burden of Yahweh; ³⁹therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence: ⁴⁰and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

24Yahweh showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs set before Yahweh's temple, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. ²One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. ³Then Yahweh said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. ⁴Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁵Yahweh, the God of Israel says: Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good. ⁶For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. ⁷I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Yahweh: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart. ⁸As the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad, surely Yahweh says, So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt, ⁹I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. ¹⁰I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

25The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), ²which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: ³From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, Yahweh's word has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened. ⁴Yahweh has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear) ⁵saying, Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that Yahweh has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forever more; ⁶and don't go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and don't provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm. ⁷Yet you have not listened to me, says Yahweh; that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt. ⁸Therefore Yahweh of Armies says: Because you have not heard my words, ⁹behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, says Yahweh, and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. ¹⁰Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. ¹¹This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. ¹²It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says Yahweh, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate forever. ¹³I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴For many nations and great kings shall make bondservants of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands. ¹⁵For Yahweh says, the God of Israel, to me: take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. ¹⁶They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. ¹⁷Then took I the cup at Yahweh's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom Yahweh had sent me: ¹⁸Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is today; ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; ²⁰and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; ²¹Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; ²²and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; ²³Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off; ²⁴and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness; ²⁵and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; ²⁶and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them. ²⁷You shall tell them, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. ²⁸It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, Yahweh of Armies says: You shall surely drink. ²⁹For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says Yahweh of Armies. ³⁰Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and tell them, Yahweh will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. ³¹A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for Yahweh has a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword, says Yahweh. ³²Yahweh of Armies says, Behold, evil shall go out from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ³³The slain of Yahweh shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground. ³⁴Wail, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow in dust, you principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and you shall fall like a goodly vessel. ³⁵The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. ³⁶A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock! for Yahweh lays waste their pasture. ³⁷The peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of Yahweh. ³⁸He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppression, and because of his fierce anger.

26In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from Yahweh, saying, ²Yahweh says: Stand in the court of Yahweh's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Yahweh's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; don't diminish a word. ³It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings. ⁴You shall tell them, Yahweh says: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, ⁵to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; ⁶then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. ⁷The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in Yahweh's house. ⁸When Jeremiah had finished speaking all that Yahweh had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him, saying, "You shall surely die." ⁹Why have you prophesied in Yahweh's name, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant? All the people were gathered to Jeremiah in Yahweh's house. ¹⁰When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to Yahweh's house; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's house. ¹¹Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears. ¹²Then spoke Jeremiah to all the princes and to all the people, saying, Yahweh sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. ¹³Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey Yahweh your God's voice; and Yahweh will repent him of the evil that he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes. ¹⁵Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for of a truth Yahweh has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears. ¹⁶Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of Yahweh our God. ¹⁷Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, ¹⁸Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Yahweh of Armies says: Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. ¹⁹Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Didn't he fear Yahweh, and entreat the favor of Yahweh, and Yahweh relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls. ²⁰There was also a man who prophesied in Yahweh's name, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: ²¹and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt: ²²and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; ²³and they fetched Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. ²⁴But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²Yahweh says to me: Make bonds and bars, and put them on your neck; ³and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; ⁴and give them a command to their masters, saying, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says, You shall tell your masters: ⁵I have made the earth, the men and the animals that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. ⁶Now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the animals of the field also have I given him to serve him. ⁷All the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their bondservant. ⁸It shall happen, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, says Yahweh, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. ⁹But as for you, don't you listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon: ¹⁰for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. ¹¹But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, says Yahweh; and they shall till it, and dwell therein. ¹²I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. ¹³Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴Don't listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁵For I have not sent them, says Yahweh, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you. ¹⁶Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Yahweh says: Don't listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of Yahweh's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷Don't listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation? ¹⁸But if they be prophets, and if Yahweh's word be with them, let them now make intercession to Yahweh of Armies, that the vessels which are left in Yahweh's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon. ¹⁹For Yahweh of Armies says concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, ²⁰which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon didn't take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; ²¹yes, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning the vessels that are left in Yahweh's house, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: ²²They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them, says Yahweh; then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place.

28That same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in Yahweh's house, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, ²Thus speaks Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of Yahweh's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon: ⁴and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon, says Yahweh; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. ⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in Yahweh's house, ⁶even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: Yahweh do so; Yahweh perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Yahweh's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place. ⁷Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: ⁸The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. ⁹The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall happen, then shall the prophet be known, that Yahweh has truly sent him. ¹⁰Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. ¹¹Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Yahweh says: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. The prophet Jeremiah went his way. ¹²Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ¹³Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Yahweh says: You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their place bars of iron. ¹⁴For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the animals of the field also. ¹⁵Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah: Yahweh has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶Therefore Yahweh says, Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against Yahweh. ¹⁷So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

29Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, ²(after that Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem), ³by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying, ⁴Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵Build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit. ⁶Take wives, and father sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and don't be diminished. ⁷Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to Yahweh for it; for in its peace you shall have peace. ⁸For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: Don't let your prophets who are among you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. ⁹For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them, says Yahweh. ¹⁰For Yahweh says, After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. ¹¹For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says Yahweh, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope and a future. ¹²You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. ¹⁴I will be found by you, says Yahweh, and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says Yahweh; and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive. ¹⁵Because you have said, Yahweh has raised us up prophets in Babylon; ¹⁶Yahweh says concerning the king who sits on David's throne, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who haven't gone with you into captivity; ¹⁷Yahweh of Armies says: Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. ¹⁸I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them; ¹⁹because they have not listened to my words, says Yahweh, with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear, says Yahweh. ²⁰Hear therefore Yahweh's word, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes; ²²and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, Yahweh make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; ²³because they have worked folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I didn't command them; and I am he who knows, and am witness, says Yahweh. ²⁴Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying, ²⁵Thus speaks Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶Yahweh has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in Yahweh's house, for every man who is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. ²⁷Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you, ²⁸because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long: build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit? ²⁹Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, ³¹Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Yahweh says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I didn't send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie; ³²therefore Yahweh says, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his offspring; ^x he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he see the good that I will do to my people, says Yahweh, because he has spoken rebellion against Yahweh.

30The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²Thus speaks Yahweh, the God of Israel, saying, Write

all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. ³For, behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, says Yahweh; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. ⁴These are the words that Yahweh spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. ⁵For Yahweh says: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. ⁶Ask now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? ⁷Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. ⁸It shall come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondservant; ⁹but they shall serve Yahweh their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. ¹⁰Therefore don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says Yahweh; neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring ^{xi} from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid. ¹¹For I am with you, says Yahweh, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished. ¹²For Yahweh says, Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. ¹³There is no one to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. ¹⁴All your lovers have forgotten you; they don't seek you: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased. ¹⁵Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you. ¹⁶Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who plunder you shall be plundered, and all who prey on you will I give for a prey. ¹⁷For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds, says Yahweh; because they have called you an outcast, saying, It is Zion, whom no man seeks after. ¹⁸Yahweh says: Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited in its own way. ¹⁹Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. ²⁰Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them. ²¹Their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from among them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me? says Yahweh. ²²You shall be my people, and I will be your God. ²³Behold, Yahweh's storm, his wrath, has gone out, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked. ²⁴The fierce anger of Yahweh will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.

31At that time, says Yahweh, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. ²Yahweh says, The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. ³Yahweh appeared of old to me, saying, Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness have I drawn you. ⁴Again will I build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again you shall be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go out in the dances of those who make merry. ⁵Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy its fruit. ⁶For there shall be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise, and let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our God. ⁷For Yahweh says, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, Yahweh, save your people, the remnant of Israel. ⁸Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall they return here. ⁹They shall come with weeping; and with petitions will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. ¹⁰Hear Yahweh's word, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock. ¹¹For Yahweh has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. ¹²They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of Yahweh, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. ¹³Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. ¹⁴I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, says Yahweh. ¹⁵Yahweh says: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more. ¹⁶Yahweh says: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears;

for your work shall be rewarded, says Yahweh; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. ¹⁷There is hope for your latter end, says Yahweh; and your children shall come again to their own border. ¹⁸I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf: turn me, and I shall be turned; for you are Yahweh my God. ¹⁹Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth. ²⁰Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a darling child? for as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says Yahweh. ²¹Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. ²²How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? for Yahweh has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man. ²³Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall bring again their captivity: Yahweh bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness. ²⁴Judah and all its cities shall dwell therein together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks. ²⁵For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished. ²⁶On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me. ²⁷Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of animal. ²⁸It shall happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant, says Yahweh. ²⁹In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge. ³⁰But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge. ³¹Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: ³²not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, although I was a husband to them, says Yahweh. ³³But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says Yahweh: I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people: ³⁴and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know Yahweh; for they shall all know me, from their least to their greatest, says Yahweh: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more. ³⁵Yahweh, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; Yahweh of Armies is his name, says: ³⁶If these ordinances depart from before me, says Yahweh, then the offspring ^{xii} of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever. ³⁷Yahweh says: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all the offspring ^{xiii} of Israel for all that they have done, says Yahweh. ³⁸Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that the city shall be built to Yahweh from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner. ³⁹The measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah. ⁴⁰The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy to Yahweh; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever.

32The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. ³For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy, and say, Yahweh says, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; ⁴and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall see his eyes; ⁵and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he shall be there until I visit him, says Yahweh: though you fight with the Chaldeans, you shall not prosper? ⁶Jeremiah said, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁷Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it. ⁸So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to Yahweh's word, and said to me, Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was Yahweh's word. ⁹I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels ^{xiv} of silver. ¹⁰I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. ¹¹So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; ¹²and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. ¹³I commanded Baruch before them, saying, ¹⁴Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days. ¹⁵For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land. ¹⁶Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to Yahweh, saying, ¹⁷Ah Lord Yahweh! Behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you, ¹⁸who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the great, the mighty God, Yahweh of Armies is his name; ¹⁹great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: ²⁰who performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men; and made yourself a name, as it is today; ²¹and brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror; ²²and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; ²³and they came in, and possessed it, but they didn't obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come upon them. ²⁴Behold, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and behold, you see it. ²⁵You have said to me, Lord Yahweh, Buy the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁷Behold, I am Yahweh, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me? ²⁸Therefore Yahweh says: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: ²⁹and the Chaldeans, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. ³⁰For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says Yahweh. ³¹For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face, ³²because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³³They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. ³⁴But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. ³⁵They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech; which I didn't command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin. ³⁶Now therefore Yahweh, the God of Israel, says concerning this city, about which you say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: ³⁷Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: ³⁸and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: ³⁹and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and of their children after them: ⁴⁰and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. ⁴¹Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. ⁴²For Yahweh says: Like as I have brought all this great evil on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them. ⁴³Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. ⁴⁴Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, says Yahweh.

33Moreover Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, ²Yahweh who does it, Yahweh who forms it to establish it; Yahweh is his name, says: ³Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great things, and difficult, which you don't know. ⁴For Yahweh, the God of Israel, says concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword; ⁵while men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city: ⁶Behold,

I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. ⁷I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. ⁸I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have transgressed against me. ⁹This city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it. ¹⁰Yahweh says: Yet again there shall be heard in this place, about which you say, It is waste, without man and without animal, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal, ¹¹the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, Give thanks to Yahweh of Armies, for Yahweh is good, for his loving kindness endures forever; who bring thanksgiving into Yahweh's house. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, says Yahweh. ¹²Yahweh of Armies says: Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. ¹³In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of him who numbers them, says Yahweh. ¹⁴Behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. ¹⁵In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name by which she shall be called: Yahweh our righteousness. ¹⁷For Yahweh says: David shall never want a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; ¹⁸neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. ¹⁹Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁰Yahweh says: If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season; ²¹then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. ²²As the army of the sky can't be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so I will multiply the offspring ^{xv} of David my servant, and the Levites who minister to me. ²³Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁴Don't consider what this people has spoken, saying, The two families which Yahweh chose, he has cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. ²⁵Yahweh says: If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; ²⁶then I will also cast away the offspring ^{xvi} of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his offspring ^{xvii} to be rulers over the offspring ^{xviii} of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.

34The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying: ²Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Yahweh says, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: ³and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon. ⁴Yet hear Yahweh's word, O Zedekiah king of Judah: Yahweh says concerning you, You shall not die by the sword; ⁵you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, Ah Lord! for I have spoken the word, says Yahweh. ⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, ⁷when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities. ⁸The word that came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; ⁹that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that no one should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. ¹⁰All the princes and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant, go free, that no one should make bondservants of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: ¹¹but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. ¹²Therefore Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ¹³Yahweh, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, ¹⁴At the end of seven years you shall let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you: but your fathers didn't listen to me, neither inclined their ear. ¹⁵You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: ¹⁶but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids. ¹⁷Therefore Yahweh says: you have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim to you a liberty, says Yahweh, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; ¹⁹the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; ²⁰I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth. ²¹Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who have gone away from you. ²²Behold, I will command, says Yahweh, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

35The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into Yahweh's house, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink. ³Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; ⁴and I brought them into Yahweh's house, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the room of the princes, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. ⁵I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, Drink wine! ⁶But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever: ⁷neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you live. ⁸We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; ⁹nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: ¹⁰but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹¹But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, "Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we will dwell at Jerusalem." ¹²Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Go, and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words? says Yahweh. ¹⁴The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me. ¹⁵I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and don't go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. ¹⁶Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me; ¹⁷therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered. ¹⁸Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you; ¹⁹therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me forever.

36In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, saying, ²Take a scroll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. ³It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. ⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all Yahweh's words, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll of a book. ⁵Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I can't go into Yahweh's house: ⁶therefore you go, and read in the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, Yahweh's words in the ears of the people in Yahweh's house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. ⁷It may be they will present their supplication before Yahweh, and will return everyone from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that Yahweh has pronounced against this people. ⁸Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book Yahweh's words in Yahweh's house. ⁹Now in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Yahweh. ¹⁰Then Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the book in Yahweh's house, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Yahweh's house, in the ears of all the people. ¹¹When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all Yahweh's words, ¹²he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room: and behold, all the princes were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. ¹³Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. ¹⁴Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. ¹⁵They said to him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. ¹⁶Now when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." ¹⁷They asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth? ¹⁸Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. ¹⁹Then the princes said to Baruch, Go, hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are. ²⁰They went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. ²¹So the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll; and he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. ²²Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him. ²³When Je-hudi had read three or four leaves, the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. ²⁴They were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words. ²⁵Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll; but he would not hear them. ²⁶The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Yahweh hid them. ²⁷Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, ²⁸Take again another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, Yahweh says: You have burned this scroll, saying, Why have you written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and animal? ³⁰Therefore Yahweh says concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on David's throne; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. ³¹I will punish him and his offspring ^{xix} and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen. ³²Then took Jeremiah another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and many similar words were added to them.

37 Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ²But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to Yahweh's words, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah. ³Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now to Yahweh our God for us. ⁴Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. ⁵Pharaoh's army had come out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem. ⁶Then came Yahweh's word to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ⁷Yahweh, the God of Israel, says, You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come out to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. ⁸The Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire. ⁹Yahweh says, Don't deceive yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart. ¹⁰For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yes would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. ¹¹When the army of the Chaldeans had broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, ¹²then Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the middle of the people. ¹³When he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Haniah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling away to the Chaldeans. ¹⁴Then Jeremiah said, It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But he didn't listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. ¹⁵The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison. ¹⁶When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; ¹⁷Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from Yahweh? Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. ¹⁸Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? ¹⁹Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? ²⁰Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. ²¹Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, ²Yahweh says, He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey, and he shall live. ³Yahweh says, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. ⁴Then the princes said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt." ⁵Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you. ⁶Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire. ⁷Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), ⁸Ebedmelech went out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city. ¹⁰Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies. ¹¹So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. ¹²Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords. Jeremiah did so. ¹³So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard. ¹⁴Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in Yahweh's house: and the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me. ¹⁵Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? and if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me. ¹⁶So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, As Yahweh lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life. ¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: If you will go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house. ¹⁸But if you will not go out to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand. ¹⁹Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. ²⁰But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, Yahweh's voice, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live. ²¹But if you refuse to go out, this is the word that Yahweh has shown me: ²²behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought out to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away back. ²³They shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire. ²⁴Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. ²⁵But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, Declare to us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you: ²⁶then you shall tell them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathans house, to die there. ²⁷Then came all the princes to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. ²⁸So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; ¹⁴they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he lived among the people. ¹⁵Now Yahwehs word came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, ¹⁶Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished before you in that day. ¹⁷But I will deliver you in that day, says Yahweh; and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. ¹⁸For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be for a prey to you; because you have put your trust in me, says Yahweh.

40The word which came to Jeremiah from Yahweh, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound with chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. ²The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, Yahweh your God pronounced this evil on this place; ³and Yahweh has brought it, and done according as he spoke: because you have sinned against Yahweh, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you. ⁴Now, behold, I release you today from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, don't: behold, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go. ⁵Now while he had not yet gone back, Go back then, he said, to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go. ⁶Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land. ⁷Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; ⁸then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. ⁹Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, Don't be afraid to serve the Chaldeans:

dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ¹⁰As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who shall come to us: but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken. ¹¹Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; ¹²then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. ¹³Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, ¹⁴and said to him, Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam didn't believe them. ¹⁵Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? ¹⁶But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael.

41 Now in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal offspring ^{xx} and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they ate bread together in Mizpah. ²Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men who were with him, and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. ³Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with him, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, the men of war. ⁴The second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it, ⁵men came from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to Yahweh's house. ⁶Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and as he met them, he said to them, "Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam." ⁷It was so, when they came into the middle of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the middle of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. ⁸But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, Don't kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he stopped, and didn't kill them among their brothers. ⁹Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was who which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed. ¹⁰Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon. ¹¹But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, ¹²then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. ¹³Now when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. ¹⁴So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. ¹⁵But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. ¹⁶Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: ¹⁷and they departed, and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, ¹⁸because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, ²and said to Jeremiah the prophet, Please let our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to Yahweh your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us: ³that Yahweh your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do. ⁴Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray to Yahweh your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing Yahweh shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you. ⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, Yahweh be a true and faithful witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which Yahweh your God shall send you to us. ⁶Whether

it is good, or whether it is bad, we will obey the voice of Yahweh our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Yahweh our God. ⁷After ten days, Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah. ⁸Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, ⁹and said to them, Yahweh, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him, says: ¹⁰If you will still live in this land, then I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. ¹¹Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; don't be afraid of him, says Yahweh: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. ¹²I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land. ¹³But if you say, We will not dwell in this land; so that you don't obey Yahweh your God's voice, ¹⁴saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: ¹⁵now therefore hear Yahweh's word, O remnant of Judah: Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; ¹⁶then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow close behind you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. ¹⁷So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them. ¹⁸For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: As my anger and my wrath has been poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured out on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more. ¹⁹Yahweh has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, Don't you go into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified to you today. ²⁰For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to Yahweh your God, saying, Pray for us to Yahweh our God; and according to all that Yahweh our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it: ²¹and I have declared it to you today; but you have not obeyed Yahweh your God's voice in anything for which he has sent me to you. ²²Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to live there.

43When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all the words of Yahweh their God, with which Yahweh their God had sent him to them, even all these words, ²then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely: Yahweh our God has not sent you to say, You shall not go into Egypt to live there; ³but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon. ⁴So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey Yahweh's voice, to dwell in the land of Judah. ⁵But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah; ⁶the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; ⁷and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn't obey Yahweh's voice: and they came to Tahpanhes. ⁸Then Yahweh's word came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, ⁹Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; ¹⁰and tell them, Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹He shall come, and shall strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. ¹²I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go out from there in peace. ¹³He shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.

44The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews who lived in the land of Egypt, who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, ²Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, today they are a desolation, and no man dwells therein, ³because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods, that they didn't know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. ⁴However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, don't do this abominable thing that I hate. ⁵But they didn't listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. ⁶Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured out, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is today. ⁷Therefore now Yahweh, the God of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the middle of Judah, to leave yourselves no one remaining; ⁸in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. ¹¹Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. ¹²I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. ¹³For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; ¹⁴so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for no one shall return save such as shall escape. ¹⁵Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, ¹⁶As for the word that you have spoken to us in Yahweh's name, we will not listen to you. ¹⁷But we will certainly perform every word that has gone out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. ¹⁸But since we left off burning incense to the queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. ¹⁹When we burned incense to the queen of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands? ²⁰Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying, ²¹The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, didn't Yahweh remember them, and didn't it come into his mind? ²²so that Yahweh could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed; therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is today. ²³Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against Yahweh, and have not obeyed Yahweh's voice, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is today. ²⁴Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear Yahweh's word, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: ²⁵Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says, You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her: establish then your vows, and perform your vows. ²⁶Therefore hear Yahweh's word, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says Yahweh, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Lord Yahweh lives. ²⁷Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. ²⁸Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. ²⁹This shall be the sign to you, says Yahweh, that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: ³⁰Yahweh says, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.

45The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ²Yahweh, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: ³You said, Woe is me now! for Yahweh has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest. ⁴You shall tell him, Yahweh says: Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. ⁵Do you seek great things for yourself? Don't seek them; for, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh, says Yahweh; but your life will I give to you for a prey in all places where you go.

²²The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters. ²³They shall cut down her forest, says Yahweh, though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. ²⁴The daughter of Egypt shall be disappointed; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. ²⁵Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: ²⁶and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, says Yahweh. ²⁷But don't you be afraid, Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your offspring ^{xxi} from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid. ²⁸Don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says Yahweh; for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.

47Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh struck Gaza. ²Yahweh says: Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and those who dwell therein; and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail. ³At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers don't look back to their children for feebleness of hands; ⁴because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains: for Yahweh will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor. ⁵Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself? ⁶You sword of Yahweh, how long will it be before you be quiet? Put up yourself into your scabbard; rest, and be still. ⁷How can you be quiet, since Yahweh has given you a command? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there has he appointed it.

48Of Moab. Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Woe to Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is disappointed, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. ²The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you. ³The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction! ⁴Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. ⁵For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. ⁶Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. ⁷For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go out into captivity, his priests and his princes together. ⁸The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as Yahweh has spoken. ⁹Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein. ¹⁰Cursed is he who does the work of Yahweh negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. ¹¹Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. ¹²Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will send to him those who pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. ¹³Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. ¹⁴How do you say, We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war? ¹⁵Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies. ¹⁶The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. ¹⁷All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod! ¹⁸You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds. ¹⁹Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, What has been done? ²⁰Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. ²¹Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath, ²²and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth Diblathaim, ²³and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon, ²⁴and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. ²⁵The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says Yahweh. ²⁶Make him drunken; for he magnified himself against Yahweh: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. ²⁷For wasn't Israel a derision to you? was he found among thieves? for as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. ²⁸You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. ²⁹We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. ³⁰I know his wrath, says Yahweh, that it is nothing; his boastings have worked nothing. ³¹Therefore will I wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir Heres shall they mourn. ³²With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen. ³³Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: no one shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. ³⁴From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate. ³⁵Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, says Yahweh, him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods. ³⁶Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished. ³⁷For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth. ³⁸On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which no one delights, says Yahweh. ³⁹How it is broken down! How they wail! How Moab has turned the back with shame! So shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him. ⁴⁰For Yahweh says: Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. ⁴¹Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. ⁴²Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against Yahweh. ⁴³Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab, says Yahweh. ⁴⁴He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation, says Yahweh. ⁴⁵Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone out of Heshbon, and a flame from the middle of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. ⁴⁶Woe to you, O Moab! the people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. ⁴⁷Yet will I bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says Yahweh. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

49Of the children of Ammon. Yahweh says: Has Israel no sons? has he no heir? why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people well in its cities? ²Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess those who possessed him, says Yahweh. ³Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you daughters of Rabbah, clothe yourself in sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. ⁴Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? who trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come to me? ⁵Behold, I will bring a fear on you, says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, from all who are around you; and you shall be driven out every man right out, and there shall be no one to gather together the fugitives. ⁶But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the children of Ammon, says Yahweh. ⁷Of Edom. Yahweh of Armies says: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? ⁸Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I shall visit him. ⁹If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleanings? if thieves by night, wouldn't they destroy until they had enough? ¹⁰But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his offspring ^{xxii} is destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more. ¹¹Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me. ¹²For Yahweh says: Behold, they to whom it didn't pertain to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. ¹³For I have sworn by myself, says Yahweh, that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities shall be perpetual wastes. ¹⁴I have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. ¹⁵For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. ¹⁶As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says Yahweh. ¹⁷Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all its plagues. ¹⁸As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says Yahweh, no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. ¹⁹Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who will stand before me? ²⁰Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. ²¹The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Red Sea. ²²Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. ²³Of Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet. ²⁴Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. ²⁵How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? ²⁶Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh of Armies. ²⁷I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad. ²⁸Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck. Yahweh says: Arise, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east. ²⁹Their tents and their flocks shall they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry to them, Terror on every side! ³⁰Flee, wander far off, dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor, says Yahweh; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you. ³¹Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says Yahweh; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone. ³²Their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a plunder: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, says Yahweh. ³³Hazor shall be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. ³⁴Yahweh's word that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, ³⁵Yahweh of Armies says: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. ³⁶On Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. ³⁷I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger, says Yahweh; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; ³⁸and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes, says Yahweh. ³⁹But it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam, says Yahweh.

50The word that Yahweh spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet. ²Declare among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and don't conceal: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is disappointed, Merodach is dismayed; her images are disappointed, her idols are dismayed. ³For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and no one shall dwell therein: they are fled, they are gone, both man and animal. ⁴In those days, and in that time, says Yahweh, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek Yahweh their God. ⁵They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, Come, and join yourselves to Yahweh in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten. ⁶My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. ⁷All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We are not guilty, because they have sinned against Yahweh, the habitation of righteousness, even Yahweh, the hope of their fathers. ⁸Flee out of the middle of Babylon, and go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the male goats before the flocks. ⁹For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from there she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty man; no one shall return in vain. ¹⁰Chaldea shall be a prey: all who prey on her shall be satisfied, says Yahweh. ¹¹Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; ¹²your mother shall be utterly disappointed; she who bore you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. ¹³Because of Yahweh's wrath she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. ¹⁴Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against Yahweh. ¹⁵Shout against her all around: she has submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Yahweh: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. ¹⁶Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to his people, and they shall flee everyone to his own land. ¹⁷Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones. ¹⁸Therefore Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. ¹⁹I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in

Gilead. ²⁰In those days, and in that time, says Yahweh, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be no one; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant. ²¹Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them, says Yahweh, and do according to all that I have commanded you. ²²A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. ²³How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! ²⁴I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren't aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against Yahweh. ²⁵Yahweh has opened his armory, and has brought out the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. ²⁶Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. ²⁷Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! for their day has come, the time of their visitation. ²⁸The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Yahweh our God, the vengeance of his temple. ²⁹Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; encamp against her all around; let none of it escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against Yahweh, against the Holy One of Israel. ³⁰Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day, says Yahweh. ³¹Behold, I am against you, you proud one, says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies; for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. ³²The proud one shall stumble and fall, and no one shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all who are around him. ³³Yahweh of Armies says: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. ³⁴Their Redeemer is strong; Yahweh of Armies is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. ³⁵A sword is on the Chaldeans, says Yahweh, and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her princes, and on her wise men. ³⁶A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. ³⁷A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the middle of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they shall be robbed. ³⁸A drought is on her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols. ³⁹Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited forever;

neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. ⁴⁰As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says Yahweh, so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. ⁴¹Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ⁴²They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon. ⁴³The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. ⁴⁴Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who can stand before me? ⁴⁵Therefore hear the counsel of Yahweh, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. ⁴⁶At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations.

51Yahweh says: Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against those who dwell in Lebkamai, a destroying wind. ²I will send to Babylon strangers, who shall winnow her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her around. ³Against him who bends let the archer bend his bow, and against him who lifts himself up in his coat of mail: and don't spare her young men; utterly destroy all her army. ⁴They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets. ⁵For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of Yahweh of Armies; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. ⁶Flee out of the middle of Babylon, and save every man his life; don't be cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of Yahweh's vengeance; he will render to her a recompense. ⁷Babylon has been a golden cup in Yahweh's hand, who made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. ⁸Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. ⁹We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go everyone into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. ¹⁰Yahweh has produced our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of Yahweh our God. ¹¹Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: Yahweh has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of Yahweh, the vengeance of his temple. ¹²Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for Yahweh has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon. ¹³You who dwell on many waters, abundant in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your covetousness. ¹⁴Yahweh of Armies has sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you. ¹⁵He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: ¹⁶when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightning for the rain, and brings the wind out of his treasures. ¹⁷Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. ¹⁸They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. ¹⁹The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and is the tribe of his inheritance: Yahweh of Armies is his name. ²⁰You are my battle ax and weapons of war: and with you will I break in pieces the nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms; ²¹and with you will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; ²²and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and him who rides therein; and with you will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you will I break in pieces the young man and the virgin; ²³and with you will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces the farmer and his yoke; and with you will I break in pieces governors and deputies. ²⁴I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says Yahweh. ²⁵Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain, says Yahweh, which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain. ²⁶They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever, says Yahweh. ²⁷Set up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm. ²⁸Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion. ²⁹The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of Yahweh against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. ³⁰The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are broken. ³¹One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: ³²and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are frightened. ³³For Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel says: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her. ³⁴Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out. ³⁵The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be on the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. ³⁶Therefore Yahweh says: Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. ³⁷Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. ³⁸They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. ³⁹When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says Yahweh. ⁴⁰I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats. ⁴¹How is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth seized! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! ⁴²The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. ⁴³Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. ⁴⁴I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall. ⁴⁵My people, go away from the middle of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of Yahweh. ⁴⁶Don't let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. ⁴⁷Therefore behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the middle of her. ⁴⁸Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north, says Yahweh. ⁴⁹As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land. ⁵⁰You who have escaped the sword, go, don't stand still; remember Yahweh from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. ⁵¹We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of Yahweh's house. ⁵²Therefore behold, the days come, says Yahweh, that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. ⁵³Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall destroyers come to her, says Yahweh. ⁵⁴The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans! ⁵⁵For Yahweh lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: ⁵⁶for the destroyer has come on her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for Yahweh is a God of recompenses, he will surely requite. ⁵⁷I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up, says the King, whose name is Yahweh of Armies. ⁵⁸Yahweh of Armies says: The wide walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary. ⁵⁹The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. ⁶⁰Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. ⁶¹Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, ⁶²and say, Yahweh, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one shall dwell therein, neither man nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever. ⁶³It shall be, when you have finished reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the middle of the Euphrates: ⁶⁴and you shall say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

52Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ²He did that which was evil in Yahweh's sight, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³For through Yahweh's anger this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. ⁵So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. ⁶In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁷Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city all around;) and they went toward the Arabah. ⁸But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. ⁹Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. ¹⁰The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. ¹¹He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death. ¹²Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem: ¹³and he burned Yahweh's house, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, he burned with fire. ¹⁴All the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹⁵Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers. ¹⁷The Chaldeans broke the pillars of brass that were in Yahweh's house, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in Yahweh's house in pieces, and carried all of their brass to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered. ¹⁹The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the lamp stands, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. ²⁰They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for Yahweh's house. The brass of all these vessels was without weight. ²¹As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; ^{xxiii} and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. ²²A capital of brass was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, ^{xxiv} with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around. ²⁴The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: ²⁵and

out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the middle of the city. ²⁶Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²⁷The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. ²⁸This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand twenty-three Jews; ²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; ³⁰in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred. ³¹In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the twenty-fifth day of the month, Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and released him from prison; ³²and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, ³³and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: ³⁴and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

1She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations! She who was a princess among the provinces has become tributary! How the city sits solitary, that was full of people! 2She weeps bitterly in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her: All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies. 3Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest: all her persecutors overtook her within the straits. 4The ways of Zion do mourn, because no one come to the solemn assembly; all her gates are desolate, her priests do sigh: her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness. 5Her adversaries are become the head, her enemies prosper; ⁱ has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary. 6From the daughter of Zion all her majesty is departed: her princes are become like deer that find no pasture, they are gone without strength before the pursuer. 7Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old: when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her, The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations. 8Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she has become as an unclean thing; all who honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yes, she sighs, and turns backward. 9Her filthiness was in her skirts; she didn't remember her latter end; therefore is she come down wonderfully; she has no comforter: see, Yahweh, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself. 10The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things: for she has seen that the nations are entered into her sanctuary, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly. 11All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul: look, Yahweh, and see; for I am become abject. 12Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me, With which Yahweh has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. 13From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them; He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back: He has made me desolate and faint all the day. 14The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; They are knit together, they have come up on my neck; he has made my strength to fail: ⁱⁱ has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand. 15The Lord has set at nothing all my mighty men within me; He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men: The Lord has trodden as in a wine press the virgin daughter of Judah. 16For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water; Because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me: My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed. 17Zion spreads out her hands; there is no one to comfort her; Yahweh has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his adversaries: Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing. 18Yahweh is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow: My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity. 19I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in the city, While they sought them food to refresh their souls. 20See, Yahweh; for I am in distress; my heart is troubled; My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: Abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as death. 21They have heard that I sigh; there is no one to comfort me; All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it: You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they shall be like me. 22Let all their wickedness come before you; Do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions: For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

2He has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, And hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger. How has the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger! 2The Lord has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied: He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He has brought them down to the ground; he has profaned the kingdom and its princes. ³He has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel; He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy: He has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours all around. ⁴He has bent his bow like an enemy, he has stood with his right hand as an adversary, Has killed all that were pleasant to the eye: In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire. ⁵The Lord has become as an enemy, he has swallowed up Israel; He has swallowed up all her palaces, he has destroyed his strongholds; He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation. ⁶He has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly: Yahweh has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, Has despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest. ⁷The Lord has cast off his altar, he has abhorred his sanctuary; He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces: They have made a noise in Yahweh's house, as in the day of a solemn assembly. ⁸Yahweh has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying; He has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together. ⁹Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars: Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not; Yes, her prophets find no vision from Yahweh. ¹⁰The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground, they keep silence; They have cast up dust on their heads; they have clothed themselves with sackcloth: The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground. ¹¹My eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled; My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, Because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city. ¹²They tell their mothers, Where is grain and wine? When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom. ¹³What shall I testify to you? what shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion? For your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you? ¹⁴Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions; They have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity, but have seen for you false revelations and causes of banishment. ¹⁵All that pass by clap their hands at you. They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? ¹⁶All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you; They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up; Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. ¹⁷Yahweh has done that which he purposed; he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old; He has thrown down, and has not pitied: He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; he has exalted the horn of your adversaries. ¹⁸Their heart cried to the Lord: wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; Give yourself no respite; don't let the apple of your eye cease. ¹⁹Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord: Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street. ²⁰Look, Yahweh, and see to whom you have done thus! Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands? Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord? ²¹The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets; My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword: You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, and not pitied. ²²You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side; There was no one that escaped or remained in the day of Yahweh's anger: Those that I have dandled and brought up has my enemy consumed.

3I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. ²He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light. ³Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day. ⁴My flesh and my skin has he made old; he has broken my bones. ⁵He has built against me, and surrounded me with gall and travail. ⁶He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead. ⁷He has walled me about, that I can't go out; he has made my chain heavy. ⁸Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer. ⁹He has walled up my ways with cut stone; he has made my paths crooked. ¹⁰He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places. ¹¹He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he has made me desolate. ¹²He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow. ¹³He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my kidneys. ¹⁴I am become a derision to all my people, and their song all the day. ¹⁵He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood. ¹⁶He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he has covered me with ashes. ¹⁷You have removed my soul far off from peace; I forgot prosperity. ¹⁸I said, My strength is perished, and my expectation from Yahweh. ¹⁹Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. ²⁰My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me. ²¹This I recall to my mind; therefore have I hope. ²²It is because of Yahweh's loving kindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassion doesn't fail. ²³They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. ²⁴Yahweh is my portion, says my soul; therefore will I hope in him. ²⁵Yahweh is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him. ²⁶It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Yahweh. ²⁷It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth. ²⁸Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him. ²⁹Let him put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope. ³⁰Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled full with reproach. ³¹For the Lord will not cast off forever. ³²For though he cause grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses. ³³For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men. ³⁴To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth, ³⁵To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High, ³⁶To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord doesn't approve. ³⁷Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, when the Lord doesn't command it? ³⁸Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High? ³⁹Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? ⁴⁰Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to Yahweh. ⁴¹Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God ⁱⁱⁱ in the heavens. ⁴²We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned. ⁴³You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have killed, you have not pitied. ⁴⁴You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through. ⁴⁵You have made us an off-scouring and refuse in the middle of the peoples. ⁴⁶All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us. ⁴⁷Fear and the pit have come on us, devastation and destruction. ⁴⁸My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people. ⁴⁹My eye pours down, and doesn't cease, without any intermission, ⁵⁰Until Yahweh look down, and see from heaven. ⁵¹My eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city. ⁵²They have chased me relentlessly like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause. ⁵³They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me. ⁵⁴Waters flowed over my head; I said, I am cut off. ⁵⁵I called on your name, Yahweh, out of the lowest dungeon. ⁵⁶You heard my voice; don't hide your ear at my breathing, at my cry. ⁵⁷You came near in the day that I called on you; you said, Don't be afraid. ⁵⁸Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life. ⁵⁹Yahweh, you have seen my wrong. Judge my cause. ⁶⁰You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me. ⁶¹You have heard their reproach, Yahweh, and all their devices against me, ⁶²The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day. ⁶³You see their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song. ⁶⁴You will render to them a recompense, Yahweh, according to the work of their hands. ⁶⁵You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them. ⁶⁶You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Yahweh.

pure gold has changed! ²The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! ³Even the jackals draw out the breast, they nurse their young ones: The daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness. ⁴The tongue of the nursing child clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst: The young children ask bread, and no man breaks it to them. ⁵Those who fed delicately are desolate in the streets: Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills. ⁶For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid on her. ⁷Her nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk; They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire. ⁸Their appearance is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: Their skin clings to their bones; it is withered, it has become like a stick. ⁹Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger; For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field. ¹⁰The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children; They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people. ¹¹Yahweh has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger; He has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured its foundations. ¹²The kings of the earth didn't believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world, That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem. ¹³It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, That have shed the blood of the just in the middle of her. ¹⁴They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood, So that men can't touch their garments. ¹⁵Depart! they cried to them, Unclean! depart, depart, don't touch! When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, They shall not live here any more. ¹⁶Yahweh's anger has scattered them; he will no more regard them: They didn't respect the persons of the priests, they didn't favor the elders. ¹⁷Our eyes still fail, looking in vain for our help: In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save. ¹⁸They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets: Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end has come. ¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky: They chased us on the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. ²⁰The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Yahweh, was taken in their pits; Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations. ²¹Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz: The cup shall pass through to you also; you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked. ²²The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity: He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.

⁵Look, and see our reproach. Remember, Yahweh, what has come on us: ²Our inheritance is turned to strangers, Our houses to aliens. ³We are orphans and fatherless; Our mothers are as widows. ⁴We have drunken our water for money; Our wood is sold to us. ⁵Our pursuers are on our necks: We are weary, and have no rest. ⁶We have given the hand to the Egyptians, To the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. ⁷Our fathers sinned, and are no more; We have borne their iniquities. ⁸Servants rule over us: There is no one to deliver us out of their hand. ⁹We get our bread at the peril of our lives, Because of the sword of the wilderness. ¹⁰Our skin is black like an oven, Because of the burning heat of famine. ¹¹They ravished the women in Zion, The virgins in the cities of Judah. ¹²Princes were hanged up by their hand: The faces of elders were not honored. ¹³The young men bare the mill; The children stumbled under the wood. ¹⁴The elders have ceased from the gate, The young men from their music. ¹⁵The joy of our heart is ceased; Our dance is turned into mourning. ¹⁶The crown is fallen from our head: Woe to us! for we have sinned. ¹⁷For this our heart is faint; For these things our eyes are dim; ¹⁸For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate: The foxes walk on it. ¹⁹You, Yahweh, remain forever; Your throne is from generation to generation. ²⁰Why do you forget us forever, And forsake us so long time? ²¹Turn us to yourself, Yahweh, and we shall be turned. Renew our days as of old. ²²But you have utterly rejected us; You are very angry against us.

Ezekiel

1 Now in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. ⁱ ²In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, ³Yahweh's ⁱⁱ word came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and Yahweh's hand was there on him. ⁴I looked, and behold, ⁱⁱⁱ a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of the middle of it as it were glowing metal, out of the middle of the fire. ⁵Out of its center came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. ⁶Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. ⁷Their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished brass. ⁸They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings thus: ⁹their wings were joined to one another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward. ¹⁰As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them also had the face of an eagle. ¹¹Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. ¹²Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. ¹³As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and lightning went out of the fire. ¹⁴The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. ¹⁵Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. ¹⁶The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. ¹⁷When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. ¹⁸As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. ¹⁹When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. ²⁰Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²¹When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. ²²Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like the awesome crystal to look on, stretched out over their heads above. ²³Under the expanse were their wings straight, the one toward the other: each one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. ²⁴When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings. ²⁵There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings. ²⁶Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire ^{iv} stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. ²⁷I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. ²⁸As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of Yahweh's glory. When I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. ³He said to me, Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. ⁴The children are impudent and stiff-hearted: I am sending you to them; and you shall tell them, Thus says the Lord ^v Yahweh. ⁵They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. ⁶You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ⁷You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious. ⁸But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; don't be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you. ⁹When I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was therein; ¹⁰He spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

3He said to me, Son of man, eat that which you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel. ²So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. ³He said to me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you. Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. ⁴He said to me, Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. ⁵For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; ⁶not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. ⁷But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are obstinate ^{vi} and hard-hearted. ⁸Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. ⁹As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. ¹⁰Moreover he said to me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. ¹¹Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. ¹²Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be Yahweh's glory from his place. ¹³I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. ¹⁴So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and Yahweh's hand was strong on me. ¹⁵Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. ¹⁶At the end of seven days, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁷Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. ¹⁸When I tell the wicked, You shall surely die; and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. ¹⁹Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. ²⁰Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at your hand. ²¹Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul. ²²Yahweh's hand was there on me; and he said to me, Arise, go out into the plain, and I will there talk with you. ²³Then I arose, and went out into the plain: and behold, Yahweh's glory stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ²⁴Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself inside your house. ²⁵But you, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: ²⁶and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

4You also, son of man, take a tile, and lay it before yourself, and portray on it a city, even Jerusalem: ²and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it all around. ³Take for yourself an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. ⁴Moreover lie on your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel on it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. ⁵For I have appointed the years of their

^{vi}Ezekiel 3:7 Literally, have a hard forehead

iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred ninety days: so you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶Again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it to you. ⁷You shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it. ⁸Behold, I lay bands on you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, until you have accomplished the days of your siege. ⁹Take for yourself also wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make bread of it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. ¹⁰Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels ^{vii} a day: from time to time you shall eat it. ¹¹You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you shall drink. ¹²You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man. ¹³Yahweh said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them. ¹⁴Then I said, Ah Lord Yahweh! behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. ¹⁵Then he said to me, Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread on it. ¹⁶Moreover he said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: ¹⁷that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

⁵You, son of man, take a sharp sword; You shall take it as a barber's razor to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. ²A third part you shall burn in the fire in the middle of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. ³You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. ⁴Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the middle of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it shall a fire come out into all the house of Israel. ⁵Thus says the Lord Yahweh: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the middle of the nations, and countries are around her. ⁶She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes,

they have not walked in them. ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you are turbulent more than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you; ⁸therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. ⁹I will do in you that which I have not done, and which I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. ¹⁰Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in within you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds. ¹¹Therefore as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore will I also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. ¹²A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed within you; and a third part shall fall by the sword around you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. ¹³Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. ¹⁴Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. ¹⁵So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, Yahweh, have spoken it;) ¹⁶when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; ¹⁷and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

⁶Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them, ³and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh: Thus says the Lord Yahweh to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. ⁵I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. ⁷The slain shall fall among you, and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁸Yet will I leave a remnant, in that you shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries. ⁹Those of you that escape shall remember me among the nations where they shall be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which play the prostitute after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. ¹⁰They shall know that I am Yahweh: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them. ¹¹Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. ¹²He who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath on them. ¹³You shall know that I am Yahweh, when their slain men shall be among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols. ¹⁴I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

⁷Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²You, son of man, thus says the Lord Yahweh to the land of Israel, An end: the end has come on the four corners of the land. ³Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. ⁴My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations shall be among you: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁵Thus says the Lord Yahweh: An evil, an only evil; behold, it comes. ⁶An end has come, the end has come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes. ⁷Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land: the time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. ⁸Now will I shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. ⁹My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be among you; and you shall know that I, Yahweh, do strike. ¹⁰Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom has gone out; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded. ¹¹Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There shall be nothing of value among them. ¹²The time has come, the day draws near: don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. ¹³For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude of it, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. ¹⁴They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but no one goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude. ¹⁵The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. ¹⁶But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity. ¹⁷All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. ¹⁸They shall also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. ¹⁹They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. ²⁰As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it to them as an unclean thing. ²¹I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a plunder; and they shall profane it. ²²My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it. ²³Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. ²⁴Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned. ²⁵Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. ²⁶Mischief shall come on mischief, and rumor shall be on rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. ²⁷The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments will I judge them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

⁸In the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, the Lord Yahweh's hand fell there on me. ²Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. ³He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. ⁵Then he said to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. ⁶He said to me, Son of man, do you see what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you shall again see yet other great abominations. ⁷He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. ⁸Then he said to me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door. ⁹He said to me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here. ¹⁰So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. ¹¹There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in the middle of them Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan stood, every man with his censer in his hand; and the smell of the cloud of incense went up. ¹²Then he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? for they say, Yahweh doesn't see us; Yahweh has forsaken the land. ¹³He said also to me, You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do. ¹⁴Then he brought me to the door of the gate of Yahweh's house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵Then he said to me, Have you seen this, son of man? You shall again see yet greater abominations than these. ¹⁶He brought me into the inner court of Yahweh's house; and see, at the door of Yahweh's temple, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward Yahweh's temple, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east. ¹⁷Then he said to me, Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and behold, they put the branch to their nose. ¹⁸Therefore will I also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

in his hand; and one man in the middle of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar. ³The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. ⁴Yahweh said to him, Go through the middle of the city, through the middle of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done within it. ⁵To the others he said in my hearing, Go through the city after him, and strike: don't let your eye spare, neither have pity; ⁶kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old men that were before the house. ⁷He said to them, "Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" They went out, and struck in the city. ⁸While they were killing, and I was left, I fell on my face, and cried, and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem?" ⁹Then he said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, 'Yahweh has forsaken the land, and Yahweh doesn't see.' ¹⁰As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head." ¹¹Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, "I have done as you have commanded me."

¹⁰Then I looked, and see, in the expanse that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire ^{viii} stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. ²He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. He went in as I watched. ³Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. ⁴Yahweh's glory mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Yahweh's glory. ⁵The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks. ⁶It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. ⁷The cherub stretched out his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. ⁸There appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings. ⁹I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. ¹⁰As for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. ¹¹When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went. ¹²Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. ¹³As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, the whirling wheels. ¹⁴Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. ¹⁵The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. ¹⁶When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. ¹⁷When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. ¹⁸Yahweh's glory went out from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. ¹⁹The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went out, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of Yahweh's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. ²⁰This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. ²¹Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. ²²As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of Yahweh's house, which looks eastward: and see, at the door of the gate twenty-five men; and I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. ²He said to me, Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity, and who give wicked counsel in this city; ³who say, The time is not near to build houses: this is the cauldron, and we are the meat. ⁴Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man. ⁵Yahweh's Spirit fell on me, and he said to me, Speak, Yahweh says: Thus you have said, house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind. ⁶You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled its streets with the slain. ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Your slain whom you have laid in the middle of it, they are the meat, and this is the cauldron; but you shall be brought out of the middle of it. ⁸You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword on you, says the Lord Yahweh. ⁹I will bring you out of the middle of it, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. ¹⁰You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹¹This shall not be your cauldron, neither shall you be the meat in the middle of it; I will judge you in the border of Israel; ¹²and you shall know that I am Yahweh: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you. ¹³When I prophesied, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, "Ah Lord Yahweh! will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?" ¹⁴Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁵"Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far away from Yahweh. This land has been given to us for a possession.'" ¹⁶Therefore say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come. ¹⁷Therefore say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. ¹⁸They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all its abominations from there. ¹⁹I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; ²⁰that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads, says the Lord Yahweh. ²²Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. ²³Yahweh's glory went up from the middle of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. ²⁴The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that Yahweh had shown me.

12 Yahweh's word also came to me, saying, ²Son of man, you dwell in the middle of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear, and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house. ³Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight; and you shall move from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴You shall bring out your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for moving; and you shall go out yourself at even in their sight, as when men go out into exile. ⁵Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. ⁶In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it out in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you don't see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel. ⁷I did so as I was commanded: I brought out my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it out in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight. ⁸In the morning, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁹Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing? ¹⁰Say to them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are. ¹¹Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity. ¹²The prince who is among them shall bear on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go out: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes. ¹³My net also will I spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. ¹⁴I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. ¹⁵They shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. ¹⁶But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁷Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; ¹⁹and tell the people of the land, Thus says the Lord Yahweh concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. ²⁰The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ²¹Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²²Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails? ²³Tell them therefore, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but tell them, The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. ²⁵For I am Yahweh; I will speak, and the word that I speak will be performed. It will be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, says the Lord Yahweh. ²⁶Again Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²⁷Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off. ²⁸Therefore tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: None of my words shall be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says the Lord Yahweh.

13Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, Hear Yahweh's word: ³Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! ⁴Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. ⁵You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of Yahweh. ⁶They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, Yahweh says; but Yahweh has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. ⁷Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, Yahweh says; but I have not spoken? ⁸Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord Yahweh. ⁹My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁰Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they plaster it with whitewash: ¹¹tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it. ¹²Behold, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it? ¹³Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. ¹⁴So will I break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the middle of it: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁵Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will tell you, The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; ¹⁶to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁷You, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, ¹⁸and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Woe to the women who sew pillows on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? ¹⁹You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies. ²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. ²¹Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ²²Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: ²³Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.

¹⁴Then came certain of the elders of Israel to me, and sat before me. ²Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ³Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? ⁴Therefore speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Every man of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I Yahweh will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols; ⁵that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. ⁶Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Return, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. ⁷For everyone of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live in Israel, who separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I Yahweh will answer him by myself: ⁸and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from among my people; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁹If the prophet is deceived and speak a word, I, Yahweh, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand on him, and will destroy him from among my people Israel. ¹⁰They shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him who seeks him; ¹¹that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, says

the Lord Yahweh. ¹²Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹³Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; ¹⁴though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁵If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it is made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; ¹⁶though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate. ¹⁷Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and animal; ¹⁸though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves. ¹⁹Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; ²⁰though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. ²¹For thus says the Lord Yahweh: How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal! ²²Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be carried out, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come out to you, and you shall see their way and their doings; and you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. ²³They shall comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁵Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? ³Will wood be taken of it to make anything? Will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel on it? ⁴Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and the middle of it is burned: is it profitable for any work? ⁵Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work! ⁶Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷I will set my face against them; they shall go out from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am Yahweh, when I set my face against them. ⁸I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says the Lord Yahweh.

¹⁶Again Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations; ³and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh to Jerusalem: Your birth and your birth is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite. ⁴As for your birth, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you weren't salted at all, nor swaddled at all. ⁵No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion on you; but you were cast out in the open field, for that your person was abhorred, in the day that you were born. ⁶When I passed by you, and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you, Though you are in your blood, live; yes, I said to you, Though you are in your blood, live. ⁷I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you increased and grew great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare. ⁸Now when I passed by you, and looked at you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord Yahweh, and you became mine. ⁹Then washed I you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰I clothed you also with embroidered work, and shod you with sealskin, and I dressed you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. ¹¹I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. ¹²I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. ¹⁴Your renown went out among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁵But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; his it was. ¹⁶You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them. This shall not come, neither shall it be. ¹⁷You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them; ¹⁸and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. ¹⁹My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and so it was, says the Lord Yahweh. ²⁰Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, ²¹that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? ²²In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood. ²³It has happened after all your wickedness, (woe, woe to you! says the Lord Yahweh), ²⁴that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. ²⁵You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. ²⁶You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. ²⁷See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your portion, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. ²⁸You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. ²⁹You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Chaldea; and yet you weren't satisfied with this. ³⁰How weak is your heart, says the Lord Yahweh, since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; ³¹in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay. ³²A wife who commits adultery! who takes strangers instead of her husband! ³³They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. ³⁴You are different from other women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different. ³⁵Therefore, prostitute, hear Yahweh's word: ³⁶Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; ³⁷therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. ³⁹I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on

you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you shall also give no hire any more. ⁴²So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. ⁴³Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head, says the Lord Yahweh: and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations. ⁴⁴Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. ⁴⁵You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. ⁴⁶Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. ⁴⁷Yet you have not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, soon you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. ⁴⁸As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters. ⁴⁹Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away when I saw it. ⁵¹Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. ⁵²You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters. ⁵³I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives among them; ⁵⁴that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. ⁵⁵Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. ⁵⁶For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who do despite to you all around. ⁵⁸You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says Yahweh. ⁵⁹For thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant. ⁶⁰Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. ⁶¹Then you shall remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. ⁶²I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am Yahweh; ⁶³that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Lord Yahweh.

17Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, tell a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; ³and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: ⁴he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. ⁵He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow tree. ⁶It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, and produced branches, and shot out sprigs. ⁷There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot out its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. ⁸It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might produce branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. ⁹Say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? and not by a strong arm or many people can it be raised from its roots. ¹⁰Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? it shall wither in the beds where it grew. ¹¹Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹²Say now to the rebellious house, Don't you know what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon: ¹³and he took of the royal offspring, ^{ix}and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; ¹⁴that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. ¹⁵But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape who does such things? shall he break the covenant, and yet escape? ¹⁶As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the middle of Babylon he shall die. ¹⁷Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. ¹⁸For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. ²⁰I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. ²¹All his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it. ²²Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: ²³in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall produce boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. ²⁴All the trees of the field shall know that I, Yahweh, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, Yahweh, have spoken and have done it.

18Yahweh's word came to me again, saying, ²What do you mean, that you use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge? ³As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, you shall not use this proverb any more in Israel. ⁴Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul who sins, he shall die. ⁵But if a man is just, and does that which is lawful and right, ⁶and has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity, ⁷and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nothing by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ⁸he who has not lent on interest, neither has taken any increase, who has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man, ⁹has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁰If he fathers a son who is a robber who sheds blood, and who does any one of these things, ¹¹or who does not do any of those things, but even has eaten on the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife, ¹²has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, ¹³has lent on interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? he shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be on him. ¹⁴Now, behold, if he fathers a son, who sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like; ¹⁵who has not eaten on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, ¹⁶neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ¹⁷who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. ¹⁸As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die in his iniquity. ¹⁹Yet you say, Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. ²⁰The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him. ²¹But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. ²²None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. ²³Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says the Lord Yahweh; and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? ²⁴But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die. ²⁵Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, house of Israel: Is my way not equal? Aren't your ways unequal? ²⁶When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die. ²⁷Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. ²⁸Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. ²⁹Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of the Lord is not fair." House of Israel, aren't my ways fair? Aren't your ways unfair? ³⁰Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways, says the Lord Yahweh. Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. ³¹Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? ³²For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Lord Yahweh: therefore turn yourselves, and live.

19Moreover, take up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, ²and say, What was your mother? A lioness: she couched among lions, in the middle of the young lions she nourished her cubs. ³She brought up one of her cubs: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. ⁴The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt. ⁵Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her cubs, and made him a young lion. ⁶He went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men. ⁷He knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and its fullness, because of the noise of his roaring. ⁸Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit. ⁹They put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁰Your mother was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. ¹¹It had strong rods for the scepters of those who bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. ¹²But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. ¹³Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. ¹⁴Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

20In the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yahweh, and sat before me. ²Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ³Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you. ⁴Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; ⁵and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the offspring ^x of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am Yahweh your God; ⁶in that day I swore to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. ⁷I said to them, Cast away every man the abominations of his eyes, and don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am Yahweh your God. ⁸But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they each didn't throw away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the middle of the land of Egypt. ⁹But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them out of the land of Egypt. ¹⁰So I caused them to go out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he shall live in them. ¹²Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies them. ¹³But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. ¹⁴But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. ¹⁵Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; ¹⁶because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness. ¹⁸I said to their children in the wilderness, Don't walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹I am Yahweh your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; ²⁰and make my Sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am Yahweh your God. ²¹But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. ²²Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. ²³Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; ²⁴because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. ²⁵Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; ²⁶and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused all that opens the womb to pass through the fire, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Yahweh. ²⁷Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. ²⁸For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their pleasant aroma, and they poured out there their drink offerings. ²⁹Then I said to them, What does the high place where you go mean? So its name is called Bamah to this day. ³⁰Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? and do you play the prostitute after their abominations? ³¹and when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will not be inquired of by you; ³²and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. ³³As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be king over you: ³⁴and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; ³⁵and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I enter into judgment with you face to face. ³⁶Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you, says the Lord Yahweh. ³⁷I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; ³⁸and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ³⁹As for you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Go, serve everyone his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. ⁴⁰For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. ⁴¹As a pleasant aroma will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. ⁴²You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. ⁴³There you shall remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. ⁴⁴You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh. ⁴⁵Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁴⁶Son of man, set your face toward the south, and preach toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; ⁴⁷and tell the forest of the South, Hear Yahweh's word: Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby. ⁴⁸All flesh shall see that I, Yahweh, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched. ⁴⁹Then I said, Ah Lord Yahweh! they say of me, Isn't he a speaker of parables?

21Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and preach toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel; ³and tell the land of Israel, Yahweh says: Behold, I am against you, and will draw my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. ⁴Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: ⁵and all flesh shall know that I, Yahweh, have drawn my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more. ⁶Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your thighs and with bitterness you will sigh before their eyes. ⁷It shall be, when they tell you, Why do you sigh? that you shall say, Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yahweh. ⁸Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁹Son of man, prophesy, and say, Yahweh says: Say, A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; ¹⁰it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? the rod of my son, it condemns every tree. ¹¹It is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the killer. ¹²Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. ¹³For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more? says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁴You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their rooms. ¹⁵I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. ¹⁶Gather yourselves together, go to the right, set yourselves in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set. ¹⁷I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, Yahweh, have spoken it. ¹⁸Yahweh's word came to me again, saying, ¹⁹Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they both shall come out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. ²⁰You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. ²¹For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the teraphim, ^{xi} he looked in the liver. ²²In his right hand was the lot for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. ²³It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken. ²⁴Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand. ²⁵You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, ²⁶thus says the Lord Yahweh: Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this will not be as it was; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. ²⁷I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it. ²⁸You, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; ²⁹while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. ³⁰Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you. ³¹I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. ³²You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the middle of the land; you shall be remembered no more: for I, Yahweh, have spoken it.

^{xi}Ezekiel 21:21 teraphim were household idols that may have been associated with inheritance rights to the household property.

22Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²You, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? then cause her to know all her abominations. ³You shall say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: A city that sheds blood within herself, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her! ⁴You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and have come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. ⁵Those who are near, and those who are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one, full of tumult. ⁶Behold, the princes of Israel, everyone according to his power, have been in you to shed blood. ⁷In you have they set light by father and mother; among you they have dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you they have wronged the fatherless and the widow. ⁸You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ⁹Slandorous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: they have committed lewdness among you. ¹⁰In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. ¹¹One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. ¹²In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹³Behold, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been within you. ¹⁴Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and will do it. ¹⁵I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. ¹⁶You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁷Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the middle of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the middle of Jerusalem. ²⁰As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the middle of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. ²¹Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in the middle of it. ²²As silver is melted in the middle of the furnace, so you will be melted in the middle of it; and you will know that I, Yahweh, have poured out my wrath on you. ²³Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²⁴Son of man, tell her, You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation. ²⁵There is a conspiracy of her prophets within it, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many within it. ²⁶Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. ²⁷Her princes within it are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. ²⁸Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, Thus says the Lord Yahweh, when Yahweh has not spoken. ²⁹The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully. ³⁰I sought for a man among them, who should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one. ³¹Therefore have I poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought on their heads, says the Lord Yahweh.

23Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, ²Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: ³and they played the prostitute in Egypt; they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. ⁴Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah. ⁵Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, ⁶who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. ⁷She gave herself as a prostitute to them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. ⁸Neither has she left her prostitution since leaving Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on her. ⁹Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted. ¹⁰These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they killed with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her. ¹¹Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her prostitution which were more than the prostitution of her sister. ¹²She doted on the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. ¹³I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. ¹⁴She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, ¹⁵dressed with girdles on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princes to look on, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their birth. ¹⁶As soon as she saw them she doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. ¹⁷The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. ¹⁸So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister. ¹⁹Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. ²⁰She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. ²¹Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth. ²²Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: ²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴They shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet all around; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. ²⁵I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. ²⁶They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. ²⁷Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more. ²⁸For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; ²⁹and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. ³⁰These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. ³¹You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore will I give her cup into your hand. ³²Thus says the Lord Yahweh: You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. ³³You shall be filled with drunkenness

and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. ³⁴You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. ³⁵Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution. ³⁶Yahweh said moreover to me: Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare to them their abominations. ³⁷For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. ³⁸Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. ³⁹For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, thus have they done in the middle of my house. ⁴⁰Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and decorate yourself with ornaments, ⁴¹and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you set my incense and my oil. ⁴²The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands, and beautiful crowns on their heads. ⁴³Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, Now they will play the prostitute with her, and she with them. ⁴⁴They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. ⁴⁵Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. ⁴⁶For thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. ⁴⁷The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. ⁴⁸Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. ⁴⁹They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh.

24 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, write the name of the day, this same day. The king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this same day. ³Utter a parable to the rebellious house, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Set on the cauldron, set it on, and also pour water into it: ⁴gather its pieces into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. ⁵Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the cauldron; make it boil well; yes, let its bones be boiled within it. ⁶Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Woe to the bloody city, to the cauldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it. ⁷For her blood is in the middle of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. ⁸That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered. ⁹Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. ¹⁰Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. ¹¹Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its brass may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed. ¹²She is weary with toil; yet her great rust doesn't go leave her; her rust doesn't go by fire. ¹³In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. ¹⁴I, Yahweh, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁵Also Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁶Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. ¹⁷Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and don't cover your lips, and don't eat men's bread. ¹⁸So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. ¹⁹The people said to me, Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so? ²⁰Then I said to them, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²¹Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. ²²You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. ²³Your tires shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. ²⁴Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord Yahweh. ²⁵You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, ²⁶that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? ²⁷In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so you will be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

25Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them: ³and tell the children of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord Yahweh: Thus says the Lord Yahweh, Because you said, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity: ⁴therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. ⁵I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁶For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel; ⁷therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand on you, and will deliver you for a plunder to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁸Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because Moab and Seir say, Behold, the house of Judah is like all the nations; ⁹therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim, ¹⁰to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. ¹¹and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹²Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them; ¹³therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword. ¹⁴I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁵Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual hostility; ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. ¹⁷I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.

26In the eleventh year, in the first of the month, Yah-weh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste: ³therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh, Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. ⁴They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. ⁵She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the middle of the sea; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh; and she shall become a plunder to the nations. ⁶Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁷For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. ⁸He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. ⁹He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. ¹⁰By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach. ¹¹With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. ¹²They shall make a plunder of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the middle of the waters. ¹³I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. ¹⁴I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I Yahweh have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁵Thus says the Lord Yahweh to Tyre: shall not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made within you? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. ¹⁷They shall take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there! ¹⁸Now shall the islands tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the islands that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure. ¹⁹For thus says the Lord Yahweh: When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; ²⁰then I will bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: ²¹I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again, says the Lord Yahweh.

27Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, ²You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre; ³and tell Tyre, you who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, thus says the Lord Yahweh: You, Tyre, have said, I am perfect in beauty. ⁴Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty. ⁵They have made all your planks of cypress trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. ⁶Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the islands of Kit-tim. ⁷Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for a banner; blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning. ⁸The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. ⁹The old men of Gebal and the wise men of it were in you your repairers of ship seams: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise. ¹⁰Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they showed your beauty. ¹¹The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls all around; they have perfected your beauty. ¹²Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares. ¹³Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for your merchandise. ¹⁴They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war horses and mules. ¹⁵The men of Dedan were your traffickers; many islands were the market of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. ¹⁶Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. ¹⁷Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm. ¹⁸Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. ¹⁹Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. ²⁰Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. ²¹Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants. ²²The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. ²³Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers. ²⁴These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. ²⁵The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas. ²⁶Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. ²⁷Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is among you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. ²⁸At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. ²⁹All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, ³⁰and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: ³¹and they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. ³²In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the middle of the sea? ³³When your wares went out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. ³⁴In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell within you. ³⁵All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. ³⁶The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.

28Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, ²Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the middle of the seas; yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God— ³behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; ⁴by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; ⁵by your great wisdom and by your traffic you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches—⁶therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, ⁷therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. ⁸They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. ⁹Will you yet say before him who kills you, I am God? but you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you. ¹⁰You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹¹Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹²Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. ¹³You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, ^{xii} turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared. ¹⁴You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the middle of the stones of fire. ¹⁵You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. ¹⁶By the abundance of your traffic they filled your insides with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the middle of the stones of fire. ¹⁷Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. ¹⁸By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought out a fire from the middle of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. ¹⁹All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being. ²⁰Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²¹Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, ²²and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified among you; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. ²³For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall within her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. ²⁴There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them, that scorned them; and they shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh. ²⁵Thus says the Lord Yahweh: When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. ²⁶They shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite all around them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh their God.

29In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²"Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. ³Speak and say, 'Thus says the Lord Yahweh: "Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the middle of his rivers, that has said, 'My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.' ⁴I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the middle of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. ⁵I'll cast you out into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You'll fall on the open field. You won't be brought together, nor gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky. ⁶All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am Yahweh, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their thighs." ⁸Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: "Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. ⁹The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. Because he has said, 'The river is mine, and I have made it;' ¹⁰therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveneh even to the border of Ethiopia. ¹¹No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. ¹²I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the middle of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries." ¹³For thus says the Lord Yahweh: "At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered; ¹⁴and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. ¹⁵It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. ¹⁶It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord Yahweh.””¹⁷It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying,¹⁸Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it.¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her plunder, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.²⁰I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me, says the Lord Yahweh.²¹In that day will I cause a horn to sprout for the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth among them; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

30Yahweh’s word came again to me, saying,²Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Wail, Alas for the day!³For the day is near, even the day of Yahweh is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations.⁴A sword shall come on Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.⁵Ethiopia, and Put, and Lud, and all the mixed people, and Cub, and the children of the land that is allied with them, shall fall with them by the sword.⁶Yahweh says: They also who uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Seveneh shall they fall in it by the sword, says the Lord Yahweh.⁷They shall be desolate in the middle of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the middle of the cities that are wasted.⁸They shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed.⁹In that day shall messengers go out from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes.¹⁰Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.¹¹He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.¹²I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, Yahweh, have spoken it.¹³Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.¹⁴I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No.¹⁵I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.¹⁶I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime.¹⁷The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and they shall go into captivity.¹⁸At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.¹⁹Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.²⁰In the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying,²¹Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and behold, it has not been bound up, to apply medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword.²²Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.²³I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.²⁴I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groaning of a mortally wounded man.²⁵I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt.²⁶I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

31In the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh’s word came to me, saying,²Son of man, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude: Whom are you like in your greatness?³Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with beautiful branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs.⁴The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: its rivers ran all around its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.⁵Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it spread them out.⁶All the birds of the sky made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the animals of the field gave birth to their young; and all great nations lived under its shadow.⁷Thus was it beautiful in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters.⁸The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the cypress trees were not like its boughs, and the plane trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty. ⁹I made it beautiful by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it. ¹⁰Therefore thus said the Lord Yahweh: Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; ¹¹I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness. ¹²Strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: on the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. ¹³On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; ¹⁴to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, among the children of men, with those who go down to the pit. ¹⁵Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the day when he went down to Sheol ^{xiii} I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. ¹⁶I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol ^{xiv} with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. ¹⁷They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, who lived under his shadow in the middle of the nations. ¹⁸To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the middle of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Yahweh.

32In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him, You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet you are as a monster in the seas; and you broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. ³Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. ⁴I will leave you on the land, I will cast you out on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. ⁵I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. ⁶I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. ⁷When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. ⁸All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says the Lord Yahweh. ⁹I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. ¹⁰Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall. ¹¹For thus says the Lord Yahweh: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. ¹²By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. ¹³I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. ¹⁴Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁵When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell therein, then shall they know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁶This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they lament therewith, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁷Also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁸Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. ¹⁹Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. ²⁰They shall fall among those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. ²¹The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the middle of Sheol ^{xv} with those who help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. ²²Asshur is there and all her company; her graves are all around her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; ²³whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living. ²⁴There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. ²⁵They have set her a bed among the slain with all her multitude; her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put among those who are slain. ²⁶There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude; their graves are around them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. ²⁷They shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who have gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. ²⁸But you shall be broken among the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword. ²⁹There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit. ³⁰There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. ³¹Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Lord Yahweh. ³²For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Yahweh.

33Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and tell them, When I bring the sword on a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman; ³if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; ⁴then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and doesn't take warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the trumpet, and didn't take warning; his blood shall be on him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword come, and doesn't blow the trumpet, and the people aren't warned, and the sword comes, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. ⁷So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. ⁸When I tell the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die, and you don't speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. ⁹Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he doesn't turn from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.

¹⁰You, son of man, tell the house of Israel: Thus you speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are on us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live? ¹¹Tell them, As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, house of Israel? ¹²You, son of man, tell the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins. ¹³When I tell the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, therein shall he die. ¹⁴Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; ¹⁵if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. ¹⁶None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. ¹⁷Yet the children of your people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. ¹⁸When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die therein. ¹⁹When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. ²⁰Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways. ²¹In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city has been struck. ²²Now Yahweh's hand had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute. ²³Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²⁴Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. ²⁵Therefore tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? ²⁶You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife: and shall you possess the land? ²⁷You shall tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. ²⁸I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that no one shall pass through. ²⁹Then shall they know that I am Yahweh, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed. ³⁰As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak to one another, everyone to his brother, saying, Please come and hear what is the word that comes out from Yahweh. ³¹They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. ³²Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them. ³³When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes), then shall they know that a prophet has been among them.

34Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and tell them, even to the shepherds, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Shouldn't the shepherds feed the sheep? ³You eat the fat, and you clothe yourself with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but you don't feed the sheep. ⁴You haven't strengthened the diseased, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you sought that which was lost; but with force and with rigor you have ruled over them. ⁵They were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the animals of the field, and were scattered. ⁶My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered on all the surface of the earth; and there was no one who searched or sought. ⁷Therefore, you shepherds, hear Yahweh's word: ⁸As I live, says the Lord Yahweh, surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep; ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear Yahweh's word: ¹⁰Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them. ¹¹For thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. ¹³I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁶I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice. ¹⁷As for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. ¹⁸Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? ¹⁹As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet. ²⁰Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh to them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; ²²therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. ²⁴I, Yahweh, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I, Yahweh, have spoken it. ²⁵I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. ²⁶I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. ²⁸They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and no one shall make them afraid. ²⁹I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more. ³⁰They shall know that I, Yahweh, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord Yahweh. ³¹You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord Yahweh.

hold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment. ⁴I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁵Because you have had a perpetual hostility, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end; ⁶therefore, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you. ⁷Thus will I make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns. ⁸I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall who are slain with the sword. ⁹I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹⁰Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas Yahweh was there: ¹¹therefore, as I live, says the Lord Yahweh, I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you. ¹²You shall know that I, Yahweh, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they have been given us to devour. ¹³You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it. ¹⁴Thus says the Lord Yahweh: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. ¹⁵As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

36You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, You mountains of Israel, hear Yahweh's word. ²Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because the enemy has said against you, Aha! and, The ancient high places are ours in possession; ³therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; ⁴therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yahweh: Thus says the Lord Yahweh to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around; ⁵therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey. ⁶Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations: ⁷therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: I have sworn, Surely the nations that are around you, they shall bear their shame. ⁸But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot out your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. ⁹For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown; ¹⁰and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; ¹¹and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and you will do better than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ¹²Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children. ¹³Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Because they say to you, You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation; ¹⁴therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more, says the Lord Yahweh; ¹⁵neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁶Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ¹⁷Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. ¹⁸Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; ¹⁹and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. ²⁰When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of Yahweh, and are gone out of his land. ²¹But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went. ²²Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: I don't do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went. ²³I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned among them; and the nations shall know that I am Yahweh, says the Lord Yahweh, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. ²⁴For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. ²⁵I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. ²⁶I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. ²⁸You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. ³⁰I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. ³¹Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. ³²Nor for your sake do I this, says the Lord Yahweh, be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel. ³³Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. ³⁴The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. ³⁵They shall say, This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. ³⁶Then the nations that are left around you shall know that I, Yahweh, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Yahweh, have spoken it, and I will do it. ³⁷Thus says the Lord Yahweh: For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. ³⁸As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

37Yahweh's hand was on me, and he brought me out in Yahweh's Spirit, and set me down in the middle of the valley; and it was full of bones. ²He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. ³He said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? I answered, Lord Yahweh, you know. ⁴Again he said to me, Prophecy over these bones, and tell them, you dry bones, hear Yahweh's word. ⁵Thus says the Lord Yahweh to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. ⁶I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁷So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. ⁹Then he said to me, Prophecy to the wind, prophecy, son of man, and tell the wind, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live. ¹⁰So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army. ¹¹Then he said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off. ¹²Therefore prophecy, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel. ¹³You shall know that I am Yahweh, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. ¹⁴I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, Yahweh, have spoken it and performed it, says Yahweh. ¹⁵Yahweh's word came again to me, saying, ¹⁶You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write on it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: ¹⁷and join them for you to one another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. ¹⁸When the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these? ¹⁹tell them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand. ²⁰The sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. ²¹Say to them, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: ²²and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all; ²³neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. ²⁴My servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. ²⁵They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. ²⁶Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them forever more. ²⁷My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ²⁸The nations shall know that I am Yahweh who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary shall be among them forever more.

38Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ²Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: ⁴and I will turn you around, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords; ⁵Persia, Cush, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet; ⁶Gomer, and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you. ⁷Be prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies who are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. ⁸After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, on the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them. ⁹You shall ascend, you shall come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you. ¹⁰Thus says the Lord Yahweh: It shall happen in that day, that things shall come into your mind, and you shall devise an evil device: ¹¹and you shall say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to those who are at rest, who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates; ¹²to take the plunder and to take the prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have gotten livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the earth. ¹³Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions of it, shall tell you, Have you come to take the plunder? have you assembled your company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder? ¹⁴Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it? ¹⁵You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; ¹⁶and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes. ¹⁷Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Are you he of whom

I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh, that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils. ¹⁹For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; ²⁰so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. ²¹I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains, says the Lord Yahweh: every man's sword shall be against his brother. ²²With pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. ²³I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am Yahweh.

39You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: ²and I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel; ³and I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. ⁵You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yahweh. ⁶I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands; and they shall know that I am Yahweh. ⁷My holy name will I make known among my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am Yahweh, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yahweh; this is the day about which I have spoken. ⁹Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go out, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; ¹⁰so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹¹It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon Gog. ¹²Seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. ¹³Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁴They shall set apart men of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. ¹⁵Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. ¹⁶Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land. ¹⁷You, son of man, thus says the Lord Yahweh: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. ²⁰You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, says the Lord Yahweh. ²¹I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. ²²So the house of Israel shall know that I am Yahweh their God, from that day and forward. ²³The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. ²⁴According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I to them; and I hid my face from them. ²⁵Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. ²⁶They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and no one shall make them afraid; ²⁷when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸They shall know that I am Yahweh their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; ²⁹neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Lord Yahweh.

40In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, Yahweh's hand was on me, and he brought me there. ²In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. ³He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. ⁴The man said to me, Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you are brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel. ⁵Behold, a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits ^{xvi} long, of a cubit and a hand width each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. ⁶Then came he to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed wide; and the other threshold, one reed wide. ⁷Every lodge was one reed long, and one reed wide; and between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. ⁸He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. ⁹Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. ¹⁰The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. ¹¹He measured the width of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; ¹²and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. ¹³He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a width of twenty-five cubits; door against door. ¹⁴He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. ¹⁵From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. ¹⁶There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches; and windows were around inward; and on each post were palm trees. ¹⁷Then brought he me into the outer court; and behold, there were rooms and a pavement, made for the court all around: thirty rooms were on the pavement. ¹⁸The pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the width from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. ²⁰The gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured its length and its width. ²¹The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. ²²The windows of it, and its arches, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them. ²³There was a gate to the inner court facing the other gate, on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits. ²⁴He led me toward the south; and behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measurements. ²⁵There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. ²⁶There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. ²⁷There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits. ²⁸Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measurements; ²⁹and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements: and there were windows in it and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁰There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits wide. ³¹The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps. ³²He brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measurements; ³³and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measurements: and there were windows therein and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁴The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. ³⁵He brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measurements; ³⁶its lodges, its posts, and its arches: and there were windows therein all around; the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. ³⁷The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. ³⁸A room with its door was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering. ³⁹In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, on which to kill the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the trespass offering. ⁴⁰On the one side outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. ⁴¹Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices. ⁴²There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice. ⁴³The hooks, a hand width long, were fastened within all around: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering. ⁴⁴Outside of the inner gate were rooms for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. ⁴⁵He said to me, This room, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the house; ⁴⁶and the room whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to Yahweh to minister to him. ⁴⁷He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits wide, square; and the altar was before the house. ⁴⁸Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the width of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

⁴¹He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits wide on the one side, and six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. ²The width of the entrance was ten cubits; ^{xvii} and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured its length, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits. ³Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the width of the entrance, seven cubits. ⁴He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, This is the most holy place. ⁵Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the width of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. ⁶The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they might be supported, and not penetrate the wall of the house. ⁷The side rooms were wider on the higher levels, because the walls were narrower at the higher levels. Therefore the width of the house increased upward; and so one went up from the lowest level to the highest through the middle level. ⁸I saw also that the house had a raised base all around: the foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. ⁹The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. ¹⁰Between the rooms was a width of twenty cubits around the house on every side. ¹¹The doors of the side rooms were toward an open area that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. The width of the open area was five cubits all around. ¹²The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits. ¹³So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred cubits long; ¹⁴also the width of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits. ¹⁵He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; ¹⁶the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), ¹⁷to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. ¹⁸It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; ¹⁹so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. It was made like this through all the house all around: ²⁰from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple. ²¹As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, its appearance was as the appearance of the temple. ²²The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before Yahweh. ²³The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴The doors had two leaves each, two turning leaves: two for the one door, and two leaves for the other. ²⁵There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. ²⁶There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side rooms of the house, and the thresholds.

42Then he brought me out into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the room that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. ²Before the length of one hundred cubits ^{xviii} was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits. ³Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third floor. ⁴Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' width inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. ⁵Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. ⁶For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was set back more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. ⁷The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. ⁸For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits. ⁹From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court. ¹⁰In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. ¹¹The way before them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their width: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. ¹²According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them. ¹³Then he said to me, The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, they are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to Yahweh shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. ¹⁴When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which is for the people. ¹⁵Now when he had finished measuring the inner house, he brought me out by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it all around. ¹⁶He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁷He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁸He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ¹⁹He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ²⁰He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the width five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

43Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east. ²Behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory. ³It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ⁴Yahweh's glory came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. ⁵The Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, Yahweh's glory filled the house. ⁶I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me. ⁷He said to me, Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell among the children of Israel forever. The house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their prostitution, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places; ⁸in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door post beside my door post, and there was a wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger. ⁹Now let them put away their prostitution, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell among them forever. ¹⁰You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. ¹¹If they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them. ¹²This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. ¹³These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit ^{xix} is a cubit and a hand width): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit, and its border around its edge a span; ^{xx} and this shall be the base of the altar. ¹⁴From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the width a cubit. ¹⁵The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. ¹⁶The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, square in its four sides. ¹⁷The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen wide in its four sides; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and its bottom shall be a cubit around; and its steps shall look toward the east. ¹⁸He said to me, Son of man, thus says the Lord Yahweh: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings on it, and to sprinkle blood on it. ¹⁹You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the offspring ^{xxi} of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Lord Yahweh, a young bull for a sin offering. ²⁰You shall take of its blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around: thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. ²¹You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary. ²²On the second day you shall offer a male goat without defect for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. ²³When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without defect, and a ram out of the flock without defect. ²⁴You shall bring them near to Yahweh, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to Yahweh. ²⁵Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without defect. ²⁶Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. ²⁷When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord Yahweh.

44Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. ²Yahweh said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for Yahweh, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. ³As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before Yahweh; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. ⁴Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, Yahweh's glory filled Yahweh's house: and I fell on my face. ⁵Yahweh said to me, Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of Yahweh's house, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. ⁶You shall tell the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yahweh: you house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, ⁷in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. ⁸You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves. ⁹Thus says the Lord Yahweh, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel. ¹⁰But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. ¹¹Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. ¹²Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the Lord Yahweh, and they shall bear their iniquity. ¹³They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴Yet will I make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done therein. ¹⁵But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Lord Yahweh: ¹⁶they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction. ¹⁷It shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. ¹⁸They shall have linen tires on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their waists; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that makes them sweat. ¹⁹When they go out into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy rooms; and they shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments. ²⁰Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. ²¹Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. ²²Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the offspring ^{xxii} of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. ²³They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. ²⁴In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy.

²⁵They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. ²⁶After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. ²⁷In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord Yahweh. ²⁸They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. ²⁹They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. ³⁰The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it is bird or animal.

45Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to Yahweh, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the width shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all its border all around. ²Of this there shall be a five hundred by five hundred square for the holy place; and fifty cubits ^{xxiii} for its suburbs all around. ³Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a width of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. ⁴It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to Yahweh; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, for twenty rooms. ⁶You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand wide, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. ⁷What is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. ⁸In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes. ⁹Thus says the Lord Yahweh: Let it suffice you, princes of Israel: remove violence and plunder, and execute justice and righteousness; dispossessing my people, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁰You shall have just balances, and a just ephah, ^{xxiv} and a just bath. ¹¹The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain one tenth of a homer, ^{xxv} and the ephah one tenth of a homer: its measure shall be after the homer. ¹²The shekel ^{xxvi} shall be twenty gerahs. ^{xxvii} Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina. ^{xxviii} ¹³This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley; ¹⁴and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, one tenth of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;) ^{xxix} ¹⁵and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel—for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord Yahweh. ¹⁶All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷It shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel. ¹⁸Thus says the Lord Yahweh: In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without defect; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. ²⁰So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple: so you shall make atonement for the house. ²¹In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. ²²On that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. ²³The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to Yahweh, seven bulls and seven rams without defect daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. ²⁴He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah ^{xxx} for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ²⁵In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.

ing days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. ²The prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go out; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening. ³The people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Yahweh on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. ⁴The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to Yahweh shall be on the Sabbath day six lambs without defect and a ram without defect; ⁵and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ^{xxxi} ⁶On the day of the new moon it shall be a young bull without defect, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without defect: ⁷and he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bull, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ⁸When the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by its way. ⁹But when the people of the land shall come before Yahweh in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go out straight before him. ¹⁰The prince, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, he shall go out. ¹¹In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah ^{xxxii} for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ¹²When the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to Yahweh, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day: then he shall go out; and after his going out one shall shut the gate. ¹³You shall prepare a lamb a year old without defect for a burnt offering to Yahweh daily: morning by morning you shall prepare it. ¹⁴You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, ^{xxxiii} and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to Yahweh continually by a perpetual ordinance. ¹⁵Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering. ¹⁶Thus says the Lord Yahweh: If the prince give a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. ¹⁷But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. ¹⁸Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people not be scattered every man from his possession. ¹⁹Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. ²⁰He said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them out into the outer court, to sanctify the people. ²¹Then he brought me out into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. ²²In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits ^{xxxiv} long and thirty wide: these four in the corners were of one measure. ²³There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. ²⁴Then he said to me, These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

47He brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar. ²Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way outside to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side. ³When the man went out eastward with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, ^{xxxv} and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles. ⁴Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured one thousand, and caused me to pass through waters that were to the waist. ⁵Afterward he measured one thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. ⁶He said to me, Son of man, have you seen? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river. ⁷Now when I had returned, behold, on the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. ⁸Then he said to me, These waters flow out toward the eastern region, and will go down into the Arabah; and they will go toward the sea; and flow into the sea which will be made to flow out; and the waters will be healed. ⁹It shall happen, that every living creature which swarms, in every place where the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. ¹⁰It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. ¹¹But the miry places of it, and its marshes, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. ¹²By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall its fruit fail: it shall produce new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing. ¹³Thus says the Lord Yahweh: This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. ¹⁴You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance. ¹⁵This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; ¹⁶Hamath, Berothah, Sibram, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. ¹⁷The border from the sea, shall be Hazar Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side. ¹⁸The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea you shall measure. This is the east side. ¹⁹The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth Kadesh, to the brook, to the great sea. This is the south side southward. ²⁰The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side. ²¹So you shall divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel. ²²It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³It shall happen, that in what tribe the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance, says the Lord Yahweh.

Naphtali, one portion. ⁴By the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion. ⁵By the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion. ⁶By the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion. ⁷By the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion. ⁸By the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which you shall offer, twenty-five thousand reeds in width, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it. ⁹The offering that you shall offer to Yahweh shall be twenty-five thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in width. ¹⁰For these, even for the priests, shall be the holy offering: toward the north twenty-five thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in width, and toward the east ten thousand in width, and toward the south twenty-five thousand in length: and the sanctuary of Yahweh shall be in the middle of it. ¹¹It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept my instruction, who didn't go astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray. ¹²It shall be to them an offering from the offering of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites. ¹³Answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in width: all the length shall be twenty-five thousand, and the width ten thousand. ¹⁴They shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to Yahweh. ¹⁵The five thousand that are left in the width, in front of the twenty-five thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the middle of it. ¹⁶These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. ¹⁷The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. ¹⁸The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy offering; and its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city. ¹⁹Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. ²⁰All the offering shall be a square of twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer it as a holy offering, with the possession of the city. ²¹The remainder shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the middle of it. ²²Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the middle of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince. ²³As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion. ²⁴By the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion. ²⁵By the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion. ²⁶By the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion. ²⁷By the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion. ²⁸By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, to the brook, to the great sea. ²⁹This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Lord Yahweh. ³⁰These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; ³¹and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. ³²At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. ³³At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. ³⁴At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. ³⁵It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, Yahweh is there.

Daniel

1In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Jerusalem, and besieged it. ²The Lord ⁱ gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God; ⁱⁱ and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god. ³The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in some of the children of Israel, even of the royal offspring ⁱⁱⁱ and of the nobles; ⁴youths in whom was no defect, but well-favored, and skillful in all wisdom, and endowed with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. ⁵The king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at its end they should stand before the king. ⁶Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷The prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, Shadrach; and to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego. ⁸But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. ⁹Now God made Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs. ¹⁰The prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your own age? so would you endanger my head with the king. ¹¹Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: ¹²Test your servants, I beg you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink. ¹³Then let our faces be looked on before you, and the face of the youths who eat of the king's dainties; and as you see, deal with your servants. ¹⁴So he listened to them in this matter, and proved them

ten days. ¹⁵At the end of ten days their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. ¹⁶So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse. ¹⁷Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. ¹⁸At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹The king talked with them; and among them all was found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. ²⁰In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. ²¹Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

2In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. ²Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. ³The king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. ⁴Then spoke the Chaldeans to the king in the Syrian language, O king, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. ⁵The king answered the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if you don't make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. ⁶But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and its interpretation. ⁷They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. ⁸The king answered, I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. ⁹But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation. ¹⁰The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. ¹¹It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. ¹²For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree went out, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain. ¹⁴Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon; ¹⁵he answered Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. ¹⁶Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation. ¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: ¹⁸that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. ²⁰Daniel answered, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. ²¹He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; ²²he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. ²³I thank you, and praise you, you God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter. ²⁴Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus to him: Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation. ²⁵Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus to him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation. ²⁶The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation? ²⁷Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded can neither wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show to the king; ²⁸but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: ²⁹as for you, O king, your thoughts came on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen. ³⁰But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart. ³¹You, O king, saw, and behold, ^{iv} a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its aspect was awesome. ³²As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, ³³its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. ³⁴You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. ³⁵Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. ³⁶This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. ³⁷You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; ³⁸and wherever the children of men dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has he given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold. ³⁹After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. ⁴¹Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. ⁴²As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. ⁴³Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cling to one another, even as iron does not mingle with clay. ⁴⁴In the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. ⁴⁵Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure. ⁴⁶Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to him. ⁴⁷The king answered to Daniel, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret. ⁴⁸Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

3Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, ^v and its width six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. ²Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴Then the herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up; ⁶and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. ⁷Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ⁸Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. ⁹They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live for ever. ¹⁰You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; ¹¹and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the middle of a burning fiery furnace. ¹²There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not respected you. They don't serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. ¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar in rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴Nebuchadnezzar answered them, Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, good: but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the middle of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? ¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷If it happens, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. ¹⁹Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his appearance was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other clothes, and were cast into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. ²²Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. ²³These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the middle of the burning fiery furnace. ²⁴Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spoke and said to his counselors, Didn't we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire? They answered the king, True, O king. ²⁵He answered, Look, I see four men loose, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods. ²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spoke and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out, and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the middle of the fire. ²⁷The satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their pants changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. ²⁸Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver after this sort. ³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

⁴Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. ²It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me. ³How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. ⁴I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. ⁸But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, ⁹Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. ¹⁰Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the middle of the earth; and its height was great. ¹¹The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth. ¹²The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all: the animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. ¹³I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. ¹⁴He cried aloud, and said thus, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. ¹⁵Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth: ¹⁶let his heart be changed from man's, and let an animal's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. ¹⁷The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men. ¹⁸This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you. ¹⁹Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you. Belteshazzar answered, My lord, the dream be to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries. ²⁰The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth; ²¹whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation: ²²it is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth. ²³Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him; ²⁴this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king: ²⁵that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. ²⁶Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you shall have known that the heavens do rule. ²⁷Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquility. ²⁸All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon. ³⁰The king spoke and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? ³¹While the word was in the king's mouth, a voice came from the sky, saying, "O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you. ³²You shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field. You shall be made to eat grass as oxen. Seven times shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will." ³³This was fulfilled the same hour on Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. ³⁴At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. ³⁵All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and no one can stay his hand, or ask him, What are you doing? ³⁶At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. ³⁷Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

⁵Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand. ²Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them. ³Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of God's house which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them. ⁴They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. ⁵In the same hour, the fingers of a man's hand came out and wrote near the lamp stand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace. The king saw the part of the hand that wrote. ⁶Then the king's face was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his thighs were loosened, and his knees struck one against another. ⁷The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. ⁸Then came in all the king's wise men; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation. ⁹Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his face was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed. ¹⁰The queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: the queen spoke and said, O king, live forever; don't let your thoughts trouble you, nor let your face be changed. ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar your father, the king, your father, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; ¹²because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation. ¹³Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king

spoke and said to Daniel, Are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? ¹⁴I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. ¹⁵Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. ¹⁶But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. ¹⁷Then Daniel answered before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. ¹⁸You, king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: ¹⁹and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. ²⁰But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: ²¹and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will. ²²You, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, ²³but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified. ²⁴Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. ²⁵This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. ²⁶This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; ²⁷TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. ²⁸PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. ²⁹Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. ³⁰In that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain. ³¹Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

6It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom; ²and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king should have no damage. ³Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. ⁴Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault, because he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him. ⁵Then these men said, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God. ⁶Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the king, and said thus to him, King Darius, live forever. ⁷All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counselors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions. ⁸Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter. ⁹Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree. ¹⁰When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. ¹¹Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. ¹²Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: Haven't you signed an decree, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter. ¹³Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't respect you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day. ¹⁴Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him. ¹⁵Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed. ¹⁶Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you. ¹⁷A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. ¹⁸Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him. ¹⁹Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. ²⁰When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spoke and said to Daniel, Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions? ²¹Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live forever. ²²My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no hurt. ²³Then was the king exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. ²⁴The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den. ²⁵Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. ²⁶I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever, His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even to the end. ²⁷He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. ²⁸So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

7In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed: then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters. ²Daniel spoke and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the sky broke out on the great sea. ³Four great animals came up from the sea, diverse one from another. ⁴The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I saw until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it. ⁵Behold, another animal, a second, like a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus to it, Arise, devour much flesh. ⁶After this I saw, and behold, another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird; the animal had also four heads; and dominion was given to it. ⁷After this I saw in the night visions, and, behold, a fourth animal, awesome and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns. ⁸I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. ⁹I saw until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days sat: his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire. ¹⁰A fiery stream issued and came out from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. ¹¹I saw at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I saw even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. ¹²As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. ¹³I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. ¹⁴There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. ¹⁵As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved within my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. ¹⁶I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. ¹⁷These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. ¹⁹Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was diverse from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; ²⁰and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. ²¹I saw, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; ²²until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. ²³Thus he said, The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. ²⁴As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. ²⁵He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. ²⁶But the judgment shall be set, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. ²⁷The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole sky, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. ²⁸Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

8In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. ²I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. ³Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. ⁴I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself. ⁵As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. ⁶He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. ⁷I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him; and there was no one who could deliver the ram out of his hand. ⁸The male goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of the sky. ⁹Out of one of them came out a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. ¹⁰It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and some of the army and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. ¹¹Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. ¹²The army was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through disobedience; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered. ¹³Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long shall be the vision about the continual burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot? ¹⁴He said to me, To two thousand and three hundred evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. ¹⁵When I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it; and behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. ¹⁶I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. ¹⁷So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face: but he said to me, Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end. ¹⁸Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. ¹⁹He said, Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. ²⁰The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹The rough male goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. ²²As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. ²³In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. ²⁴His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper in what he does; and he shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. ²⁵Through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and he shall destroy many in their security. He shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. ²⁶The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but seal up the vision; for it belongs to many days to come. ²⁷I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but no one understood it.

In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the offspring ^{vi} of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, ²in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years about which Yahweh's word ^{vii} came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years. ³I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. ⁴I prayed to Yahweh my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments, ⁵we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances; ⁶neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. ⁷Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as it is today; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. ⁸Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. ⁹To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him; ¹⁰neither have we obeyed Yahweh our God's voice, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. ¹¹Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: therefore the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us; for we have sinned against him. ¹²He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky, such has not been done as has been done to Jerusalem. ¹³As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil has come on us: yet have we not entreated the favor of Yahweh our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. ¹⁴Therefore has Yahweh watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for Yahweh our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice. ¹⁵Now, Lord our God, who has brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as it is today; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. ¹⁶Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. ¹⁷Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. ¹⁸My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake. ¹⁹Lord, hear; Lord, forgive; Lord, listen and do; don't defer, for your own sake, my God, because your city and your people are called by your name. ²⁰While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Yahweh my God for the holy mountain of my God; ²¹yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering. ²²He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, Daniel, I have now come to give you wisdom and understanding. ²³At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went out, and I have come to tell you;

for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. ²⁴Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. ²⁵Know therefore and discern, that from the going out of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Anointed One, ^{viii} the prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times. ²⁶After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One ^{ix} shall be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and its end shall be with a flood, and even to the end shall be war; desolations are determined. ²⁷He shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the middle of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out on the desolate.

10In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. ²In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. ³I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. ⁴In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, ⁵I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, whose thighs were adorned with pure gold of Uphaz: ⁶his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. ⁷I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me didn't see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. ⁸So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. ⁹Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground. ¹⁰Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. ¹¹He said to me, Daniel, you man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for am I now sent to you. When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. ¹²Then he said to me, Don't be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I have come for your words' sake. ¹³But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days: ¹⁵and when he had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. ¹⁶Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned on me, and I retain no strength. ¹⁷For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me. ¹⁸Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. ¹⁹He said, "Greatly beloved man, don't be afraid: peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong." When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me." ²⁰Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go out, behold, the prince of Greece shall come. ²¹But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is no one who holds with me against these, but Michael your prince."

11"As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him. ²Now will I show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. ³A mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. ⁴When he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these. ⁵The king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. ⁶At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and those who brought her, and he who became the father of her, and he who strengthened her in those times. ⁷But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come to the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. ⁸Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall refrain some years from the king of the north. ⁹He shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. ¹⁰His sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to his fortress. ¹¹The king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come out and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall send out a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. ¹²The multitude shall be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. ¹³The king of the north shall return, and shall send out a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance. ¹⁴In those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall. ¹⁵So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to stand. ¹⁶But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction. ¹⁷He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions; and he shall perform them: and he shall give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she shall not stand, neither be for him. ¹⁸After this shall he turn his face to the islands, and shall take many: but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yes, moreover, he shall cause his reproach to turn on him. ¹⁹Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found. ²⁰Then shall stand up in his place one who shall cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. ²¹In his place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ²²The overwhelming forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yes, also the prince of the covenant. ²³After the treaty made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. ²⁴In time of security shall he come even on the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and plunder, and substance: yes, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. ²⁵He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him. ²⁶Yes, they who eat of his dainties shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain. ²⁷As for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. ²⁸Then he will return into his land with great substance; and his heart will be against the holy covenant; and he will take action, and return to his own land. ²⁹At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former. ³⁰For ships of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall take action: he shall even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. ³¹Forces shall stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate. ³²Such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he pervert by flatteries; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and take action. ³³Those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder, many days. ³⁴Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries. ³⁵Some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed. ³⁶The king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods; and he shall prosper until the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done. ³⁷Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall magnify himself above all. ³⁸But in his place shall he honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers didn't know shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. ³⁹He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges him he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price. ⁴⁰At the time of the end shall the king of the south contend with him; and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass through. ⁴¹He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. ⁴²He shall stretch out his hand also on the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. ⁴⁴But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go out with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. ⁴⁵He shall plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one shall help him.

12“At that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. ²Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³Those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the expanse; and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. ⁴But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run back and forth, and knowledge shall be increased.” ⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, and the other on the river bank on that side. ⁶One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? ⁷I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have finished breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. ⁸I heard, but I didn’t understand: then I said, my lord, what shall be the issue of these things? ⁹He said, Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. ¹⁰Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand. ¹¹From the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days. ¹²Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. ¹³But go you your way until the end; for you shall rest, and shall stand in your lot, at the end of the days.

Hosea

1Yahweh's ⁱ word that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. 2When Yahweh spoke at first by Hosea, Yahweh said to Hosea, "Go, take for yourself a wife of prostitution and children of unfaithfulness; for the land commits great adultery, forsaking Yahweh." 3So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son. 4Yahweh said to him, "Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. 5It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel." 6She conceived again, and bore a daughter. ⁱⁱ ; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. 7But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by Yahweh their God, ⁱⁱⁱ and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen." 8Now when she had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son. 9He said, "Call his name Lo-Ammi ^{iv} ; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours. 10Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can't be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' they will be called 'sons of the living God.' 11The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

2^v "Say to your brothers, 'My people!' ^{vi} 2Contend, for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband; and her adulteries from between her breasts; Contend with your mother! and let her put away her prostitution from her face, ³and make her bare as in the day that she was born, and set her like a dry land, and kill her with thirst. Lest I strip her naked, and make her like a wilderness, ⁴for they are children of unfaithfulness; Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy; ⁵She who conceived them has done shamefully; who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.' For their mother has played the prostitute. for she said, 'I will go after my lovers, ⁶and I will build a wall against her, that she can't find her way. Therefore behold, ^{vii} I will hedge up your way with thorns, ⁷but she won't overtake them; but won't find them. for then was it better with me than now.' She will follow after her lovers, and she will seek them, Then she will say, 'I will go and return to my first husband; ⁸and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal. For she did not know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, ⁹and my new wine in its season, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness. Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, ¹⁰and no one will deliver her out of my hand. Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, ¹¹her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies. I will also cause all her celebrations to cease: ¹²about which she has said, 'These are my wages that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forest,' and the animals of the field shall eat them. I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, ¹³to which she burned incense, and went after her lovers, and forgot me," says Yahweh. I will visit on her the days of the Baals, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, ¹⁴and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her. "Therefore behold, I will allure her, ¹⁵and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt. I will give her vineyards from there, and she will respond there, ¹⁶"that you will call me 'my husband,' and no longer call me 'my master.' It will be in that day," says Yahweh, ¹⁷and they will no longer be mentioned by name. For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth, ¹⁸and with the birds of the sky, and with the creeping things of the ground. and will make them lie down safely. In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle out of the land,¹⁹ Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion. I will betroth you to me forever.²⁰ and you shall know Yahweh. I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness;²¹ “I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth; It will happen in that day, I will respond,” says Yahweh,²² and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they will respond to Jezreel.²³ and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy; and I will tell those who were not my people, ‘You are my people;’ and they will say, ‘My God!’” I will sow her to me in the earth;

3Yahweh said to me, “Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as Yahweh loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins.”² So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer^{viii} and a half of barley.³ I said to her, “You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you.”⁴ For the children of Israel shall live many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols.⁵ Afterward the children of Israel shall return, and seek Yahweh their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to Yahweh and to his blessings in the last days.

4for Yahweh has a charge against the inhabitants of the land: nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land. “Indeed there is no truth, Hear Yahweh’s word, you children of Israel;² they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed. There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery;³ and everyone who dwells therein will waste away. even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky; yes, the fish of the sea also die. Therefore the land will mourn, all living things in her,⁴ “Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; For your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.⁵ and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother. You will stumble in the day,⁶ Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you may be no priest to me. I will also forget your children. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have forgotten your God’s law,⁷ I will change their glory into shame. As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me.⁸ and set their heart on their iniquity. They feed on the sin of my people,⁹ and I will punish them for their ways, and will repay them for their deeds. It will be, like people, like priest;¹⁰ They will play the prostitute, and will not increase; because they have abandoned giving to Yahweh. They will eat, and not have enough.¹¹ Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.¹² My people consult with their wooden idol, and answer to a stick of wood. and they have been unfaithful to their God. Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them astray,¹³ and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good. and your brides commit adultery. They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, Therefore your daughters play the prostitute,¹⁴ nor your brides when they commit adultery; and they sacrifice with the shrine prostitutes; so the people without understanding will come to ruin. I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, because the men consort with prostitutes,¹⁵ yet don’t let Judah offend; and don’t come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven, nor swear, ‘As Yahweh lives.’ “Though you, Israel, play the prostitute,¹⁶ Then how will Yahweh feed them like a lamb in a meadow. For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer.¹⁷ Leave him alone! Ephraim is joined to idols.¹⁸ They play the prostitute continually. Her rulers dearly love their shameful way. Their drink has become sour.¹⁹ and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices. The wind has wrapped her up in its wings;

5Listen, house of Israel, and give ear, house of the king! for you have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread on Tabor. For the judgment is against you; “Listen to this, you priests!² but I discipline all of them. The rebels are deep in slaughter;³ and Israel is not hidden from me; Israel is defiled. I know Ephraim, for now, Ephraim, you have played the prostitute.⁴ for the spirit of prostitution is within them, and they don’t know Yahweh. Their deeds won’t allow them to turn to their God;⁵ Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their iniquity. Judah also will stumble with them. The pride of Israel testifies to his face.⁶ but they won’t find him. He has withdrawn himself from them. They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Yahweh;⁷ for they have borne illegitimate children. Now the new moon will devour them with their fields. They are unfaithful to Yahweh;⁸ and the trumpet in Ramah! Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin! “Blow the cornet in Gibeah,⁹ Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be. Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke.¹⁰ I will pour out my wrath on them like water. The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark.¹¹ he is crushed in judgment; Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols. Ephraim is oppressed,¹² and to the house of Judah like rottenness. Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth,¹³ and Judah his wound, Then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to king Jareb: neither will he cure you of your wound. “When Ephraim saw his sickness, but he is not able to heal you,¹⁴ and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.

For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, I myself will tear in pieces and go away. ¹⁵until they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face. In their affliction they will seek me earnestly.” I will go and return to my place, 6for he has torn us to pieces, and he will heal us; and he will bind up our wounds. he has injured us, “Come, and let us return to Yahweh; ²On the third day he will raise us up, and we will live before him. After two days he will revive us. ³Let us press on to know Yahweh. Yahweh will appear. like the spring rain that waters the earth.” Let us acknowledge Yahweh. As surely as the sun rises, He will come to us like the rain, ⁴Judah, what shall I do to you? For your love is like a morning cloud, and like the dew that disappears early. “Ephraim, what shall I do to you? ⁵I killed them with the words of my mouth. Your judgments are like a flash of lightning. Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets; ⁶and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. For I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; ⁷They were unfaithful to me, there. But they, like Adam, have broken the covenant. ⁸it is stained with blood. Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity; ⁹so the company of priests murder on the path toward Shechem, committing shameful crimes. As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man, ¹⁰There is prostitution in Ephraim. Israel is defiled. In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing. ¹¹when I restore the fortunes of my people. “Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you,

7then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered, also the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the gang of robbers ravages outside. When I would heal Israel, ²Now their own deeds have engulfed them. They are before my face. They don’t consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness. ³and the princes with their lies. They make the king glad with their wickedness, ⁴They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring, from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened. They are all adulterers. ⁵He joined his hand with mockers. On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine. ⁶while they lie in wait. Their baker sleeps all the night. In the morning it burns as a flaming fire. For they have prepared their heart like an oven, ⁷and devour their judges. There is no one among them who calls to me. They are all hot as an oven, All their kings have fallen. ⁸Ephraim is a pancake not turned over. Ephraim, he mixes himself among the nations. ⁹and he doesn’t realize it. and he doesn’t realize it. Strangers have devoured his strength, Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him, ¹⁰yet they haven’t returned to Yahweh their God, nor sought him, for all this. The pride of Israel testifies to his face; ¹¹They call to Egypt. They go to Assyria. “Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove, without understanding. ¹²I will bring them down like the birds of the sky. I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard. When they go, I will spread my net on them. ¹³For they have wandered from me. For they have trespassed against me. yet they have spoken lies against me. Woe to them! Destruction to them! Though I would redeem them, ¹⁴but they howl on their beds. They turn away from me. They haven’t cried to me with their heart, They assemble themselves for grain and new wine. ¹⁵yet they plot evil against me. Though I have taught and strengthened their arms, ¹⁶They are like a faulty bow. Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue. This will be their derision in the land of Egypt. They return, but not to the Most High.

8Something like an eagle is over Yahweh’s house, because they have broken my covenant, and rebelled against my law. “Put the trumpet to your lips! ²They cry to me, ‘My God, we Israel acknowledge you!’ ³Israel has cast off that which is good. The enemy will pursue him. ⁴They have made princes, and I didn’t approve. Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols, that they may be cut off. They have set up kings, but not by me. ⁵My anger burns against them! How long will it be until they are capable of purity? Let Samaria throw out his calf idol! ⁶The workman made it, and it is no God; indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces. For this is even from Israel! ⁷and they will reap the whirlwind. The stalk will yield no head. If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up. For they sow the wind, He has no standing grain. ⁸Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing. Israel is swallowed up. ⁹like a wild donkey wandering alone. Ephraim has hired lovers for himself. For they have gone up to Assyria, ¹⁰I will now gather them; and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones. But although they sold themselves among the nations, ¹¹they became for him altars for sinning. Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, ¹²but they were regarded as a strange thing. I wrote for him the many things of my law; ¹³they sacrifice flesh and eat it; But Yahweh doesn’t accept them. and punish their sins. They will return to Egypt. As for the sacrifices of my offerings, Now he will remember their iniquity, ¹⁴and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; but I will send a fire on his cities, and it will devour its fortresses.” For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;

9for you were unfaithful to your God. You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor. Don’t rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations; ²and the new wine will fail her. The threshing floor and the wine press won’t feed them, ³but Ephraim will return to Egypt, and they will eat unclean food in Assyria. They won’t dwell in Yahweh’s land; ⁴neither will they be pleasing to him. Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;

all who eat of it will be polluted; for their bread will be for their appetite. It will not come into Yahweh's house. They won't pour out wine offerings to Yahweh, ⁵and in the day of the feast of Yahweh? What will you do in the day of solemn assembly, ⁶Egypt will gather them up. Memphis will bury them. Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver. Thorns will be in their tents. For, behold, they have gone away from destruction. ⁷The days of reckoning have come. and the man who is inspired to be insane, because of the abundance of your sins, and because your hostility is great. The days of visitation have come. Israel will consider the prophet to be a fool, ⁸A fowler's snare is on all of his paths, and hostility in the house of his God. A prophet watches over Ephraim with my God. ⁹as in the days of Gibeah. He will remember their iniquity. He will punish them for their sins. They have deeply corrupted themselves, ¹⁰I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season; but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. ¹¹There will be no birth, no one with child, and no conception. As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird. ¹²yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left. Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from them! Though they bring up their children, ¹³but Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer. I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place; ¹⁴Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. Give them—Yahweh what will you give? ¹⁵for there I hated them. Because of the wickedness of their deeds I will drive them out of my house! I will love them no more. All their princes are rebels. "All their wickedness is in Gilgal; ¹⁶Their root has dried up. They will bear no fruit. Even though they give birth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb." Ephraim is struck. ¹⁷and they will be wanderers among the nations. My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to him;

¹⁰According to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars. As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones. Israel is a luxuriant vine that produces his fruit. ²Now they will be found guilty. He will demolish their altars. He will destroy their sacred stones. Their heart is divided. ³and the king, what can he do for us?" Surely now they will say, "We have no king; for we don't fear Yahweh; ⁴Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field. They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants. ⁵for its people will mourn over it, Along with its priests who rejoiced over it, for its glory, because it has departed from it. The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven; ⁶Ephraim will receive shame, and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel. It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great king. ⁷like a twig on the water. Samaria and her king float away, ⁸The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars. They will tell the mountains, "Cover us!" and the hills, "Fall on us!" The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed. ⁹There they remained. The battle against the children of iniquity doesn't overtake them in Gibeah. "Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah. ¹⁰and the nations will be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions. When it is my desire, I will chastise them; ¹¹so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck. I will set a rider on Ephraim. Judah will plow. Jacob will break his clods. Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh; ¹²reap according to kindness. for it is time to seek Yahweh, until he comes and rains righteousness on you. Sow to yourselves in righteousness, Break up your fallow ground; ¹³You have reaped iniquity. You have eaten the fruit of lies, for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men. You have plowed wickedness. ¹⁴and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle. The mother was dashed in pieces with her children. Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people, ¹⁵At daybreak the king of Israel will be destroyed. So Bethel will do to you because of your great wickedness.

¹¹and called my son out of Egypt. "When Israel was a child, then I loved him, ²They sacrificed to the Baals, and burned incense to engraved images. They called to them, so they went from them. ³I took them by his arms; but they didn't know that I healed them. Yet I taught Ephraim to walk. ⁴and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks; and I bent down to him and I fed him. I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love; ⁵but the Assyrian will be their king, because they refused to repent. "They won't return into the land of Egypt; ⁶and will destroy the bars of their gates, and will put an end to their plans. The sword will fall on their cities, ⁷Though they call to the Most High, he certainly won't exalt them. My people are determined to turn from me. ⁸How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah? How can I make you like Zeboiim? my compassion is aroused. "How can I give you up, Ephraim? My heart is turned within me, ⁹I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One among you; and I will not come in wrath. I will not execute the fierceness of my anger. ¹⁰who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west. They will walk after Yahweh, ¹¹and like a dove out of the land of Assyria; They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and I will settle them in their houses," says Yahweh. ¹²and the house of Israel with deceit. Judah still strays from God, and is unfaithful to the Holy One. Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, 12and chases the east wind. He continually multiplies lies and desolation. They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt. Ephraim feeds on wind,² and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his deeds he will repay him. Yahweh also has a controversy with Judah,³ and in his manhood he contended with God. In the womb he took his brother by the heel;⁴ he wept, and made supplication to him. He found him at Bethel, and there he spoke with us, Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed;⁵ even Yahweh, the God of Armies; Yahweh is his name of renown!⁶ Keep kindness and justice, and wait continually for your God. Therefore turn to your God.⁷ He loves to defraud. A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand.⁸ I have found myself wealth. In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin." Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich,⁹ I will yet again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast. "But I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt.¹⁰ and I have multiplied visions; and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables. I have also spoken to the prophets,¹¹ surely they are worthless. Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field. If Gilead is wicked, In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls.¹² and Israel served to get a wife, and for a wife he tended flocks and herds. Jacob fled into the country of Aram,¹³ and by a prophet he was preserved. By a prophet Yahweh brought Israel up out of Egypt,¹⁴ Therefore his blood will be left on him,^{ix} will repay his contempt. Ephraim has bitterly provoked anger.

13He exalted himself in Israel, but when he became guilty in Baal, he died. When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.² and have made themselves molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen. They say of them, 'They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves.' Now they sin more and more,³ and like the dew that passes away early, like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney. Therefore they will be like the morning mist,⁴ and you shall acknowledge no god but me, and besides me there is no savior. "Yet I am Yahweh your God from the land of Egypt;⁵ in the land of great drought. I knew you in the wilderness,⁶ they were filled, and their heart was exalted. Therefore they have forgotten me. According to their pasture, so were they filled;⁷ Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path. Therefore I am like a lion to them.⁸ and will tear the covering of their heart. There I will devour them like a lioness. The wild animal will tear them. I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs,⁹ against your help. You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me,¹⁰ And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes?' Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities?¹¹ and have taken him away in my wrath. I have given you a king in my anger,¹² His sin is stored up. The guilt of Ephraim is stored up.¹³ He is an unwise son; for when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb. The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him.¹⁴ I will redeem them from death! Death, where are your plagues? Sheol, where is your destruction? I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.^x "Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.¹⁵ Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come, the breath of Yahweh coming up from the wilderness; and his spring will become dry, and his fountain will be dried up. He will plunder the storehouse of treasure.¹⁶ for she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword. Their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open." Samaria will bear her guilt;

14Israel, return to Yahweh your God; for you have fallen because of your sin.² Tell him, "Forgive all our sins, and accept that which is good: so we offer our lips like bulls. Take words with you, and return to Yahweh.³ We won't ride on horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our gods!' for in you the fatherless finds mercy." Assyria can't save us.⁴ I will love them freely; for my anger is turned away from him. "I will heal their waywardness.⁵ He will blossom like the lily, and send down his roots like Lebanon. I will be like the dew to Israel.⁶ and his beauty will be like the olive tree, and his fragrance like Lebanon. His branches will spread,⁷ They will revive like the grain, and blossom like the vine. Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon. Men will dwell in his shade.⁸ I answer, and will take care of him. I am like a green cypress tree; from me your fruit is found." Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols?⁹ Who is prudent, that he may know them? For the ways of Yahweh are right, and the righteous walk in them; But the rebellious stumble in them. Who is wise, that he may understand these things?

Joel

1Yahweh's ⁱ word that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel. ²And listen, all you inhabitants of the land. or in the days of your fathers? Hear this, you elders, Has this ever happened in your days, ³and have your children tell their children, and your children, another generation. Tell your children about it, ⁴What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten. What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten. What the swarming locust has left, the great locust has eaten. ⁵Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. Wake up, you drunkards, and weep! ⁶His teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the fangs of a lioness. For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number. ⁷and stripped my fig tree. He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away. Its branches are made white. He has laid my vine waste, ⁸Mourn like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth! ⁹The priests, Yahweh's ministers, mourn. The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from Yahweh's house. ¹⁰The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed, The new wine has dried up, and the oil languishes. The field is laid waste. ¹¹Wail, you vineyard keepers; for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field has perished. Be confounded, you farmers! ¹²the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all of the trees of the field are withered; for joy has withered away from the sons of men. The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered; ¹³Wail, you ministers of the altar. for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house. Put on sackcloth and mourn, you priests! ⁱⁱ ¹⁴Call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of Yahweh, your God, and cry to Yahweh. Sanctify a fast. ¹⁵For the day of Yahweh is at hand, and it will come as destruction from the Almighty. Alas for the day! ¹⁶joy and gladness from the house of our God? Isn't the food cut off before our eyes; ¹⁷The granaries are laid desolate. The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered. The seeds rot under their clods. ¹⁸The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture. Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate. How the animals groan! ¹⁹For the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field. Yahweh, I cry to you, ²⁰for the water brooks have dried up, And the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness. Yes, the animals of the field pant to you,

2Blow the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain! for the day of Yahweh comes, for it is close at hand: Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, ²a day of clouds and thick darkness. a great and strong people; there has never been the like, neither will there be any more after them, even to the years of many generations. A day of darkness and gloominess, As the dawn spreading on the mountains, ³and behind them, a flame burns. and behind them, a desolate wilderness. A fire devours before them, The land is as the garden of Eden before them, Yes, and no one has escaped them. ⁴and as horsemen, so do they run. Their appearance is as the appearance of horses, ⁵like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, ⁶All faces have grown pale. At their presence the peoples are in anguish. ⁷They climb the wall like warriors. They each march in his line, and they don't swerve off course. They run like mighty men. ⁸they march everyone in his path, and they burst through the defenses, and don't break ranks. Neither does one jostle another; ⁹They run on the wall. They climb up into the houses. They enter in at the windows like thieves. They rush on the city. ¹⁰The heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining. The earth quakes before them. ¹¹for his forces are very great; for he is strong who obeys his command; for the day of Yahweh is great and very awesome, and who can endure it? Yahweh thunders his voice before his army; ¹²and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning." "Yet even now," says Yahweh, "turn to me with all your heart, ¹³and turn to Yahweh, your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and relents from sending calamity. Tear your heart, and not your garments, ¹⁴and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to Yahweh, your God. Who knows? He may turn and relent, ¹⁵Sanctify a fast. Call a solemn assembly. Blow the trumpet in Zion! ¹⁶Sanctify the assembly. Assemble the elders. Gather the children, and those who nurse from breasts. and the bride out of her room. Gather the people. Let the bridegroom go out of his room, ¹⁷and let them say, "Spare your people, Yahweh, and don't give your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them. 'Where is their God?'" Let the priests, the ministers of Yahweh, weep between the porch and the altar, Why should they say among the peoples, ¹⁸And had pity on his people. Then Yahweh was jealous for his land, ¹⁹ⁱⁱⁱ I will send you grain, new wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied with them; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations. Yahweh answered his people, ²⁰and will drive it into a barren and desolate land, its front into the eastern sea, and its back into the western sea; and its stench will come up, and its bad smell will rise." But I will remove the northern army far away from you, Surely he has done great things. ²¹Be glad and rejoice, for Yahweh has done great things. Land, don't be afraid. ²²for the pastures of the wilderness spring up, for the tree bears its fruit. The fig tree and the vine yield their strength. Don't be afraid, you animals of the field; ²³and rejoice in Yahweh, your God; for he gives you the former rain in just measure, and he causes the rain to come down for you, the former rain and the latter rain, as before. "Be glad then, you children of Zion, ²⁴and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil. The threshing floors will be full of wheat, ²⁵the great locust, the grasshopper, and the caterpillar, my great army, which I sent among you. I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, ²⁶and will praise the name of Yahweh, your God, who has dealt wondrously with you; and my people will never again be disappointed. You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, ²⁷and that I am Yahweh, your God, and there is no one else; and my people will never again be disappointed. You will know that I am among Israel, ²⁸and your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams. Your young men will see visions. "It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; ²⁹I will pour out my Spirit. And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days, ³⁰blood, fire, and pillars of smoke. I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: ³¹and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes. The sun will be turned into darkness, ³²for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape, as Yahweh has said, and among the remnant, those whom Yahweh calls. It will happen that whoever will call on Yahweh's name shall be saved;

3⁴For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, ²and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment on them there for my people, and for my heritage, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations. They have divided my land, I will gather all nations, ³and have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink. ⁴and all the regions of Philistia? And if you repay me, I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head. "Yes, and what are you to me, Tyre, and Sidon, Will you repay me? ⁵and have carried my finest treasures into your temples, Because you have taken my silver and my gold, ⁶and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks, that you may remove them far from their border. ⁷and will return your repayment on your own head; Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them, ⁸and they will sell them to the men of Sheba, to a faraway nation, for Yahweh has spoken it." and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Judah, ⁹"Prepare for war! Stir up the mighty men. Let them come up. Proclaim this among the nations: Let all the warriors draw near. ¹⁰Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears. Let the weak say, 'I am strong.' ¹¹and gather yourselves together." Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations, Cause your mighty ones to come down there, Yahweh. ¹²and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there will I sit to judge all the surrounding nations. "Let the nations arouse themselves, ¹³for the harvest is ripe. Come, tread, for the wine press is full, the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great." Put in the sickle; ¹⁴For the day of Yahweh is near, in the valley of decision. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! ¹⁵and the stars withdraw their shining. The sun and the moon are darkened, ¹⁶and thunder from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth will shake; but Yahweh will be a refuge to his people, and a stronghold to the children of Israel. Yahweh will roar from Zion, ¹⁷dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain. and no strangers will pass through her any more. "So you will know that I am Yahweh, your God, Then Jerusalem will be holy, ¹⁸that the mountains will drop down sweet wine, the hills will flow with milk, all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters, and a fountain will flow out from Yahweh's house, and will water the valley of Shittim. It will happen in that day, ¹⁹and Edom will be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. Egypt will be a desolation, ²⁰and Jerusalem from generation to generation. But Judah will be inhabited forever, ²¹that I have not cleansed: for Yahweh dwells in Zion." I will cleanse their blood,

Amos

1The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ²and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the top of Carmel will wither.” ⁱ will roar from Zion, and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn, He said: ³I will not turn away its punishment; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron; “For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ⁴and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad. but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, ⁵and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir,” I will break the bar of Damascus, says Yahweh. ⁶I will not turn away its punishment; because they carried away captive the whole community, to deliver them up to Edom; “For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ⁷and it will devour its palaces. but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, ⁸and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon; and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,” I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and I will turn my hand against Ekron; ⁱⁱ Yahweh. ⁹I will not turn away its punishment; because they delivered up the whole community to Edom, and didn’t remember the brotherly covenant; “For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ¹⁰and it will devour its palaces.” but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, ¹¹I will not turn away its punishment; because he pursued his brother with the sword, and cast off all pity, and his anger raged continually, and he kept his wrath forever; “For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ¹²and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah.” but I will send a fire on Teman, ¹³I will not turn away its punishment; because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead, that they may enlarge their border. “For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ¹⁴and it will devour its palaces, with shouting in the day of battle, with a storm in the day of the whirlwind; But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, ¹⁵he and his princes together,” and their king will go into captivity, says Yahweh.

2I will not turn away its punishment; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime; “For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ²and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet; but I will send a fire on Moab, ³and will kill all its princes with him,” and I will cut off the judge from among them, says Yahweh. ⁴I will not turn away its punishment; because they have rejected Yahweh’s law, and have not kept his statutes, and their lies have led them astray, after which their fathers walked; “For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ⁵and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem.” But I will send a fire on Judah, ⁶I will not turn away its punishment; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; “For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for four, Yahweh says: ⁷They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and deny justice to the oppressed; and a man and his father use the same maiden, to profane my holy name; ⁸and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge; ⁱⁱⁱ they drink the wine of those who have been fined. ⁹whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, ¹⁰and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, ¹¹and some of your young men for Nazirites. you children of Israel?” says Yahweh. I raised up some of your sons for prophets, Isn’t this true, ¹²and commanded the prophets, saying, ‘Don’t prophesy!’ “But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, ¹³as a cart crushes that is full of grain. Behold, ^{iv} I will crush you in your place, ¹⁴and the strong won’t strengthen his force; neither shall the mighty deliver himself; Flight will perish from the swift; ¹⁵neither shall he stand who handles the bow; and he who is swift of foot won’t escape; neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself; ¹⁶and he who 3Hear this word that Yahweh has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying: ²Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins." "You only have I chosen of all the families of the earth. ³unless they have agreed? Do two walk together, ⁴when he has no prey? if he has caught nothing? Will a lion roar in the thicket, Does a young lion cry out of his den, ⁵where no snare is set for him? when there is nothing to catch? Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth, Does a snare spring up from the ground, ⁶without the people being afraid? and Yahweh hasn't done it? Does the trumpet alarm sound in a city, Does evil happen to a city, ⁷unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets. Surely the Lord Yahweh will do nothing, ⁸Who will not fear? Who can but prophesy? The lion has roared. The Lord Yahweh has spoken. ⁹and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and see what unrest is in her, and what oppression is among them." Proclaim in the palaces at Ashdod, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, ¹⁰"Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces." "Indeed they don't know to do right," says Yahweh, ¹¹and he will pull down your strongholds, and your fortresses will be plundered." "An adversary will overrun the land; Therefore thus says the Lord Yahweh: ¹²or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed." "As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, Yahweh says: ¹³"Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob," says the Lord Yahweh, the God of Armies. ¹⁴I will also visit the altars of Bethel; and the horns of the altar will be cut off, and fall to the ground. "For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel on him, ¹⁵and the houses of ivory will perish, and the great houses will have an end," I will strike the winter house with the summer house; says Yahweh.

4Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, "Bring us drinks!" ²"The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks, and the last of you with fish hooks. The Lord Yahweh has sworn by his holiness that behold, ³everyone straight before her; and you will cast yourselves into Harmon," says Yahweh. You will go out at the breaks in the wall, ⁴to Gilgal, and sin more. your tithes every three days, "Go to Bethel, and sin; Bring your sacrifices every morning, ⁵offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim free will offerings and brag about them: for this pleases you, you children of Israel," says the Lord Yahweh. ⁶and lack of bread in every town; yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. "I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, ⁷when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city. and the piece where it didn't rain withered. "I also have withheld the rain from you, One place was rained on, ⁸and were not satisfied: yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water, ⁹and your fig trees and your olive trees have the swarming locust devoured: yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. "I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards; ¹⁰I have slain your young men with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp, yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. "I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt. ¹¹as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire; yet you haven't returned to me," says Yahweh. "I have overthrown some of you, ¹²because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel. "Therefore thus will I do to you, Israel; ¹³and creates the wind, and declares to man what is his thought; who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the high places of the earth: Yahweh, the God of Armies, is his name." For, behold, he who forms the mountains, 5Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel. ²She shall rise no more. there is no one to raise her up." "The virgin of Israel has fallen; She is cast down on her land; ³and that which went out one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel." "The city that went out a thousand shall have a hundred left, For thus says the Lord Yahweh: ⁴"Seek me, and you will live; For Yahweh says to the house of Israel: ⁵nor enter into Gilgal, and don't pass to Beersheba: and Bethel shall come to nothing. but don't seek Bethel, for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, ⁶lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel. Seek Yahweh, and you will live; ⁷and cast down righteousness to the earth: You who turn justice to wormwood, ⁸and turns the shadow of death into the morning, and makes the day dark with night; who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, Yahweh is his name, seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion, ⁹so that destruction comes on the fortress. who brings sudden destruction on the strong, ¹⁰and they abhor him who speaks blamelessly. They hate him who reproves in the gate, ¹¹and take taxes from him of wheat: You have built houses of cut stone, but you will not dwell in them. but you shall not drink their wine. Therefore, because you trample on the poor, You have planted pleasant vineyards, ¹²and how great are your sins— you who afflict the just, who take a bribe, and who turn aside the needy in the courts. For I know how many your offenses, ¹³for it is an evil time. Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time, ¹⁴that you may live; and so Yahweh, the God of Armies, will be with you, as you say. Seek good, and not evil, ¹⁵and establish justice in the courts. It may be that Yahweh, the God of Armies, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.” Hate evil, love good, ¹⁶and they will say in all the streets, ‘Alas! Alas!’ and they will call the farmer to mourning, and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing. “Wailing will be in all the wide ways; Therefore Yahweh, the God of Armies, the Lord, says: ¹⁷for I will pass through the middle of you,” says Yahweh. In all vineyards there will be wailing; ¹⁸Why do you long for the day of Yahweh? and not light. “Woe to you who desire the day of Yahweh! It is darkness, ¹⁹and a bear met him; and a snake bit him. As if a man fled from a lion, Or he went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, ²⁰Even very dark, and no brightness in it? Won’t the day of Yahweh be darkness, and not light? ²¹and I can’t stand your solemn assemblies. I hate, I despise your feasts, ²²I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals. Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings, ²³I will not listen to the music of your harps. Take away from me the noise of your songs! ²⁴and righteousness like a mighty stream. But let justice roll on like rivers, ²⁵“Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel? ²⁶You also carried the tent of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves. ²⁷Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus,” says Yahweh, whose name is the God of Armies.

6and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come! Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, ²and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines. or is their border greater than your border? Go to Calneh, and see; are they better than these kingdoms? ³and cause the seat of violence to come near; Those who put far away the evil day, ⁴Who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch themselves on their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the middle of the stall; ⁵who strum on the strings of a harp; who invent for themselves instruments of music, like David; ⁶who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the best oils; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph. ⁷and the feasting and lounging will end. Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive; ⁸“I abhor the pride of Jacob, and detest his fortresses. Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it. “The Lord Yahweh has sworn by himself,” says Yahweh, the God of Armies: ⁹that they shall die. It will happen, if there remain ten men in one house, ¹⁰“When a man’s relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, ‘Is there yet any with you?’ And he says, ‘No;’ then he will say, ‘Hush! Indeed we must not mention Yahweh’s name.’ ¹¹and the little house into bits. “For, behold, Yahweh commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, ¹²Does one plow there with oxen? and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness; Do horses run on the rocky crags? But you have turned justice into poison, ¹³‘Haven’t we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?’ you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say, ¹⁴says Yahweh, the God of Armies; “and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah.” For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel,”

7Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me: and behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the king’s harvest. ²When they finished eating the grass of the land, then I said, “Lord Yahweh, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small.” ³Yahweh relented concerning this. “It shall not be,” says Yahweh. ⁴Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me and behold, the Lord Yahweh called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. ⁵Then I said, “Lord Yahweh, stop, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small.” ⁶Yahweh relented concerning this. “This also shall not be,” says the Lord Yahweh. ⁷Thus he showed me and behold, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. ⁸Yahweh said to me, “Amos, what do you see?” I said, “A plumb line.” Then the Lord said, “Behold, I will set a plumb line in the middle of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. ⁹The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.” ¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the middle of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. ¹¹For Amos says, ‘Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.’” ¹²Amaziah also said to Amos, “You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: ¹³but don’t prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king’s sanctuary, and it is a royal house!” ¹⁴Then Amos answered Amaziah, “I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet’s son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; ¹⁵and Yahweh took me from following the flock, and Yahweh said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to my people Israel.’” ¹⁶Now therefore listen to Yahweh’s word: ‘You say, Don’t prophesy against Israel, and don’t preach against the house of Isaac.’ ¹⁷Therefore Yahweh says: ‘Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.”

8 Thus the Lord Yahweh showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit. 2 I will not again pass by them any more. “The end has come on my people Israel. He said, “Amos, what do you see?” I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” Then Yahweh said to me, 3 “The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence. The songs of the temple will be wailings in that day,” says the Lord Yahweh. 4 and cause the poor of the land to fail, Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, 5 Saying, ‘When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, v small, and the shekel vi large, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit; 6 and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the sweepings with the wheat?’” that we may buy the poor for silver, 7 “Surely I will never forget any of their works. Yahweh has sworn by the pride of Jacob, 8 and everyone mourn who dwells in it? and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt. Won’t the land tremble for this, Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River; 9 “that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day. It will happen in that day,” says the Lord Yahweh, 10 and all your songs into lamentation; and baldness on every head. and its end like a bitter day. I will turn your feasts into mourning, and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies, I will make it like the mourning for an only son, 11 “that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing Yahweh’s words. Behold, the days come,” says the Lord Yahweh, 12 and from the north even to the east; they will run back and forth to seek Yahweh’s word, and will not find it. They will wander from sea to sea, 13 and the young men will faint for thirst. In that day the beautiful virgins 14 and say, ‘As your god, Dan, lives;’ and, ‘As the way of Beersheba lives;’ they will fall, and never rise up again.” Those who swear by the sin of Samaria,

9 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, “Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. 2 Though they dig into Sheol, vii there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down. 3 Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them. 4 Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good. 5 For the Lord, Yahweh of Armies, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt. 6 It is he who builds his rooms in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; Yahweh is his name. 7 Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?” says Yahweh. “Haven’t I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? 8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord Yahweh are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob,” says Yahweh. 9 “For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth. 10 All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, ‘Evil won’t overtake nor meet us.’ 11 In that day I will raise up the tent of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; 12 that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name,” says Yahweh who does this. 13 “that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the one treading grapes him who sows seed; and sweet wine will drip from the mountains, and flow from the hills. “Behold, the days come,” says Yahweh, 14 and they will rebuild the ruined cities, and inhabit them; and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them. and eat their fruit. I will bring my people Israel back from captivity, They shall also make gardens, 15 and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them,” says Yahweh your God. I will plant them on their land,

Obadiah

1The vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord ⁱYahweh ⁱⁱsays about Edom. We have heard news from Yahweh, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, “Arise, and let’s rise up against her in battle. ²Behold, ⁱⁱⁱI have made you small among the nations. You are greatly despised. ³The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, who says in his heart, ‘Who will bring me down to the ground?’ ⁴Though you mount on high as the eagle, and though your nest is set among the stars, I will bring you down from there,” says Yahweh. ⁵“If thieves came to you, if robbers by night—oh, what disaster awaits you—wouldn’t they only steal until they had enough? If grape pickers came to you, wouldn’t they leave some gleaning grapes? ⁶How Esau will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures are sought out! ⁷All the men of your alliance have brought you on your way, even to the border. The men who were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you. Friends who eat your bread lay a snare under you. There is no understanding in him.” ⁸“Won’t I in that day”, says Yahweh, “destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau? ⁹Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter. ¹⁰For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. ¹¹In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. ¹²But don’t look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and don’t rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Don’t speak proudly in the day of distress. ¹³Don’t enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don’t look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. ¹⁴Don’t stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Don’t deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. ¹⁵For the day of Yahweh is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. ¹⁶For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. ¹⁷But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess their possessions. ¹⁸The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau.” Indeed, Yahweh has spoken. ¹⁹Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. ²⁰The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. ²¹Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be Yahweh’s.

Jonah

1Now Yahweh's ⁱ word came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ²"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it, for their wickedness has come up before me." ³But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of Yahweh. ⁴But Yahweh sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. ⁵Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. ⁶So the ship master came to him, and said to him, "What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God! ⁱⁱ Maybe your God ⁱⁱⁱ will notice us, so that we won't perish." ⁷They all said to each other, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for this evil that is on us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸Then they asked him, "Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?" ⁹He said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear Yahweh, the God ^{iv} of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land." ¹⁰Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Yahweh, because he had told them. ¹¹Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?" For the sea grew more and more stormy. ¹²He said to them, "Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you." ¹³Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land; but they could not, for the sea grew more and more stormy against them. ¹⁴Therefore they cried to Yahweh, and said, "We beg you, Yahweh, we beg you, don't let us die for this man's life, and don't lay on us innocent blood; for you, Yahweh, have done as it pleased you." ¹⁵So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. ¹⁶Then the men feared Yahweh exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to Yahweh, and made vows. ¹⁷Yahweh prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2Then Jonah prayed to Yahweh, his God, out of the fish's belly. ²He answered me. You heard my voice. "I called because of my affliction to Yahweh. ^v I cried. He said, ³in the heart of the seas. All your waves and your billows passed over me. For you threw me into the depths, The flood was all around me. ⁴yet I will look again toward your holy temple.' I said, 'I have been banished from your sight; ⁵even to the soul. The weeds were wrapped around my head. The waters surrounded me, The deep was around me. ⁶The earth barred me in forever: yet have you brought up my life from the pit, Yahweh my God. I went down to the bottoms of the mountains. ⁷My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple. "When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Yahweh. ⁸Those who regard lying vanities forsake their own mercy. ⁹But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving. I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation belongs to Yahweh." ¹⁰Yahweh spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah on the dry land.

3Yahweh's word came to Jonah the second time, saying, ²"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the message that I give you." ³So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to Yahweh's word. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. ⁴Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!" ⁵The people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from their greatest even to their least. ⁶The news reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and took off his royal robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷He made a proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor animal, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water; ⁸but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and animal, and let them cry mightily to God. Yes, let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands. ⁹Who knows whether God will not turn and relent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we might not perish?" ¹⁰God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. God relented of the disaster which he said he would do to them, and he didn't do it.

⁴But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. ²He prayed to Yahweh, and said, "Please, Yahweh, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. ³Therefore now, Yahweh, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live." ⁴Yahweh said, "Is it right for you to be angry?" ⁵Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. ⁶Yahweh God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. ⁷But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. ⁸When the sun arose, God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live." ⁹God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the vine?" He said, "I am right to be angry, even to death." ¹⁰Yahweh said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. ¹¹Shouldn't I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?"

Micah

1Yahweh's ⁱ word that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem. ²Listen, O earth, and all that is therein: the Lord from his holy temple. Hear, you peoples, all of you. ⁱⁱ Yahweh be witness against you, ³and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth. For, behold, ⁱⁱⁱ Yahweh comes out of his place, ⁴and the valleys split apart, like wax before the fire, like waters that are poured down a steep place. The mountains melt under him, ⁵and for the sins of the house of Israel. Isn't it Samaria? Aren't they Jerusalem? "All this is for the disobedience of Jacob, What is the disobedience of Jacob? And what are the high places of Judah? ⁶like places for planting vineyards; and I will uncover its foundations. Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field, and I will pour down its stones into the valley, ⁷and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire, and all her images I will destroy; and to the hire of a prostitute shall they return." All her idols will be beaten to pieces, for of the hire of a prostitute has she gathered them, ⁸I will go stripped and naked; I will howl like the jackals, and moan like the daughters of owls. For this I will lament and wail; ⁹for it has come even to Judah. even to Jerusalem. For her wounds are incurable; It reaches to the gate of my people, ¹⁰Don't weep at all. ^{iv} I have rolled myself in the dust. Don't tell it in Gath. ¹¹The inhabitant of Zaanan won't come out. The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you his protection. Pass on, inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame. ¹²because evil has come down from Yahweh to the gate of Jerusalem. For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, ¹³She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; For the transgressions of Israel were found in you. Harness the chariot to the swift steed, inhabitant of Lachish. ¹⁴The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel. Therefore you will give a parting gift to Moresheth Gath. ¹⁵He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam. I will yet bring to you, inhabitant of Mareshah. ¹⁶and cut off your hair for the children of your delight. for they have gone into captivity from you! Shave your heads, Enlarge your baldness like the vulture;

2Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds! because it is in the power of their hand. When the morning is light, they practice it, ²and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. They covet fields, and seize them; ³from which you will not remove your necks, neither will you walk haughtily; for it is an evil time. Therefore Yahweh says: "Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, ⁴and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying, 'We are utterly ruined! My people's possession is divided up. Indeed he takes it from me and assigns our fields to traitors!'" In that day they will take up a parable against you, ⁵Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in Yahweh's assembly. ⁶They prophesy. Disgrace won't overtake us." "Don't prophesy!" "Don't prophesy about these things. ⁷"Is Yahweh's Spirit angry? Are these his doings? Don't my words do good to him who walks blamelessly?" Shall it be said, O house of Jacob: ⁸You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle. But lately my people have risen up as an enemy. ⁹from their young children you take away my blessing forever. You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses; ¹⁰For this is not your resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys, even with a grievous destruction. Arise, and depart! ¹¹"I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink"; he would be the prophet of this people. If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies: ¹²I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; as a flock in the middle of their pasture; they will swarm with people. I will surely assemble, Jacob, all of you; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, ¹³They break through the gate, and go out. And their king passes on before them, with Yahweh at their head. He who breaks open the way goes up before them.

from off their bones; You who hate the good, ³who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the cauldron. ⁴but he will not answer them. because they made their deeds evil.” Then they will cry to Yahweh, Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, ⁵Yahweh says concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, “Peace!” and whoever doesn’t provide for their mouths, they prepare war against him: ⁶and it is dark to you, that you may not divine; and the sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will be black over them. “Therefore night is over you, with no vision, ⁷and the diviners confounded. ^v The seers shall be disappointed, Yes, they shall all cover their lips; ⁸and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacob his disobedience, and to Israel his sin. But as for me, I am full of power by Yahweh’s Spirit, ⁹and rulers of the house of Israel, who abhor justice, and pervert all equity. Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob, ¹⁰and Jerusalem with iniquity. They build up Zion with blood, ¹¹and her priests teach for a price, and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money: “Isn’t Yahweh among us? No disaster will come on us.” Her leaders judge for bribes, yet they lean on Yahweh, and say, ¹²and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest. Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a field, ⁴But in the latter days, it will happen that the mountain of Yahweh’s temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills; and peoples will stream to it. ²“Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths.” and Yahweh’s word from Jerusalem; Many nations will go and say, For the law will go out of Zion, ³and will decide concerning strong nations afar off. They will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. neither will they learn war any more. and he will judge between many peoples, Nation will not lift up sword against nation, ⁴and no one will make them afraid: For the mouth of Yahweh of Armies has spoken. But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; ⁵Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods; but we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God forever and ever. ⁶“I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted; “In that day,” says Yahweh, ⁷and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and Yahweh will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even forever.” ⁸to you it will come, yes, the former dominion will come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem. You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, ⁹Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail? Now why do you cry out aloud? ¹⁰like a woman in travail; for now you will go out of the city, and will dwell in the field, and will come even to Babylon. There Yahweh will redeem you from the hand of your enemies. Be in pain, and labor to give birth, daughter of Zion, There you will be rescued. ¹¹“Let her be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Zion.” Now many nations have assembled against you, that say, ¹²neither do they understand his counsel; for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor. But they don’t know the thoughts of Yahweh, ¹³for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs brass; and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth. Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion; and you will beat in pieces many peoples: and I will devote their gain to Yahweh, ⁵Now you shall gather yourself in troops, daughter of troops. They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek. He has laid siege against us. ²being small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come out to me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings out are from of old, from ancient times. But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, ³Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel. Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth. ⁴in the majesty of the name of Yahweh his God: and they will live, for then he will be great to the ends of the earth. He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of Yahweh, ⁵and when he marches through our fortresses, then we will raise against him seven shepherds, and eight leaders of men. He will be our peace when Assyria invades our land, ⁶and the land of Nimrod in its gates. when he invades our land, and when he marches within our border. They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, He will deliver us from the Assyrian, ⁷like dew from Yahweh, like showers on the grass, that don’t wait for man, nor wait for the sons of men. The remnant of Jacob will be among many peoples, ⁸among many peoples, like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he goes through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is no one to deliver. The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, ⁹and let all of your enemies be cut off. Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, ¹⁰“that I will cut off your horses out from among you, and will destroy your chariots. “It will happen in that day”, says Yahweh, ¹¹and will tear down all your strongholds. I will cut off the cities of your land, ¹²and you shall have no soothsayers. I will destroy witchcraft from your hand; ¹³and you shall no more worship the work of your hands. I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out from among you; ¹⁴and I will destroy your cities. I will uproot your Asherah poles out from among you; ¹⁵and wrath on the nations that didn't listen." I will execute vengeance in anger, 6and let the hills hear what you have to say. "Arise, plead your case before the mountains, Listen now to what Yahweh says: ²and you enduring foundations of the earth; for Yahweh has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel. Hear, you mountains, Yahweh's controversy, ³How have I burdened you? Answer me! My people, what have I done to you? ⁴and redeemed you out of the house of bondage. I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, ⁵and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of Yahweh." My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, ⁶and bow myself before the exalted God? with calves a year old? How shall I come before Yahweh, Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, ⁷With tens of thousands of rivers of oil? The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? Will Yahweh be pleased with thousands of rams? Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience? ⁸What does Yahweh require of you, but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God? He has shown you, O man, what is good. ⁹and wisdom sees your name: and he who appointed it. Yahweh's voice calls to the city, "Listen to the rod, ¹⁰^{vi} that is accursed? Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, ¹¹and with a bag of deceitful weights? Shall I be pure with dishonest scales, ¹²her inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their speech. Her rich men are full of violence, ¹³I have made you desolate because of your sins. Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound. ¹⁴Your humiliation will be within you. You will store up, but not save; and that which you save I will give up to the sword. You shall eat, but not be satisfied. ¹⁵You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself with oil; and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine. You will sow, but won't reap. ¹⁶and all the works of Ahab's house. You walk in their counsels, that I may make you a ruin, and her inhabitants a hissing; And you will bear the reproach of my people." For the statutes of Omri are kept,

7Misery is mine! Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard: There is no cluster of grapes to eat. My soul desires to eat the early fig. ²and there is no one upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood; every man hunts his brother with a net. The godly man has perished out of the earth, ³The ruler and judge ask for a bribe; and the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul. Thus they conspire together. Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently. ⁴The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge. even your visitation, has come; now is the time of their confusion. The best of them is like a brier. The day of your watchmen, ⁵Don't put confidence in a friend. With the woman lying in your embrace, be careful of the words of your mouth! Don't trust in a neighbor. ⁶the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. For the son dishonors the father, ⁷I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me. But as for me, I will look to Yahweh. ⁸When I fall, I will arise. When I sit in darkness, Yahweh will be a light to me. Don't rejoice against me, my enemy. ⁹because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for me. He will bring me out to the light. I will see his righteousness. I will bear the indignation of Yahweh, ¹⁰and shame will cover her who said to me, where is Yahweh your God? Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets. Then my enemy will see it, Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame. ¹¹In that day, he will extend your boundary. A day to build your walls— ¹²and from Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain. In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, ¹³for the fruit of their doings. Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein, ¹⁴the flock of your heritage, who dwell by themselves in a forest, in the middle of fertile pasture land, let them feed; in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old. Shepherd your people with your staff, ¹⁵I will show them marvelous things." "As in the days of your coming out of the land of Egypt, ¹⁶They will lay their hand on their mouth. Their ears will be deaf. The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might. ¹⁷Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens. They will come with fear to Yahweh our God, and will be afraid because of you. They will lick the dust like a serpent. ¹⁸and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage? because he delights in loving kindness. Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, He doesn't retain his anger forever, ¹⁹He will tread our iniquities under foot; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea. He will again have compassion on us. ²⁰and mercy to Abraham, as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old. You will give truth to Jacob,

Nahum

1A revelation about Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite. ²Yahweh ⁱ is a jealous God ⁱⁱ and avenges. Yahweh avenges and is full of wrath. Yahweh takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he maintains wrath against his enemies. ³Yahweh is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means leave the guilty unpunished. Yahweh has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet. ⁴He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers. Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes. ⁵The mountains quake before him, and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at his presence, yes, the world, and all who dwell in it. ⁶Who can stand before his indignation? Who can endure the fierceness of his anger? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken apart by him. ⁷Yahweh is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows those who take refuge in him. ⁸But with an overflowing flood, he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness. ⁹What do you plot against Yahweh? He will make a full end. Affliction won't rise up the second time. ¹⁰For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly like dry stubble. ¹¹There is one gone out of you, who devises evil against Yahweh, who counsels wickedness. ¹²Yahweh says: "Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so they will be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. ¹³Now will I break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds apart." ¹⁴Yahweh has commanded concerning you: "No more descendants will bear your name. Out of the house of your gods, will I cut off the engraved image and the molten image. I will make your grave, for you are vile." ¹⁵Behold, ⁱⁱⁱ on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace! Keep your feasts, Judah! Perform your vows, for the wicked one will no more pass through you. He is utterly cut off.

2He who dashes in pieces has come up against you.

Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily! ²For Yahweh restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. ³The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. ⁴The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the wide ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. ⁵He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. ⁶The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. ⁷It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her servants moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. ⁸But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back. ⁹Take the plunder of silver. Take the plunder of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. ¹⁰She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. ¹¹Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid? ¹²The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey. ¹³"Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

3Woe to the bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery. The prey doesn't depart. ²The noise of the whip, the noise of the rattling of wheels, prancing horses, and bounding chariots, ³the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies. They stumble on their bodies, ⁴because of the multitude of the prostitution of the alluring prostitute, the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft. ⁵"Behold, I am against you," says Yahweh of Armies, "and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. ⁶I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle. ⁷It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, 'Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?' Where will I seek comforters for you?" ⁸Are you better than No-Amon, ^{iv} who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? ⁹Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers. ¹⁰Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. ¹¹You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. ¹²All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. ¹³Behold, your troops among you are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars. ¹⁴Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. ¹⁵There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. ¹⁶You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away. ¹⁷Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. ¹⁸Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. ¹⁹There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn't felt your endless cruelty?

1The revelation which Habakkuk the prophet saw. ²Yahweh,ⁱ how long will I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you “Violence!” and will you not save? ³Why do you show me iniquity, and look at perversity? For destruction and violence are before me. There is strife, and contention rises up. ⁴Therefore the law is paralyzed, and justice never prevails; for the wicked surround the righteous; therefore justice comes out perverted. ⁵“Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you. ⁶For, behold,ⁱⁱ I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the width of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. ⁷They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. ⁸Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. ⁹All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. ¹⁰Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. ¹¹Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god.” ¹²Aren’t you from everlasting, Yahweh my God,ⁱⁱⁱ my Holy One? We will not die. Yahweh, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. ¹³You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, ¹⁴and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? ¹⁵He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. ¹⁶Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good.

¹⁷Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

2I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint. ²Yahweh answered me, “Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. ³For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won’t prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won’t delay. ⁴Behold, his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him, but the righteous will live by his faith. ⁵Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. A haughty man who doesn’t stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol,^{iv} and he is like death, and can’t be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. ⁶Won’t all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, ‘Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?’ ⁷Won’t your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? ⁸Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men’s blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. ⁹Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! ¹⁰You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. ¹¹For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. ¹²Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! ¹³Behold, isn’t it of Yahweh of Armies that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? ¹⁴For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of Yahweh’s glory, as the waters cover the sea. ¹⁵“Woe to him who gives his neighbor drink, pouring your inflaming wine until they are drunk, so that you may gaze at their naked bodies! ¹⁶You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of Yahweh’s right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. ¹⁷For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them. ¹⁸“What value does the engraved image have, that its maker has engraved it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he who fashions its form trusts in it, to make mute idols? ¹⁹Woe to him who says to the wood, ‘Awake!’ or to the mute stone, ‘Arise!’ Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all within it. ²⁰But Yahweh is in his holy temple. Let all the earth be silent before him!”

3A prayer of Habakkuk, the prophet, set to victorious music. ²I stand in awe of your deeds, Yahweh. In the middle of the years make it known. In wrath, you remember mercy. Yahweh, I have heard of your fame. Renew your work in the middle of the years. ³the Holy One from Mount Paran. and his praise filled the earth. God came from Teman, Selah. His glory covered the heavens, ⁴Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden. His splendor is like the sunrise. ⁵and pestilence followed his feet. Plague went before him, ⁶He looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains were crumbled. The age-old hills collapsed. His ways are eternal. He stood, and shook the earth. ⁷The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled. I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction. ⁸Was your anger against the rivers, or your wrath against the sea, that you rode on your horses, on your chariots of salvation? Was Yahweh displeased with the rivers? ⁹You called for your sworn arrows. You uncovered your bow. Selah. You split the earth with rivers. ¹⁰The storm of waters passed by. The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high. The mountains saw you, and were afraid. ¹¹at the light of your arrows as they went, at the shining of your glittering spear. The sun and moon stood still in the sky, ¹²You threshed the nations in anger. You marched through the land in wrath. ¹³for the salvation of your anointed. You stripped them head to foot. You went out for the salvation of your people, You crushed the head of the land of wickedness. Selah. ¹⁴They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret. You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears. ¹⁵churning mighty waters. You trampled the sea with your horses, ¹⁶My lips quivered at the voice. because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, for the coming up of the people who invade us. I heard, and my body trembled. Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble in my place, ¹⁷nor fruit be in the vines; the labor of the olive fails, the fields yield no food; the flocks are cut off from the fold, and there is no herd in the stalls: For though the fig tree doesn't flourish, ¹⁸I will be joyful in the God of my salvation! yet I will rejoice in Yahweh. ¹⁹He makes my feet like deer's feet, and enables me to go in high places. Zephaniah

1Yahweh's ⁱ word which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. 2I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says Yahweh. 3I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says Yahweh. 4I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests, ⁵those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by Yahweh and also swear by Malcam, ⁶those who have turned back from following Yahweh, and those who haven't sought Yahweh nor inquired after him. 7Be silent at the presence of the Lord ⁱⁱ Yahweh, for the day of Yahweh is at hand. For Yahweh has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. 8It will happen in the day of Yahweh's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. 9In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. 10In that day, says Yahweh, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. 11Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. 12It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "Yahweh will not do good, neither will he do evil." 13Their wealth will become a plunder, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. 14The great day of Yahweh is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of Yahweh. The mighty man cries there bitterly. 15That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, ¹⁶a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. 17I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against Yahweh, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. 18Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of Yahweh's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

2Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, you nation that has no shame, ²before the appointed time when the day passes as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Yahweh comes on you, before the day of Yahweh's anger comes on you. 3Seek Yahweh, all you humble of the land, who have kept his ordinances. Seek righteousness. Seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of Yahweh's anger. 4For Gaza will be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation. They will drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron will be rooted up. 5Woe to the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! Yahweh's word is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines. I will destroy you, that there will be no inhabitant. 6The sea coast will be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks. 7The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah. They will find pasture. In the houses of Ashkelon, they will lie down in the evening, for Yahweh, their God, ⁱⁱⁱ will visit them, and restore them. 8I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the insults of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. 9Therefore as I live, says Yahweh of Armies, the God of Israel, surely Moab will be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them. 10This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Yahweh of Armies. 11Yahweh will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. ¹²You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword. ¹³He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. ¹⁴Herds will lie down in the middle of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. ¹⁵This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

3Woe to her who is rebellious and polluted, the oppressing city! ²She didn't obey the voice. She didn't receive correction. She didn't trust in Yahweh. She didn't draw near to her God. ³Her princes within her are roaring lions. Her judges are evening wolves. They leave nothing until the next day. ⁴Her prophets are arrogant and treacherous people. Her priests have profaned the sanctuary. They have done violence to the law. ⁵Yahweh, within her, is righteous. He will do no wrong. Every morning he brings his justice to light. He doesn't fail, but the unjust know no shame. ⁶I have cut off nations. Their battlements are desolate. I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by. Their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant. ⁷I said, "Just fear me. Receive correction, so that her dwelling won't be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her." But they rose early and corrupted all their doings. ⁸"Therefore wait for me", says Yahweh, "until the day that I rise up to the prey, for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour on them my indignation, even all my fierce anger, for all the earth will be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. ⁹For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on Yahweh's name, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. ¹⁰From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. ¹¹In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out from among you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. ¹²But I will leave among you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in Yahweh's name. ¹³The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid." ¹⁴Sing, daughter of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. ¹⁵Yahweh has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, Yahweh, is among you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. ¹⁶In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Don't be afraid, Zion. Don't let your hands be weak." ¹⁷Yahweh, your God, is among you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. ¹⁸I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. ¹⁹Behold, ^{iv} at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. ²⁰At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says Yahweh.

1In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, Yahweh's ⁱ word came by Haggai, the prophet, to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying, ²"This is what Yahweh of Armies says: These people say, 'The time hasn't yet come, the time for Yahweh's house to be built.'" ³Then Yahweh's word came by Haggai, the prophet, saying, ⁴"Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies waste? ⁵Now therefore this is what Yahweh of Armies says: Consider your ways. ⁶You have sown much, and bring in little. You eat, but you don't have enough. You drink, but you aren't filled with drink. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm, and he who earns wages earns wages to put them into a bag with holes in it." ⁷This is what Yahweh of Armies says: "Consider your ways. ⁸Go up to the mountain, bring wood, and build the house. I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified," says Yahweh. ⁹"You looked for much, and, behold, ⁱⁱ it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why?" says Yahweh of Armies, "Because of my house that lies waste, while each of you is busy with his own house. ¹⁰Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit. ¹¹I called for a drought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on that which the ground produces, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of the hands." ¹²Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed Yahweh, their God's ⁱⁱⁱ voice, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as Yahweh, their God, had sent him; and the people feared Yahweh. ¹³Then Haggai, Yahweh's messenger, spoke Yahweh's message to the people, saying, "I am with you," says Yahweh. ¹⁴Yahweh stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of Yahweh of Armies, their God, ¹⁵in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, Yahweh's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ²"Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, ³'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn't it in your eyes as nothing?' ⁴Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,' says Yahweh. 'Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,' says Yahweh, 'and work, for I am with you,' says Yahweh of Armies. ⁵This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. 'Don't be afraid.' ⁶For this is what Yahweh of Armies says: 'Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; ⁷and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says Yahweh of Armies. ⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,' says Yahweh of Armies. ⁹'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says Yahweh of Armies; 'and in this place will I give peace,' says Yahweh of Armies." ¹⁰In the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh's word came by Haggai the prophet, saying, ¹¹"Yahweh of Armies says: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, ¹²'If someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and with his fold touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy?'" The priests answered, "No." ¹³Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?" The priests answered, "It will be unclean." ¹⁴Then Haggai answered, "'So is this people, and so is this nation before me,' says Yahweh; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. ¹⁵Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in Yahweh's temple. ¹⁶Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. ¹⁷I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says Yahweh. ¹⁸'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of Yahweh's temple was laid, consider it. ¹⁹Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't produced. From today I will bless you.'" ²⁰Yahweh's word came the second time to Haggai in the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying, ²¹"Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, 'I will shake the heavens and the earth. ²²I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots, and those who ride in them. The horses and their riders will come down, everyone by the sword of his brother. ²³In that day, says Yahweh of Armies, will I take you, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel,' says Yahweh, 'and will make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,' says Yahweh of Armies."

Zechariah

1In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh's ⁱ word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ²"Yahweh was very displeased with your fathers. ³Therefore tell them: Yahweh of Armies says: 'Return to me,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'and I will return to you,' says Yahweh of Armies. ⁴Don't you be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying: Yahweh of Armies says, 'Return now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings;' but they did not hear, nor listen to me, says Yahweh. ⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶But my words and my decrees, which I commanded my servants the prophets, didn't they overtake your fathers? "Then they repented and said, 'Just as Yahweh of Armies determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.'" ⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, Yahweh's word came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, ⁸"I had a vision in the night, and behold, ⁹a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. ⁹Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?'" The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are." ¹⁰The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones Yahweh has sent to go back and forth through the earth." ¹¹They reported to Yahweh's angel who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace." ¹²Then Yahweh's angel replied, "O Yahweh of Armies, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?" ¹³Yahweh answered the angel who talked with me with kind and comforting words. ¹⁴So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies says: "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. ¹⁵I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity." ¹⁶Therefore Yahweh says: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house shall be built in it," says Yahweh of Armies, "and a line shall be stretched out over Jerusalem." ¹⁷"Proclaim further, saying, 'Yahweh of Armies says: "My cities will again overflow with prosperity, and Yahweh will again comfort Zion, and will again choose Jerusalem.'" ¹⁸I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four horns. ¹⁹I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" He answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." ²⁰Yahweh showed me four craftsmen. ²¹Then I asked, "What are these coming to do?" He said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

2I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand. ²Then I asked, "Where are you going?" He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length." ³Behold, the angel who talked with me went out, and another angel went out to meet him, ⁴and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. ⁵For I,' says Yahweh, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the middle of her. ⁶Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says Yahweh; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says Yahweh. ⁷'Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.' ⁸For Yahweh of Armies says: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. ⁹For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a plunder to those who served them; and you will know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me. ¹⁰Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell within you,' says Yahweh. ¹¹Many nations shall join themselves to Yahweh in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell among you, and you shall know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. ¹²Yahweh will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. ¹³Be silent, all flesh, before Yahweh; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

³He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before Yahweh's angel, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. ²Yahweh said to Satan, "Yahweh rebuke you, Satan! Yes, Yahweh who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?" ³Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. ⁴He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing." ⁵I said, "Let them set a clean turban on his head." So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and Yahweh's angel was standing by. ⁶Yahweh's angel protested to Joshua, saying, ⁷"Yahweh of Armies says: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. ⁸Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring out my servant, the Branch. ⁹For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave its engraving,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. ¹⁰In that day,' says Yahweh of Armies, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

⁴The angel who talked with me came again, and wakened me, as a man who is wakened out of his sleep. ²He said to me, "What do you see?" I said, "I have seen, and behold, a lamp stand all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps on it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; ³and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it." ⁴I answered and spoke to the angel who talked with me, saying, "What are these, my lord?" ⁵Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." ⁶Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is Yahweh's word to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says Yahweh of Armies. ⁷Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, to it!'" ⁸Moreover Yahweh's word came to me, saying, ⁹"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that Yahweh of Armies has sent me to you. ¹⁰Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are Yahweh's eyes, which run back and forth through the whole earth." ¹¹Then I asked him, "What are these two olive trees on the right side of the lamp stand and on the left side of it?" ¹²I asked him the second time, "What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?" ¹³He answered me, "Don't you know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." ¹⁴Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord ⁱⁱⁱ of the whole earth."

⁵Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll. ²He said to me, "What do you see?" ^{iv} and its width ten cubits." ³Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. ⁴I will cause it to go out," says Yahweh of Armies, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the middle of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones." ⁵Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing." ⁶I said, "What is it?" ^v basket that is appearing." He said moreover, "This is their appearance in all the land ⁷(and behold, a talent ^{vi} of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the middle of the ephah ^{vii} basket." ⁸He said, "This is Wickedness"; and he threw her down into the middle of the ephah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth. ⁹Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the ephah basket between earth and the sky. ¹⁰Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the ephah basket?" ¹¹He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

⁶Again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. ²In the first chariot were red horses; in the second chariot black horses; ³in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot dappled horses, all of them powerful. ⁴Then I asked the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" ⁵The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go out from standing before the Lord of all the

This will happen, if you will diligently obey Yahweh your God’s voice.”’” ^{viii}

⁷In the fourth year of king Darius, Yahweh’s word came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, the month of Chislev. ²The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem Melech, and their men, to entreat Yahweh’s favor, ³and to speak to the priests of the house of Yahweh of Armies, and to the prophets, saying, “Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?” ⁴Then the word of Yahweh of Armies came to me, saying, ⁵“Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, ‘When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me? ⁶When you eat, and when you drink, don’t you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? ⁷Aren’t these the words which Yahweh proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?’” ⁸Yahweh’s word came to Zechariah, saying, ⁹“Thus has Yahweh of Armies spoken, saying, ‘Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. ¹⁰Don’t oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.’ ¹¹But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. ¹²Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which Yahweh of Armies had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from Yahweh of Armies. ¹³It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen,” said Yahweh of Armies; ¹⁴“but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate.”

⁸The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me. ²Yahweh of Armies says: “I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.” ³Yahweh says: “I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the middle of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called ‘The City of Truth;’ and the mountain of Yahweh of Armies, ‘The Holy Mountain.’” ⁴Yahweh of Armies says: “Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age. ⁵The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.” ⁶Yahweh of Armies says: “If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?” says Yahweh of Armies. ⁷Yahweh of Armies says: “Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; ⁸and I will bring them, and they will dwell within Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.” ⁹Yahweh of Armies says: “Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of Yahweh of Armies was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. ¹⁰For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. ¹¹But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days,” says Yahweh of Armies. ¹²“For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. ¹³It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don’t be afraid. Let your hands be strong.” ¹⁴For Yahweh of Armies says: “As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath,” says Yahweh of Armies, “and I didn’t repent; ¹⁵so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Don’t be afraid. ¹⁶These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, ¹⁷and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says Yahweh. ¹⁸The word of Yahweh of Armies came to me. ¹⁹Yahweh of Armies says: "The fasts of the fourth fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace." ²⁰Yahweh of Armies says: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; ²¹and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of Yahweh, and to seek Yahweh of Armies. I will go also.' ²²Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek Yahweh of Armies in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of Yahweh." ²³Yahweh of Armies says: "In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, 'We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

9and will rest upon Damascus; and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Yahweh; Yahweh's word is against the land of Hadrach, for the eye of man A revelation. ²Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise. and Hamath, also, which borders on it; ³and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets. Tyre built herself a stronghold, ⁴and he will strike her power in the sea; and she will be devoured with fire. Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, ⁵Gaza also, and will writhe in agony; as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed; and the king will perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon will not be inhabited. Ashkelon will see it, and fear; ⁶and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, ⁷and his abominations from between his teeth; and he will be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite. I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and he also will be a remnant for our God; ⁸that no one pass through or return; and no oppressor will pass through them any more: for now I have seen with my eyes. I will encamp around my house against the army, ⁹Shout, daughter of Jerusalem! He is righteous, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on a donkey, even on a colt, the foal of a donkey. Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Behold, your King comes to you! ¹⁰and the horse from Jerusalem; and he will speak peace to the nations: and his dominion will be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the battle bow will be cut off; ¹¹because of the blood of your covenant, I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water. As for you also, ¹²Even today I declare that I will restore double to you. Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope! ¹³I have filled the bow with Ephraim; against your sons, Greece, and will make you like the sword of a mighty man. For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me. and I will stir up your sons, Zion, ¹⁴and his arrow will go flash like lightning; and the Lord Yahweh will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south. Yahweh will be seen over them; ¹⁵and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones; and they will drink, and roar as through wine; and they will be filled like bowls, like the corners of the altar. Yahweh of Armies will defend them; ¹⁶for they are like the jewels of a crown, lifted on high over his land. Yahweh their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people; ¹⁷and how great is his beauty! and new wine the virgins. For how great is his goodness, Grain will make the young men flourish,

Therefore they go their way like sheep. They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd. For the teraphim ^{ix} have spoken vanity, They comfort in vain. ³and I will punish the male goats; For Yahweh of Armies has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his majestic horse in the battle. My anger is kindled against the shepherds, ⁴from him the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together. From him will come the cornerstone, ⁵They shall be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because Yahweh is with them; and the riders on horses will be confounded. ⁶and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them back; for I have mercy on them; and they will be as though I had not cast them off: for I am Yahweh their God, and I will hear them. "I will strengthen the house of Judah, ⁷and their heart will rejoice as through wine; yes, their children will see it, and rejoice. Their heart will be glad in Yahweh. Ephraim will be like a mighty man, ⁸for I have redeemed them; and they will increase as they have increased. I will signal for them, and gather them; ⁹and they will remember me in far countries; and they will live with their children, and will return. I will sow them among the peoples; ¹⁰and gather them out of Assyria; and there won't be room enough for them. I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; ¹¹and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile will dry up; and the pride of Assyria will be brought down, and the scepter of Egypt will depart. He will pass through the sea of affliction, ¹²and they will walk up and down in his name," says Yahweh. I will strengthen them in Yahweh; glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! For the pride of the Jordan is ruined. A voice of the wailing of the shepherds! ⁴Yahweh my God says: "Feed the flock of slaughter. ⁵Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be Yahweh, for I am rich;' and their own shepherds don't pity them. ⁶For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says Yahweh; "but, behold, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them." ⁷So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staffs. The one I called "Favor", and the other I called "Union", and I fed the flock. ⁸I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. ⁹Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." ¹⁰I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. ¹¹It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that listened to me knew that it was Yahweh's word. ¹²I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. ¹³Yahweh said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in Yahweh's house. ¹⁴Then I cut apart my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. ¹⁵Yahweh said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. ¹⁷Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

12A revelation, Yahweh's word concerning Israel. Yahweh, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: ²"Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and it will also be on Judah in the siege against Jerusalem. ³It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. ⁴In that day," says Yahweh, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. ⁵The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Yahweh of Armies their God.' ⁶In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. ⁷Yahweh also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of David's house and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. ⁸In that day Yahweh will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and David's house will be like God, like Yahweh's angel before them. ⁹It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. ¹⁰I will pour on David's house, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me ^x whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. ¹¹In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. ¹²The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of David's house apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; ¹³the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; ¹⁴all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

13"In that day there will be a spring opened to David's house and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. ²It will come to pass in that day, says Yahweh of Armies, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. ³It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in Yahweh's name;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. ⁴It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: ⁵but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' ⁶One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.' ⁷and against the man who is close to me," says Yahweh of Armies. and I will turn my hand against the little ones. "Awake, sword, against my shepherd, "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; ⁸"two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it. It shall happen that in all the land," says Yahweh, ⁹and will refine them as silver is refined, and will test them like gold is tested. I will say, 'It is my people;' and they will say, 'Yahweh is my God.'" I will bring the third part into the fire, They will call on my name, and I will hear them.

14Behold, a day of Yahweh comes, when your plunder will be divided within you. ²For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. ³Then Yahweh will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. ⁴His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. ⁵You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Yahweh my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. ^{xi} ⁶It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. ⁷It will be a unique day which is known to Yahweh; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light. ⁸It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter will it be. ⁹Yahweh will be King over all the earth. In that day Yahweh will be one, and his name one. ¹⁰All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine presses. ¹¹Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely. ¹²This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike all the peoples who have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. ¹³It will happen in that day, that a great panic from Yahweh will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. ¹⁴Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance. ¹⁵So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague. ¹⁶It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against

Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, Yahweh of Armies, and to keep the feast of tents. ¹⁷It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yahweh of Armies, on them there will be no rain. ¹⁸If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which Yahweh will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tents. ¹⁹This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of tents. ²⁰In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO YAHWEH"; and the pots in Yahweh's house will be like the bowls before the altar. ²¹Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to Yahweh of Armies; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of Yahweh of Armies.

Malachi

1A revelation, Yahweh's ⁱ word to Israel by Malachi. ²"I have loved you," says Yahweh. Yet you say, "How have you loved us?" "Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says Yahweh, "Yet I loved Jacob; ³but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." ⁴Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places"; Yahweh of Armies says, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom Yahweh shows wrath forever." ⁵Your eyes will see, and you will say, "Yahweh is great—even beyond the border of Israel!" ⁶"A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? Says Yahweh of Armies to you, priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised your name?' ⁷You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'Yahweh's table is contemptible.' ⁸When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says Yahweh of Armies. ⁹"Now, please entreat the favor of God, ⁱⁱ that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says Yahweh of Armies. ¹⁰"Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says Yahweh of Armies, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. ¹¹For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says Yahweh of Armies. ¹²"But you profane it, in that you say, 'Yahweh's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.' ¹³You say also, 'Behold, ⁱⁱⁱ what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it", says Yahweh of Armies; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says Yahweh. ¹⁴"But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord ^{iv} a defective thing; for I am a great King," says Yahweh of Armies, "and my name is awesome among the nations."

2"Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. ²If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name," says Yahweh of Armies, "then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. ³Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, ^v and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. ⁴You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. ⁵"My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. ⁶The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. ⁷For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Yahweh of Armies. ⁸But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says Yahweh of Armies. ⁹"Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. ¹⁰Don't we all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? ¹¹Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Yahweh which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²Yahweh will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to

Yahweh of Armies. ¹³This again you do: you cover the altar of Yahweh with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. ¹⁴Yet you say, 'Why?' Because Yahweh has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. ¹⁵Did he not make you one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought godly offspring. ^{vi} Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. ¹⁶For I hate divorce", says Yahweh, the God of Israel, "and him who covers his garment with violence!" says Yahweh of Armies. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you don't deal treacherously. ¹⁷You have wearied Yahweh with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in Yahweh's sight, and he delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'

³"Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, he comes!" says Yahweh of Armies. ²"But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap; ³and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to Yahweh offerings in righteousness. ⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to Yahweh, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. ⁵I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me," says Yahweh of Armies. ⁶"For I, Yahweh, don't change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. ⁷From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says Yahweh of Armies. "But you say, 'How shall we return?' ⁸Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. ⁹You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. ¹⁰Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says Yahweh of Armies, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there will not be room enough for. ¹¹I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says

Yahweh of Armies. ¹²"All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says Yahweh of Armies. ¹³"Your words have been stout against me," says Yahweh. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?' ¹⁴You have said, 'It is vain to serve God;' and 'What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before Yahweh of Armies? ¹⁵Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.' ¹⁶Then those who feared Yahweh spoke one with another; and Yahweh listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before him, for those who feared Yahweh, and who honored his name. ¹⁷They shall be mine," says Yahweh of Armies, "my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. ¹⁸Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.

⁴"For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says Yahweh of Armies, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. ²But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. ³You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says Yahweh of Armies. ⁴"Remember the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances. ⁵Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of Yahweh comes. ⁶He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."

Part II

The New Testament

Matthew

1The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, ⁱ the son of David, the son of Abraham. ²Abraham became the father of Isaac. Isaac became the father of Jacob. Jacob became the father of Judah and his brothers. ³Judah became the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar. Perez became the father of Hezron. Hezron became the father of Ram. ⁴Ram became the father of Amminadab. Amminadab became the father of Nahshon. Nahshon became the father of Salmon. ⁵Salmon became the father of Boaz by Rahab. Boaz became the father of Obed by Ruth. Obed became the father of Jesse. ⁶Jesse became the father of King David. David became the father of Solomon by her who had been Uriah's wife. ⁷Solomon became the father of Rehoboam. Rehoboam became the father of Abijah. Abijah became the father of Asa. ⁸Asa became the father of Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat became the father of Joram. Joram became the father of Uzziah. ⁹Uzziah became the father of Jotham. Jotham became the father of Ahaz. Ahaz became the father of Hezekiah. ¹⁰Hezekiah became the father of Manasseh. Manasseh became the father of Amon. Amon became the father of Josiah. ¹¹Josiah became the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the exile to Babylon. ¹²After the exile to Babylon, Jechoniah became the father of Shealtiel. Shealtiel became the father of Zerubbabel. ¹³Zerubbabel became the father of Abiud. Abiud became the father of Eliakim. Eliakim became the father of Azor. ¹⁴Azor became the father of Zadok. Zadok became the father of Achim. Achim became the father of Eliud. ¹⁵Eliud became the father of Eleazar. Eleazar became the father of Matthan. Matthan became the father of Jacob. ¹⁶Jacob became the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, from whom was born Jesus, ⁱⁱ who is called Christ. ¹⁷So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; from David to the exile to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon to the Christ, fourteen generations. ¹⁸Now the birth of Jesus Christ was like this; for after his mother, Mary, was engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁹Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly. ²⁰But when he thought about these things, behold, ⁱⁱⁱ an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take to yourself Mary, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. ²¹She shall give birth to a son. You shall call his name Jesus, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins." ²²Now all this has happened, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, ²³and shall give birth to a son. ^{iv} "Behold, the virgin shall be with child, They shall call his name Immanuel"; ²⁴Joseph arose from his sleep, and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took his wife to himself; ²⁵and didn't know her sexually until she had given birth to her firstborn son. He named him Jesus.

2Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King Herod, behold, wise men ^v from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, ²"Where is he who is born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east, and have come to worship him." ³When King Herod heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Christ would be born. ⁵They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is written through the prophet, ⁶are in no way least among the princes of Judah: ^{vi} 'You Bethlehem, land of Judah, for out of you shall come a governor, ⁷Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. ⁸He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him." ⁹They, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was. ¹⁰When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. ¹¹They came into the house and saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹²Being warned in a dream that they shouldn't return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way. ¹³Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him." ¹⁴He arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, ¹⁵and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my son." ^{vii} ¹⁶Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. ¹⁷Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, ¹⁸lamentation, weeping and great mourning, she wouldn't be comforted, ^{viii} "A voice was heard in Ramah, Rachel weeping for her children; ¹⁹But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, ²⁰"Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the young child's life are dead." ²¹He arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²²But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee, ²³and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets: "He will be called a Nazarene."

offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance! ⁹Don't think to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones. ¹⁰"Even now the ax lies at the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that doesn't produce good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. ¹¹I indeed baptize ^{xii} you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit. ^{xiii} ¹²His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire." ¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan ^{xiv} to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴But John would have hindered him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you come to me?" ¹⁵But Jesus, answering, said to him, "Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. ¹⁶Jesus, when he was baptized, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him. ¹⁷Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased."

4Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ²When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. ³The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread." ⁴But he answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.'" ^{xv} ⁵Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, ^{6xvi} 'On their hands they will bear you up, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, 'He will put his angels in charge of you.' and, ⁷Jesus said to him, "Again, it is written, 'You shall not test the Lord, your God.'" ^{xvii} ⁸Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory. ⁹He said to him, "I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me." ¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, "Get behind me, ^{xviii} Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.'" ^{xix} ¹¹Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and served him. ¹²Now when Jesus heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee. ¹³Leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, ¹⁴that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁵toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, “The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, ¹⁶to those who sat in the region and shadow of death, ^{xx} the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, ¹⁷From that time, Jesus began to preach, and to say, “Repent! For the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.” ¹⁸Walking by the sea of Galilee, he ^{xxi} saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. ¹⁹He said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men.” ²⁰They immediately left their nets and followed him. ²¹Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. He called them. ²²They immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him. ²³Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. ²⁴The report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. ²⁵Great multitudes from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and from beyond the Jordan followed him.

⁵Seeing the multitudes, he went up onto the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him. ²He opened his mouth and taught them, saying, ³for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. ^{xxii} “Blessed are the poor in spirit, ⁴for they shall be comforted. ^{xxiii} Blessed are those who mourn, ⁵for they shall inherit the earth. ^{xxiv} ^{xxv} Blessed are the gentle, ⁶for they shall be filled. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, ⁷for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the merciful, ⁸for they shall see God. Blessed are the pure in heart, ⁹for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are the peacemakers, ¹⁰for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness’ sake, ¹¹“Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. ¹²Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you. ¹³“You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men. ¹⁴You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can’t be hidden. ¹⁵Neither do you light a lamp, and put it under a measuring basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house. ¹⁶Even so, let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. ¹⁷“Don’t think that I came to destroy the law or the prophets. I didn’t come to destroy, but to fulfill. ¹⁸For most certainly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter ^{xxvi} or one tiny pen stroke ^{xxvii} shall in any way pass away from the law, until all things are accomplished. ¹⁹Whoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. ²⁰For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. ²¹“You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, ‘You shall not murder;’ ^{xxviii} and ‘Whoever murders will be in danger of the judgment.’ ²²But I tell you, that everyone who is angry with his brother without a cause ^{xxix} will be in danger of the judgment; and whoever says to his brother, ‘Raca!’ ^{xxx} will be in danger of the council; and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ will be in danger of the fire of Gehenna. ^{xxxi} ²³“If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. ²⁵Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him on the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison. ²⁶Most certainly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last penny. ^{xxxii} ²⁷“You have heard that it was said, ^{xxxiii} ‘You shall not commit adultery;’ ^{xxxiv} ²⁸but I tell you that everyone who gazes at a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. ²⁹If your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. ⁴⁶ For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don’t even the tax collectors do the same? ⁴⁷ If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don’t even the tax collectors ^{xli} do the same? ⁴⁸ Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

6 “Be careful that you don’t do your charitable giving before men, to be seen by them, or else you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. ² Therefore when you do merciful deeds, don’t sound a trumpet before yourself, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may get glory from men. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward. ³ But when you do merciful deeds, don’t let your left hand know what your right hand does, ⁴ so that your merciful deeds may be in secret, then your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. ⁵ “When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Most certainly, I tell you, they have received their reward. ⁶ But you, when you pray, enter into your inner room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. ⁷ In praying, don’t use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking. ⁸ Therefore don’t be like them, for your Father knows what things you need, before you ask him. ⁹ Pray like this: ‘Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. ¹⁰ Let your Kingdom come. Let your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. ¹¹ Give us today our daily bread. ¹² Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. ¹³ Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For yours is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen. ^{xlii} ’ ¹⁴ “For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵ But if you don’t forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. ¹⁶ “Moreover when you fast, don’t be like the hypocrites, with sad faces. For they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen by men to be fasting. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward. ¹⁷ But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face; ¹⁸ so that you are not seen by men to be fasting, but by your Father who is in secret, and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you. ¹⁹ “Don’t lay up treasures for yourselves on the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal; ²⁰ but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consume, and where thieves don’t break through and steal; ²¹ for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. ²² “The lamp of the body is the eye. field, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin, ²⁹yet I tell you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these. ³⁰But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, won't he much more clothe you, you of little faith? ³¹"Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?', 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?'" ³²For the Gentiles seek after all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. ³³But seek first God's Kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things will be given to you as well. ³⁴Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.

First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye. ⁶"Don't give that which is holy to the dogs, neither throw your pearls before the pigs, lest perhaps they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces. ⁷"Ask, and it will be given you. To him who knocks it will be opened. ⁹Or who is there among you, who, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰Or if he asks for a fish, who will give him a serpent? ¹¹If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him! ¹²Therefore whatever you desire for men to do to you, you shall also do to them; for this is the law and the prophets. ¹³"Enter in by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter in by it. ¹⁴How ^{xliv}narrow is the gate, and restricted is the way that leads to life! Few are those who find it. ¹⁵"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. ¹⁶By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? ¹⁷Even so, every good tree produces good fruit; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruit. ¹⁸A good tree can't produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit. ¹⁹Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire. ²⁰Therefore by their fruits you will know them. ²¹Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. ²²Many will tell me in that day, 'Lord,

8 When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. ²Behold, a leper came to him and worshiped him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean." ³Jesus stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. ⁴Jesus said to him, "See that you tell nobody, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." ⁵When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him, ⁶and saying, "Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented." ⁷Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him." ⁸The centurion answered, "Lord, I'm not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁹For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and tell another, 'Come,' and he comes; and tell my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ¹⁰When Jesus heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, "Most certainly I tell you, I haven't found so great a faith, not even in Israel. ¹¹I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the Kingdom of Heaven, ¹²but the children of the Kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." ¹³Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed." His servant was healed in that hour. ¹⁴When Jesus came into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick with a fever. ¹⁵He touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and served him. ^{xlv} ¹⁶When evening came, they brought to him many possessed with demons. He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick; ¹⁷that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying: "He took our infirmities, and bore our diseases." ^{xlvi} ¹⁸Now when Jesus saw great multitudes around him, he gave the order to depart to the other side.¹⁹ A scribe came, and said to him, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”²⁰ Jesus said to him, “The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.”²¹ Another of his disciples said to him, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.”²² But Jesus said to him, “Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.”²³ When he got into a boat, his disciples followed him.²⁴ Behold, a violent storm came up on the sea, so much that the boat was covered with the waves, but he was asleep.²⁵ They came to him, and woke him up, saying, “Save us, Lord! We are dying!”²⁶ He said to them, “Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?” Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.²⁷ The men marveled, saying, “What kind of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”²⁸ When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes,^{xlvi} two people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way.²⁹ Behold, they cried out, saying, “What do we have to do with you, Jesus, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?”³⁰ Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them.³¹ The demons begged him, saying, “If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs.”³² He said to them, “Go!” They came out, and went into the herd of pigs: and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water.³³ Those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons.³⁴ Behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.

9 He entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city.² Behold, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, “Son, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you.”³ Behold, some of the scribes said to themselves, “This man blasphemes.”⁴ Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think evil in your hearts? ⁵For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven;’ or to say, ‘Get up, and walk?’⁶ But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins...” (then he said to the paralytic), “Get up, and take up your mat, and go up to your house.”⁷ He arose and departed to his house.⁸ But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.⁹ As Jesus passed by from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, “Follow me.” He got up and followed him.¹⁰ As he sat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Jesus and his disciples.¹¹ When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”¹² When Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do.”¹³ But you go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’^{xlvi} for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”^{xlvi}¹⁴ Then John’s disciples came to him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don’t fast?”¹⁵ Jesus said to them, “Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.”¹⁶ No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made.¹⁷ Neither do people put new wine into old wine skins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved.”¹⁸ While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.”¹⁹ Jesus got up and followed him, as did his disciples.²⁰ Behold, a woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the fringe¹ of his garment;²¹ for she said within herself, “If I just touch his garment, I will be made well.”²² But Jesus, turning around and seeing her, said, “Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was made well from that hour.²³ When Jesus came into the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd in noisy disorder,²⁴ he said to them, “Make room, because the girl isn’t dead, but sleeping.” They were ridiculing him.²⁵ But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose.²⁶ The report of this went out into all that land.²⁷ As Jesus passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, “Have mercy on us, son of David!”²⁸ When he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They told him, “Yes, Lord.”²⁹ Then he touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.”³⁰ Their eyes were opened. Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, “See that no one knows about this.”³¹ But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.³² As they went out, behold, a mute man who was demon possessed was brought to him.³³ When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The multitudes marveled, saying, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!”³⁴ But the Pharisees said, “By the prince of the demons, he casts out demons.”³⁵ Jesus went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. ³⁶But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed ^{li} and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few. ³⁸Pray therefore that the Lord of the harvest will send out laborers into his harvest.”

10He called to himself his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness. ²Now the names of the twelve apostles are these. The first, Simon, who is called Peter; Andrew, his brother; James the son of Zebedee; John, his brother; ³Philip; Bartholomew; Thomas; Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus; Lebbaeus, who was also called ^{lii} Thaddaeus; ⁴Simon the Canaanite; and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. ⁵Jesus sent these twelve out, and commanded them, saying, “Don’t go among the Gentiles, and don’t enter into any city of the Samaritans. ⁶Rather, go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷As you go, preach, saying, ‘The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand!’ ⁸Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, ^{liii} and cast out demons. Freely you received, so freely give. ⁹Don’t take any gold, silver, or brass in your money belts. ¹⁰Take no bag for your journey, neither two coats, nor shoes, nor staff: for the laborer is worthy of his food. ¹¹Into whatever city or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy; and stay there until you go on. ¹²As you enter into the household, greet it. ¹³If the household is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it isn’t worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴Whoever doesn’t receive you, nor hear your words, as you go out of that house or that city, shake off the dust from your feet. ¹⁵Most certainly I tell you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city. ¹⁶“Behold, I send you out as sheep among wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. ¹⁷But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you. ¹⁸Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations. ¹⁹But when they deliver you up, don’t be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say. ²⁰For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you. ²¹“Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. ²²You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved. ²³But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most certainly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel, until the Son of Man has come. ²⁴“A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his lord. ²⁵It is enough for the disciple that he be like his teacher, and the servant like his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, ^{liv} how much more those of his household! ²⁶Therefore don’t be afraid of them, for there is nothing covered that will not be revealed; and hidden that will not be known. ²⁷What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in the ear, proclaim on the housetops. ²⁸Don’t be afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. Rather, fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. ^{lv} ²⁹“Aren’t two sparrows sold for an assarion coin? ^{lvi} Not one of them falls on the ground apart from your Father’s will, ³⁰but the very hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹Therefore don’t be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows. ³²Everyone therefore who confesses me before men, him I will also confess before my Father who is in heaven. ³³But whoever denies me before men, him I will also deny before my Father who is in heaven. ³⁴“Don’t think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn’t come to send peace, but a sword. ³⁵For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. ³⁶A man’s foes will be those of his own household. ^{lvii} ³⁷He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn’t worthy of me. ³⁸He who doesn’t take his cross and follow after me, isn’t worthy of me. ³⁹He who seeks his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for my sake will find it. ⁴⁰He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. ⁴¹He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward. He who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man’s reward. ⁴²Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, most certainly I tell you he will in no way lose his reward.”

11When Jesus had finished directing his twelve disciples, he departed from there to teach and preach in their cities. ²Now when John heard in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples ³and said to him, “Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?” ⁴Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: ⁵the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, ^{lviii} the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.

A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸But what did you go out to see? A man in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in king’s houses. ⁹But why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. ¹⁰For this is he, of whom it is written, ‘Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you.’^{lx} ¹¹Most certainly I tell you, among those who are born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptizer; yet he who is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. ¹²From the days of John the Baptizer until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force.^{lxi} ¹³For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John. ¹⁴If you are willing to receive it, this is Elijah, who is to come. ¹⁵He who has ears to hear, let him hear. ¹⁶“But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions ¹⁷and say, ‘We played the flute for you, and you didn’t dance. We mourned for you, and you didn’t lament.’ ¹⁸For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’ ¹⁹The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is justified by her children.”^{lxii} ²⁰Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they didn’t repent. ²¹“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²²But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. ²³You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will go down to Hades.^{lxiii} For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until today. ²⁴But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, on the day of judgment, than for you.” ²⁵At that time, Jesus answered, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants. ²⁶Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight. ²⁷All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the Son desires to reveal him. ²⁸“Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me,

12At that time, Jesus went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. ²But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, “Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.” ³But he said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him; ⁴how he entered into God’s house, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests?^{lxiv} ⁵Or have you not read in the law, that on the Sabbath day, the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are guiltless? ⁶But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here. ⁷But if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’^{lxv} you would not have condemned the guiltless. ⁸For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.” ⁹He departed there, and went into their synagogue. ¹⁰And behold there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?” that they might accuse him. ¹¹He said to them, “What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won’t he grab on to it, and lift it out? ¹²Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day.” ¹³Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. ¹⁵Jesus, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all, ¹⁶and commanded them that they should not make him known: ¹⁷that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, ¹⁸my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased: He will proclaim justice to the nations. “Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; I will put my Spirit on him. ¹⁹neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets. He will not strive, nor shout; ²⁰He won’t quench a smoking flax, He won’t break a bruised reed. until he leads justice to victory. ²¹In his name, the nations will hope.”^{lxvi} ²²Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to him and he healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. ²³All the multitudes were amazed, and said, “Can this be the son of David?” ²⁴But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “This man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.” ²⁵Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷If I by Beelzebul cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. ²⁸But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then God's Kingdom has come upon you. ²⁹Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and plunder his goods, unless he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house. ³⁰"He who is not with me is against me, and he who doesn't gather with me, scatters. ³¹Therefore I tell you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven men. ³²Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him; but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in that which is to come. ³³"Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. ³⁵The good man out of his good treasure brings out good things, and the evil man out of his evil treasure ^{lxvii} brings out evil things. ³⁶I tell you that every idle word that men speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. ³⁷For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned." ³⁸Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you." ³⁹But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given it but the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here. ⁴²The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here. ⁴³When an unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and doesn't find it. ⁴⁴Then he says, 'I will return into my house from which I came out,' and when he has come back, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation." ⁴⁶While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him. ⁴⁷One said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers stand outside, seeking to speak to you." ⁴⁸But he answered him who spoke to him, "Who is my mother?

Who are my brothers?" ⁴⁹He stretched out his hand towards his disciples, and said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

13On that day Jesus went out of the house, and sat by the seaside. ²Great multitudes gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat, and sat, and all the multitude stood on the beach. ³He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow. ⁴As he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. ⁶When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. ⁷Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸Others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. ⁹He who has ears to hear, let him hear." ¹⁰The disciples came, and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" ¹¹He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. ¹²For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has. ¹³Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand. ¹⁴and will in no way understand; and will in no way perceive: 'By hearing you will hear, Seeing you will see, In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says, ¹⁵their ears are dull of hearing, they have closed their eyes; hear with their ears, understand with their heart, and I would heal them.' ^{lxviii} for this people's heart has grown callous, or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes, and would turn again; ¹⁶"But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. ¹⁷For most certainly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them. ¹⁸"Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. ¹⁹When anyone hears the word of the Kingdom, and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside. ²⁰What was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it; ²¹yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. ²²What was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. ²³What was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who most certainly bears fruit, and produces, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty.”²⁴ He set another parable before them, saying, “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field,²⁵ but while people slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel weeds^{lxiix} also among the wheat, and went away.²⁶ But when the blade sprang up and produced fruit, then the darnel weeds appeared also.²⁷ The servants of the householder came and said to him, ‘Sir, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Where did these darnel weeds come from?’²⁸ He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ The servants asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and gather them up?’²⁹ But he said, ‘No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel weeds, you root up the wheat with them.³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, ‘First, gather up the darnel weeds, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn.’”³¹ He set another parable before them, saying, “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field;³² which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches.”³³ He spoke another parable to them. “The Kingdom of Heaven is like yeast, which a woman took, and hid in three measures^{lxxx} of meal, until it was all leavened.”³⁴ Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, he didn’t speak to them,^{35lxxi} “I will open my mouth in parables; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,³⁶ Then Jesus sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the darnel weeds of the field.”³⁷ He answered them, “He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man,³⁸ the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the children of the Kingdom; and the darnel weeds are the children of the evil one.³⁹ The enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.⁴⁰ As therefore the darnel weeds are gathered up and burned with fire; so will it be at the end of this age.⁴¹ The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his Kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and those who do iniquity,⁴² and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth.⁴³ Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.⁴⁴ Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.⁴⁵ Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a merchant seeking fine pearls,⁴⁶ who having found one pearl of great price, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.⁴⁷ Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet, that was cast into the sea, and gathered some fish of every kind,⁴⁸ which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach. They sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they threw away.⁴⁹ So will it be in the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked from among the righteous,⁵⁰ and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth.”⁵¹ Jesus said to them, “Have you understood all these things?” They answered him, “Yes, Lord.”⁵² He said to them, “Therefore every scribe who has been made a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a householder, who brings out of his treasure new and old things.”⁵³ When Jesus had finished these parables, he departed from there.⁵⁴ Coming into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, “Where did this man get this wisdom, and these mighty works?⁵⁵ Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother called Mary, and his brothers, James, Joses, Simon, and Judas?^{lxxii}⁵⁶ Aren’t all of his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all of these things?”⁵⁷ They were offended by him. “A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house.”⁵⁸ He didn’t do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

14At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus,² and said to his servants, “This is John the Baptizer. He is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in him.”³ For Herod had laid hold of John, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife.⁴ For John said to him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.”⁵ When he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet.⁶ But when Herod’s birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced among them and pleased Herod.⁷ Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask.⁸ She, being prompted by her mother, said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptizer.”⁹ The king was grieved, but for the sake of his oaths, and of those who sat at the table with him, he commanded it to be given,¹⁰ and he sent and beheaded John in the prison.¹¹ His head was brought on a platter, and given to the young lady: and she brought it to her mother.¹² His disciples came, and took the body, and buried it; and they went and told Jesus.¹³ Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat, to a deserted place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed him on foot from the cities.¹⁴ Jesus went out, and he saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them, and healed their sick.¹⁵ When evening had come, his disciples came to him, saying, “This place is deserted, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food.”¹⁶ But Jesus said to them, “They don’t need to go away. You give them something to eat.”¹⁷ They told him, “We only have here five loaves and two fish.”¹⁸ He said, “Bring them here to me.”¹⁹ He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes.²⁰ They all ate, and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces.²¹ Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.²² Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.²³ After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening had come, he was there alone.²⁴ But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary.²⁵ In the fourth watch of the night,^{lxxiii} Jesus came to them, walking on the sea.^{lxxiv} ²⁶ When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, “It’s a ghost!” and they cried out for fear.²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying “Cheer up! It is I! ^{lxxv} Don’t be afraid.”²⁸ Peter answered him and said, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters.”²⁹ He said, “Come!” Peter stepped down from the boat, and walked on the waters to come to Jesus.³⁰ But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, “Lord, save me!”³¹ Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?”³² When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased.³³ Those who were in the boat came and worshiped him, saying, “You are truly the Son of God!”³⁴ When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret.³⁵ When the people of that place recognized him, they sent into all that surrounding region, and brought to him all who were sick,³⁶ and they begged him that they might just touch the fringe^{lxxvi} of his garment. As many as touched it were made whole.

15 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem, saying,² “Why do your disciples disobey the tradition of the elders? For they don’t wash their hands when they eat bread.”³ He answered them, “Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition? ⁴ For God commanded, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’

^{lxxvii} and, ‘He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.’^{lxxviii} ⁵ But you say, ‘Whoever may tell his father or his mother, “Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God,” ⁶ he shall not honor his father or mother.’ You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition.⁷ You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, ⁸ and honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. ‘These people draw near to me with their mouth, ⁹ teaching as doctrine rules made by men.’”^{lxxix} And in vain do they worship me, ¹⁰ He summoned the multitude, and said to them, “Hear, and understand. ¹¹ That which enters into the mouth doesn’t defile the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man.”¹² Then the disciples came, and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?”¹³ But he answered, “Every plant which my heavenly Father didn’t plant will be uprooted. ¹⁴ Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit.”¹⁵ Peter answered him, “Explain the parable to us.”¹⁶ So Jesus said, “Do you also still not understand? ¹⁷ Don’t you understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and then out of the body? ¹⁸ But the things which proceed out of the mouth come out of the heart, and they defile the man. ¹⁹ For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies. ²⁰ These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands doesn’t defile the man.”²¹ Jesus went out from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon. ²² Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, “Have mercy on me, Lord, you son of David! My daughter is severely possessed by a demon!”²³ But he answered her not a word. His disciples came and begged him, saying, “Send her away; for she cries after us.”²⁴ But he answered, “I wasn’t sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel.”²⁵ But she came and worshiped him, saying, “Lord, help me.”²⁶ But he answered, “It is not appropriate to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”²⁷ But she said, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.”²⁸ Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.²⁹ Jesus departed there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there.³⁰ Great multitudes came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them,³¹ so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, injured whole, lame walking, and blind seeing—and they glorified the God of Israel.³² Jesus summoned his disciples and said, “I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way.”³³ The disciples said to him, “Where should we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?”³⁴ Jesus said to them, “How many loaves do you have?” They said, “Seven, and a few small fish.”³⁵ He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground;³⁶ and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes.³⁷ They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over.³⁸ Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.³⁹ Then he sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven.² But he answered them, “When it is evening, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.’³ In the morning, ‘It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.’ Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you can’t discern the signs of the times!⁴ An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah.” He left them, and departed.⁵ The disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread.⁶ Jesus said to them, “Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”⁷ They reasoned among themselves, saying, “We brought no bread.”⁸ Jesus, perceiving it, said, “Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, ‘because you have brought no bread?’⁹ Don’t you yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up?¹⁰ Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up?¹¹ How is it that you don’t perceive that I didn’t speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”¹² Then they understood that he didn’t tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.¹³ Now when Jesus came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, “Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?”¹⁴ They said, “Some say John the Baptist, some, Elijah, and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.”¹⁵ He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”¹⁷ Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Bar Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven.¹⁸ I also tell you that you are Peter,^{lxxx} and on this rock^{lxxxi}

I will build my assembly, and the gates of Hades^{lxxxii} will not prevail against it.¹⁹ I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven.”²⁰ Then he commanded the disciples that they should tell no one that he was Jesus the Christ.²¹ From that time, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.²² Peter took him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, “Far be it from you, Lord! This will never be done to you.”²³ But he turned, and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men.”²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.²⁵ For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it.²⁶ For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life?²⁷ For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds.²⁸ Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom.”

17 After six days, Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain by themselves.² He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his garments became as white as the light.³ Behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them talking with him.⁴ Peter answered, and said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let’s make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”⁵ While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him.”⁶ When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces, and were very afraid.⁷ Jesus came and touched them and said, “Get up, and don’t be afraid.”⁸ Lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus alone.⁹ As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, “Don’t tell anyone what you saw, until the Son of Man has risen from the dead.”¹⁰ His disciples asked him, saying, “Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”¹¹ Jesus answered them, “Elijah indeed comes first, and will restore all things,¹² but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they didn’t recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so the Son of Man will also suffer by them.”¹³ Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of John the Baptizer. ¹⁴When they came to the multitude, a man came to him, kneeling down to him, saying, ¹⁵“Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water. ¹⁶So I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him.” ¹⁷Jesus answered, “Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me.” ¹⁸Jesus rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour. ¹⁹Then the disciples came to Jesus privately, and said, “Why weren’t we able to cast it out?” ²⁰He said to them, “Because of your unbelief. For most certainly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. ²¹But this kind doesn’t go out except by prayer and fasting.” ²²While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, ²³and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up.” They were exceedingly sorry. ²⁴When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins ^{lxxxiii} came to Peter, and said, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the didrachma?” ²⁵He said, “Yes.” “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?” ²⁶Peter said to him, “From strangers.” “Therefore the children are exempt. ²⁷But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin. ^{lxxxiv} Take that, and give it to them for me and you.”

18In that hour the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?” ²Jesus called a little child to himself, and set him in the middle of them, ³and said, “Most certainly I tell you, unless you turn, and become as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. ⁴Whoever therefore humbles himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. ⁵Whoever receives one such little child in my name receives me, ⁶but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him that a huge millstone should be hung around his neck, and that he should be sunk in the depths of the sea. ⁷“Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! For it must be that the occasions come, but woe to that person through whom the occasion comes! ⁸If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. ⁹If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna ^{lxxxv} of fire. ¹⁰See that you don’t despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. ¹¹For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost. ¹²“What do you think? If a man has one hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, doesn’t he leave the ninety-nine, go to the mountains, and seek that which has gone astray? ¹³If he finds it, most certainly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine which have not gone astray. ¹⁴Even so it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish. ¹⁵“If your brother sins against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother. ¹⁶But if he doesn’t listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. ^{lxxxvi} ¹⁷If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. If he refuses to hear the assembly also, let him be to you as a Gentile or a tax collector. ¹⁸Most certainly I tell you, whatever things you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever things you release on earth will have been released in heaven. ¹⁹Again, assuredly I tell you, that if two of you will agree on earth concerning anything that they will ask, it will be done for them by my Father who is in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the middle of them.” ²¹Then Peter came and said to him, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?” ²²Jesus said to him, “I don’t tell you until seven times, but, until seventy times seven. ²³Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who wanted to reconcile accounts with his servants. ²⁴When he had begun to reconcile, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. ^{lxxxvii} ²⁵But because he couldn’t pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶The servant therefore fell down and knelt before him, saying, ‘Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay you all!’ ²⁷The lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. ²⁸“But that servant went out, and found one of his fellow servants, who owed him one hundred denarii, ^{lxxxviii} and he grabbed him, and took him by the throat, saying, ‘Pay me what you owe!’ ²⁹“So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will repay you!’ ³⁰He would not, but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay back that which was due. ³¹So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told to their lord all that was done. ³²Then his lord called him in, and said to him, ‘You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me. ³³Shouldn’t you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?’ ³⁴His lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to him. ³⁵So my heavenly Father will also do to you, if you don’t each forgive your brother from your hearts for his misdeeds.”

19When Jesus had finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea beyond the Jordan. ²Great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there. ³Pharisees came to him, testing him, and saying, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?” ⁴He answered, “Haven’t you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female, ^{lxxxix} ⁵and said, ‘For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall join to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh?’ ^{xc} ⁶So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don’t let man tear apart.” ⁷They asked him, “Why then did Moses command us to give her a bill of divorce, and divorce her?” ⁸He said to them, “Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. ⁹I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is divorced commits adultery.” ¹⁰His disciples said to him, “If this is the case of the man with his wife, it is not expedient to marry.” ¹¹But he said to them, “Not all men can receive this saying, but those to whom it is given. ¹²For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother’s womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven’s sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it.” ¹³Then little children were brought to him, that he should lay his hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴But Jesus said, “Allow the little children, and don’t forbid them to come to me; for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to ones like these.” ¹⁵He laid his hands on them, and departed from there. ¹⁶Behold, one came to him and said, “Good teacher, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?” ¹⁷He said to him, “Why do you call me good? ^{xc} No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.” ¹⁸He said to him, “Which ones?” “‘You shall not murder.’ ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ ‘You shall not steal.’ ‘You shall not offer false testimony.’ ¹⁹‘Honor your father and mother.’ ^{xcii} And, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’” ^{xciii} ²⁰The young man said to him, “All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?” ²¹Jesus said to him, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me.” ²²But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sad, for he was one who had great possessions. ²³Jesus said to his disciples, “Most certainly I say to you, a rich man will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven with difficulty. ²⁴Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye, than for a rich man to enter into God’s Kingdom.” ²⁵When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly astonished, saying, “Who then can be saved?” ²⁶Looking at them, Jesus said, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.” ²⁷Then Peter answered, “Behold, we have left everything, and followed you. What then will we have?” ²⁸Jesus said to them, “Most certainly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name’s sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life. ³⁰But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.

He said to them, ‘Why do you stand here all day idle?’ ⁷“They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’ “He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.’⁸ When evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.’⁹ “When those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius.¹⁰ When the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; and they likewise each received a denarius.¹¹ When they received it, they murmured against the master of the household,¹² saying, ‘These last have spent one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat!’¹³ “But he answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Didn’t you agree with me for a denarius?’¹⁴ Take that which is yours, and go your way. It is my desire to give to this last just as much as to you.¹⁵ Isn’t it lawful for me to do what I want to with what I own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?’¹⁶ So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.”¹⁷ As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them,¹⁸ “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death,¹⁹ and will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to crucify; and the third day he will be raised up.”²⁰ Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, kneeling and asking a certain thing of him.²¹ He said to her, “What do you want?” She said to him, “Command that these, my two sons, may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your Kingdom.”²² But Jesus answered, “You don’t know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?” They said to him, “We are able.”²³ He said to them, “You will indeed drink my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with, but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Father.”²⁴ When the ten heard it, they were indignant with the two brothers.²⁵ But Jesus summoned them, and said, “You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.²⁶ It shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be ^{xcviii} your servant.²⁷ Whoever desires to be first among you shall be your bondservant,²⁸ even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”²⁹ As they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.³⁰ Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, “Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!”³¹ The multitude rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they cried out even more, “Lord, 21 When they came near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethsphage, ^{xcix} to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,² saying to them, “Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me.³ If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and immediately he will send them.”⁴ All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,⁵ behold, your King comes to you, humble, and riding on a donkey,^c “Tell the daughter of Zion,⁶ The disciples went, and did just as Jesus commanded them,⁷ and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their clothes on them; and he sat on them.⁸ A very great multitude spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road.⁹ The multitudes who went in front of him, and those who followed, kept shouting, “Hosanna ^{ci} to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!” ^{cii} ¹⁰ When he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?”¹¹ The multitudes said, “This is the prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee.”¹² Jesus entered into the temple of God, and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers’ tables and the seats of those who sold the doves.¹³ He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’ ^{ciii} but you have made it a den of robbers!” ^{civ} ¹⁴ The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.¹⁵ But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, “Hosanna to the son of David!” they were indignant,¹⁶ and said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?” “Yes. Did you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise?’” ^{cv} ¹⁷ He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and camped there.¹⁸ Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry.¹⁹ Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. withered away. ²⁰When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither away?" ²¹Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, if you have faith, and don't doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' it would be done. ²²All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive." ²³When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?" ²⁴Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵The baptism of John, where was it from? From heaven or from men?" They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will ask us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' ²⁶But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet." ²⁷They answered Jesus, and said, "We don't know." "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁸But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.' ²⁹He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind, and went. ³⁰He came to the second, and said the same thing. He answered, 'I go, sir,' but he didn't go. ³¹Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said to him, "The first." "Most certainly I tell you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering into God's Kingdom before you. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you didn't believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him. ³³"Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a wine press in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. ³⁴When the season for the fruit came near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive his fruit. ³⁵The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. ³⁶Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way. ³⁷But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' ³⁸But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and seize his inheritance.' ³⁹So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. ⁴⁰When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?" ⁴¹They told him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give him the fruit in its season." ⁴²the same was made the head of the corner. It is marvelous in our eyes?" ^{cvi} 'The stone which the builders rejected, This was from the Lord. Jesus said to them, "Did you never

22 Jesus answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying, ²"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, ³and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. ⁴Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My cattle and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast!"' ⁵But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, ⁶and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. ⁷When the king heard that, he was angry, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. ⁸"Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy. ⁹Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.' ¹⁰Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests. ¹¹But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding clothing, ¹²and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. ¹³Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.' ¹⁴For many are called, but few chosen." ¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. ¹⁶They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach, for you aren't partial to anyone. ¹⁷Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" ¹⁸But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, "Why do you test me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹Show me the tax money." They brought to him a denarius. ²⁰He asked them, "Whose is this image and inscription?" ²¹They said to him, "Caesar's." "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." ²²When they heard it, they marveled, and left him, and went away. ²³On that day Sadducees (those who say that there is no resurrection) came to him. They asked him, ²⁴saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up offspring ^{cvii} for his brother.²⁵ Now there were with us seven brothers. The first married and died, and having no offspring ^{cviii} left his wife to his brother.²⁶ In the same way, the second also, and the third, to the seventh.²⁷ After them all, the woman died.²⁸ In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her.”²⁹ But Jesus answered them, “You are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like God’s angels in heaven.³¹ But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven’t you read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,³² ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’ ^{cix} God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”³³ When the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching.³⁴ But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered themselves together.³⁵ One of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, testing him.³⁶ “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?”³⁷ Jesus said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ ^{cx} ³⁸This is the first and great commandment.³⁹ A second likewise is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ ^{cxii} ⁴⁰The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.”⁴¹ Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question,⁴² saying, “What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is he?” They said to him, “Of David.”⁴³ He said to them, “How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,⁴⁴ sit on my right hand, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet?” ^{cxiii} ‘The Lord said to my Lord,⁴⁵ “If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?”⁴⁶ No one was able to answer him a word, neither did any man dare ask him any more questions from that day forward.

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to his disciples,² saying, “The scribes and the Pharisees sat on Moses’ seat.³ All things therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but don’t do their works; for they say, and don’t do.⁴ For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne, and lay them on men’s shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to help them.⁵ But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their phylacteries ^{cxiii} broad, enlarge the fringes ^{cxiv} of their garments,⁶ and love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues,⁷ the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi, Rabbi’ by men.⁸ But don’t you be called ‘Rabbi,’ for one is your teacher, the Christ, and all of you are brothers.⁹ Call no man on the earth your father, for one is your Father, he who is in heaven.¹⁰ Neither be called masters, for one is your master, the Christ.¹¹ But he who is greatest among you will be your servant.¹² Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.¹³ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you devour widows’ houses, and as a pretense you make long prayers. Therefore you will receive greater condemnation.¹⁴ “But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for you don’t enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter.^{cxv} ¹⁵Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much of a son of Gehenna ^{cxvi} as yourselves.¹⁶ “Woe to you, you blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.’¹⁷ You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifies the gold?¹⁸ “Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, he is obligated?”¹⁹ You blind fools! For which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifies the gift?²⁰ He therefore who swears by the altar, swears by it, and by everything on it.²¹ He who swears by the temple, swears by it, and by him who was living ^{cxvii} in it.²² He who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by him who sits on it.²³ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cumin, ^{cxviii} and have left undone the weightier matters of the law: justice, mercy, and faith. But you ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone.²⁴ You blind guides, who strain out a gnat, and swallow a camel!²⁵ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous, ³⁰and say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we wouldn’t have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.’ ³¹Therefore you testify to yourselves that you are children of those who killed the prophets. ³²Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. ³³You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of Gehenna ^{cxx} ? ³⁴Therefore behold, I send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes. 24 Jesus went out from the temple, and was going on his way. His disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. ²But he answered them, “You see all of these things, don’t you? Most certainly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down.” ³As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?” ⁴Jesus answered them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray. ⁵For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will lead many astray. ⁶You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you aren’t troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet. ⁷For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places. ⁸But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. ⁹Then they will deliver you up to oppression, and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name’s sake. ¹⁰Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another. ¹¹Many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray. ¹²Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. ¹⁴This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come. ¹⁵“When, therefore, you see the abomination of desolation, ^{cxxii} which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), ¹⁶then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁷Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take out things that are in his house. ¹⁸Let him who is in the field not return back to get his clothes. ¹⁹But woe to those who are with child and to nursing mothers in those days! ²⁰Pray that your flight will not be in the winter, nor on a Sabbath, ²¹for then there will be great oppression, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever will be. ²²Unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved. But for the sake of the chosen ones, those days will be shortened. ²³“Then if any man tells you, ‘Behold, here is the Christ,’ or, ‘There,’ don’t believe it. ²⁴For there will arise false christs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. ²⁵“Behold, I have told you beforehand. ²⁶If therefore they tell you, ‘Behold, he is in the wilderness,’ don’t go out; ‘Behold, he is in the inner rooms,’ don’t believe it. ²⁷For as the lightning flashes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸For wherever the carcass is, there is where the vultures ^{cxxiii} gather together. ²⁹But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; ^{cxxiv} ³⁰and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. ³¹He will send out his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other. ³²“Now from the fig tree learn this parable. will be in the field: one will be taken and one will be left; ⁴¹two women grinding at the mill, one will be taken and one will be left. ⁴²Watch therefore, for you don't know in what hour your Lord comes. ⁴³But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁴Therefore also be ready, for in an hour that you don't expect, the Son of Man will come. ⁴⁵“Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom his lord has set over his household, to give them their food in due season? ⁴⁶Blessed is that servant whom his lord finds doing so when he comes. ⁴⁷Most certainly I tell you that he will set him over all that he has. ⁴⁸But if that evil servant should say in his heart, ‘My lord is delaying his coming,’ ⁴⁹and begins to beat his fellow servants, and eat and drink with the drunkards, ⁵⁰the lord of that servant will come in a day when he doesn't expect it, and in an hour when he doesn't know it, ⁵¹and will cut him in pieces, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites. There is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.

25“Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom. ²Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. ³Those who were foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them, ⁴but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. ⁵Now while the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept. ⁶But at midnight there was a cry, ‘Behold! The bridegroom is coming! Come out to meet him!’ ⁷Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. ^{cxxvii} ⁸The foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’ ⁹But the wise answered, saying, ‘What if there isn't enough for us and you? You go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.’ ¹⁰While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. ¹¹Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, ‘Lord, Lord, open to us.’ ¹²But he answered, ‘Most certainly I tell you, I don't know you.’ ¹³Watch therefore, for you don't know the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming. ¹⁴“For it is like a man, going into another country, who called his own servants, and entrusted his goods to them. ¹⁵To one he gave five talents, ¹⁶Immediately he who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. ¹⁷In the same way, he also who got the two gained another two. ¹⁸But he who received the one talent went away and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money. ¹⁹“Now after a long time the lord of those servants came, and reconciled accounts with them. ²⁰He who received the five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, ‘Lord, you delivered to me five talents. Behold, I have gained another five talents besides them.’ ²¹“His lord said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.’ ²²“He also who got the two talents came and said, ‘Lord, you delivered to me two talents. Behold, I have gained another two talents besides them.’ ²³“His lord said to him, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.’ ²⁴“He also who had received the one talent came and said, ‘Lord, I knew you that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter. ²⁵I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the earth. Behold, you have what is yours.’ ²⁶“But his lord answered him, ‘You wicked and slothful servant. You knew that I reap where I didn't sow, and gather where I didn't scatter. ²⁷You ought therefore to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest. ²⁸Take away therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who has the ten talents. ²⁹For to everyone who has will be given, and he will have abundance, but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away. ³⁰Throw out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ ³¹“But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. ³²Before him all the nations will be gathered, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³He will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. ³⁴Then the King will tell those on his right hand, ‘Come, blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; ³⁵for I was hungry, and you gave me food to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me drink. I was a stranger, and you took me in. ³⁶I was naked, and you clothed me. I was sick, and you visited me. I was in prison, and you came to me.’ ³⁷“Then the righteous will answer him, saying, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry, and feed you; or thirsty, and give you a drink? ³⁸When did we see you as a stranger, and take you in; or naked, and clothe you? ³⁹When did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?’ ⁴⁰“The King will answer them, ‘Most certainly I tell you, because you did it to one of the least of these my brothers ^{cxxviii}, you did it to me.’ ⁴¹Then he will say also to those on the left hand, ‘Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels; ⁴²for I was hungry, and you didn't give me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink; ⁴³I was a stranger, and you didn't take me in; naked, and you didn't clothe me; sick, and in prison, and you didn't visit me.' ⁴⁴"Then they will also answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn't help you?' ⁴⁵"Then he will answer them, saying, 'Most certainly I tell you, because you didn't do it to one of the least of these, you didn't do it to me.' ⁴⁶These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

26When Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples, ²"You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified." ³Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas. ⁴They took counsel together that they might take Jesus by deceit, and kill him. ⁵But they said, "Not during the feast, lest a riot occur among the people." ⁶Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, ⁷a woman came to him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head as he sat at the table. ⁸But when his disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste? ⁹For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor." ¹⁰However, knowing this, Jesus said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? Because she has done a good work for me. ¹¹For you always have the poor with you; but you don't always have me. ¹²For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. ¹³Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her." ¹⁴Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, ¹⁵and said, "What are you willing to give me, that I should deliver him to you?" They weighed out for him thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁶From that time he sought opportunity to betray him. ¹⁷Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?" ¹⁸He said, "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples."' " ¹⁹The disciples did as Jesus commanded them, and they prepared the Passover. ²⁰Now when evening had come, he was reclining at the table with the twelve disciples. ²¹As they were eating, he said, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me." ²²They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, "It isn't me, is it, Lord?" ²³He answered, "He who dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. ²⁴The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born." ²⁵Judas, who betrayed him, answered, "It isn't me, is it, Rabbi?" "You said it." ²⁶As they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks for ^{cxxix} it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." ²⁷He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, "All of you drink it, ²⁸for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. ²⁹But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's Kingdom." ³⁰When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ³¹Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' ^{cxxx} ³²But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee." ³³But Peter answered him, "Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble." ³⁴Jesus said to him, "Most certainly I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." ³⁵Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you." All of the disciples also said likewise. ³⁶Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go there and pray." ³⁷He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled. ³⁸Then he said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me." ³⁹He went forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire." ⁴⁰He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What, couldn't you watch with me for one hour? ⁴¹Watch and pray, that you don't enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." ⁴²Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup can't pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done." ⁴³He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words. ⁴⁵Then he came to his disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶Arise, let's be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand." ⁴⁷While he was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priest and elders of the people. ⁴⁸Now he who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, "Whoever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him." ⁴⁹Immediately he came to Jesus, and said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed him. ⁵⁰Jesus said to him, "Friend, why are you here?" Then they came and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. ⁵¹Behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. ⁵²Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword. ⁵³Or do you think that I couldn't ask my Father, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?" ⁵⁵In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. ⁵⁶But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left him, and fled. ⁵⁷Those who had taken Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. ⁵⁸But Peter followed him from a distance, to the court of the high priest, and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. ⁵⁹Now the chief priests, the elders, and the whole council sought false testimony against Jesus, that they might put him to death; ⁶⁰and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward, ⁶¹and said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.'" ⁶²The high priest stood up, and said to him, "Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?" ⁶³But Jesus held his peace. The high priest answered him, "I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God." ⁶⁴Jesus said to him, "You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky." ⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his clothing, saying, "He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. ⁶⁶What do you think?" They answered, "He is worthy of death!" ⁶⁷Then they spit in his face and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, ⁶⁸saying, "Prophecy to us, you Christ! Who hit you?" ⁶⁹Now Peter was sitting outside in the court, and a maid came to him, saying, "You were also with Jesus, the Galilean!" ⁷⁰But he denied it before them all, saying, "I don't know what you are talking about." ⁷¹When he had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him, and said to those who were there, "This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth." ⁷²Again he denied it with an oath, "I don't know the man." ⁷³After a little while those who stood by came and said to Peter, "Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you known." ⁷⁴Then he began to curse and to swear, "I don't know the man!" Immediately the rooster crowed. ⁷⁵Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." He went out and wept bitterly.

27 Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: ²and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor.

³Then Judas, who betrayed him, when he saw that Jesus was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, ⁴saying, "I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? You see to it." ⁵He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. He went away and hanged himself. ⁶The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It's not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood." ⁷They took counsel, and bought the potter's field with them, to bury strangers in. ⁸Therefore that field was called "The Field of Blood" to this day. ⁹the price of him upon whom a price had been set, whom some of the children of Israel priced, "They took the thirty pieces of silver, Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah ^{cxxxix} the prophet was fulfilled, saying, ^{10cxxxix} and they gave them for the potter's field, ¹¹Now Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?" "So you say." ¹²When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing. ¹³Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?" ¹⁴He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly. ¹⁵Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they desired. ¹⁶They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. ¹⁷When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?" ¹⁸For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up. ¹⁹While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of him." ²⁰Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. ²¹But the governor answered them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said, "Barabbas!" ²²Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do to Jesus, who is called Christ?" They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!" ²³But the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, saying, "Let him be crucified!" ²⁴So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it." ²⁵All the people answered, "May his blood be on us, and on our children!" ²⁶Then he released to them Barabbas, but Jesus he flogged and delivered to be crucified. ²⁷Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him. ²⁸They stripped him, and put a scarlet robe on him. ²⁹They braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand; and they knelt down before him, and mocked him, saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!”³⁰ They spat on him, and took the reed and struck him on the head.³¹ When they had mocked him, they took the robe off of him, and put his clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.³² As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross.³³ They came to a place called “Golgotha”, that is to say, “The place of a skull.”³⁴ They gave him sour wine ^{cxxxiii} to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink.³⁵ When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots, ^{cxxxiv} and they sat and watched him there.³⁷ They set up over his head the accusation against him written, “THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS.”³⁸ Then there were two robbers crucified with him, one on his right hand and one on the left.³⁹ Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads,⁴⁰ and saying, “You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross!”⁴¹ Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes, the Pharisees, ^{cxxxv} and the elders, said,⁴² “He saved others, but he can’t save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him.”⁴³ He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’”⁴⁴ The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.⁴⁵ Now from the sixth hour ^{cxxxvi} there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. ^{cxxxvii}⁴⁶ About the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, “Eli, Eli, lima ^{cxxxviii} sabachthani?” That is, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” ^{cxxxix}⁴⁷ Some of them who stood there, when they heard it, said, “This man is calling Elijah.”⁴⁸ Immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him a drink.⁴⁹ The rest said, “Let him be. Let’s see whether Elijah comes to save him.”⁵⁰ Jesus cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit.⁵¹ Behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split.⁵² The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised;⁵³ and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many.⁵⁴ Now the centurion, and those who were with him watching Jesus, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, “Truly this was the Son of God.”⁵⁵ Many women were there watching from afar, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, serving him.⁵⁶ Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.⁵⁷ When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who himself was also Jesus’ disciple came.⁵⁸ This man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus’ body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up.⁵⁹ Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,⁶⁰ and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed.⁶¹ Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the tomb.⁶² Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate,⁶³ saying, “Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: ‘After three days I will rise again.’”⁶⁴ Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, ‘He is risen from the dead;’ and the last deception will be worse than the first.”⁶⁵ Pilate said to them, “You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can.”⁶⁶ So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

28 Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb.² Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it.³ His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow.⁴ For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men.⁵ The angel answered the women, “Don’t be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus, who has been crucified.⁶ He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying.⁷ Go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you will see him.’ Behold, I have told you.”⁸ They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word.⁹ As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, “Rejoice!” They came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Go tell my brothers ^{cxl} that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see me.”¹¹ Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened.¹² When they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers,¹³ saying, “Say that his disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.”¹⁴ If

pernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath day he entered into the synagogue and taught. ²²They were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes. ²³Immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, ²⁴saying, “Ha! What do we have to do with you, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!” ²⁵Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be quiet, and come out of him!” ²⁶The unclean spirit, convulsing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. ²⁷They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, “What is this? A new teaching? For with authority he commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him!” ²⁸The report of him went out immediately everywhere into all the region of Galilee and its surrounding area. ²⁹Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. ³⁰Now Simon’s wife’s mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. ³¹He came and took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them. ³²At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. ³³All the city was gathered together at the door. ³⁴He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He didn’t allow the demons to speak, because they knew him. ³⁵Early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there. ³⁶Simon and those who were with him followed after him; ³⁷and they found him, and told him, “Everyone is looking for you.” ³⁸He said to them, “Let’s go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may preach there also, because I came out for this reason.” ³⁹He went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, preaching and casting out demons. ⁴⁰A leper came to him, begging him, kneeling down to him, and saying to him, “If you want to, you can make me clean.” ⁴¹Being moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, “I want to. Be made clean.” ⁴²When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. ⁴³He strictly warned him, and immediately sent him out, ⁴⁴and said to him, “See you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”⁴⁵ But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to him from everywhere.

2When he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that he was in the house. ²Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the word to them. ³Four people came, carrying a paralytic to him. ⁴When they could not come near to him for the crowd, they removed the roof where he was. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was lying on. ⁵Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.” ⁶But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, ⁷“Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?” ⁸Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you reason these things in your hearts? ⁹Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven;’ or to say, ‘Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?’ ¹⁰But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins” —he said to the paralytic— ¹¹“I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house.” ¹²He arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!” ¹³He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them. ¹⁴As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, “Follow me.” And he arose and followed him. ¹⁵He was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him. ¹⁶The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, “Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?” ¹⁷When Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.” ¹⁸John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don’t fast?” ¹⁹Jesus said to them, “Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can’t fast. ²⁰But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. ²¹No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made. ²²No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins.” ²³He was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain. ²⁴The Pharisees said to him, “Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?” ²⁵He said to them, “Did you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry—he, and those who were with him? ²⁶How he entered into God’s house when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the show bread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?” ²⁷He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

3He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered. ²They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him. ³He said to the man who had his hand withered, “Stand up.” ⁴He said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?” But they were silent. ⁵When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other. ⁶The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. ⁷Jesus withdrew to the sea with his disciples, and a great multitude followed him from Galilee, from Judea, ⁸from Jerusalem, from Idumaea, beyond the Jordan, and those from around Tyre and Sidon. A great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came to him. ⁹He spoke to his disciples that a little boat should stay near him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn’t press on him. ¹⁰For he had healed many, so that as many as had diseases pressed on him that they might touch him. ¹¹The unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, “You are the Son of God!” ¹²He sternly warned them that they should not make him known. ¹³He went up into the mountain, and called to himself those whom he wanted, and they went to him. ¹⁴He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach, ¹⁵and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons: ¹⁶Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter; ¹⁷James the son of Zebedee; John, the brother of James, and he called them Boanerges, which means, Sons of Thunder; ¹⁸Andrew; Philip; Bartholomew; Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddeus; Simon the Zealot; ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. He came into a house. ²⁰The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. ²¹When his friends heard it, they went out to seize him: for they said, “He is insane.”²² The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul,” and, “By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons.”²³ He summoned them, and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan?²⁴ If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.²⁵ If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.²⁶ If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he can’t stand, but has an end.²⁷ But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house.²⁸ Most certainly I tell you, all sins of the descendants of man will be forgiven, including their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme;²⁹ but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is subject to eternal condemnation.”³⁰—because they said, “He has an unclean spirit.”³¹ His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him.³² A multitude was sitting around him, and they told him, “Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters^{vi} are outside looking for you.”³³ He answered them, “Who are my mother and my brothers?”³⁴ Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers!³⁵ For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.”

4 Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea.² He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching,³ “Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow,⁴ and as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds^{vii} came and devoured it.⁵ Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil.⁶ When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.⁷ Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.⁸ Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some produced thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much.”⁹ He said, “Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear.”¹⁰ When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables.¹¹ He said to them, “To you is given the mystery of God’s Kingdom, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables,¹² that ‘seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.’”^{viii}¹³ He said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables?¹⁴ The farmer

sows the word.¹⁵ The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them.¹⁶ These in the same way are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy.¹⁷ They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble.¹⁸ Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word,¹⁹ and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.²⁰ Those which were sown on the good ground are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times.”²¹ He said to them, “Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket^{ix} or under a bed? Isn’t it put on a stand?²² For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light.²³ If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.”²⁴ He said to them, “Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear.²⁵ For whoever has, to him will more be given, and he who doesn’t have, even that which he has will be taken away from him.”²⁶ He said, “God’s Kingdom is as if a man should cast seed on the earth,²⁷ and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he doesn’t know how.²⁸ For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.²⁹ But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”³⁰ He said, “How will we liken God’s Kingdom? Or with what parable will we illustrate it?³¹ It’s like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth,³² yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow.”³³ With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.³⁴ Without a parable he didn’t speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.³⁵ On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, “Let’s go over to the other side.”³⁶ Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him.³⁷ A big wind storm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled.³⁸ He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we are dying?”³⁹ He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” The wind ceased, and there was a great calm.⁴⁰ He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?" ⁴¹They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

⁵They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. ²When he had come out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him out of the tombs. ³He lived in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains, ⁴because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him. ⁵Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. ⁶When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down to him, ⁷and crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me." ⁸For he said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" ⁹He asked him, "What is your name?" He said to him, "My name is Legion, for we are many." ¹⁰He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country. ¹¹Now on the mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding. ¹²All the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them." ¹³At once Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea. ¹⁴Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city and in the country. The people came to see what it was that had happened. ¹⁵They came to Jesus, and saw him who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid. ¹⁶Those who saw it declared to them what happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs. ¹⁷They began to beg him to depart from their region. ¹⁸As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. ¹⁹He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you." ²⁰He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled. ²¹When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea. ²²Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, ²³and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live." ²⁴He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. ²⁵A certain woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, ²⁶and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, ²⁷having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes. ²⁸For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well." ²⁹Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. ³⁰Immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?" ³¹His disciples said to him, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'" ³²He looked around to see her who had done this thing. ³³But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. ³⁴He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease." ³⁵While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?" ³⁶But Jesus, when he heard the message spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe." ³⁷He allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. ³⁸He came to the synagogue ruler's house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. ³⁹When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep." ⁴⁰They ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying. ⁴¹Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha cumi!" which means, being interpreted, "Girl, I tell you, get up!" ⁴²Immediately the girl rose up and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement. ⁴³He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

⁶He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. ²When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands? ³Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judah, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" They were offended at him. ⁴Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house." ⁵He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them. ⁶He marveled because of their unbelief. He went around the villages teaching. ⁷He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. ⁸He commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only:

no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse,⁹ but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics.¹⁰ He said to them, “Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there.¹¹ Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!”¹² They went out and preached that people should repent.¹³ They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them.¹⁴ King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, “John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him.”¹⁵ But others said, “He is Elijah.” Others said, “He is a prophet, or like one of the prophets.”¹⁶ But Herod, when he heard this, said, “This is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead.”¹⁷ For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, for he had married her.¹⁸ For John said to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.”¹⁹ Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn’t,²⁰ for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.²¹ Then a convenient day came, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee.²² When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, “Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you.”²³ He swore to her, “Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom.”²⁴ She went out, and said to her mother, “What shall I ask?” She said, “The head of John the Baptizer.”²⁵ She came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, “I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptizer on a platter.”²⁶ The king was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths, and of his dinner guests, he didn’t wish to refuse her.²⁷ Immediately the king sent out a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring John’s head, and he went and beheaded him in the prison,²⁸ and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young lady gave it to her mother.²⁹ When his disciples heard this, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.³⁰ The apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught.³¹ He said to them, “You come apart into a deserted place, and rest awhile.” For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.³² They went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves.³³ They^x saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him.³⁴ Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.³⁵ When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, “This place is deserted, and it is late in the day.³⁶ Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat.”³⁷ But he answered them, “You give them something to eat.”^{xi} worth of bread, and give them something to eat?”³⁸ He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go see.” When they knew, they said, “Five, and two fish.”³⁹ He commanded them that everyone should sit down in groups on the green grass.⁴⁰ They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties.⁴¹ He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided the two fish among them all.⁴² They all ate, and were filled.⁴³ They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish.⁴⁴ Those who ate the loaves were^{xii} five thousand men.⁴⁵ Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself sent the multitude away.⁴⁶ After he had taken leave of them, he went up the mountain to pray.⁴⁷ When evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he was alone on the land.⁴⁸ Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea,^{xiii} and he would have passed by them,⁴⁹ but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;⁵⁰ for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, “Cheer up! It is I!^{xiv} Don’t be afraid.”⁵¹ He got into the boat with them; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled;⁵² for they hadn’t understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.⁵³ When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.⁵⁴ When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him,⁵⁵ and ran around that whole region, and began to bring those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was.⁵⁶ Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the fringe^{xv} of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

7 Then the Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered together to him, having come from Jerusalem.² Now when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is unwashed, hands, they found fault. ³(For the Pharisees and all the Jews, don't eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the tradition of the elders. ⁴They don't eat when they come from the marketplace unless they bathe themselves, and there are many other things, which they have received to hold to: washings of cups, pitchers, bronze vessels, and couches.) ⁵The Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why don't your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unwashed hands?" ⁶but their heart is far from me. 'This people honors me with their lips, He answered them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, ⁷teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.' ^{xvi} But they worship me in vain, ⁸"For you set aside the commandment of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things." ⁹He said to them, "Full well do you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition. ¹⁰For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother;' ^{xvii} and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.' ^{xviii} ¹¹But you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever profit you might have received from me is Corban ^{xix}, that is to say, given to God";' ¹²then you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother, ¹³making void the word of God by your tradition, which you have handed down. You do many things like this." ¹⁴He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. ¹⁵There is nothing from outside of the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man. ¹⁶If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!" ¹⁷When he had entered into a house away from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable. ¹⁸He said to them, "Are you also without understanding? Don't you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can't defile him, ¹⁹because it doesn't go into his heart, but into his stomach, then into the latrine, thus purifying all foods ^{xx}?" ²⁰He said, "That which proceeds out of the man, that defiles the man. ²¹For from within, out of the hearts of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, ²²covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. ²³All these evil things come from within, and defile the man." ²⁴From there he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and didn't want anyone to know it, but he couldn't escape notice. ²⁵For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. ²⁶Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." ²⁸But she answered him, "Yes, Lord. Yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." ²⁹He said to her, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter." ³⁰She went away to her house, and found the child having been laid on the bed, with the demon gone out. ³¹Again he departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the middle of the region of Decapolis. ³²They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him. ³³He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue. ³⁴Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!" ³⁵Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was released, and he spoke clearly. ³⁶He commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more he commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it. ³⁷They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!"

8In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to himself, and said to them, ²"I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat. ³If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way." ⁴His disciples answered him, "From where could one satisfy these people with bread here in a deserted place?" ⁵He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven." ⁶He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude. ⁷They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also. ⁸They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over. ⁹Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away. ¹⁰Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanutha. ¹¹The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, and testing him. ¹²He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation ^{xxi} seek a sign? Most certainly I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation.” ¹³He left them, and again entering into the boat, departed to the other side. ¹⁴They forgot to take bread; and they didn’t have more than one loaf in the boat with them. ¹⁵He warned them, saying, “Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod.” ¹⁶They reasoned with one another, saying, “It’s because we have no bread.” ¹⁷Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, “Why do you reason that it’s because you have no bread? Don’t you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened? ¹⁸Having eyes, don’t you see? Having ears, don’t you hear? Don’t you remember? ¹⁹When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?” They told him, “Twelve.” ²⁰“When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?” They told him, “Seven.” ²¹He asked them, “Don’t you understand, yet?” ²²He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. ²³He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything. ²⁴He looked up, and said, “I see men; for I see them like trees walking.” ²⁵Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly. ²⁶He sent him away to his house, saying, “Don’t enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village.” ²⁷Jesus went out, with his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, “Who do men say that I am?” ²⁸They told him, “John the Baptizer, and others say Elijah, but others: one of the prophets.” ²⁹He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered, “You are the Christ.” ³⁰He commanded them that they should tell no one about him. ³¹He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. ³²He spoke to them openly. Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. ³³But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men.” ³⁴He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, “Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. ³⁵For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the sake of the Good News will save it. ³⁶For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? ³⁷For what will a man give in exchange for his life? ³⁸For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in his Father’s glory, with the holy angels.”

9He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see God’s Kingdom come with power.” ²After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them. ³His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. ⁴Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵Peter answered Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let’s make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” ⁶For he didn’t know what to say, for they were very afraid. ⁷A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.” ⁸Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except Jesus only. ⁹As they were coming down from the mountain, he commanded them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. ¹⁰They kept this saying to themselves, questioning what the “rising from the dead” meant. ¹¹They asked him, saying, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?” ¹²He said to them, “Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised? ¹³But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him.” ¹⁴Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them. ¹⁵Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. ¹⁶He asked the scribes, “What are you asking them?” ¹⁷One of the multitude answered, “Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit; ¹⁸and wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren’t able.” ¹⁹He answered him, “Unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me.” ²⁰They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth. ²¹He asked his father, “How long has it been since this has come to him?” He said, “From childhood. ²²Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us.” ²³Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.” ²⁴Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, “I believe. Help my unbelief!” ²⁵When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!” ²⁶Having cried out, and convulsed greatly, it came out of him. The boy became like one dead; so much that most of them said, “He is dead.”²⁷ But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.²⁸ When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why couldn’t we cast it out?”²⁹ He said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting.”³⁰ They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn’t want anyone to know it.³¹ For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, “The Son of Man is being handed over to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again.”³² But they didn’t understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.³³ He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?”³⁴ But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.³⁵ He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, “If any man wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all.”³⁶ He took a little child, and set him in the middle of them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them,³⁷ “Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn’t receive me, but him who sent me.”³⁸ John said to him, “Teacher, we saw someone who doesn’t follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn’t follow us.”³⁹ But Jesus said, “Don’t forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me.⁴⁰ For whoever is not against us is on our side.⁴¹ For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ’s, most certainly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward.⁴² Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if he were thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around his neck.⁴³ If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna,^{xxii} into the unquenchable fire,⁴⁴ where their worm doesn’t die, and the fire is not quenched.’^{xxiii} ⁴⁵ If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna,^{xxiv} into the fire that will never be quenched—⁴⁶ where their worm doesn’t die, and the fire is not quenched.’⁴⁷ If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into God’s Kingdom with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna^{xxv} of fire,⁴⁸ where their worm doesn’t die, and the fire is not quenched.’^{xxvi} ⁴⁹ For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.⁵⁰ Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another.”

10 He arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he was again teaching them.² Pharisees came to him testing him, and asked him, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”³ He answered, “What did Moses command you?”⁴ They said, “Moses allowed a certificate of divorce to be written, and to divorce her.”⁵ But Jesus said to them, “For your hardness of heart, he wrote you this commandment.⁶ But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.^{xxvii} ⁷ For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife,⁸ and the two will become one flesh,^{xxviii} so that they are no longer two, but one flesh.⁹ What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate.”¹⁰ In the house, his disciples asked him again about the same matter.¹¹ He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery against her.¹² If a woman herself divorces her husband, and marries another, she commits adultery.”¹³ They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them.¹⁴ But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, “Allow the little children to come to me! Don’t forbid them, for God’s Kingdom belongs to such as these.¹⁵ Most certainly I tell you, whoever will not receive God’s Kingdom like a little child, he will in no way enter into it.”¹⁶ He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.¹⁷ As he was going out into the way, one ran to him, knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?”¹⁸ Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God.¹⁹ You know the commandments: ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not give false testimony,’ ‘Do not defraud,’ ‘Honor your father and mother.’”^{xxix} ²⁰ He said to him, “Teacher, I have observed all these things from my youth.”²¹ Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, “One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross.”²² But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions.²³ Jesus looked around, and said to his disciples, “How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into God’s Kingdom!”²⁴ The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again, “Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into God’s Kingdom!²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter into God’s Kingdom.”

²⁶They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?" ²⁷Jesus, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God." ²⁸Peter began to tell him, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you." ²⁹Jesus said, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News, ³⁰but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life. ³¹But many who are first will be last; and the last first." ³²They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him. ³³"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles. ³⁴They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again." ³⁵James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask." ³⁶He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" ³⁷They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and one at your left hand, in your glory." ³⁸But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" ³⁹They said to him, "We are able." "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with; ⁴⁰but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared." ⁴¹When the ten heard it, they began to be indignant towards James and John. ⁴²Jesus summoned them, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. ⁴³But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant. ⁴⁴Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be bondservant of all. ⁴⁵For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." ⁴⁶They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. ⁴⁷When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out much more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁹Jesus stood still, and said, "Call him." They called the blind man, saying to him, "Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you!" ⁵⁰He, casting away his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. ⁵¹Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" ^{xxx} that I may see again." ⁵²Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus on the way.

11 When they came near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage ^{xxxi} and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, ²and said to them, "Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him. ³If anyone asks you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs him;' and immediately he will send him back here." ⁴They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him. ⁵Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the young donkey?" ⁶They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go. ⁷They brought the young donkey to Jesus, and threw their garments on it, and Jesus sat on it. ⁸Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and spreading them on the road. ⁹Those who went in front, and those who followed, cried out, "Hosanna! ^{xxxii} Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! ^{xxxiii} ¹⁰Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" ¹¹Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve. ¹²The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. ¹³Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴Jesus told it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" and his disciples heard it. ¹⁵They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves. ¹⁶He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. ¹⁷He taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?' ^{xxxiv} But you have made it a den of robbers!" ^{xxxv} ¹⁸The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching. ¹⁹When evening came, he went out of the city. ²⁰As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. ²¹Peter, remembering, said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away.” ²²Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. ²³For most certainly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ and doesn’t doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening; he shall have whatever he says. ²⁴Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received them, and you shall have them. ²⁵Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions. ²⁶But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions.” ²⁷They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him, ²⁸and they began saying to him, “By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?” ²⁹Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰The baptism of John—was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me.” ³¹They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we should say, ‘From heaven;’ he will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ ³²If we should say, ‘From men’”—they feared the people, for all held John to really be a prophet. ³³They answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

12He began to speak to them in parables. “A man planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the wine press, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country. ²When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard. ³They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty. ⁴Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. ⁵Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some. ⁶Therefore still having one, his beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ ⁷But those farmers said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.’ ⁸They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. ⁹What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰the same was made the head of the corner. ‘The stone which the builders rejected, Haven’t you even read this Scripture: ¹¹it is marvelous in our eyes?’” ^{xxxvi} This was from the Lord, ¹²They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away. ¹³They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words. ¹⁴When they had come, they asked him, “Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don’t defer to anyone; for you aren’t partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? ¹⁵Shall we give, or shall we not give?” “Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it.” ¹⁶They brought it. “Whose is this image and inscription?” They said to him, “Caesar’s.” ¹⁷Jesus answered them, “Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” They marveled greatly at him. ¹⁸There came to him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying, ¹⁹“Teacher, Moses wrote to us, ‘If a man’s brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.’ ²⁰There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no offspring. ²¹The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise; ²²and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died. ²³In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife.” ²⁴Jesus answered them, “Isn’t this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God? ²⁵For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ²⁶But about the dead, that they are raised; haven’t you read in the book of Moses, about the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’ ^{xxxvii} ? ²⁷He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken.” ²⁸One of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, “Which commandment is the greatest of all?” ²⁹Jesus answered, “The greatest is, ‘Hear, Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one: ³⁰you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ ^{xxxviii} This is the first commandment. ³¹The second is like this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ ^{xxxix} There is no other commandment greater than these.” ³²The scribe said to him, “Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he, ³³and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.” ³⁴When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from God’s Kingdom.” No one dared ask him any question after that. ³⁵Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple, “How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David? ³⁶“Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.”^{x1} ‘The Lord said to my Lord, For David himself said in the Holy Spirit,³⁷ Therefore David himself calls him Lord, so how can he be his son?’ The common people heard him gladly.³⁸ In his teaching he said to them, ‘Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces,³⁹ and the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts:⁴⁰ those who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation.’⁴¹ Jesus sat down opposite the treasury, and saw how the multitude cast money into the treasury. Many who were rich cast in much.⁴² A poor widow came, and she cast in two small brass coins,^{xli} which equal a quadrans coin.^{xlii}⁴³ He called his disciples to himself, and said to them, ‘Most certainly I tell you, this poor widow gave more than all those who are giving into the treasury,⁴⁴ for they all gave out of their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, gave all that she had to live on.’

13 As he went out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, ‘Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!’² Jesus said to him, ‘Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down.’³ As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,⁴ ‘Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be fulfilled?’⁵ Jesus, answering, began to tell them, ‘Be careful that no one leads you astray.⁶ For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he!’^{xliii} and will lead many astray.⁷ ‘When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don’t be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet.⁸ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains.⁹ But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them.¹⁰ The Good News must first be preached to all the nations.¹¹ When they lead you away and deliver you up, don’t be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.¹² ‘Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.¹³ You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.¹⁴ But when you see the abomination of desolation,^{xliv} spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains,¹⁵ and let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house.¹⁶ Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak.¹⁷ But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babies in those days!¹⁸ Pray that your flight won’t be in the winter.¹⁹ For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be.²⁰ Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen ones, whom he picked out, he shortened the days.²¹ Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ don’t believe it.²² For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.²³ But you watch. ‘Behold, I have told you all things beforehand.²⁴ But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light,²⁵ the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.^{xlv}²⁶ Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.²⁷ Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.²⁸ ‘Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and produces its leaves, you know that the summer is near;²⁹ even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors.³⁰ Most certainly I say to you, this generation^{xlvi} will not pass away until all these things happen.³¹ Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.³² But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.³³ Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don’t know when the time is.³⁴ ‘It is like a man, traveling to another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch.³⁵ Watch therefore, for you don’t know when the lord of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning;³⁶ lest coming suddenly he might find you sleeping.³⁷ What I tell you, I tell all: Watch.’

14 It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by deception, and kill him. ²For they said, “Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people.” ³While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard—very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head. ⁴But there were some who were indignant among themselves, saying, “Why has this ointment been wasted? ⁵For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, ^{xlvii} and given to the poor.” They grumbled against her. ⁶But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me. ⁷For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me. ⁸She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying. ⁹Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her.” ¹⁰Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them. ¹¹They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him. ¹²On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go and prepare that you may eat the Passover?” ¹³He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, “Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, ¹⁴and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?”’ ¹⁵He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Get ready for us there.” ¹⁶His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover. ¹⁷When it was evening he came with the twelve. ¹⁸As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, “Most certainly I tell you, one of you will betray me—he who eats with me.” ¹⁹They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, “Surely not I?” And another said, “Surely not I?” ²⁰He answered them, “It is one of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish. ²¹For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born.” ²²As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, “Take, eat. This is my body.” ²³He took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them. They all drank of it. ²⁴He said to them, “This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many. ²⁵Most certainly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in God’s Kingdom.” ²⁶When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ²⁷Jesus said to them, “All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, ‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’ ^{xlviii} ²⁸However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee.” ²⁹But Peter said to him, “Although all will be offended, yet I will not.” ³⁰Jesus said to him, “Most certainly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times.” ³¹But he spoke all the more, “If I must die with you, I will not deny you.” They all said the same thing. ³²They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, “Sit here, while I pray.” ³³He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. ³⁴He said to them, “My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch.” ³⁵He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. ³⁶He said, “Abba, ³⁷He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn’t you watch one hour? ³⁸Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.” ³⁹Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. ⁴⁰Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn’t know what to answer him. ⁴¹He came the third time, and said to them, “Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand.” ⁴³Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came—and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. ⁴⁴Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely.” ⁴⁵When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, “Rabbi! Rabbi!” and kissed him. ⁴⁶They laid their hands on him, and seized him. ⁴⁷But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. ⁴⁸Jesus answered them, “Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me? ⁴⁹I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn’t arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled.” ⁵⁰They all left him, and fled. ⁵¹A certain young man followed him, having a linen cloth thrown around himself, over his naked body. The young men grabbed him, ⁵²but he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. ⁵³They led Jesus away to the high priest. All the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes came together with him. ⁵⁴Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire. ⁵⁵Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none. ⁵⁶For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony didn't agree with each other. ⁵⁷Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying, ⁵⁸"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" ⁵⁹Even so, their testimony did not agree. ⁶⁰The high priest stood up in the middle, and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?" ⁶¹But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?" ⁶²Jesus said, "I am. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky." ⁶³The high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses? ⁶⁴You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death. ⁶⁵Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, "Prophecy!" The officers struck him with the palms of their hands. ⁶⁶As Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the maids of the high priest came, ⁶⁷and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus!" ⁶⁸But he denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." He went out on the porch, and the rooster crowed. ⁶⁹The maid saw him, and began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them." ⁷⁰But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it." ⁷¹But he began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this man of whom you speak!" ⁷²The rooster crowed the second time. Peter remembered the word, how that Jesus said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about that, he wept.

15Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. ²Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" "So you say." ³The chief priests accused him of many things. ⁴Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!" ⁵But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled. ⁶Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of him. ⁷There was one called Barabbas, bound with his fellow insurgents, men who in the insurrection had committed murder. ⁸The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them. ⁹Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" ¹⁰For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. ¹¹But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should release Barabbas to them instead. ¹²Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?" ¹³They cried out again, "Crucify him!" ¹⁴Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify him!" ¹⁵Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and handed over Jesus, when he had flogged him, to be crucified. ¹⁶The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort. ¹⁷They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him. ¹⁸They began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" ¹⁹They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him. ²⁰When they had mocked him, they took the purple off of him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him. ²¹They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross. ²²They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull." ²³They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't take it. ²⁴Crucifying him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots on them, what each should take. ²⁵It was the third hour, ^{xlix} and they crucified him. ²⁶The superscription of his accusation was written over him, "THE KING OF THE JEWS." ²⁷With him they crucified two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left. ²⁸The Scripture was fulfilled, which says, "He was numbered with transgressors." ¹ ²⁹Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, ³⁰save yourself, and come down from the cross!" ³¹Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself. ³²Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him." ^{li} Those who were crucified with him also insulted him. ³³When the sixth hour ^{lii} had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. ^{liii} ³⁴At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" ^{liv} ³⁵Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he is calling Elijah." ³⁶One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to take him down." ³⁷Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. ³⁸The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. ³⁹When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God!”⁴⁰ There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome; ⁴¹who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem. ⁴²When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, ⁴³Joseph of Arimathaea, a prominent council member who also himself was looking for God’s Kingdom, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus’ body. ⁴⁴Pilate marveled if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead long. ⁴⁵When he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. ⁴⁷Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joses, saw where he was laid.

16When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. ²Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. ³They were saying among themselves, “Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?” ⁴for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back. ⁵Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed. ⁶He said to them, “Don’t be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they laid him! ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter, ‘He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you.’” ⁸They went out, ^{lv} and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid. ^{9lvi} Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. ¹¹When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved. ¹²After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. ¹³They went away and told it to the rest. They didn’t believe them, either. ¹⁴Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn’t believe those who had seen him after he had risen. ¹⁵He said to them, “Go into all the world, and preach the Good News to the whole creation. ¹⁶He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned. ¹⁷These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; ¹⁸they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.” ¹⁹So then the Lord, ^{lvii} after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. ²⁰They went out, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

1Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us, ²even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, ³it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; ⁴that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed. ⁵There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. ⁶They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. ⁷But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. ⁸Now while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division, ⁹according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense. ¹¹An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. ¹²Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. ¹³But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. ¹⁴You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord, their God. ¹⁷He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to prepare a people prepared for the Lord." ¹⁸Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years." ¹⁹The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. ²⁰Behold, ⁱ you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time." ²¹The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled that he delayed in the temple. ²²When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute. ²³When the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house. ²⁴After these days Elizabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying, ²⁵"Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men." ²⁶Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, ²⁷to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of David's house. The virgin's name was Mary. ²⁸Having come in, the angel said to her, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women!" ²⁹But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. ³⁰The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. ³¹Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and give birth to a son, and will call his name 'Jesus.' ³²He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David, ³³and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to his Kingdom." ³⁴Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, seeing I am a virgin?" ³⁵The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God. ³⁶Behold, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. ³⁷For nothing spoken by God is impossible." ⁱⁱ ³⁸Mary said, "Behold, the servant of the Lord; let it be done to me according to your word." The angel departed from her. ³⁹Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah, ⁴⁰and entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

ⁱⁱLuke 1:37 or, "For everything spoken by God is possible."

⁴²She called out with a loud voice, and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! ⁴³Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? ⁴⁴For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy! ⁴⁵Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!” ⁴⁶“My soul magnifies the Lord. Mary said, ⁴⁷My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, ⁴⁸for he has looked at the humble state of his servant. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed. ⁴⁹For he who is mighty has done great things for me. Holy is his name. ⁵⁰His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him. ⁵¹He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He has shown strength with his arm. ⁵²And has exalted the lowly. He has put down princes from their thrones. ⁵³He has sent the rich away empty. He has filled the hungry with good things. ⁵⁴He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy, ⁵⁵As he spoke to our fathers, ⁱⁱⁱ forever.” ⁵⁶Mary stayed with her about three months, and then returned to her house. ⁵⁷Now the time that Elizabeth should give birth was fulfilled, and she gave birth to a son. ⁵⁸Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her, and they rejoiced with her. ⁵⁹On the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of the father. ⁶⁰His mother answered, “Not so; but he will be called John.” ⁶¹They said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.” ⁶²They made signs to his father, what he would have him called. ⁶³He asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, “His name is John.” They all marveled. ⁶⁴His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God. ⁶⁵Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. ⁶⁶All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, “What then will this child be?” The hand of the Lord was with him. ⁶⁷His father, Zacharias, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, ⁶⁸for he has visited and redeemed his people; “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, ⁶⁹and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David ⁷⁰(as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets who have been from of old), ⁷¹salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us; ⁷²to remember his holy covenant, to show mercy towards our fathers, ⁷³the oath which he spoke to Abraham, our father, ⁷⁴to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear, ⁷⁵In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life. ⁷⁶for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, ⁷⁷to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins, ⁷⁸whereby the dawn from on high will visit us, because of the tender mercy of our God, ⁷⁹to shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death; to guide our feet into the way of peace.” ⁸⁰The child was growing, and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

2Now in those days, a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. ²This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city. ⁴Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to David’s city, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David; ⁵to enroll himself with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him as wife, being pregnant. ⁶While they were there, the day had come for her to give birth. ⁷She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn. ⁸There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. ⁹Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰The angel said to them, “Don’t be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. ¹¹For there is born to you today, in David’s city, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. ¹²This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough.” ¹³Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army praising God, and saying, ¹⁴on earth peace, good will toward men.” “Glory to God in the highest, ¹⁵When the angels went away from them into the sky, the shepherds said to one another, “Let’s go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us.” ¹⁶They came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby was lying in the feeding trough. ¹⁷When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child. ¹⁸All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds. ¹⁹But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them. ²¹When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, his name was called Jesus, which was given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb. ²²When the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord ²³(as it is written in the law of the Lord, “Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord”), ^{iv} ²⁴and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, “A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.” ^v ²⁵Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. ²⁶It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Christ. ^{vi} ²⁷He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law, ²⁸then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, ²⁹according to your word, in peace; “Now you are releasing your servant, Master, ³⁰for my eyes have seen your salvation, ³¹which you have prepared before the face of all peoples; ³²and the glory of your people Israel.” a light for revelation to the nations, ³³Joseph and his mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning him, ³⁴and Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother, “Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which is spoken against. ³⁵Yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” ³⁶There was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, ³⁷and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn’t depart from the temple, worshiping with fastings and petitions night and day. ³⁸Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem. ³⁹When they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. ⁴⁰The child was growing, and was becoming strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him. ⁴¹His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover. ⁴²When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast, ⁴³and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn’t know it, ⁴⁴but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day’s journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. ⁴⁵When they didn’t find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him. ⁴⁶After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the middle of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions. ⁴⁷All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, “Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you.” ⁴⁹He said to them, “Why were you looking for me? Didn’t you know that I must be in my Father’s house?” ⁵⁰They didn’t understand the saying which he spoke to them. ⁵¹And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. ⁵²And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

3Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, ²in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness. ³He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for remission of sins. ⁴Make ready the way of the Lord. “The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make his paths straight. As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, ⁵Every valley will be filled. The crooked will become straight, and the rough ways smooth. Every mountain and hill will be brought low. ⁶All flesh will see God’s salvation.” ^{vii} ⁷He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be baptized by him, “You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance, and don’t begin to say among yourselves, ‘We have Abraham for our father;’ for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones! ⁹Even now the ax also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn’t produce good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.” ¹⁰The multitudes asked him, “What then must we do?” ¹¹He answered them, “He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise.” ¹²Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what must we do?” ¹³He said to them, “Collect no more than that which is appointed to you.” ¹⁴Soldiers also asked him, saying, “What about us? What must we do?” He said to them, “Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages.” ¹⁵As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Christ, ¹⁶John answered them all, “I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire, ¹⁷whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.” ¹⁸Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people, ¹⁹but Herod the tetrarch, ^{viii} being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother’s ^{ix} wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, ²⁰added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison. ²¹Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus also had been baptized, and was praying. The sky was opened, ²²and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form like a dove on him; and a voice came out of the sky, saying “You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased.” ²³Jesus himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, ²⁴the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, ²⁵the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, ²⁶the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah, ²⁷the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, ²⁸the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er, ²⁹the son of Jose, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, ³⁰the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim, ³¹the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, ³²the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, ³³the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram, ^x the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, ³⁴the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, ³⁵the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, ³⁶the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, ³⁷the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel, the son of Cainan, ³⁸the son of Enos, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

⁴Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness ²for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry. ³The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.” ⁴Jesus answered him, saying, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.’” ^{xi} ⁵The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶The devil said to him, “I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want. ⁷If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours.” ⁸Jesus answered him, “Get behind me Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.’” ^{xii} ⁹He led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him,

“If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here, ¹⁰‘He will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you;’ for it is written, ^{11xiii} ‘On their hands they will bear you up, and, ¹²Jesus answering, said to him, “It has been said, ‘You shall not tempt the Lord your God.’” ^{xiv} ¹³When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until another time. ¹⁴Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area. ¹⁵He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all. ¹⁶He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. ¹⁷The book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written, ¹⁸because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. to proclaim release to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, to deliver those who are crushed, “The Spirit of the Lord is on me, He has sent me to heal the broken hearted, ^{xv} ¹⁹and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.” ^{xvi} ²⁰He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. ²¹He began to tell them, “Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.” ²²All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?” ²³He said to them, “Doubtless you will tell me this parable, ‘Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.’” ²⁴He said, “Most certainly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. ²⁵But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. ²⁶Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. ²⁷There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian.” ²⁸They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. ²⁹They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff. ³⁰But he, passing through the middle of them, went his way. ³¹He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, ³²and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority. ³³In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴saying, “Ah! what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!” ³⁵Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silent, and come out of him!” When the demon had thrown him down in the middle of them, he came out of him, having done him no harm. ³⁶Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, “What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!” ³⁷News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region. ³⁸He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon’s house. Simon’s mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her. ³⁹He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. ⁴⁰When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. ⁴¹Demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, “You are the Christ, the Son of God!” Rebuking them, he didn’t allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ. ⁴²When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn’t go away from them. ⁴³But he said to them, “I must preach the good news of God’s Kingdom to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent.” ⁴⁴He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

5Now while the multitude pressed on him and heard the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret. ²He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. ³He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. ⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch.” ⁵Simon answered him, “Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net.” ⁶When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking. ⁷They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord.” ⁹For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; ¹⁰and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. “Don’t be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive.” ¹¹When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. ¹²While he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, “Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean.” ¹³He stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, “I want to. Be made clean.” Immediately the leprosy left him. ¹⁴He commanded him to tell no one, “But go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.” ¹⁵But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. ¹⁶But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed. ¹⁷On one of those days, he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal them. ¹⁸Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before Jesus. ¹⁹Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the middle before Jesus. ²⁰Seeing their faith, he said to him, “Man, your sins are forgiven you.” ²¹The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, “Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?” ²²But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, “Why are you reasoning so in your hearts? ²³Which is easier to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you;’ or to say, ‘Arise and walk?’ ²⁴But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins” (he said to the paralyzed man), “I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house.” ²⁵Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God. ²⁶Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, “We have seen strange things today.” ²⁷After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, “Follow me!” ²⁸He left everything, and rose up and followed him. ²⁹Levi made a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. ³⁰Their scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, “Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?” ³¹Jesus answered them, “Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. ³²I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.” ³³They said to him, “Why do John’s disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?” ³⁴He said to them, “Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? ³⁵But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days.” ³⁶He also told a parable to them. “No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old. ³⁷No one puts new wine into old wine skins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. ³⁸But new wine must be put into fresh wine skins, and both are preserved. ³⁹No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, ‘The old is better.’”

6 Now on the second Sabbath after the first, he was going through the grain fields. His disciples plucked the heads of grain and ate, rubbing them in their hands. ²But some of the Pharisees said to them, “Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?” ³Jesus, answering them, said, “Haven’t you read what David did when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him; ⁴how he entered into God’s house, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?” ⁵He said to them, “The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath.” ⁶It also happened on another Sabbath that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered. ⁷The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him. ⁸But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Rise up, and stand in the middle.” He arose and stood. ⁹Then Jesus said to them, “I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?” ¹⁰He looked around at them all, and said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other. ¹¹But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Jesus. ¹²In these days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God. ¹³When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles: ¹⁴Simon, whom he also named Peter; Andrew, his brother; James; John; Philip; Bartholomew; ¹⁵Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Simon, who was called the Zealot; ¹⁶Judas the son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor. ¹⁷He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; ¹⁸as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed. ¹⁹All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came out of him and healed them all. ²⁰God’s Kingdom is yours. “Blessed are you who are poor, He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said, ²¹for you will be filled. for you will laugh. Blessed are you who hunger now, Blessed are you who weep now, ²²Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man’s sake. ²³Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets. ²⁴For you have received your consolation. “But woe to you who are rich! ²⁵for you will be hungry. for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you, you who are full now, Woe to you who laugh now, ²⁶for their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets. Woe, ^{xvii} when ^{xviii} men speak well of you, ²⁷“But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you. ²⁹To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, don’t withhold your coat also. ³⁰Give to everyone who asks you, and don’t ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again. ³¹“As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them. ³²If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. ³³If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. ³⁴If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much. ³⁵But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil. ³⁶even as your Father is also merciful. “Therefore be merciful, ³⁷and you won’t be judged. and you won’t be condemned. and you will be set free. Don’t judge, Don’t condemn, Set free, ³⁸“Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you. ^{xix} For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you.” ³⁹He spoke a parable to them. “Can the blind guide the blind? Won’t they both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. ⁴¹Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother’s eye, but don’t consider the beam that is in your own eye? ⁴²Or how can you tell your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,’ when you yourself don’t see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother’s eye. ⁴³For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that produces good fruit. ⁴⁴For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don’t gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. ⁴⁵The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings out that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks. ⁴⁶“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and don’t do the things which I say? ⁴⁷Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like. ⁴⁸He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock. ⁴⁹But he who hears, and doesn't do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

7After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. ²A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. ³When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant. ⁴When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him, ⁵for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us." ⁶Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. ⁷Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁸For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." ⁹When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel." ¹⁰Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well. ¹¹Soon afterwards, he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples, along with a great multitude, went with him. ¹²Now when he came near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her. ¹³When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Don't cry." ¹⁴He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" ¹⁵He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother. ¹⁶Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited his people!" ¹⁷This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region. ¹⁸The disciples of John told him about all these things. ¹⁹John, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?" ²⁰When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?'" ²¹In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight. ²²Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. ²³Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me." ²⁴When John's messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ²⁵But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. ²⁶But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. ²⁷who will prepare your way before you.' ^{xx} 'Behold, I send my messenger before your face, This is he of whom it is written, ²⁸"For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptizer, yet he who is least in God's Kingdom is greater than he." ²⁹When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been baptized with John's baptism. ³⁰But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by him themselves. ^{31xxi} "To what then will I liken the people of this generation? What are they like? ³²They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call to one another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.' ³³For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' ³⁴The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' ³⁵Wisdom is justified by all her children." ³⁶One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat at the table. ³⁷Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of ointment. ³⁸Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. ³⁹Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner." ⁴⁰Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." He said, "Teacher, say on." ⁴¹"A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. ⁴²When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?" ⁴³Simon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most." "You have judged correctly." ⁴⁴Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. ⁴⁵You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet. ⁴⁶You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. ⁴⁷Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.”⁴⁸ He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”⁴⁹ Those who sat at the table with him began to say to themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”⁵⁰ He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace.”

8 Soon afterwards, he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of God’s Kingdom. With him were the twelve,² and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;³ and Joanna, the wife of Chuzas, Herod’s steward; Susanna; and many others; who served them^{xxii} from their possessions.⁴ When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable.⁵ “The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.⁶ Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.⁷ Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.⁸ Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and produced one hundred times as much fruit.” As he said these things, he called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”⁹ Then his disciples asked him, “What does this parable mean?”¹⁰ He said, “To you it is given to know the mysteries of God’s Kingdom, but to the rest in parables; that ‘seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.’^{xxiii}¹¹ Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.¹² Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved.¹³ Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation.¹⁴ That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.¹⁵ That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and produces fruit with patience.¹⁶ “No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light.¹⁷ For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light.¹⁸ Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn’t have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has.”¹⁹ His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd.²⁰ Some people told him, “Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you.”²¹ But he answered them, “My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it.”²² Now on one of those days, he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, “Let’s go over to the other side of the lake.” So they launched out.²³ But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water.²⁴ They came to him, and awoke him, saying, “Master, master, we are dying!” He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm.^{xxiv}²⁵ He said to them, “Where is your faith?” Being afraid they marveled, saying to one another, “Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?”²⁶ They arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.²⁷ When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and didn’t live in a house, but in the tombs.²⁸ When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, “What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don’t torment me!”²⁹ For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.³⁰ Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” He said, “Legion,” for many demons had entered into him.³¹ They begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss.³² Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them.³³ The demons came out of the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned.³⁴ When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.³⁵ People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus’ feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid.³⁶ Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed.³⁷ All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned.³⁸ But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,³⁹ “Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you.” He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.⁴⁰ When Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.⁴¹ Behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus’ feet, and begged him to come into his house,⁴² for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. ⁴³A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any, ⁴⁴came behind him, and touched the fringe ^{xxv} of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped. ⁴⁵Jesus said, “Who touched me?” “Who touched me?” ⁴⁶But Jesus said, “Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me.” ⁴⁷When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. ⁴⁸He said to her, “Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace.” ⁴⁹While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue’s house came, saying to him, “Your daughter is dead. Don’t trouble the Teacher.” ⁵⁰But Jesus hearing it, answered him, “Don’t be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed.” ⁵¹When he came to the house, he didn’t allow anyone to enter in, except Peter, John, James, the father of the child, and her mother. ⁵²All were weeping and mourning her, but he said, “Don’t weep. She isn’t dead, but sleeping.” ⁵³They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead. ⁵⁴But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, “Child, arise!” ⁵⁵Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat. ⁵⁶Her parents were amazed, but he commanded them to tell no one what had been done.

9He called the twelve ^{xxvi} together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. ²He sent them out to preach God’s Kingdom and to heal the sick. ³He said to them, “Take nothing for your journey—neither staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece. ⁴Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there. ⁵As many as don’t receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them.” ⁶They departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the Good News, and healing everywhere. ⁷Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, ⁸and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. ⁹Herod said, “John I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?” He sought to see him. ¹⁰The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done. He took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place of a city called Bethsaida. ¹¹But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of God’s Kingdom, and he cured those who needed healing. ¹²The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to him, “Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a deserted place.” ¹³But he said to them, “You give them something to eat.” They said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people.” ¹⁴For they were about five thousand men. “Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each.” ¹⁵They did so, and made them all sit down. ¹⁶He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. ¹⁷They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over. ¹⁸As he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he asked them, “Who do the multitudes say that I am?” ¹⁹They answered, “‘John the Baptizer,’ but others say, ‘Elijah,’ and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again.” ²⁰He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered, “The Christ of God.” ²¹But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, ²²saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.” ²³He said to all, “If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, ^{xxvii} and follow me. ²⁴For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. ²⁵For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? ²⁶For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. ²⁷But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see God’s Kingdom.” ²⁸About eight days after these sayings, he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray. ²⁹As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. ³⁰Behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, ³¹who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure, ^{xxviii} which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. ³²Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. ³³As they were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let’s make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah,” not knowing what he said. ³⁴While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. ³⁵A voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!” ³⁶When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen. ³⁷On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great multitude met him. ³⁸Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. ³⁹Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. ⁴⁰I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't." ⁴¹Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." ⁴²While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. ⁴³They were all astonished at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁴"Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men." ⁴⁵But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying. ⁴⁶There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. ⁴⁷Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, ⁴⁸and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great." ⁴⁹John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow with us." ⁵⁰Jesus said to him, "Don't forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us." ⁵¹It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem, ⁵²and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him. ⁵³They didn't receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem. ⁵⁴When his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Elijah did?" ⁵⁵But he turned and rebuked them, "You don't know of what kind of spirit you are. ⁵⁶For the Son of Man didn't come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." They went to another village. ⁵⁷As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, "I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord." ⁵⁸Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head." ⁵⁹He said to another, "Follow me!" But he said, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father." ⁶⁰But Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce God's Kingdom." ⁶¹Another also said, "I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to say good-bye to those who are at my house." ⁶²But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for God's Kingdom."

¹⁰Now after these things, the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of him ^{xxix}into every city and place, where he was about to come. ²Then he said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest. ³Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. ⁴Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. ⁵Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' ⁶If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. ⁷Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don't go from house to house. ⁸Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. ⁹Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, 'God's Kingdom has come near to you.' ¹⁰But into whatever city you enter, and they don't receive you, go out into its streets and say, ¹¹'Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that God's Kingdom has come near to you.' ¹²I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city. ¹³"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. ¹⁵You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades. ^{xxx} ¹⁶Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me." ¹⁷The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" ¹⁸He said to them, "I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven. ¹⁹Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you. ²⁰Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." ²¹In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight." ²²Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal him." ²³Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see, ²⁴for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them."

²⁵Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" ²⁶He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" ²⁷He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; ^{xxx}ⁱ and your neighbor as yourself." ^{xxxii} ²⁸He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live." ²⁹But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" ³⁰Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. ³¹By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³²In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion, ³⁴came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. ³⁵On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.' ³⁶Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?" ³⁷He said, "He who showed mercy on him." "Go and do likewise." ³⁸As they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. ³⁹She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me." ⁴¹Jesus answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, ⁴²but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."

11When he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples." ²may your name be kept holy. May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. 'Our Father in heaven, May your Kingdom come. He said to them, "When you pray, say, ³Give us day by day our daily bread. ⁴for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. but deliver us from the evil one.'" Forgive us our sins, Bring us not into temptation, ⁵He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁶for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,' ⁷and he from within will answer and say, 'Don't bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can't get up and give it to you'?" ⁸I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs. ⁹"I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened. ¹¹"Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? ¹²Or if he asks for an egg, he won't give him a scorpion, will he? ¹³If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" ¹⁴He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled. ¹⁵But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons." ¹⁶Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven. ¹⁷But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls. ¹⁸If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. ¹⁹But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges. ²⁰But if I by God's finger cast out demons, then God's Kingdom has come to you. ²¹"When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe. ²²But when someone stronger attacks him and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he trusted, and divides his plunder. ²³"He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn't gather with me scatters. ²⁴The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, 'I will turn back to my house from which I came out.' ²⁵When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order. ²⁶Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first." ²⁷It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!" ²⁸But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it." ²⁹When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet. ³⁰For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation. ³¹The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one greater than Solomon is here. ³²The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here. ³³“No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light. ³⁴The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. ³⁵Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn’t darkness. ³⁶If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light.” ³⁷Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in, and sat at the table. ³⁸When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner. ³⁹The Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. ⁴⁰You foolish ones, didn’t he who made the outside make the inside also? ⁴¹But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you. ⁴²But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. ⁴³Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces. ⁴⁴Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them don’t know it.” ⁴⁵One of the lawyers answered him, “Teacher, in saying this you insult us also.” ⁴⁶He said, “Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won’t even lift one finger to help carry those burdens. ⁴⁷Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. ⁴⁸So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs. ⁴⁹Therefore also the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute, ⁵⁰that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; ⁵¹from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.’ Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. ⁵²Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn’t enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered.” ⁵³As he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him; ⁵⁴lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.

12Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ²But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known. ³Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops. ⁴“I tell you, my friends, don’t be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. ⁵But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear him, who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. ^{xxxiii} Yes, I tell you, fear him. ⁶“Aren’t five sparrows sold for two assaria coins ^{xxxiv} ? Not one of them is forgotten by God. ⁷But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore don’t be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows. ⁸“I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God; ⁹but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God. ¹⁰Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. ¹¹When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don’t be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say; ¹²for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say.” ¹³One of the multitude said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.” ¹⁴But he said to him, “Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?” ¹⁵He said to them, “Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man’s life doesn’t consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses.” ¹⁶He spoke a parable to them, saying, “The ground of a certain rich man produced abundantly. ¹⁷He reasoned within himself, saying, ‘What will I do, because I don’t have room to store my crops?’ ¹⁸He said, ‘This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹I will tell my soul, ‘Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.’” ²⁰“But God said to him, ‘You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?’ ²¹So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.” ²²He said to his disciples, “Therefore I tell you, don’t be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. ²³Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. ²⁴Consider the ravens: they don’t sow, they don’t reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds! ²⁵Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit ²⁶If then you aren’t able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest? ²⁷Consider

the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ²⁸But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith? ²⁹Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious. ³⁰For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things. ³¹But seek God's Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you. ³²Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. ³³Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. ³⁵Let your waist be dressed and your lamps burning. ³⁶Be like men watching for their lord, when he returns from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him. ³⁷Blessed are those servants, whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Most certainly I tell you, that he will dress himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them. ³⁸They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so. ³⁹But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁰Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him." ⁴¹Peter said to him, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?" ⁴²The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times? ⁴³Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes. ⁴⁴Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has. ⁴⁵But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken, ⁴⁶then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful. ⁴⁷That servant, who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, ⁴⁸but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked. ⁴⁹"I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled. ⁵⁰But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! ⁵¹Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. ⁵²For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. ⁵³They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law." ^{xxxv} ⁵⁴He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens. ⁵⁵When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens. ⁵⁶You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time? ⁵⁷Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸For when you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be released from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. ⁵⁹I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last penny. ^{xxxvi} "

13Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ²Jesus answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? ³I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way. ⁴Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem? ⁵I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way." ⁶He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none. ⁷He said to the vine dresser, 'Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?' ⁸He answered, 'Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it. ⁹If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.'" ¹⁰He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day. ¹¹Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up. ¹²When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." ¹³He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God. ¹⁴The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!" ¹⁵Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water? ¹⁶Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?" ¹⁷As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. ¹⁸He said, "What is God's Kingdom like? To what shall I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky live in its branches." ²⁰Again he said, "To what shall I compare God's Kingdom? ²¹It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures ^{xxxvii} of flour, until it was all leavened." ²²He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem. ²³One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?" He said to them, ²⁴"Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. ²⁵When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' ²⁶Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' ²⁷He will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.' ²⁸There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets, in God's Kingdom, and yourselves being thrown outside. ²⁹They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in God's Kingdom. ³⁰Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last." ³¹On that same day, some Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out of here, and go away, for Herod wants to kill you." ³²He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission. ³³Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can't be that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem.' ³⁴'Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused! ³⁵Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'" ^{xxxviii}

14When he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, they were watching him. ²Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. ³Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

⁴But they were silent. He took him, and healed him, and let him go. ⁵He answered them, "Which of you, if your son ^{xxxix} or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?" ⁶They couldn't answer him regarding these things. ⁷He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, ⁸"When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, ⁹and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, 'Make room for this person.' Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. ¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." ¹²He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. ¹³But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind; ¹⁴and you will be blessed, because they don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous." ¹⁵When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will feast in God's Kingdom!" ¹⁶But he said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people. ¹⁷He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is ready now.' ¹⁸They all as one began to make excuses. "The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.' ¹⁹"Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.' ²⁰"Another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I can't come.' ²¹"That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.' ²²"The servant said, 'Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.' ²³"The lord said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. ²⁴For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'" ²⁵Now great multitudes were going with him. He turned and said to them, ²⁶"If anyone comes to me, and doesn't disregard ^{xl} his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can't be my disciple. ²⁷Whoever doesn't bear his own cross, and come after me, can't be my disciple. ²⁸For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? ²⁹Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, ³⁰saying, 'This man began to build, and wasn't able to finish.' ³¹Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? ³²Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace. ³³So therefore whoever of you who doesn't renounce all that he has, he can't be my disciple. ³⁴Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it? ³⁵It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. ²¹The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' ²²"But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. ²³Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate; ²⁴for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' They began to celebrate. ²⁵"Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. ²⁷He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.' ²⁸But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him. ²⁹But he answered his father, 'Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. ³⁰But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.' ³¹"He said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. ³²But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.'"

16He also said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. ²He called him, and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.' ³"The manager said within himself, 'What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. ⁴I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.' ⁵Calling each one of his lord's debtors to him, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my lord?' ⁶He said, 'A hundred batos' ⁷Then he said to another, 'How much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred cors' ⁸"His lord commended the dishonest manager because he had done wisely, for the children of this world are, in their own generation, wiser than the children of the light. ⁹I tell you, make for yourselves friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents. ¹⁰He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. ¹¹If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? ¹²If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? ¹³No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and Mammon." ^{xliii}

¹⁴The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. ¹⁵He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. ¹⁶The law and the prophets were until John. From that time the Good News of God's Kingdom is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. ¹⁷But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fall. ¹⁸Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery. ¹⁹"Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. ²⁰A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was laid at his gate, full of sores, ²¹and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. ²²The beggar died, and he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. ²³In Hades, ²⁴He cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.' ²⁵"But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in the same way, bad things. But now here he is comforted and you are in anguish. ²⁶Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that no one may cross over from there to us.' ²⁷"He said, 'I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house; ²⁸for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they won't also come into this place of torment.' ²⁹"But Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' ³⁰"He said, 'No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' ³¹"He said to him, 'If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.'"

17He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! ²It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. ³Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. ⁴If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him." ⁵The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." ⁶The Lord said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, 'Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. ⁷But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, 'Come immediately and sit down at the table,' ⁸and will not rather tell him, 'Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink'? ⁹Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not. ¹⁰Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, 'We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.'" ¹¹As he was on his way to Jerusalem, he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. ¹²As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance. ¹³They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" ¹⁴When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." As they went, they were cleansed. ¹⁵One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice. ¹⁶He fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. ¹⁷Jesus answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine? ¹⁸Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?" ¹⁹Then he said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you." ²⁰Being asked by the Pharisees when God's Kingdom would come, he answered them, "God's Kingdom doesn't come with observation; ²¹neither will they say, 'Look, here!' or, 'Look, there!' for behold, God's Kingdom is within you." ²²He said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. ²³They will tell you, 'Look, here!' or 'Look, there!' Don't go away, nor follow after them, ²⁴for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day. ²⁵But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. ²⁶As it was in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. ²⁸Likewise, even as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; ²⁹but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all. ³⁰It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed. ³¹In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back. ³²Remember Lot's wife! ³³Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it. ³⁴I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. ³⁵There will be two grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other will be left.”^{36xliii} ³⁷They, answering, asked him, “Where, Lord?” “Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together.”

18He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up, ²saying, “There was a judge in a certain city who didn’t fear God, and didn’t respect man. ³A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, ‘Defend me from my adversary!’ ⁴He wouldn’t for a while, but afterward he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God, nor respect man, ⁵yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.’” ⁶The Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷Won’t God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? ⁸I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?” ⁹He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. ¹⁰“Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: ‘God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortionists, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹²I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.’ ¹³But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn’t even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’ ¹⁴I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.” ¹⁵They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. ¹⁶Jesus summoned them, saying, “Allow the little children to come to me, and don’t hinder them, for God’s Kingdom belongs to such as these. ¹⁷Most certainly, I tell you, whoever doesn’t receive God’s Kingdom like a little child, he will in no way enter into it.” ¹⁸A certain ruler asked him, saying, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” ¹⁹Jesus asked him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—God. ²⁰You know the commandments: ‘Don’t commit adultery,’ ‘Don’t murder,’ ‘Don’t steal,’ ‘Don’t give false testimony,’ ‘Honor your father and your mother.’”^{xliv} ²¹He said, “I have observed all these things from my youth up.” ²²When Jesus heard these things, he said to him, “You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me.” ²³But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich. ²⁴Jesus, seeing that he became very sad, said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into God’s Kingdom! ²⁵For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle’s eye, than for a rich man to enter into God’s Kingdom.” ²⁶Those who heard it said, “Then who can be saved?” ²⁷But he said, “The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.” ²⁸Peter said, “Look, we have left everything, and followed you.” ²⁹He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for God’s Kingdom’s sake, ³⁰who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life.” ³¹He took the twelve aside, and said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. ³²For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. ³³They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again.” ³⁴They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn’t understand the things that were said. ³⁵As he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. ³⁶Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant. ³⁷They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. ³⁸He cried out, “Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!” ³⁹Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, “You son of David, have mercy on me!” ⁴⁰Standing still, Jesus commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him, ⁴¹“What do you want me to do?” He said, “Lord, that I may see again.” ⁴²Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you.” ⁴³Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

19He entered and was passing through Jericho. ²There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn’t because of the crowd, because he was short. ⁴He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was going to pass that way. ⁵When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, “Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house.” ⁶He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully. ⁷When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, “He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner.” ⁸Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much.” ⁹Jesus said to him, “Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost.” ¹¹As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that God’s Kingdom would be revealed immediately. ¹²He said therefore, “A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. ¹³He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten mina coins, ^{xlv} and told them, ‘Conduct business until I come.’ ¹⁴But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, ‘We don’t want this man to reign over us.’ ¹⁵“When he had come back again, having received the kingdom, he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business. ¹⁶The first came before him, saying, ‘Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.’ ¹⁷“He said to him, ‘Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.’ ¹⁸“The second came, saying, ‘Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.’ ¹⁹“So he said to him, ‘And you are to be over five cities.’ ²⁰Another came, saying, ‘Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief, ²¹for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you didn’t lay down, and reap that which you didn’t sow.’ ²²“He said to him, ‘Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn’t lay down, and reaping that which I didn’t sow. ²³Then why didn’t you deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?’ ²⁴He said to those who stood by, ‘Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.’ ²⁵“They said to him, ‘Lord, he has ten minas!’ ²⁶“For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn’t have, even that which he has will be taken away from him. ²⁷But bring those enemies of mine who didn’t want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.’” ²⁸Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹When he came near to Bethsphage ^{xlvi} and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples, ³⁰saying, “Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie it, and bring it. ³¹If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say to him: ‘The Lord needs it.’” ³²Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them. ³³As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?” ³⁴They said, “The Lord needs it.” ³⁵They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them. ³⁶As he went, they spread their cloaks on the road. ³⁷As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen, ³⁸saying, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! ^{xlvii} Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!” ³⁹Some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to him, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples!” ⁴⁰He answered them, “I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out.” ⁴¹When he came near, he saw the city and wept over it, ⁴²saying, “If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes. ⁴³For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side, ⁴⁴and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn’t know the time of your visitation.” ⁴⁵He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it, ⁴⁶saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer,’ ^{xlviii} but you have made it a ‘den of robbers!’” ^{xlix} ⁴⁷He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him. ⁴⁸They couldn’t find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

20On one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the Good News, the ¹ priests and scribes came to him with the elders. ²They asked him, “Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?” ³He answered them, “I also will ask you one question. Tell me: ⁴the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?” ⁵They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’ ⁶But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.” ⁷They answered that they didn’t know where it was from. ⁸Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.” ⁹He began to tell the people this parable. “A ^{li} man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time. ¹⁰At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty. ¹¹He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. ¹²He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out. ¹³The lord of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.’ ¹⁴“But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’ ¹⁵They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and destroy

Whose image and inscription are on it?” They answered, “Caesar’s.” ²⁵He said to them, “Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” ²⁶They weren’t able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and were silent. ²⁷Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. ²⁸They asked him, “Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother. ²⁹There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. ³⁰The second took her as wife, and he died childless. ³¹The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. ³²Afterward the woman also died. ³³Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife.” ³⁴Jesus said to them, “The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage. ³⁵But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage. ³⁶For they can’t die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord ‘The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ ^{liii} ³⁸Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him.” ³⁹Some of the scribes answered, “Teacher, you speak well.” ⁴⁰They didn’t dare to ask him any more questions. ⁴¹He said to them, “Why do they say that the Christ is David’s son? ⁴²‘Sit at my right hand, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, David himself says in the book of Psalms, ⁴³until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.’” ^{liv} ⁴⁴“David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he his son?” ⁴⁵In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples, ⁴⁶“Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts; ⁴⁷who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation.”

21He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury. ²He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small brass coins. ^{lv} ³He said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them, ⁴for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on.” ⁵As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, ⁶“As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down.” ⁷They asked him, “Teacher, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?” ⁸He said, “Watch out that you don’t get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he ^{lvi} ;’ and, ‘The time is at hand.’ Therefore don’t follow them. ⁹When you hear of wars and disturbances, don’t be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won’t come immediately.” ¹⁰Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name’s sake. ¹³It will turn out as a testimony for you. ¹⁴Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, ¹⁵for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. ¹⁶You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death. ¹⁷You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake. ¹⁸And not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹“By your endurance you will win your lives. ²⁰“But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand. ²¹Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. are fulfilled. ²⁵There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves; ²⁶men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near." ²⁹He told them a parable. "See the fig tree, and all the trees. ³⁰When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. ³¹Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that God's Kingdom is near. ³²Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away. ³⁴"So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. ³⁵For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. ³⁶Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man." ³⁷Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. ³⁸All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

22Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, was approaching. ²The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people. ³Satan entered into Judas, who was also called Iscariot, who was numbered with the twelve. ⁴He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them. ⁵They were glad, and agreed to give him money. ⁶He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude. ⁷The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed. ⁸He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat." ⁹They said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare?" ¹⁰He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters. ¹¹Tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'" ¹²He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there." ¹³They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover. ¹⁴When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve apostles. ¹⁵He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, ¹⁶for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in God's Kingdom." ¹⁷He received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves, ¹⁸for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until God's Kingdom comes." ¹⁹He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me." ²⁰Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. ²¹But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. ²²The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!" ²³They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing. ²⁴There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. ²⁵He said to them, "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called 'benefactors.' ²⁶But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves. ²⁷For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn't it he who sits at the table? But I am among you as one who serves. ²⁸But you are those who have continued with me in my trials. ²⁹I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Father conferred on me, ³⁰that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel." ³¹The Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat, ³²but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers." ^{lvii} ³³He said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!" ³⁴He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know me three times." ³⁵He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing." ³⁶Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword. ³⁷For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'He was counted with transgressors.' ^{lviii} For that which concerns me has an end." ³⁸They said, "Lord, behold, here are two swords." "That is enough." ³⁹He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him. ⁴⁰When he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you don't enter into temptation." ⁴¹He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and he knelt down and prayed, ⁴²saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done." ⁴³An angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. ⁴⁴Being in agony he prayed more earnestly.

His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground. ⁴⁵When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief, ⁴⁶and said to them, “Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation.” ⁴⁷While he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came near to Jesus to kiss him. ⁴⁸But Jesus said to him, “Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?” ⁴⁹When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said to him, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?” ⁵⁰A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. ⁵¹But Jesus answered, “Let me at least do this” —and he touched his ear, and healed him. ⁵²Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? ⁵³When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn’t stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness.” ⁵⁴They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest’s house. But Peter followed from a distance. ⁵⁵When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Peter sat among them. ⁵⁶A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, “This man also was with him.” ⁵⁷He denied Jesus, saying, “Woman, I don’t know him.” ⁵⁸After a little while someone else saw him, and said, “You also are one of them!” But Peter answered, “Man, I am not!” ⁵⁹After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, “Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean!” ⁶⁰But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you are talking about!” Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. ⁶¹The Lord turned, and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the Lord’s word, how he said to him, “Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times.” ⁶²He went out, and wept bitterly. ⁶³The men who held Jesus mocked him and beat him. ⁶⁴Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, “Prophecy! Who is the one who struck you?” ⁶⁵They spoke many other things against him, insulting him. ⁶⁶As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying, ⁶⁷“If you are the Christ, tell us.” “If I tell you, you won’t believe, ⁶⁸and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go. ⁶⁹From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.” ⁷⁰They all said, “Are you then the Son of God?” “You say it, because I am.” ⁷¹They said, “Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!”

“We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king.” ³Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?” “So you say.” ⁴Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.” ⁵But they insisted, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place.” ⁶But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean. ⁷When he found out that he was in Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days. ⁸Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him. ⁹He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers. ¹⁰The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. ¹¹Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate. ¹²Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other. ¹³Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴and said to them, “You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined him before you, and found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him. ¹⁵Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. ¹⁶I will therefore chastise him and release him.” ¹⁷Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the feast. ¹⁸But they all cried out together, saying, “Away with this man! Release to us Barabbas!” — ¹⁹one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder. ²⁰Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release Jesus, ²¹but they shouted, saying, “Crucify! Crucify him!” ²²He said to them the third time, “Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him.” ²³But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed. ²⁴Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done. ²⁵He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Jesus up to their will. ²⁶When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after Jesus. ²⁷A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him. ²⁸But Jesus, turning to them, said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, don’t weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.’ ³⁰Then they will begin to tell the mourn-

tains, 'Fall on us!' and tell the hills, 'Cover us.'^{lix} ³¹For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?" ³²There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death. ³³When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left. ³⁴Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing." Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots. ³⁵The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen one!" ³⁶The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar, ³⁷and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" ³⁸An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS." ³⁹One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!" ⁴⁰But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Don't you even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? ⁴¹And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." ⁴²He said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your Kingdom." ⁴³Jesus said to him, "Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise." ⁴⁴It was now about the sixth hour,^{lx} and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.^{lxi} ⁴⁵The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. ⁴⁶Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he breathed his last. ⁴⁷When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man." ⁴⁸All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts. ⁴⁹All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things. ⁵⁰Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man⁵¹ (he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for God's Kingdom: ⁵²this man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus' body. ⁵³He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid. ⁵⁴It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. ⁵⁵The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid. ⁵⁶They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

24But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared. ²They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. ³They entered in, and didn't find the Lord Jesus' body. ⁴While they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. ⁵Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? ⁶He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, ⁷saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?" ⁸They remembered his words, ⁹returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest. ¹⁰Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles. ¹¹These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them. ¹²But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened. ¹³Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia^{lxiii} from Jerusalem. ¹⁴They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. ¹⁵While they talked and questioned together, Jesus himself came near, and went with them. ¹⁶But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?" ¹⁸One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?" ¹⁹He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; ²⁰and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. ²¹But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. ²²Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; ²³and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see him." ²⁵He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Didn't the Christ have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?" ²⁷Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. ²⁸They came near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further. ²⁹They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over." He went in to stay with them. ³⁰When he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. ³¹Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. ³²They said to one another, “Weren’t our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?” ³³They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, ³⁴saying, “The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!” ³⁵They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread. ³⁶As they said these things, Jesus himself stood among them, and said to them, “Peace be to you.” ³⁷But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. ³⁸He said to them, “Why are you troubled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn’t have flesh and bones, as you see that I have.” ⁴⁰When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹While they still didn’t believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” ⁴²They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. ⁴³He took them, and ate in front of them. ⁴⁴He said to them, “This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled.” ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶He said to them, “Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, ⁴⁷and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹Behold, I send out the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high.” ⁵⁰He led them out as far as Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. ⁵¹While he blessed them, he withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven. ⁵²They worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

John

1In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2The same was in the beginning with God. 3All things were made through him. Without him was not anything made that has been made. 4In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome ⁱ it. 6There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. 7The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him. 8He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. 9The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world. 10He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him. 11He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him. 12But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name: 13who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth. 15John testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.'" 16From his fullness we all received grace upon grace. 17For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ. 18No one has seen God at any time. The one and only Son, ⁱⁱ who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him. 19This is John's testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" 20He declared, and didn't deny, but he declared, "I am not the Christ." 21They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No." 22They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" 23He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' ⁱⁱⁱ as Isaiah the prophet said." 24The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees. 25They asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?" 26John answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know. 27He is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." 28These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. 29The next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "Behold, ^{iv} the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! 30This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.' 31I didn't know him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that he would be revealed to Israel." 32John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him. 33I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to baptize in water, he said to me, 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.' 34I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God." 35Again, the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples, 36and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" 37The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. 38Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?" 39He said to them, "Come, and see." ^v 40One of the two who heard John, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Christ ^{vi}). 42He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is by interpretation, Peter). 43On the next day, he was determined to go out into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, "Follow me." 44Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. 45Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”⁴⁶ Nathanael said to him, “Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.”⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, “Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!”⁴⁸ Nathanael said to him, “How do you know me?” “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”⁴⁹ Nathanael answered him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!”⁵⁰ Jesus answered him, “Because I told you, ‘I saw you underneath the fig tree,’ do you believe? You will see greater things than these!”⁵¹ He said to him, “Most certainly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

2The third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there.² Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the marriage.³ When the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They have no wine.”⁴ Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come.”⁵ His mother said to the servants, “Whatever he says to you, do it.”⁶ Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews’ way of purifying, containing two or three metretes^{vii} apiece.⁷ Jesus said to them, “Fill the water pots with water.” They filled them up to the brim.⁸ He said to them, “Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast.” So they took it.⁹ When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn’t know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom,¹⁰ and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!”¹¹ This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.¹² After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days.¹³ The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.¹⁴ He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting.¹⁵ He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers’ money, and overthrew their tables.¹⁶ To those who sold the doves, he said, “Take these things out of here! Don’t make my Father’s house a marketplace!”¹⁷ His disciples remembered that it was written, “Zeal for your house will eat me up.”^{viii}¹⁸ The Jews therefore answered him, “What sign do you show us, seeing that you do these things?”¹⁹ Jesus answered them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

²⁰The Jews therefore said, “It took forty-six years to build this temple! Will you raise it up in three days?”²¹ But he spoke of the temple of his body.²² When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.²³ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did.²⁴ But Jesus didn’t trust himself to them, because he knew everyone,²⁵ and because he didn’t need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

3Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.² The same came to him by night, and said to him, “Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him.”³ Jesus answered him, “Most certainly, I tell you, unless one is born anew,^{ix} he can’t see God’s Kingdom.”⁴ Nicodemus said to him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?”⁵ Jesus answered, “Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he can’t enter into God’s Kingdom!⁶ That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit.⁷ Don’t marvel that I said to you, ‘You must be born anew.’⁸ The wind^x blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don’t know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.”⁹ Nicodemus answered him, “How can these things be?”¹⁰ Jesus answered him, “Are you the teacher of Israel, and don’t understand these things?¹¹ Most certainly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don’t receive our witness.¹² If I told you earthly things and you don’t believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?¹³ No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven.¹⁴ As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up,¹⁵ that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.¹⁶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.¹⁷ For God didn’t send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him.¹⁸ He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn’t believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God.¹⁹ This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil.²⁰ For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn’t come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. ²¹But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God.” ²²After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and baptized. ²³John also was baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized. ²⁴For John was not yet thrown into prison. ²⁵There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John’s disciples with some Jews about purification. ²⁶They came to John, and said to him, “Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, the same baptizes, and everyone is coming to him.” ²⁷John answered, “A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven. ²⁸You yourselves testify that I said, ‘I am not the Christ,’ but, ‘I have been sent before him.’ ²⁹He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full. ³⁰He must increase, but I must decrease. ³¹He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. ³²What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. ³³He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. ³⁴For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure. ³⁵The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. ³⁶One who believes in the Son has eternal life, but one who disobeys ^{xi} the Son won’t see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.”

⁴Therefore when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John ²(although Jesus himself didn’t baptize, but his disciples), ³he left Judea, and departed into Galilee. ⁴He needed to pass through Samaria. ⁵So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph. ⁶Jacob’s well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour. ^{xii} ⁷A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me a drink.” ⁸For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. ⁹The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, “How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?” (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) ¹⁰Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.” ¹¹The woman said to him, “Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. So where do you get that living water? ¹²Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his livestock?” ¹³Jesus answered her, “Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, ¹⁴but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life.” ¹⁵The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I don’t get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw.” ¹⁶Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.” ¹⁷The woman answered, “I have no husband.” “You said well, ‘I have no husband,’ ¹⁸for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly.” ¹⁹The woman said to him, “Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. ²⁰Our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship.” ²¹Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father. ²²You worship that which you don’t know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. ²³But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshipers. ²⁴God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.” ²⁵The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah comes, he who is called Christ. When he has come, he will declare to us all things.” ²⁶Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who speaks to you.” ²⁷At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, “What are you looking for?” or, “Why do you speak with her?” ²⁸So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, ²⁹“Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?” ³⁰They went out of the city, and were coming to him. ³¹In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.” ³²But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you don’t know about.” ³³The disciples therefore said to one another, “Has anyone brought him something to eat?” ³⁴Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. ³⁵Don’t you say, ‘There are yet four months until the harvest?’ Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already. ³⁶He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. ³⁷For in this the saying is true, ‘One sows, and another reaps.’ ³⁸I sent you to reap that for which you haven’t labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.” ³⁹From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, “He told me everything that I did.” ⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. ⁴¹Many more believed because of his word. ⁴²They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world." ⁴³After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. ⁴⁴For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. ⁴⁶Jesus came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. ⁴⁷When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. ⁴⁸Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe." ⁴⁹The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." ⁵⁰Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. ⁵¹As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "Your child lives!" ⁵²So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, ^{xiii} the fever left him." ⁵³So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house. ⁵⁴This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

⁵After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ²Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda", having five porches. ³In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water; ⁴for an angel went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was healed of whatever disease he had. ⁵A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years. ⁶When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?" ⁷The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me." ⁸Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk." ⁹Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked. Now it was the Sabbath on that day. ¹⁰So the Jews said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat." ¹¹He answered them, "He who made me well, the same said to me, 'Take up your mat, and walk.' " ¹²Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your mat, and walk'?" ¹³But he who was healed didn't know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place. ¹⁴Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you." ¹⁵The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. ¹⁶For this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷But Jesus answered them, "My Father is still working, so I am working, too." ¹⁸For this cause therefore the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God. ¹⁹Jesus therefore answered them, "Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise. ²⁰For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel. ²¹For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires. ²²For the Father judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son, ²³that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him. ²⁴Most certainly I tell you, he who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. ²⁵Most certainly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live. ²⁶For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself. ²⁷He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. ²⁸Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice, ²⁹and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. ³⁰I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me. ³¹"If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid. ³²It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true. ³³You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. ³⁴But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved. ³⁵He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. ³⁶But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John, for the works which the Father gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me. ³⁷The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. ³⁸You don't have his word living in you; because you don't believe him whom he sent. ³⁹"You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me. ⁴⁰Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life. ⁴¹I don't receive glory from men. ⁴²But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves. ⁴³I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. ⁴⁴How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God? ⁴⁵"Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope. ⁴⁶For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me. ⁴⁷But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

6After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. ²A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick. ³Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples. ⁴Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. ⁵Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" ⁶This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do. ⁷Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little." ⁸One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, ⁹"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?" ¹⁰Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. ¹¹Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. ¹²When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." ¹³So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. ¹⁴When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world." ¹⁵Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain by himself. ¹⁶When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. ¹⁸The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. ¹⁹When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, ^{xiv} they saw Jesus walking on the sea, ^{xv} and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. ²⁰But

he said to them, "It is I. ^{xvi} Don't be afraid." ²¹They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going. ²²On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which his disciples had embarked, and that Jesus hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone. ²³However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn't there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. ²⁵When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" ²⁶Jesus answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled. ²⁷Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has sealed him." ²⁸They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?" ²⁹Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." ³⁰They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do? ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread out of heaven ^{xvii} to eat.'" ^{xviii} ³²Jesus therefore said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. ³³For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world." ³⁴They said therefore to him, "Lord, always give us this bread." ³⁵Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. ³⁶But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don't believe. ³⁷All those whom the Father gives me will come to me. He who comes to me I will in no way throw out. ³⁸For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. ³⁹This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day. ⁴⁰This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day." ⁴¹The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven." ⁴²They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven?'" ⁴³Therefore Jesus answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves. ⁴⁴No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. ⁴⁵It is written in the prophets, ‘They will all be taught by God.’ ^{xix} Therefore everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to me. ⁴⁶Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father. ⁴⁷Most certainly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life. ⁴⁸I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.” ⁵²The Jews therefore contended with one another, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?” ⁵³Jesus therefore said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don’t have life in yourselves. ⁵⁴He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. ⁵⁵For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. ⁵⁶He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me. ⁵⁸This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever.” ⁵⁹He said these things in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. ⁶⁰Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, “This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?” ⁶¹But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, “Does this cause you to stumble? ⁶²Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? ⁶³It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. ⁶⁴But there are some of you who don’t believe.” For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn’t believe, and who it was who would betray him. ⁶⁵He said, “For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by my Father.” ⁶⁶At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. ⁶⁷Jesus said therefore to the twelve, “You don’t also want to go away, do you?” ⁶⁸Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life. ⁶⁹We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” ⁷⁰Jesus answered them, “Didn’t I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?” ⁷¹Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 After these things, Jesus was walking in Galilee, for he wouldn’t walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him. ²Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand. ³His brothers therefore said to him, “Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do. ⁴For no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world.” ⁵For even his brothers didn’t believe in him. ⁶Jesus therefore said to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. ⁷The world can’t hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. ⁸You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled.” ⁹Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee. ¹⁰But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. ¹¹The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, “Where is he?” ¹²There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, “He is a good man.” Others said, “Not so, but he leads the multitude astray.” ¹³Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews. ¹⁴But when it was now the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught. ¹⁵The Jews therefore marveled, saying, “How does this man know letters, having never been educated?” ¹⁶Jesus therefore answered them, “My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. ¹⁷If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. ¹⁸He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. ¹⁹Didn’t Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?” ²⁰The multitude answered, “You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?” ²¹Jesus answered them, “I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. ²²Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. ²³If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath? ²⁴Don’t judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment.” ²⁵Therefore some of them of Jerusalem said, “Isn’t this he whom they seek to kill? ²⁶Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly the Christ? ²⁷However we know where this man comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from.” ²⁸Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, “You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don’t know. ²⁹I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me.” ³⁰They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. ³¹But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, “When the Christ comes, he won’t do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?” ³²The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring

these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him. ³³Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me. ³⁴You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come." ³⁵The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? ³⁶What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come'?" ³⁷Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! ³⁸He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." ³⁹But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus wasn't yet glorified. ⁴⁰Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet." ⁴¹Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee? ⁴²Hasn't the Scripture said that the Christ comes of the offspring ^{xx} of David, ^{xxi} and from Bethlehem, ^{xxii} the village where David was?" ⁴³So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. ⁴⁴Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. ⁴⁵The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?" ⁴⁶The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!" ⁴⁷The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You aren't also led astray, are you? ⁴⁸Have any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees? ⁴⁹But this multitude that doesn't know the law is accursed." ⁵⁰Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them, ⁵¹"Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?" ⁵²They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee." ^{xxiii} ⁵³Everyone went to his own house, 8but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ²Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them. ³The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the middle, ⁴they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act. ⁵Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. ^{xxiv} What then do you say about her?" ⁶They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of. But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger. ⁷But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her." ⁸Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground. ⁹They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman where she was, in the middle. ¹⁰Jesus, standing up, saw her and said, "Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?" ¹¹She said, "No one, Lord." "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more." ¹²Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. ^{xxv} He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life." ¹³The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid." ¹⁴Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going. ¹⁵You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. ¹⁶Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me. ¹⁷It's also written in your law that the testimony of two people is valid. ^{xxvi} ¹⁸I am one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me." ¹⁹They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?" "You know neither me, nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also." ²⁰Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. ²¹Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come." ²²The Jews therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you can't come'?" ²³He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. ²⁴I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am ^{xxvii} he, you will die in your sins." ²⁵They said therefore to him, "Who are you?" "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. ²⁶I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world." ²⁷They didn't understand that he spoke to them about the Father. ²⁸Jesus therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things. ²⁹He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him." ³⁰As he spoke these things, many believed in him. ³¹Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. ³²You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” ^{xxviii} ³³They answered him, “We are Abraham’s offspring, ^{xxix} and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, ‘You will be made free’?” ³⁴Jesus answered them, “Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. ³⁵A bondservant doesn’t live in the house forever. A son remains forever. ³⁶If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁷I know that you are Abraham’s offspring, ³⁸I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father.” ³⁹They answered him, “Our father is Abraham.” “If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham. ⁴⁰But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham didn’t do this. ⁴¹You do the works of your father.” They said to him, “We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God.” ⁴²Therefore Jesus said to them, “If God were your father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I haven’t come of myself, but he sent me. ⁴³Why don’t you understand my speech? Because you can’t hear my word. ⁴⁴You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn’t stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and its father. ⁴⁵But because I tell the truth, you don’t believe me. ⁴⁶Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? ⁴⁷He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don’t hear, because you are not of God.” ⁴⁸Then the Jews answered him, “Don’t we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?” ⁴⁹Jesus answered, “I don’t have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. ⁵⁰But I don’t seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. ⁵¹Most certainly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death.” ⁵²Then the Jews said to him, “Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, ‘If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.’ ⁵³Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?” ⁵⁴Jesus answered, “If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God. ⁵⁵You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, ‘I don’t know him,’ I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad.” ⁵⁷The Jews therefore said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?” ⁵⁸Jesus said to them, “Most certainly, I tell you, before Abraham came into existence, I AM. ^{xxx}” ⁵⁹Therefore they took up stones to throw at him, but

Jesus was hidden, and went out of the temple, having gone through the middle of them, and so passed by.

9As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. ²His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” ³Jesus answered, “Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him. ⁴I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. ⁵While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” ⁶When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man’s eyes with the mud, ⁷and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means “Sent”). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. ⁸The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind before, said, “Isn’t this he who sat and begged?” ⁹Others were saying, “It is he.” Still others were saying, “He looks like him.” He said, “I am he.” ¹⁰They therefore were asking him, “How were your eyes opened?” ¹¹He answered, “A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash.’ So I went away and washed, and I received sight.” ¹²Then they asked him, “Where is he?” He said, “I don’t know.” ¹³They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. ¹⁴It was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. ¹⁵Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see.” ¹⁶Some therefore of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because he doesn’t keep the Sabbath.” Others said, “How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” There was division among them. ¹⁷Therefore they asked the blind man again, “What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?” He said, “He is a prophet.” ¹⁸The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, ¹⁹and asked them, “Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?” ²⁰His parents answered them, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; ²¹but how he now sees, we don’t know; or who opened his eyes, we don’t know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself.” ²²His parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any man would confess him as Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. ²³Therefore his parents said, “He is of age. Ask him.” ²⁴So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, “Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner.” ²⁵He therefore answered, “I don’t know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see.” ²⁶They said to him again, “What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?” ²⁷He answered them, “I told you already, and you didn’t listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't also want to become his disciples, do you?" ²⁸They insulted him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don't know where he comes from." ³⁰The man answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. ³¹We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God, and does his will, he listens to him. ^{xxx1} ³²Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. ³³If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." ³⁴They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw him out. ³⁵Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?" ³⁶He answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?" ³⁷Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you." ³⁸He said, "Lord, I believe!" and he worshiped him. ³⁹Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind." ⁴⁰Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Are we also blind?" ⁴¹Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains.

10"Most certainly, I tell you, one who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ²But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. ⁴Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. ⁵They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers." ⁶Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them. ⁷Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them. ⁹I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. ¹⁰The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. ¹¹I am the good shepherd. ^{xxxii} The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹²He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them. ¹³The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep. ¹⁴I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own; ¹⁵even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep. ¹⁶I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. ^{xxxiii} I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd. ¹⁷Therefore the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, ^{xxxiv} that I may take it again. ¹⁸No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father." ¹⁹Therefore a division arose again among the Jews because of these words. ²⁰Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to him?" ²¹Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?" ^{xxxv} ²²It was the Feast of the Dedication ^{xxxvi} at Jerusalem. ²³It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch. ²⁴The Jews therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." ²⁵Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these testify about me. ²⁶But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you. ²⁷My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one." ³¹Therefore Jews took up stones again to stone him. ³²Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?" ³³The Jews answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God." ³⁴Jesus answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are gods?' ^{xxxvii} ³⁵If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture can't be broken), ³⁶do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God?' ³⁷If I don't do the works of my Father, don't believe me. ³⁸But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works; that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father." ³⁹They sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. ⁴⁰He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and there he stayed. ⁴¹Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything that John said about this man is true." ⁴²Many believed in him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha. 2 It was that Mary who had anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick. 3 The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, he for whom you have great affection is sick." 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God's Son may be glorified by it." 5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed two days in the place where he was. 7 Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let's go into Judea again." 8 The disciples told him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?" 9 Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn't in him." 11 He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep." 12 The disciples therefore said, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover." 13 Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. 14 So Jesus said to them plainly then, "Lazarus is dead. 15 I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let's go to him." 16 Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, ^{xxxviii} said to his fellow disciples, "Let's go also, that we may die with him." 17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already. 18 Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia ^{xxxix} away. 19 Many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother. 20 Then when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house. 21 Therefore Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died. 22 Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you." 23 Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." 24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day." 25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. 26 Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" 27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God's Son, he who comes into the world." 28 When she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you." 29 When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. 30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him. 31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there." 32 Therefore when Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died." 33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 and said, "Where have you laid him?" They told him, "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus wept. 36 The Jews therefore said, "See how much affection he had for him!" 37 Some of them said, "Couldn't this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?" 38 Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. 39 Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days." 40 Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see God's glory?" 41 So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. 42 Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, "Father, I thank you that you listened to me. 42 I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me." 43 When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" 44 He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. "Free him, and let him go." 45 Therefore many of the Jews, who came to Mary and saw what Jesus did, believed in him. 46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done. 47 The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing? For this man does many signs. 48 If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation." 49 But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, 50 nor do you consider that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish." 51 Now he didn't say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. 53 So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put him to death. 54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples. 55 Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. 56 Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think—that he isn’t coming to the feast at all?”⁵⁷ Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

12 Then six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.² So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him.³ Mary, therefore, took a pound^{xli} of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.⁴ Then Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said,⁵ “Why wasn’t this ointment sold for three hundred denarii,^{xlii} and given to the poor?”⁶ Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it.⁷ But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial.⁸ For you always have the poor with you, but you don’t always have me.”⁹ A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus’ sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.¹⁰ But the chief priests conspired to put Lazarus to death also,¹¹ because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.¹² On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,¹³ they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet him, and cried out, “Hosanna!^{xliii} Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,^{xliv} the King of Israel!”¹⁴ Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written,¹⁵ “Don’t be afraid, daughter of Zion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey’s colt.”^{xlv}¹⁶ His disciples didn’t understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him.¹⁷ The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying about it.¹⁸ For this cause also the multitude went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign.¹⁹ The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, “See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him.”²⁰ Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast.²¹ These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, “Sir, we want to see Jesus.”²² Philip came and told

Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus.²³ Jesus answered them, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.²⁴ Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.²⁵ He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life.²⁶ If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.²⁷ “Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this time?’ But for this cause I came to this time.²⁸ Father, glorify your name!” Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”²⁹ The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.”³⁰ Jesus answered, “This voice hasn’t come for my sake, but for your sakes.³¹ Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out.³² And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.”³³ But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die.³⁴ The multitude answered him, “We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever.^{xlvi} How do you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up?’ Who is this Son of Man?”³⁵ Jesus therefore said to them, “Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn’t overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn’t know where he is going.³⁶ While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light.” Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them.³⁷ But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn’t believe in him,³⁸^{xlvii} “Lord, who has believed our report? that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke,³⁹ For this cause they couldn’t believe, for Isaiah said again,⁴⁰ lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn,^{xlviii} “He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart,⁴¹ Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory, and spoke of him.^{xlix}⁴² Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn’t confess it, so that they wouldn’t be put out of the synagogue,⁴³ for they loved men’s praise more than God’s praise.⁴⁴ Jesus cried out and said, “Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me.⁴⁵ He who sees me sees him who sent me.⁴⁶ I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.⁴⁷ If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn’t believe, I don’t judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.⁴⁸ He who rejects me, and doesn’t receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day. ⁴⁹For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. ⁵⁰I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak.”

13Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. ²During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon’s son, to betray him, ³Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came from God, and was going to God, ⁴arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist. ⁵Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples’ feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. ⁶Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, “Lord, do you wash my feet?” ⁷Jesus answered him, “You don’t know what I am doing now, but you will understand later.” ⁸Peter said to him, “You will never wash my feet!” “If I don’t wash you, you have no part with me.” ⁹Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!” ¹⁰Jesus said to him, “Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you.” ¹¹For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, “You are not all clean.” ¹²So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you? ¹³You call me, ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord.’ You say so correctly, for so I am. ¹⁴If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. ¹⁵For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. ¹⁶Most certainly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him. ¹⁷If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. ¹⁸I don’t speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, ‘He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.’ ¹⁹From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I am he. ²⁰Most certainly I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me.” ²¹When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, “Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me.” ²²The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom he spoke. ²³One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was at the table, leaning against Jesus’ breast. ²⁴Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, and said to him, “Tell us who it is of whom he speaks.” ²⁵He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus’ breast, asked him, “Lord, who is it?” ²⁶Jesus therefore answered, “It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it.” So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him. “What you do, do quickly.” ²⁸Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him. ²⁹For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, “Buy what things we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰Therefore having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night. ³¹When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. ³²If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. ³³Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, ‘Where I am going, you can’t come,’ so now I tell you. ³⁴A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” ³⁶Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, where are you going?” “Where I am going, you can’t follow now, but you will follow afterwards.” ³⁷Peter said to him, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.” ³⁸Jesus answered him, “Will you lay down your life for me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster won’t crow until you have denied me three times.

14“Don’t let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me. ²In my Father’s house are many homes. If it weren’t so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. ³If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also. ⁴Where I go, you know, and you know the way.” ⁵Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going. How can we know the way?” ⁶Jesus said to him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me. ⁷If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on, you know him, and have seen him.” ⁸Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us.” ⁹Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, ‘Show us the Father?’ ¹⁰Don’t you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Father who lives in me does his works. ¹¹Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works’ sake. ¹²Most certainly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to my Father. ¹³Whatever you will ask in my name, that will

I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it. ¹⁵If you love me, keep my commandments. ¹⁶I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Counselor,^{li} that he may be with you forever,— ¹⁷the Spirit of truth, whom the world can't receive; for it doesn't see him, neither knows him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you. ¹⁸I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you. ¹⁹Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also. ²⁰In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. ²¹One who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him.” ²²Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, “Lord, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?” ²³Jesus answered him, “If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him. ²⁴He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the Father's who sent me. ²⁵I have said these things to you, while still living with you. ²⁶But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you. ²⁷Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. ²⁸You heard how I told you, ‘I go away, and I come to you.’ If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said ‘I am going to my Father;’ for the Father is greater than I. ²⁹Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. ³⁰I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in me. ³¹But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

15“I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. ²Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. ³You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. ⁴Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. ⁵I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. ⁷If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you. ⁸“In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples. ⁹Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love. ¹⁰If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love. ¹¹I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full. ¹²“This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. ¹⁵No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you. ¹⁶You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you. ¹⁷“I command these things to you, that you may love one another. ¹⁸If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you. ¹⁹If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. ²⁰Remember the word that I said to you: ‘A servant is not greater than his lord.’ ^{lii} If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also. ²¹But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they don't know him who sent me. ²²If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³He who hates me, hates my Father also. ²⁴If I hadn't done among them the works which no one else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Father. ²⁵But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law, ‘They hated me without a cause.’ ^{liii} ²⁶“When the Counselor ^{liv} has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me. ²⁷You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

16“These things have I spoken to you, so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble. ²They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God. ³They will do these things ^{lv} because they have not known the Father, nor me. ⁴But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?'⁶ But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart. ⁷Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸When he has come, he will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment; ⁹about sin, because they don't believe in me; ¹⁰about righteousness, because I am going to my Father, and you won't see me any more; ¹¹about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged. ¹²"I have yet many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now. ¹³However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you things that are coming. ¹⁴He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you. ¹⁵All things whatever the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes ^{lvi} of mine, and will declare it to you. ¹⁶A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me." ¹⁷Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the Father'?" ¹⁸They said therefore, "What is this that he says, 'A little while' ? We don't know what he is saying." ¹⁹Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?'" ²⁰Most certainly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. ²¹A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. ²²Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you. ²³"In that day you will ask me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. ²⁴Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. ²⁵I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you, ²⁷for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came from God. ²⁸I came from the Father, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father." ²⁹His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech. ³⁰Now we know that you know all things, and don't need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came from God." ³¹Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?" ³²Behold, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. ³³I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world."

17 Jesus said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; ²even as you gave him authority over all flesh, he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. ³This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ. ⁴I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do. ⁵Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed. ⁶I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. ⁷Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, ⁸for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me. ⁹I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. ¹⁰All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. ¹¹I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are. ¹²While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. ¹³But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. ¹⁴I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. ¹⁵I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. ¹⁶They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. ¹⁷Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth. ^{lvii} ¹⁸As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. ¹⁹For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth. ²⁰Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word, ²¹that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me. ²²The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; ²³I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me. ²⁴Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵Righteous Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me. ²⁶I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

18When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. ²Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. ³Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. ⁴Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went out, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?" ⁵They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." "I am he." Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. ⁶When therefore he said to them, "I am he," they went backward, and fell to the ground. ⁷Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth." ⁸Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," ⁹that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none." ^{lviii} ¹⁰Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. ¹¹Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not surely drink it?" ¹²So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, ¹³and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. ¹⁴Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. ¹⁵Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; ¹⁶but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. ¹⁷Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "I am not." ¹⁸Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. ¹⁹The high priest therefore asked Jesus about his disciples, and about his teaching. ²⁰Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret. ²¹Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said." ²²When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?" ²³Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?" ²⁴Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. ²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You aren't also one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it, and said, "I am not." ²⁶One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?" ²⁷Peter therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed. ²⁸They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. ²⁹Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" ³⁰They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you." ³¹Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," ³²that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die. ³³Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" ³⁴Jesus answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?" ³⁵Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?" ³⁶Jesus answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jews. But now my Kingdom is not from here." ³⁷Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?" "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice." ³⁸Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. ³⁹But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" ⁴⁰Then they all shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

^{lviii}John 18:9 John 6:39

“Hail, King of the Jews!” and they kept slapping him. ⁴Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, “Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him.” ⁵Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, “Behold, the man!” ⁶When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, “Crucify! Crucify!” Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him.” ⁷The Jews answered him, “We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.” ⁸When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. ⁹He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰Pilate therefore said to him, “Aren’t you speaking to me? Don’t you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?” ¹¹Jesus answered, “You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin.” ¹²At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, “If you release this man, you aren’t Caesar’s friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!” ¹³When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called “The Pavement”, but in Hebrew, “Gabbatha.” ¹⁴Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour. ^{lix} He said to the Jews, “Behold, your King!” ¹⁵They cried out, “Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar!” ¹⁶So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led him away. ¹⁷He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called “The Place of a Skull”, which is called in Hebrew, “Golgotha”, ¹⁸where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle. ¹⁹Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, “JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.” ²⁰Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. ²¹The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, “Don’t write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘he said, I am King of the Jews.’” ²²Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.” ²³Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. ^{24lx} “They parted my garments among them. Then they said to one another, “Let’s not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be,” that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, Therefore the soldiers did these things. ²⁵But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, “Woman, behold your son!” ²⁷Then he said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother!” From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home. ²⁸After this, Jesus, seeing ^{lxi} that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, “I am thirsty.” ²⁹Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. ³⁰When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, “It is finished.” He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit. ³¹Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn’t remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. ³²Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; ³³but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they didn’t break his legs. ³⁴However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. ³⁶For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, “A bone of him will not be broken.” ^{lxii} ³⁷Again another Scripture says, “They will look on him whom they pierced.” ^{lxiii} ³⁸After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus’ body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. ³⁹Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds. ^{lxiv} ⁴⁰So they took Jesus’ body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury. ⁴¹Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. ⁴²Then because of the Jews’ Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.

20Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. ²Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!" ³Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. ⁴They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first. ⁵Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he didn't enter in. ⁶Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying, ⁷and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. ⁸So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. ⁹For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. ¹⁰So the disciples went away again to their own homes. ¹¹But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, ¹²and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. ¹³They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him." ¹⁴When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." ¹⁶Jesus said to her, "Mary." ^{lxv} which is to say, "Teacher!" ^{lxvi} ¹⁷Jesus said to her, "Don't hold me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'" ¹⁸Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her. ¹⁹When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the middle, and said to them, "Peace be to you." ²⁰When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord. ²¹Jesus therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." ²²When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit! ²³If you forgive anyone's sins, they have been forgiven them. If you retain anyone's sins, they have been retained." ²⁴But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Jesus came. ²⁵The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." ²⁶After eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the middle, and said, "Peace be to you." ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing." ²⁸Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" ²⁹Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me, ^{lxvii} you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed." ³⁰Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

21After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. ²Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. ³Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing." They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. ⁴But when day had already come, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was Jesus. ⁵Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." ⁶He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. ⁷That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!" So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. ⁸But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits ^{lxviii} away), dragging the net full of fish. ⁹So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught." ¹¹Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn. ¹²Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord. ¹³Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. ¹⁴This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. ¹⁵So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." "Feed my lambs." ¹⁶He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." "Tend my sheep." ¹⁷He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?” “Do you have affection for me?” He said to him, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you.” “Feed my sheep. ¹⁸Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don’t want to go.” ¹⁹Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, “Follow me.” ²⁰Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus’ breast at the supper and asked, “Lord, who is going to betray You?” ²¹Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, “Lord, what about this man?” ²²Jesus said to him, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me.” ²³This saying therefore went out among the brothers, ^{lxi} that this disciple wouldn’t die. Yet Jesus didn’t say to him that he wouldn’t die, but, “If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?” ²⁴This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. ²⁵There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn’t have room for the books that would be written.

Acts

1The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, ²until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. ³To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's Kingdom. ⁴Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me. ⁵For John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now." ⁶Therefore when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?" ⁷He said to them, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth." ⁹When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. ¹⁰While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold, ⁱ two men stood by them in white clothing, ¹¹who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky." ¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. ¹³When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. ¹⁴All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers. ¹⁵In these days, Peter stood up in the middle of the disciples (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said, ¹⁶"Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus. ¹⁷For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry. ¹⁸Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out. ¹⁹It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called 'Akeldama,' that is, 'The field of blood.' ²⁰ⁱⁱ 'Let his habitation be made desolate. ⁱⁱⁱ For it is written in the book of Psalms, and, ²¹"Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, ²²beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection." ²³They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias. ²⁴They prayed, and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen ²⁵to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place." ²⁶They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place. ²Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. ³Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. ⁴They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. ⁵Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under the sky. ⁶When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷They were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Behold, aren't all these who speak Galileans? ⁸How do we hear, everyone in our own native language? ⁹Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, ¹⁰Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and pros-elytes, ¹¹Cretans and Arabians: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of God!" ¹²They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" ¹³Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with new wine." ¹⁴But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, "You men of Judea, and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. ¹⁵For these aren't drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day. ^{iv} ¹⁶But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel: ¹⁷that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh. Your young men will see visions. Your old men will dream dreams. 'It will be in the last days, says God, Your sons and your daughters will prophesy. ¹⁸I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy. Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days, ¹⁹and signs on the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and billows of smoke. I will show wonders in the sky above, ²⁰and the moon into blood, before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes. The sun will be turned into darkness, ²¹It will be that whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.' ^v ²²"Men of Israel, hear these words! Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by him among you, even as you yourselves know, ²³him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by the hand of lawless men, crucified and killed; ²⁴whom God raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. ²⁵For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved. 'I saw the Lord always before my face, For David says concerning him, ²⁶Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope; Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced. ²⁷neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay. because you will not leave my soul in Hades, ^{vi} ^{28vii} You made known to me the ways of life. ²⁹"Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne, ³¹he foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was his soul left in Hades, ^{viii} nor did his flesh see decay. ³²This Jesus God raised up, to which we all are witnesses. ³³Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this, which you now see and hear. ³⁴The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit by my right hand, For David didn't ascent into the heavens, but he says himself, ³⁵until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.'" ^{ix} ³⁶"Let all the house of Israel therefore know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." ³⁷Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?" ³⁸Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the Lord our God will call to himself." ⁴⁰With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!" ⁴¹Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls. ⁴²They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer. ⁴³Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. ⁴⁴All who believed were together, and had all things in common. ⁴⁵They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. ⁴⁶Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, ⁴⁷praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.

3 Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. ^x ²A certain man who was lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask gifts for the needy of those who entered into the temple. ³Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive gifts for the needy. ⁴Peter, fastening his eyes on him, with John, said, "Look at us." ⁵He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶But Peter said, "Silver and gold have I none, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up and walk!" ⁷He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength. ⁸Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. ⁹All the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. ¹¹As the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering. ¹²When Peter saw it, he responded to the people, "You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk? ¹³The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. ¹⁴But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, ¹⁵and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses. ¹⁶By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. ¹⁷“Now, brothers, ^{xi} I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled. ¹⁹“Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, ²⁰and that he may send Christ Jesus, who was ordained for you before, ²¹whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by the mouth of his holy prophets. ²²For Moses indeed said to the fathers, ‘The Lord God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says to you. ²³It will be that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.’ ^{xii} ²⁴Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. ²⁵You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, ‘In your offspring ^{xiii} will all the families of the earth be blessed.’ ^{xiv} ²⁶God, having raised up his servant Jesus, sent him to you first to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your wickedness.”

4As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them, ²being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. ³They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. ⁴But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand. ⁵In the morning, their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem. ⁶Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. ⁷When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, “By what power, or in what name, have you done this?”

⁸Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, ⁹if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, ¹⁰be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in him does this man stand here before you whole. ¹¹He is ‘the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.’ ^{xv} ¹²There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, by which we must be saved!” ¹³Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Jesus. ¹⁴Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. ¹⁵But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, ¹⁶saying, “What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can’t deny it. ¹⁷But so that this spreads no further among the people, let’s threaten them, that from now on they don’t speak to anyone in this name.” ¹⁸They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹But Peter and John answered them, “Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, ²⁰for we can’t help telling the things which we saw and heard.” ²¹When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. ²²For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old. ²³Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, “O Lord, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; ²⁵and the peoples plot a vain thing? ‘Why do the nations rage, who by the mouth of your servant, David, said, ²⁶and the rulers take council together, ^{xvi} ^{xvii} The kings of the earth take a stand, ²⁷“For truly, in this city against your holy servant, Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together ²⁸to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen. ²⁹Now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness, ³⁰while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Jesus.”³¹ When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.³² The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common.³³ With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Great grace was on them all.³⁴ For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold,³⁵ and laid them at the apostles’ feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need.³⁶ Joses, who by the apostles was also called Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race,³⁷ having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

5 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira, his wife, sold a possession,² and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles’ feet.³ But Peter said, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?⁴ While you kept it, didn’t it remain your own? After it was sold, wasn’t it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You haven’t lied to men, but to God.”⁵ Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things.⁶ The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him.⁷ About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in.⁸ Peter answered her, “Tell me whether you sold the land for so much.” She said, “Yes, for so much.”⁹ But Peter asked her, “How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”¹⁰ She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband.¹¹ Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things.¹² By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon’s porch.¹³ None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them.¹⁴ More believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women.¹⁵ They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some of them.¹⁶ Multitudes also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.¹⁷ But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy,¹⁸ and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody.¹⁹ But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said,²⁰ “Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.”²¹ When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.²² But the officers who came didn’t find them in the prison. They returned and reported,²³ “We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!”²⁴ Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this.²⁵ One came and told them, “Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people.”²⁶ Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.²⁷ When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them,²⁸ saying, “Didn’t we strictly command you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man’s blood on us.”²⁹ But Peter and the apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than men.³⁰ The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree.³¹ God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins.³² We are His witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him.”³³ But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and determined to kill them.³⁴ But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the apostles out for a little while.³⁵ He said to them, “You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do.³⁶ For before these days Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing.³⁷ After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad.³⁸ Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown.³⁹ But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!”⁴⁰ They agreed with him. Summoning the apostles, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.⁴¹ They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Jesus' name. ⁴²Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and preaching Jesus, the Christ.

6Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists ^{xviii} against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily service. ²The twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. ³Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. ⁴But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word." ⁵These words pleased the whole multitude. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch; ⁶whom they set before the apostles. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them. ⁷The word of God increased and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly. A great company of the priests were obedient to the faith. ⁸Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. ⁹But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines", and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. ¹⁰They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. ¹¹Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." ¹²They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, ¹³and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. ¹⁴For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." ¹⁵All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

7The high priest said, "Are these things so?" ²He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, ³and said to him, 'Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.' ^{xix} ⁴Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God moved him into this land, where you are now living. ⁵He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring ^{xx} after him, when he still had no child. ⁶God spoke in this way: that his offspring ^{xxi} would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. ⁷'I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,' said God, 'and after that will they come out, and serve me in this place.' ^{xxii} ⁸He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs. ⁹"The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt. God was with him, ¹⁰and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house. ¹¹Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food. ¹²But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. ¹³On the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's race was revealed to Pharaoh. ¹⁴Joseph sent, and summoned Jacob, his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls. ¹⁵Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, himself and our fathers, ¹⁶and they were brought back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor of Shechem. ¹⁷"But as the time of the promise came close which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, ¹⁸until there arose a different king, who didn't know Joseph. ¹⁹The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they wouldn't stay alive. ²⁰At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father's house. ²¹When he was thrown out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son. ²²Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was mighty in his words and works. ²³But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, ^{xxiii} the children of Israel. ²⁴Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian. ²⁵He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand. ²⁶"The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, 'Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?' ²⁷But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? ²⁸Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?’ ^{xxiv} 29Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons. ³⁰“When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. ³¹When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of the Lord came to him, ³²‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ ^{xxv} Moses trembled, and dared not look. ³³The Lord said to him, ‘Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. ³⁴I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.’ ^{xxvi} ³⁵“This Moses, whom they refused, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge?’—God has sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for forty years. ³⁷This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, ‘The Lord our God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me.’ ^{xxvii} ^{xxviii} ³⁸This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living revelations to give to us, ³⁹to whom our fathers wouldn’t be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt, ⁴⁰saying to Aaron, ‘Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don’t know what has become of him.’ ^{xxix} ⁴¹They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. ⁴²forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? ‘Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices But God turned, and gave them up to serve the army of the sky, ^{xxx} as it is written in the book of the prophets, ⁴³the star of your god Rephan, ^{xxxi} beyond Babylon.’ You took up the tabernacle of Moloch, the figures which you made to worship. ⁴⁴“Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen; ⁴⁵which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David, ⁴⁶who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob.

⁴⁷But Solomon built him a house. ⁴⁸However, the Most High doesn’t dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says, ⁴⁹and the earth a footstool for my feet. ‘or what is the place of my rest? ‘heaven is my throne, What kind of house will you build me?’ says the Lord; ⁵⁰Didn’t my hand make all these things?’ ^{xxxii} ⁵¹“You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so you do. ⁵²Which of the prophets didn’t your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers. ⁵³You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn’t keep it!” ⁵⁴Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. ⁵⁵But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, ⁵⁶and said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!” ⁵⁷But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him with one accord. ⁵⁸They threw him out of the city, and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹They stoned Stephen as he called out, saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!” ⁶⁰He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, “Lord, don’t hold this sin against them!” When he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. ²Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. ³But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. ⁴Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word. ⁵Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ. ⁶The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. ⁷For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. ⁸There was great joy in that city. ⁹But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one, ¹⁰to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This man is that great power of God.” ¹¹They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. ¹²But when they believed Philip preaching good news concerning God’s Kingdom and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. ¹³Simon himself also believed. ing baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, he was amazed. ¹⁴Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, ¹⁵who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; ¹⁶for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized in the name of Christ Jesus. ¹⁷Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, ¹⁹saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit." ²⁰But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! ²¹You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't right before God. ²²Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. ²³For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity." ²⁴Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me." ²⁵They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans. ²⁶But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert." ²⁷He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship. ²⁸He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot." ³⁰Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?" ³¹He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philip to come up and sit with him. ³²As a lamb before his shearer is silent, so he doesn't open his mouth. "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter. Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, ³³Who will declare His generation? ^{xxxiii} In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away. ³⁴The eunuch answered Philip, "Who is the prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone else?" ³⁵Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him Jesus. ³⁶As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being baptized?" ^{37xxxiv} ³⁸He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. ³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch didn't see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

9But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, ²and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³As he traveled, he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him. ⁴He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" ⁵He said, "Who are you, Lord?" "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ^{xxxv} ⁶But ^{xxxvi} rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do." ⁷The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one. ⁸Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. ⁹He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank. ¹⁰Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!" He said, "Behold, it's me, Lord." ¹¹The Lord said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judah ^{xxxvii} for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, ¹²and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight." ¹³But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem. ¹⁴Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name." ¹⁵But the Lord said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel. ¹⁶For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake." ¹⁷Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁸Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized. ¹⁹He took food and was strengthened. Saul stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus. ²⁰Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed the Christ, that he is the Son of God. ²¹All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!" ²²But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ. ²³When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him, ²⁴but their plot became known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, ²⁵but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. ²⁶When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. ²⁷But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord on the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸He was with them entering into ^{xxxviii} Jerusalem, ²⁹preaching boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus. ^{xxxix} He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists, ^{xi} but they were seeking to kill him. ³⁰When the brothers ^{xli} knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. ³¹So the assemblies throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit. ³²As Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. ³³There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. ³⁴Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose. ³⁵All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord. ³⁶Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated, means Dorcas. ^{xlii} This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. ³⁷In those days, she became sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. ³⁸As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men ^{xliii} to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. ³⁹Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. ⁴⁰Peter sent them all out, and knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. ⁴²And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³He stayed many days in Joppa with a tanner named Simon.

10Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, ²a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. ³At about the ninth hour of the day, ^{xliv} he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius!" ⁴He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord?" He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. ⁵Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is also called Peter. ⁶He lodges with a tanner named Simon, whose house is by the seaside. ^{xlv} ⁷When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. ⁸Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. ⁹Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. ¹⁰He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. ¹¹He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, ¹²in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. ¹³A voice came to him, "Rise, Peter, kill and eat!" ¹⁴But Peter said, "Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean." ¹⁵A voice came to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean." ¹⁶This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. ¹⁷Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, ¹⁸and called and asked whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was lodging there. ¹⁹While Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three ^{xlvi} men seek you. ²⁰But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them." ²¹Peter went down to the men, and said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?" ²²They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say." ²³So he called them in and provided a place to stay. On the next day Peter arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. ²⁴On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends. ²⁵When Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. ²⁶But Peter raised him up, saying, “Stand up! I myself am also a man.” ²⁷As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. ²⁸He said to them, “You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn’t call any man unholy or unclean. ²⁹Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?” ³⁰Cornelius said, “Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour, ^{xlvii} I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, ³¹and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God. ³²Send therefore to Joppa, and summon Simon, who is also called Peter. He lodges in the house of a tanner named Simon, by the seaside. When he comes, he will speak to you.’ ³³Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God.” ³⁴Peter opened his mouth and said, “Truly I perceive that God doesn’t show favoritism; ³⁵but in every nation he who fears him and works righteousness is acceptable to him. ³⁶The word which he sent to the children of Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ—he is Lord of all—³⁷you yourselves know what happened, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; ³⁸even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. ³⁹We are witnesses of everything he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they also ^{xlviii} killed, hanging him on a tree. ⁴⁰God raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed, ⁴¹not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. ⁴²He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that this is he who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him will receive remission of sins.” ⁴⁴While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. ⁴⁵They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying God. Then Peter answered, ⁴⁷“Can anyone forbid these people from being baptized with water? They have received the Holy Spirit just like us.” ⁴⁸He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers ^{xlix} who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. ²When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, ³saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!” ⁴But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying, ⁵“I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me. ⁶When I had looked intently at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky. ⁷I also heard a voice saying to me, ‘Rise, Peter, kill and eat!’ ⁸But I said, ‘Not so, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.’ ⁹But a voice answered me the second time out of heaven, ‘What God has cleansed, don’t you call unclean.’ ¹⁰This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. ¹¹Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. ¹²The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man’s house. ¹³He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, ‘Send to Joppa, and get Simon, who is called Peter, ¹⁴who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.’ ¹⁵As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, ‘John indeed baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.’ ¹⁷If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?” ¹⁸When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, “Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life!” ¹⁹They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. ²⁰But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, ¹ preaching the Lord Jesus. ²¹The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. ²²The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch, ²³who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Lord. ²⁴For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord. ²⁵Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul. ²⁶When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. ²⁷Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius. ²⁹As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; ³⁰which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12Now about that time, King Herod stretched out his hands to oppress some of the assembly. ²He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword. ³When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread. ⁴When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. ⁵Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the assembly to God for him. ⁶The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison. ⁷And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands. ⁸The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me." ⁹And he went out and followed him. He didn't know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. ¹⁰When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him. ¹¹When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting." ¹²Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John who was called Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. ¹³When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴When she recognized Peter's voice, she didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate. ¹⁵They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel." ¹⁶But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. ¹⁷But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James, and to the brothers." Then he departed, and went to another place. ¹⁸Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. ¹⁹When Herod had sought for him, and didn't find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there. ²⁰Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. ²¹On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. ²²The people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" ²³Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he didn't give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died. ²⁴But the word of God grew and multiplied. ²⁵Barnabas and Saul returned to ^{li} Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John who was called Mark.

13Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. ²As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them." ³Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. ⁴So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also John as their attendant. ⁶When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar Jesus, ⁷who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. ⁹But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, ¹⁰and said, "Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?" ¹¹Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!" Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. ¹²Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord. ¹³Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. ¹⁵After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, “Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak.” ¹⁶Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen. ¹⁷The God of this people ^{lii} chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. ¹⁸For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. ¹⁹When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred fifty years. ²⁰After these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ²²When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, ‘I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.’ ²³From this man’s offspring, ^{liii} God has brought salvation ^{liv} to Israel according to his promise, ²⁴before his coming, when John had first preached the baptism of repentance to Israel. ^{lv} ²⁵As John was fulfilling his course, he said, ‘What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.’ ²⁶Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to you. ²⁷For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they didn’t know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. ²⁸Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed. ²⁹When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. ³⁰But God raised him from the dead, ³¹and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. ³²We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers, ³³^{lvi} ‘You are my Son. that God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that he raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm, ³⁴“Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: ‘I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.’ ^{lvii} ³⁵Therefore he says also in another

psalm, ‘You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.’ ^{lviii} ³⁶For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay. ³⁷But he whom God raised up saw no decay. ³⁸Be it known to you therefore, brothers, ^{lix} that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins, ³⁹and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses. ⁴⁰Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets: ⁴¹for I work a work in your days, ^{lx} ‘Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish; ⁴²So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. ⁴³Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. ⁴⁴The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. ⁴⁵But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed. ⁴⁶Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, “It was necessary that God’s word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. ⁴⁷^{lxi} ‘I have set you as a light for the Gentiles, For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, ⁴⁸As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed. ⁴⁹The Lord’s word was spread abroad throughout all the region. ⁵⁰But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders. ⁵¹But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. ⁵²The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit.

14In Iconium, they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. ²But the disbelieving ^{lxii} Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. ³Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. ⁴But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles. ⁵When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, ⁶they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. ⁷There they preached the Good News. ⁸At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked. ⁹He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, ¹⁰said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked. ¹¹When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" ¹²They called Barnabas "Jupiter", and Paul "Mercury", because he was the chief speaker. ¹³The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes. ¹⁴But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out, ¹⁵"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; ¹⁶who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. ¹⁷Yet he didn't leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you ^{lxiii} rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness." ¹⁸Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them. ¹⁹But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. ²⁰But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe. ²¹When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, ²²confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into God's Kingdom. ²³When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed. ²⁴They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. ²⁵When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. ²⁶From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. ²⁷When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations. ²⁸They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. ³They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers. ^{lxiv} ⁴When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them. ⁵But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses." ⁶The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. ⁷When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe. ⁸God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us. ⁹He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. ¹⁰Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? ¹¹But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, ^{lxv} just as they are." ¹²All the multitude kept silence, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them. ¹³After they were silent, James answered, "Brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for his name. ¹⁵This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written, ¹⁶'After these things I will return. I will again build the tabernacle of David, which has fallen. I will again build its ruins. I will set it up, ¹⁷That the rest of men may seek after the Lord; all the Gentiles who are called by my name, ^{lxvi} ¹⁸All of God's works are known to him from eternity.' ¹⁹'Therefore my judgment is that we don't trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God, ²⁰but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood. ²¹For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.'" ²²Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole assembly, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers. ^{lxvii} ²³They wrote these things by their hand: "The apostles, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings. ²⁴Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, ‘You must be circumcised and keep the law,’ to whom we gave no commandment; ²⁵it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth. ²⁸For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: ²⁹that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell.” ³⁰So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. ³¹When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. ³²Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. ³³After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to the apostles. ³⁴^{lxviii} ³⁵But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. ³⁶After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing.” ³⁷Barnabas planned to take John, who was called Mark, with them also. ³⁸But Paul didn’t think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn’t go with them to do the work. ³⁹Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus, ⁴⁰but Paul chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God. ⁴¹He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

16He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek. ²The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him. ³Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem. ⁵So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily. ⁶When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. ⁷When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn’t allow them. ⁸Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. ⁹A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, “Come over into Macedonia and help us.” ¹⁰When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the Good News to them. ¹¹Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; ¹²and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city. ¹³On the Sabbath day we went outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together. ¹⁴A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul. ¹⁵When she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay.” So she persuaded us. ¹⁶As we were going to prayer, a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. ¹⁷Following Paul and us, she cried out, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us a way of salvation!” ¹⁸She was doing this for many days. But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!” It came out that very hour. ¹⁹But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. ²⁰When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men, being Jews, are agitating our city, ²¹and advocate customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans.” ²²The multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore their clothes off of them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods. ²³When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely, ²⁴who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks. ²⁵But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone’s bonds were loosened. ²⁷The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying,

“Don’t harm yourself, for we are all here!”²⁹ He called for lights, sprang in, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas,³⁰ brought them out, and said, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”³¹ They said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household.”³² They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.³³ He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household.³⁴ He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.³⁵ But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, “Let those men go.”³⁶ The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, “The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace.”³⁷ But Paul said to them, “They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!”³⁸ The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans,³⁹ and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city.⁴⁰ They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia’s house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

17 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.² Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures,³ explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, “This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ.”⁴ Some of them were persuaded, and joined Paul and Silas, of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women.⁵ But the unpersuaded Jews took along^{lxix} some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them out to the people.⁶ When they didn’t find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers^{lxx} before the rulers of the city, crying, “These who have turned the world upside down have come here also,⁷ whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus!”⁸ The multitude and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things.⁹ When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.¹⁰ The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.¹¹ Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.¹² Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men.¹³ But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes.¹⁴ Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there.¹⁵ But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.¹⁶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols.¹⁷ So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him.¹⁸ Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also^{lxxi} were conversing with him. Some said, “What does this babbler want to say?” Others said, “He seems to be advocating foreign deities,” because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.¹⁹ They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you?²⁰ For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean.”²¹ Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.²² Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, “You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things.²³ For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: ‘TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.’ What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you.²⁴ The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, doesn’t dwell in temples made with hands,²⁵ neither is he served by men’s hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things.²⁶ He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings,²⁷ that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.²⁸ For in him we live, and move, and have our being.’ As some of your own poets have said, ‘For we are also his offspring.’²⁹ Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man.³⁰ The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent,³¹ because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead.”³² Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, “We want to hear you again concerning this.”³³ Thus Paul went out from among them.³⁴ But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth.² He found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them,³ and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers.⁴ He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks.⁵ But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.⁶ When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, “Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!”⁷ He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.⁸ Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were baptized.⁹ The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, “Don’t be afraid, but speak and don’t be silent;¹⁰ for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city.”¹¹ He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.¹² But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat,¹³ saying, “This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law.”¹⁴ But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you;¹⁵ but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don’t want to be a judge of these matters.”¹⁶ He drove them from the judgment seat.¹⁷ Then all the Greeks laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio didn’t care about any of these things.¹⁸ Paul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers,^{lxxii} and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow.¹⁹ He came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.²⁰ When they asked him to stay with them a longer time, he declined;²¹ but taking his leave of them, and saying, “I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you if God wills,” he set sail from Ephesus.²² When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch.²³ Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.²⁴ Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures.²⁵ This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John.²⁶ He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.²⁷ When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace;²⁸ for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

19 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples.² He said to them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” They said to him, “No, we haven’t even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”³ He said, “Into what then were you baptized?” They said, “Into John’s baptism.”⁴ Paul said, “John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Jesus.”⁵ When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.⁶ When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied.⁷ They were about twelve men in all.⁸ He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning God’s Kingdom.⁹ But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.¹⁰ This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.¹¹ God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul,¹² so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out.¹³ But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, “We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.”¹⁴ There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.¹⁵ The evil spirit answered, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?”¹⁶ The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. ¹⁸Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds. ¹⁹Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted their price, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. ^{lxxiii} ²⁰So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty. ²¹Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." ²²Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. ²³About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way. ²⁴For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, ²⁵whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth. ²⁶You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands. ²⁷Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships." ²⁸When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" ²⁹The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. ³⁰When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow him. ³¹Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater. ³²Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together. ³³They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people. ³⁴But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" ³⁵When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? ³⁶Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. ³⁷For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess. ³⁸If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. ³⁹But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. ⁴⁰For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning today's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion." ⁴¹When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. ²When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. ³When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. ⁴These accompanied him as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. ⁵But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. ⁶We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days. ⁷On the first day of the week, when the disciples were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight. ⁸There were many lights in the upper room where we ^{lxxiv} were gathered together. ⁹A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third floor, and was taken up dead. ¹⁰Paul went down, and fell upon him, and embracing him said, "Don't be troubled, for his life is in him." ¹¹When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. ¹²They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted. ¹³But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. ¹⁴When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene. ¹⁵Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus. ¹⁶For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost. ¹⁷From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the assembly. ¹⁸When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, ¹⁹servicing the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; ²⁰how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, ²¹testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus. ^{lxxv} ²²Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there; ²³except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. ²⁴But these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God. ²⁵"Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about preaching God's Kingdom, will see my face no more. ²⁶Therefore I testify to you today that I am clean from the blood of all men, ²⁷for I didn't shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. ²⁸Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of the Lord and ^{lxxvi} God which he purchased with his own blood. ²⁹For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. ³⁰Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. ³¹Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I didn't cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. ³²Now, brothers, ^{lxxvii} I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. ³³I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. ³⁴You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. ³⁵In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' " ³⁶When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. ³⁷They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, ³⁸sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21When we had departed from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ²Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. ³When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo. ⁴Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. ⁵When those days were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. ⁶After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again. ⁷When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. ⁸On the next day, we, who were Paul's companions, departed, and came to Caesarea. We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. ⁹Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. ¹⁰As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'" ¹²When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." ¹⁴When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done." ¹⁵After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay. ¹⁷When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. ¹⁸The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present. ¹⁹When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry. ²⁰They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law. ²¹They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs. ²²What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come. ²³Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. ²⁴Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law. ²⁵But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality.”²⁶ Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.²⁷ When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him,²⁸ crying out, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!”²⁹ For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.³⁰ All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut.³¹ As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.³² Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul.³³ Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done.³⁴ Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he couldn’t find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.³⁵ When he came to the stairs, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd;³⁶ for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, “Away with him!”³⁷ As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, “May I speak to you?” He said, “Do you know Greek?³⁸ Aren’t you then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?”³⁹ But Paul said, “I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people.”⁴⁰ When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

22“Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you.”² When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said,³ “I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict tradition of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are today.⁴ I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.⁵ As also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished.⁶ As I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light shone around me from the sky.⁷ I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’⁸ I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ He said to me, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.’⁹ “Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn’t understand the voice of him who spoke to me.¹⁰ I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ The Lord said to me, ‘Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.’¹¹ When I couldn’t see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.¹² One Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus,¹³ came to me, and standing by me said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight!’ In that very hour I looked up at him.¹⁴ He said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth.¹⁵ For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard.¹⁶ Now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.’¹⁷ “When I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance,¹⁸ and saw him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.’¹⁹ I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you.²⁰ When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.’²¹ “He said to me, ‘Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles.’ ”²² They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, “Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn’t fit to live!”²³ As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air,²⁴ the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that.²⁵ When they had tied him up with thongs, Paul asked the centurion who stood by, “Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?”²⁶ When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, “Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman!”²⁷ The commanding officer came and asked him, “Tell me, are you a Roman?” He said, “Yes.”²⁸ The commanding officer answered, “I bought my citizenship for a great price.” Paul said, “But I was born a Roman.”²⁹ Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him.³⁰ But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come

23Paul, looking steadfastly at the council, said, “Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until today.” ²The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. ³Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?” ⁴Those who stood by said, “Do you malign God’s high priest?” ⁵Paul said, “I didn’t know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’” ^{lxxviii} ⁶But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, “Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!” ⁷When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. ⁹A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, “We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let’s not fight against God!” ¹⁰When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks. ¹¹The following night, the Lord stood by him, and said, “Cheer up, Paul, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome.” ¹²When it was day, some of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. ¹⁴They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, “We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near.” ¹⁶But Paul’s sister’s son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul. ¹⁷Paul summoned one of the centurions, and said, “Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him.” ¹⁸So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, “Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you.” ¹⁹The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, “What is it that you have to tell me?” ²⁰He said, “The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. ²¹Therefore don’t yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you.” ²²So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, “Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me.” ²³He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, “Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night.” ^{lxxix} ²⁴He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. ²⁵He wrote a letter like this: ²⁶“Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings. ²⁷“This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. ²⁸Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council. ²⁹I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but not to be charged with anything worthy of death or of imprisonment. ³⁰When I was told that the Jews lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you. Farewell.” ³¹So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. ³²But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. ³³When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. ³⁴When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said, ³⁵“I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive.” He commanded that he be kept in Herod’s palace.

24After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. ²When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that excellent measures are coming to this nation, ³we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. ⁴But, that I don’t delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. ⁵For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. ⁶He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him. ^{lxxx} ^{7lxxxi} ^{8lxxxii} By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him.”⁹ The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so.¹⁰ When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, “Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense,¹¹ seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem.¹² In the temple they didn’t find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city.¹³ Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me.¹⁴ But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets;¹⁵ having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.¹⁶ Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and men.¹⁷ Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings;¹⁸ amid which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil.¹⁹ They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me.²⁰ Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council,²¹ unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, ‘Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!’”²² But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, “When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case.”²³ He ordered the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him.²⁴ But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus.²⁵ As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, “Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you.”²⁶ Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul, that he might release him. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him.²⁷ But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

25 Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.² Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they begged him,³ asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way.⁴ However Festus answered that Paul should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly.⁵ “Let them therefore”, said he, “that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him.”⁶ When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.⁷ When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove,⁸ while he said in his defense, “Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all.”⁹ But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?”¹⁰ But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well.¹¹ For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I don’t refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!”¹² Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, “You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go.”¹³ Now when some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus.¹⁴ As he stayed there many days, Festus laid Paul’s case before the king, saying, “There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix;¹⁵ about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for a sentence against him.¹⁶ To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him.¹⁷ When therefore they had come together here, I didn’t delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought.¹⁸ Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed;¹⁹ but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.²⁰ Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters.²¹ But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar.”²² Agrippa said to Festus, “I also would like to hear the man myself.” “Tomorrow,” he said, “you shall hear him.”²³ So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.²⁴ Festus said, “King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.²⁵ But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. ²⁶Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write. ²⁷For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him.”

26Agrippa said to Paul, “You may speak for yourself.” Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. ²“I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you today concerning all the things that I am accused by the Jews, ³especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently. ⁴“Indeed, all the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; ⁵having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. ⁶Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa! ⁸Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead? ⁹“I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. ¹⁰This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. ¹¹Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities. ¹²“Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests, ¹³at noon, O king, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. ¹⁴When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’ ¹⁵“I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ ‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ¹⁶But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you; ¹⁷delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you, ¹⁸to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.’ ¹⁹“Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, ²⁰but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. ²¹For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me. ²²Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would happen, ²³how the Christ must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles.” ²⁴As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, “Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!” ²⁵But he said, “I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. ²⁶For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.” ²⁸Agrippa said to Paul, “With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Christian?” ²⁹Paul said, “I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become such as I am, except for these bonds.” ³⁰The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them. ³¹When they had withdrawn, they spoke to one another, saying, “This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds.” ³²Agrippa said to Festus, “This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

27When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. ²Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. ³The next day, we touched at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. ⁴Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. ⁵When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. ⁶There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. ⁷When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. ⁸With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea. ⁹When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them, ¹⁰and said to them, “Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.” ¹¹But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul. ¹²Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast. ¹³When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. ¹⁴But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euroclydon. ¹⁵When the ship was caught, and couldn't face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. ¹⁶Running under the lee of a small island called Clauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. ¹⁷After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along. ¹⁸As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. ¹⁹On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. ²⁰When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away. ²¹When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. ²²Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. ²³For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve, ²⁴saying, 'Don't be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' ²⁵Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. ²⁶But we must run aground on a certain island." ²⁷But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. ²⁸They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms. ²⁹After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms. ³⁰Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. ³¹As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, ³²Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved." ³³Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off. ³⁴While the day was coming on, Paul begged them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. ³⁵Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish from any of your heads." ³⁶When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. ³⁷Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. ³⁸In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship. ³⁹When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. ⁴⁰When it was day, they didn't recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. ⁴¹Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. ⁴²But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves. ⁴³The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. ⁴⁴But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; ⁴⁵and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So they all escaped safely to the land.

28When we had escaped, then they ¹learned that the island was called Malta. ²The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. ³But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. ⁴When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live." ⁵However he shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn't harmed. ⁶But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god. ⁷Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. ⁸The father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. ⁹Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. ¹⁰They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed. ¹¹After three months, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was "The Twin Brothers." ¹²Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. ¹³From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, ¹⁴where we found brothers, ¹⁵and were en-

treated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. ¹⁵From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God, and took courage. ¹⁶When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him. ¹⁷After three days Paul called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, ¹⁸who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. ¹⁹But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. ²⁰For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain." ²¹They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. ²²But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against." ²³When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about God's Kingdom, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening. ²⁴Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. ²⁵When they didn't agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah, the prophet, to our fathers, ²⁶but will in no way understand. but will in no way perceive. Romans

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the Good News of God, ²which he promised before through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, ³concerning his Son, who was born of the offspring ¹of David according to the flesh, ⁴who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, ⁵through whom we received grace and apostleship, for obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name's sake; ⁶among whom you are also called to belong to Jesus Christ; ⁷to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. ⁹For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, ¹⁰requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. ¹¹For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established; ¹²that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine. ¹³Now I don't desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles. ¹⁴I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish. ¹⁵So, as much as is in me, I am eager to preach the Good News to you also who are in Rome. ¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Christ, for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. ¹⁷For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith." ⁱⁱ ¹⁸For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, ¹⁹because that which is known of God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them. ²⁰For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse. ²¹Because, knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened. ²²Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, ²³and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things. ²⁴Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves, ²⁵who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. ²⁶For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. ²⁷Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. ²⁸Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; ²⁹being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, ³⁰backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, ³¹without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful; ³²who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

2 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. ²We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. ³Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? ⁴Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? ⁵But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God; ⁶who “will pay back to everyone according to their works:” ⁱⁱⁱ ⁷to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruptibility, eternal life; ⁸but to those who are self-seeking, and don’t obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation, ⁹oppression and anguish, on every soul of man who does evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. ¹⁰But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who does good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. ¹¹For there is no partiality with God. ¹²For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³For it isn’t the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified ¹⁴(for when Gentiles who don’t have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, ¹⁵in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them) ¹⁶in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my Good News, by Jesus Christ. ¹⁷Indeed you bear the name of a Jew, and rest on the law, and glory in God, ¹⁸and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, ¹⁹and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, ²⁰a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. ²¹You therefore who teach another, don’t you teach yourself? You who preach that a man shouldn’t steal, do you steal? ²²You who say a man shouldn’t commit adultery. Do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? ²³You who glory in the law, through your disobedience of the law do you dishonor God? ²⁴For “the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,” ^{iv} just as it is written. ²⁵For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. ²⁶If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won’t his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision? ²⁷Won’t the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? ²⁸For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; ²⁹but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

3Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? ²Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the revelations of God.

³For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? ^{4v} “That you might be justified in your words, May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written, ⁵But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do. ⁶May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? ⁷For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? ⁸Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), “Let us do evil, that good may come?” Those who say so are justly condemned. ⁹What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin. ¹⁰no, not one. “There is no one righteous; As it is written, ¹¹There is no one who seeks after God. There is no one who understands. ¹²They have together become unprofitable. ^{vi} They have all turned aside. There is no one who does good, ^{13vii} “Their throat is an open tomb. ^{viii} ¹⁴“whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.” ^{ix} ¹⁵“Their feet are swift to shed blood. ¹⁶Destruction and misery are in their ways. ¹⁷The way of peace, they haven’t known.” ^x ¹⁸“There is no fear of God before their eyes.” ^{xi} ¹⁹Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. ²⁰Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. ²¹But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets; ²²even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction, ²³for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; ²⁴being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus; ²⁵whom God sent to be an atoning sacrifice, ^{xii} through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in God’s forbearance; ²⁶to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time; that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus. ²⁷Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. ²⁸We maintain therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. ²⁹Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn’t he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, ³⁰since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. ³¹Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

4What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh? ²For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not toward God. ³For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.” ^{xiii} ⁴Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as something owed. ⁵But to him who doesn’t work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness. ⁶Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works, ⁷whose sins are covered. “Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, ⁸Blessed is the man whom the Lord will by no means charge with sin.” ^{xiv} ⁹Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. ¹⁰How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. ¹¹He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they might be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them. ¹²He is the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. ¹³For the promise to Abraham and to his offspring ^{xv} that he should be heir of the world wasn’t through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. ¹⁵For the law produces wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. ¹⁶For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the offspring, ^{xvi} not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. ¹⁷As it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations.” ^{xvii} This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. ¹⁸Besides hope, Abraham in hope believed, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, “So will your offspring ^{xviii} be.” ^{xix} ¹⁹Without being weakened in faith, he didn’t consider his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah’s womb. ²⁰Yet, looking to the promise of God, he didn’t waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, ²¹and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was also able to perform. ²²Therefore it also was “credited to him for righteousness.” ^{xx} ²³Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone, ²⁴but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised Jesus, our Lord, from the dead, ²⁵who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; ²through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God. ³Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: ⁵and hope doesn’t disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. ⁶For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷For one will hardly die for a righteous man. Yet perhaps for a righteous person someone would even dare to die. ⁸But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God’s wrath through him. ¹⁰For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life. ¹¹Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. ¹²Therefore as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned. ¹³For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. ¹⁴Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren’t like Adam’s disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come. ¹⁵But the free gift isn’t like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many. ¹⁶The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. ¹⁷For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. ¹⁸So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life. ¹⁹For as through the one man’s disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. ²⁰The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly; ²¹that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? ²May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? ³Or don't you know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴We were buried therefore with him through baptism to death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. ⁵For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; ⁶knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. ⁷For he who has died has been freed from sin. ⁸But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him; ⁹knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him! ¹⁰For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. ¹¹Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹²Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. ¹³Also, do not present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. ¹⁴For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. ¹⁵What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! ¹⁶Don't you know that when you present yourselves as servants and obey someone, you are the servants of whomever you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? ¹⁷But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching to which you were delivered. ¹⁸Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness. ¹⁹I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification. ²⁰For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. ²¹What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. ²²But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7Or don't you know, brothers ^{xxi} (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives? ²For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. ³So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. ⁴Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might produce fruit to God. ⁵For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring out fruit to death. ⁶But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter. ⁷What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet." ^{xxii} ⁸But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. ⁹I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. ¹⁰The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death; ¹¹for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. ¹²Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good. ¹³Did then that which is good become death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceedingly sinful. ¹⁴For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. ¹⁵For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. ¹⁶But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. ¹⁷So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. ¹⁸For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good. ¹⁹For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice. ²⁰But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. ²¹I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. ²²For I delight in God's law after the inward man, ²³but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members. ²⁴What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? ²⁵I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord! So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, the sin's law.

^{xxi}Romans 7:1 The word for "brothers" here and where context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

^{xxii}Romans 7:7 Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21

⁸There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. ^{xxiii} ²For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death. ³For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; ⁴that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. ⁵For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. ⁶For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; ⁷because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be. ⁸Those who are in the flesh can't please God. ⁹But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn't have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his. ¹⁰If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness. ¹¹But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. ¹²So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. ¹³For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God. ¹⁵For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba! ^{xxiv} Father!" ¹⁶The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God; ¹⁷and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. ¹⁸For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. ¹⁹For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope ²¹that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. ²²For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. ²³Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. ²⁴For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? ²⁵But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience. ²⁶In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered. ²⁷He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God. ²⁸We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. ^{xxv} ³⁰Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified. ³¹What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³²He who didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? ³³Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies. ³⁴Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us. ³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? ³⁶Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter." ^{xxvi} ³⁷No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

⁹I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit, ²that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, ⁴who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; ⁵of whom are the fathers, and from whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen. ⁶But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel. ⁷Neither, because they

⁸That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as heirs. ⁹For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son." ^{xxx} ¹⁰Not only so, but Rebekah also conceived by one, by our father Isaac. ¹¹For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, ^{xxxi} ¹²it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger." ^{xxxii} ¹³Even as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated." ^{xxxiii} ¹⁴What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be! ¹⁵For he said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion." ^{xxxiv} ¹⁶So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. ¹⁷For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth." ^{xxxv} ¹⁸So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. ¹⁹You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?" ²⁰But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?" ^{xxxvi} ²¹Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? ²²What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction, ²³and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory, ²⁴us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? ^{25xxxvii} "I will call them 'my people,' which were not my people; As he says also in Hosea, ^{26xxxviii} "It will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' ²⁷it is the remnant who will be saved; "If the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea, Isaiah cries concerning Israel, ^{28xxxix} for He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness,

That the Gentiles, who didn't follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith; ³¹but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, didn't arrive at the law of righteousness. ³²Why? Because they didn't seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone; ^{33xlii xliiii} I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and a rock of offense; even as it is written,

10Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for Israel, that they may be saved. ²For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn't subject themselves to the righteousness of God. ⁴For Christ is the fulfillment ^{xliv} of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. ⁵For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them." ^{xlv} ⁶But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?' ^{xlvi} (that is, to bring Christ down); ⁷or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?' ^{xlvii} (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)" ⁸But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart"; ^{xlviii} that is, the word of faith, which we preach: ⁹that if you will confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. ¹¹For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed." ^{xlix} ¹²For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich to all who call on him. ¹³For, "Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved." ¹⁴How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher? ^{15li} "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the Good News of peace, And how will they preach unless they are sent? says, “Lord, who has believed our report?” ^{lii} ¹⁷So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. ¹⁸^{liii} “Their sound went out into all the earth, But I say, didn’t they hear? Yes, most certainly, ¹⁹^{liv} “I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, But I ask, didn’t Israel know? First Moses says, ²⁰^{lv} “I was found by those who didn’t seek me. Isaiah is very bold, and says, ²¹But as to Israel he says, “All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people.” ^{lvi}

11I ask then, did God reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. ²God didn’t reject his people, which he foreknew. Or don’t you know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel: ³“Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.” ^{lvi} ⁴But how does God answer him? “I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.” ^{lviii} ⁵Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. ⁶And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work. ⁷What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he didn’t obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened. ⁸According as it is written, “God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day.” ^{lix} ⁹a stumbling block, and a retribution to them. “Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, David says, ¹⁰^{lx} Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see. ¹¹I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. ¹²Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness? ¹³For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; ¹⁴if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. ¹⁵For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? ¹⁶If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches. ¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree; ¹⁸don’t boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. ¹⁹You will say then, “Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.” ²⁰True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don’t be conceited, but fear; ²¹for if God didn’t spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. ²²See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. ²³They also, if they don’t continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? ²⁵For I don’t desire you to be ignorant, brothers, ^{lxi} of this mystery, so that you won’t be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, ²⁶and he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob. “There will come out of Zion the Deliverer, and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written, ²⁷^{lxii} This is my covenant to them, ²⁸Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers’ sake. ²⁹For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. ³⁰For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, ³¹even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy. ³²For God has shut up all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all. ³³Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out! ³⁴^{lxiii} “For who has known the mind of the Lord? ³⁵^{lxiv} “Or who has first given to him, ³⁶For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.

12Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service. ²Don’t be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God. ³For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. ⁴For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don’t have the same function, ⁵so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. ⁶Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; ⁷or service, let us give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; ⁸or he who exhorts, to his exhorting: he who gives, let him do it with liberality; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness. ⁹Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good. ¹⁰In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate to one another; in honor preferring one another; ¹¹not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; ¹²rejoicing in hope; enduring in troubles; continuing steadfastly in prayer; ¹³contributing to the needs of the saints; given to hospitality. ¹⁴Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. ¹⁶Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits. ¹⁷Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men. ¹⁸If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men. ¹⁹Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord." ^{lxxv} ²⁰If he is thirsty, give him a drink; ^{lxxvi} "If your enemy is hungry, feed him. Therefore ²¹Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God. ²Therefore he who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment. ³For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same, ⁴for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil. ⁵Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. ⁶For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of God's service, attending continually on this very thing. ⁷Therefore give everyone what you owe: if you owe taxes, pay taxes; if customs, then customs; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor. ⁸Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law. ⁹For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," ^{lxxvii} "You shall not covet," ^{lxxviii} and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ^{lxxix} ¹⁰Love doesn't harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law. ¹¹Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. ¹²The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the deeds of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

14Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. ²One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. ³Don't let him who eats despise him who doesn't eat. Don't let him who doesn't eat judge him who eats, for God has accepted him. ⁴Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for God has power to make him stand. ⁵One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. ⁶He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord he doesn't eat, and gives God thanks. ⁷For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. ⁸For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's. ⁹For to this end Christ died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. ¹⁰But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. ^{lxxx} "As I live," says the Lord, "to me every knee will bow. For it is written, ¹²So then each one of us will give account of himself to God. ¹³Therefore let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion for falling. ¹⁴I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. ¹⁵Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with your food him for whom Christ died. ¹⁶Then don't let your good be slandered, ¹⁷for God's Kingdom is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men. ¹⁹So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up. ²⁰Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating. ²¹It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything by which your brother stumbles, is offended, or is made weak. ²²Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who doesn't judge himself in that which he approves. ²³But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin. ²⁴Now to him who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through long ages, ²⁵but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; ²⁶to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever! Amen. ^{lxxi}

15 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. ²Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up. ³For even Christ didn't please himself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me." ^{lxxii} ⁴For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. ⁵Now the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus, ⁶that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷Therefore accept one another, even as Christ also accepted you, ^{lxxiii} to the glory of God. ⁸Now I say that Christ has been made a servant of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given to the fathers, ^{9lxxiv} "Therefore will I give praise to you among the Gentiles, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, ^{10lxxv} Again he says, ^{11lxxvi} "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles! with all knowledge, able also to admonish others. ¹⁵But I write the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God, ¹⁶that I should be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving as a priest of the Good News of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. ¹⁷I have therefore my boasting in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God. ¹⁸For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Christ worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, ¹⁹in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of God's Spirit; so that from Jerusalem, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Good News of Christ; ²⁰yes, making it my aim to preach the Good News, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build on another's foundation. ^{21lxxix} "They will see, to whom no news of him came. But, as it is written, ²²Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you, ²³but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you, ²⁴whenever I travel to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while. ²⁵But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the saints. ²⁶For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are at Jerusalem. ²⁷Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things. ²⁸When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain. ²⁹I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of Christ. ³⁰Now I beg you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me, ³¹that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints; ³²that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest. ³³Now the God of peace be with you all. 1 Corinthians

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, ²to the assembly of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: ³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; ⁵that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; ⁶even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: ⁷so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; ⁸who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord. ¹⁰Now I beg you, brothers, ⁱ through the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. ¹²Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ." ¹³Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? ¹⁴I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one should say that I had baptized you into my own name. ¹⁶(I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I baptized any other.) ¹⁷For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ wouldn't be made void. ¹⁸For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹ⁱⁱ "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, For it is written, ²⁰Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world? ²¹For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe. ²²For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom, ²³but we preach Christ crucified; a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks, ²⁴but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. ²⁶For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; ²⁷but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; ²⁸and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are: ²⁹that no flesh should boast before God. ³⁰Because of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: ³¹that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord." ⁱⁱⁱ

2 When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. ²For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. ³I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. ⁴My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. ⁶We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing. ⁷But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds for our glory, ⁸which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹which didn't enter into the heart of man, "Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, ^{iv} But as it is written,

ⁱⁱⁱ1 Corinthians 1:31 Jeremiah 9:24

^{iv}1 Corinthians 2:9 Isaiah 64:4

¹⁰But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. ¹¹For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit. ¹²But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God. ¹³Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. ¹⁴Now the natural man doesn't receive the things of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one. ¹⁶"For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?" ^v But we have Christ's mind.

3Brothers, I couldn't speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babies in Christ. ²I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren't yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready, ³for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you walk in the ways of men? ⁴For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly? ⁵Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Lord gave to him? ⁶I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase. ⁷So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. ⁸Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. ⁹For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building. ¹⁰According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it. ¹¹For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble; ¹³each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is. ¹⁴If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire. ¹⁶Don't you know that you are a temple of God, and that God's Spirit lives in you? ¹⁷If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, which you are. ¹⁸Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness." ^{vi} ²⁰And again, "The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless." ^{vii} ²¹Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, ²²whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, ²³and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

4So let a man think of us as Christ's servants, and stewards of God's mysteries. ²Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful. ³But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I don't judge my own self. ⁴For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord. ⁵Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from God. ⁶Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another. ⁷For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? ⁸You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you. ⁹For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men. ¹⁰We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor. ¹¹Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place. ¹²We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure. ¹³Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now. ¹⁴I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. ¹⁵For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the Good News. ¹⁶I beg you therefore, be imitators of me. ¹⁷Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly. ¹⁸Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. ²⁰For God's Kingdom is not in word, but in power. ²¹What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

^{vi}1 Corinthians 3:19 Job 5:13

^{vii}1 Corinthians 3:20 Psalm 94:11

⁵It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that one has his father's wife. ²You are puffed up, and didn't rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you. ³For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing. ⁴In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁵are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. ⁶Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump? ⁷Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed in our place. ⁸Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. ⁹I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners; ¹⁰yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortionists, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world. ¹¹But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortionist. Don't even eat with such a person. ¹²For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within? ¹³But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked man from among yourselves." ^{viii}

⁶Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? ²Don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? ³Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? ⁴If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly? ⁵I say this to move you to shame. Isn't there even one wise man among you who would be able to decide between his brothers? ⁶But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers! ⁷Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? ⁸No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers. ⁹Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit God's Kingdom? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, ¹⁰nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortionists, will inherit God's Kingdom.

¹¹Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God. ¹²"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything. ¹³"Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power. ¹⁵Don't you know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! ¹⁶Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, "The two", he says, "will become one flesh." ^{ix} ¹⁷But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. ¹⁸Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. ¹⁹Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? You are not your own, ²⁰for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

⁷Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman. ²But, because of sexual immoralities, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. ³Let the husband render to his wife the affection owed her, and likewise also the wife to her husband. ⁴The wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband doesn't have authority over his own body, but the wife. ⁵Don't deprive one another, unless it is by consent for a season, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer, and may be together again, that Satan doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control. ⁶But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. ⁷Yet I wish that all men were like me. However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind. ⁸But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. ⁹But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn. ¹⁰But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband ¹¹(but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife. ¹²But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. ¹³The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. ¹⁵Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace. ¹⁶For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? ¹⁷Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies. ¹⁸Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. ¹⁹Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. ²⁰Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called. ²¹Were you called being a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. ²²For he who was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's free man. Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's bondservant. ²³You were bought with a price. Don't become bondservants of men. ²⁴Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God. ²⁵Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. ²⁶I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to be as he is. ²⁷Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. ²⁸But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you. ²⁹But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none; ³⁰and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess; ³¹and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away. ³²But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; ³³but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. ³⁴There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. ³⁵This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction. ³⁶But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry. ³⁷But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. ³⁸So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage does better. ³⁹A wife is bound by law for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. ⁴⁰But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

8Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ²But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. ³But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him. ⁴Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one. ⁵For though there are things that are called "gods", whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords"; ⁶yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we live through him. ⁷However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better. ⁹But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak. ¹⁰For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? ¹¹And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whose sake Christ died. ¹²Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. ¹³Therefore if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forever more, that I don't cause my brother to stumble.

9Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus Christ, our Lord? Aren't you my work in the Lord? ²If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. ³My defense to those who examine me is this. ⁴Have we no right to eat and to drink? ⁵Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? ⁶Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work? ⁷What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk? ⁸Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing? ⁹For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." ^x Is it for the oxen that God cares, ¹⁰or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope. ¹¹If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? ¹²If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Christ. ¹³Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? ¹⁴Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. ¹⁵But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. ¹⁶For if I preach the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I don't preach the Good News. ¹⁷For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. ¹⁸What then is my reward? That, when I preach the Good News, I may present the Good News of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. ¹⁹For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. ²⁰To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; ²¹to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law. ²²To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. ²³Now I do this for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it. ²⁴Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. ²⁵Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. ²⁶I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air, ²⁷but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

10 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; ²and were all baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ³and all ate the same spiritual food; ⁴and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. ⁵However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. ⁶Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. ⁷Don't be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." ^{xi} ⁸Let us not commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. ⁹Let us not test Christ, ^{xii} as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. ¹⁰Don't grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. ¹¹Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹²Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't fall. ¹³No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. ¹⁴Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. ¹⁶The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a sharing of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, isn't it a sharing of the body of Christ? ¹⁷Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. ¹⁸Consider Israel according to the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar? ¹⁹What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have fellowship with demons. ²¹You can't both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons. ²²Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? ²³"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up. ²⁴Let no one seek his own, but each one his neighbor's good. ²⁵Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, ²⁶for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness." ^{xiii} ²⁷But if one of those who don't believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. ²⁸But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness." ²⁹Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? ³⁰If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? ³¹Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³²Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the assembly of God; ³³even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

^{xi}1 Corinthians 10:7 Exodus 32:6

^{xii}1 Corinthians 10:9 NU reads "the Lord" instead of "Christ".

^{xiii}1 Corinthians 10:26 Psalm 24:1

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ. ²Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. ³But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. ⁵But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. ⁶For if a woman is not covered, let her hair also be cut off. But if it is shameful for a woman to be have her hair cut off or shaved, let her be covered. ⁷For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. ⁸For man is not from woman, but woman from man; ⁹for man wasn't created for the woman, but woman for the man. ¹⁰For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels. ¹¹Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord. ¹²For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. ¹³Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? ¹⁴Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? ¹⁵But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. ¹⁶But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies. ¹⁷But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. ¹⁹For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. ²⁰When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. ²¹For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken. ²²What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly, and put them to shame who don't have? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise you. ²³For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. ²⁴When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me." ²⁵In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me." ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. ²⁷Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord's cup in a way unworthy of the Lord will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. ²⁸But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. ²⁹For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy way eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he doesn't discern the Lord's body. ³⁰For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. ³¹For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn't be judged. ³²But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. ³³Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I don't want you to be ignorant. ²You know that when you were heathen, ^{xiv} you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. ³Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit. ⁴Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord. ⁶There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. ⁷But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all. ⁸For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; ⁹to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit; ¹⁰and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages. ¹¹But the one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires. ¹²For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ. ¹³For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink into one Spirit. ¹⁴For the body is not one member, but many. ¹⁵If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. ¹⁶If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? ¹⁸But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. ¹⁹If they were all one member, where would the body be? ²⁰But now they are many members, but one body. ²¹The eye can't tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." ²²No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. ²³Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unrepresentable parts have more abundant propriety; ²⁴whereas our representable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, ²⁵that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. ²⁶When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it. ²⁷Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually. ²⁸God has set some in the assembly: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? ³⁰Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? ³¹But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

13If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. ²If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. ³If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing. ⁴Love is patient and is kind; love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud, ⁵doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; ⁶doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; ⁷bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. ⁸Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. ⁹For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; ¹⁰but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with. ¹¹When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things. ¹²For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. ¹³But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

14Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. ²For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. ³But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation. ⁴He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the assembly. ⁵Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up. ⁶But now, brothers, ^{xv} if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? ⁷Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? ⁸For if the trumpet gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? ⁹So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. ¹⁰There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without meaning. ¹¹If then I don't know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. ¹²So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. ¹³Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. ¹⁵What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. ¹⁶Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say? ¹⁷For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. ¹⁸I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all. ¹⁹However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language. ²⁰Brothers, don't be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. ²¹In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Lord." ^{xvi} ²²Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. ²³If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? ²⁴But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is proved by all, and he is judged by all. ²⁵And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed. ²⁶What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation.

^{xv}1 Corinthians 14:6 The word for "brothers" here and where context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

Let all things be done to build each other up. ²⁷If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. ²⁸But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God. ²⁹Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. ³⁰But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. ³¹For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. ³²The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, ³³for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace. As in all the assemblies of the saints, ³⁴let your wives keep silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the law also says. ³⁵If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the assembly. ³⁶What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? ³⁷If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. ³⁸But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. ³⁹Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking with other languages. ⁴⁰Let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, ²by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. ³For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, ⁸and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also. ⁹For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was given to me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. ¹¹Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed. ¹²Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. ¹⁴If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. ¹⁵Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he didn't raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. ¹⁶For if the dead aren't raised, neither has

Christ been raised. ¹⁷If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. ¹⁸Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ¹⁹If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable. ²⁰But now Christ has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep. ²¹For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. ²²For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. ²³But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ's, at his coming. ²⁴Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶The last enemy that will be abolished is death. ²⁷For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet." ^{xvii} But when he says, "All things are put in subjection", it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him. ²⁸When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all. ²⁹Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they baptized for the dead? ³⁰Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? ³¹I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. ³²If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." ^{xviii} ³³Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals." ³⁴Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. ³⁵But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" ³⁶You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. ³⁷That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. ³⁸But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. ³⁹All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. ⁴⁰There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. ⁴¹There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. ⁴²So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown perishable; it is raised imperishable. ⁴³It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. ⁴⁴It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul." ^{xix} The last Adam

^{xvii}1 Corinthians 15:27 Psalm 8:6

^{xviii}1 Corinthians 15:32 Isaiah 22:13

became a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is the Lord from heaven. ⁴⁸As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. ⁴⁹As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's ^{xx} also bear the image of the heavenly. ⁵⁰Now I say this, brothers, ^{xxi} that flesh and blood can't inherit God's Kingdom; neither does the perishable inherit imperishable. ⁵¹Behold, ^{xxii} I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, ⁵²in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. ⁵³For this perishable body must become imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality. ⁵⁴But when this perishable body will have become imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory." ^{xxiii} ^{55xxiv} where is your victory?" ^{xxv} "Death, where is your sting?" ⁵⁶The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

16Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise. ²On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. ³When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. ⁴If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. ⁵But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. ⁶But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. ⁷For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits. ⁸But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. ¹⁰Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. ¹¹Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

¹²Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity. ¹³Watch! Stand firm in the faith! Be courageous! Be strong! ¹⁴Let all that you do be done in love. ¹⁵Now I beg you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the saints), ¹⁶that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors. ¹⁷I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied. ¹⁸For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that. ¹⁹The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, together with the assembly that is in their house. ²⁰All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. ²¹This greeting is by me, Paul, with my own hand. ²²If any man doesn't love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. ^{xxvi} Come, Lord! ^{xxvii} ²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. ²⁴My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 Corinthians

1Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: 2Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; 4who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. 5For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ. 6But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. 7Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort. 8For we don't desire to have you uninformed, brothers, 1 concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. 9Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, 10who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us; 11you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift given to us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf. 12For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end; 14as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus. 15In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; 16and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. 17When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?" 18But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no." 19For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes." 20For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amen", to the glory of God through us. 21Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God; 22who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. 23But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you. 24Not that we control your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

2But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. 2For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? 3And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. 4For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. 5But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. 6This punishment which was inflicted by the many is sufficient for such a one; 7so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. 8Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him. 9For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. 10Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ, 11that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes. 12Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, 13I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. ¹⁴Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. ¹⁵For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; ¹⁶to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

3Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you? ²You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; ³being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. ⁴Such confidence we have through Christ toward God; ⁵not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; ⁶who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. ⁷But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away: ⁸won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? ⁹For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. ¹⁰For most certainly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. ¹¹For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory. ¹²Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, ¹³and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel wouldn't look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ it passes away. ¹⁵But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. ¹⁶But whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ¹⁷Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. ¹⁸But we all, with unveiled face seeing the glory of the Lord as in a mirror, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

4Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint. ²But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. ³Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who perish; ⁴in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them. ⁵For we don't preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake; ⁶seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," ⁱⁱ who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. ⁷But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. ⁸We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; ⁹pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; ¹⁰always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. ¹¹For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh. ¹²So then death works in us, but life in you. ¹³But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke." ⁱⁱⁱ We also believe, and therefore also we speak; ¹⁴knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. ¹⁵For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. ¹⁶Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. ¹⁷For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; ¹⁸while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. ²For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven; ³if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked. ⁴For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit. ⁶Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. ⁹Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. ¹⁰For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether

ⁱⁱⁱ2 Corinthians 4:13 Psalm 116:10

good or bad. ¹¹Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. ¹²For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. ¹³For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you. ¹⁴For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. ¹⁵He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again. ¹⁶Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. ¹⁷Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, ^{iv} all things have become new. ¹⁸But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. ²⁰We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6 Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain, ²“At an acceptable time I listened to you, ^v for he says, Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. ³We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, ⁴but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, ⁵in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; ⁶in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, ⁷in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ⁸by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; ⁹as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed; ¹⁰as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. ¹¹Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. ¹²You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. ¹³Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide. ¹⁴Don’t be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? ¹⁵What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? ¹⁶What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, “I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.” ^{vi} ¹⁷and be separate,’ says the Lord. ^{vii} “‘Come out from among them, ‘Touch no unclean thing. Therefore ¹⁸You will be to me sons and daughters,’ I will be to you a Father. ^{viii}

7 Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. ²Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. ³I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. ⁴Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. ⁵For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. ⁶Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; ⁷and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more. ⁸For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. ⁹I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. ¹⁰For godly sorrow produces repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world produces death. ¹¹For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. ¹²So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. ¹³Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. ¹⁴For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. ¹⁵His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. ¹⁶I rejoice that in everything I am confident concerning you.

8Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia; ²how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. ³For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, ⁴begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints. ⁵This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. ⁶So we urged Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. ⁷But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace. ⁸I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. ¹⁰I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. ¹¹But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. ¹²For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have. ¹³For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, ¹⁴but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. ¹⁵As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack." ^{ix} ¹⁶But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. ¹⁷For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. ¹⁸We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the assemblies. ¹⁹Not only so, but who was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness. ²⁰We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. ²¹Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. ²²We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. ²³As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the apostles of the assemblies, the glory of Christ. ²⁴Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

9It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints, ²for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. ³But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, ⁴so that I won't by any means, if anyone from Macedonia comes there with me and finds you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confident boasting. ⁵I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. ⁶Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. ⁷Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. ^{9x} "He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor. As it is written, ¹⁰Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; ¹¹you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which produces through us thanksgiving to God. ¹²For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many givings of thanks to God; ¹³seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; ¹⁴while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. ¹⁵Now thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

10Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. ²Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. ³For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh; ⁴for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds, ⁵throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ; ⁶and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. ⁷Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. ⁸For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, ⁹that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. ¹⁰For, "His letters", they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." ¹¹Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. ¹²For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. ¹³But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. ¹⁴For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Christ, ¹⁵not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, ¹⁶so as to preach the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. ¹⁷But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord." ¹⁸For it isn't he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

11I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. ²For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ. ³But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. ⁴For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news", which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. ⁵For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles. ⁶But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things. ⁷Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? ⁸I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. ⁹When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. ¹⁰As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of

Achaia. ¹¹Why? Because I don't love you? God knows. ¹²But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we. ¹³For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ's apostles. ¹⁴And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. ¹⁵It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works. ¹⁶I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. ¹⁷That which I speak, I don't speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. ¹⁸Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. ¹⁹For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. ²⁰For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face. ²¹I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet in whatever way anyone is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. ²²Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the offspring ^{xii} of Abraham? So am I. ²³Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. ²⁴Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. ²⁵Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. ²⁶I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; ²⁷in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness. ²⁸Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies. ²⁹Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation? ³⁰If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. ³¹The God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, he who is blessed forever more, knows that I don't lie. ³²In Damascus the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of the Damascenes desiring to arrest me. ³³Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven. ³I know such a man (whether in the body, or outside of the body, I don't know; God knows), ⁴how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. ⁵On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. ⁶For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. ⁷By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively. ⁸Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me. ⁹He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me. ¹⁰Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. ¹¹I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best apostles, though I am nothing. ¹²Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. ¹³For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong. ¹⁴Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? ¹⁶But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. ¹⁷Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? ¹⁸I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn’t we walk in the same spirit? Didn’t we walk in the same steps? ¹⁹Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. ²⁰For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don’t desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; ²¹that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

13This is the third time I am coming to you. “At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.” ^{xiii} ²¹I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; ³seeing that you seek a proof of Christ who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. ⁴For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you. ⁵Examine your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don’t you know as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. ⁶But I hope that you will know that we aren’t disqualified. ⁷Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. ⁸For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. ⁹For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. ¹⁰For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down. ¹¹Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss. ¹³All the saints greet you. ¹⁴The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

^{xiii}2 Corinthians 13:1 Deuteronomy 19:15

Galatians

1Paul, an apostle (not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead), ²and all the brothers ¹ who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: ³Grace to you and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father— ⁵to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ⁶I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different “good news”; ⁷and there isn’t another “good news.” Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the Good News of Christ. ⁸But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any “good news” other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed. ⁹As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any “good news” other than that which you received, let him be cursed. ¹⁰For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn’t be a servant of Christ. ¹¹But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. ¹²For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹³For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jews’ religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and ravaged it. ¹⁴I advanced in the Jews’ religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. ¹⁵But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother’s womb, and called me through his grace, ¹⁶to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I didn’t immediately confer with flesh and blood, ¹⁷nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus. ¹⁸Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. ¹⁹But of the other apostles I saw no one, except James, the Lord’s brother. ²⁰Now about the things which I write to you, behold, ⁱⁱ before God, I’m not lying. ²¹Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²²I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ, ²³but they only heard: “He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy.” ²⁴And they glorified God in me.

2Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. ²I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. ³But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. ⁴This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; ⁵to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. ⁶But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn’t show partiality to man)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, ⁷but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcision ⁸(for he who appointed Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles); ⁹and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision. ¹⁰They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do. ¹¹But when Peter came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. ¹²For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. ¹³And the rest of the Jews joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. ¹⁴But

when I saw that they didn't walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?"¹⁵ "We, being Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners,¹⁶ yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law."¹⁷ But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? Certainly not!¹⁸ For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker.¹⁹ For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God.²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.²¹ I don't make void the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"

3 Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly portrayed among you as crucified? ²I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? ³Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? ⁴Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain? ⁵He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and does miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? ⁶Even as Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness."⁷ Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abraham. ⁸The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you all the nations will be blessed."ⁱⁱⁱ ⁹So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. ¹⁰For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them."^{iv} ¹¹Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith."^v ¹²The law is not of faith, but, "The man who does them will live by them."^{vi} ¹³Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,"^{vii} ¹⁴that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. ¹⁵Brothers, speaking of human terms, though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it. ¹⁶Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring.^{viii} He doesn't say, "To descendants^{ix}", as of many, but as of one, "To your offspring^x",^{xi} which is Christ. ¹⁷Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect. ¹⁸For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise. ¹⁹What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring^{xii} should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. ²⁰Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one. ²¹Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law. ²²But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. ²³But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed. ²⁴So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. ²⁶For you are all children of God, through faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁷For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. ²⁸There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring^{xiii} and heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all;² but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. ³So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world. ⁴But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law,⁵ that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children. ⁶And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba,^{xiv} Father!" ⁷So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ. ⁸However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods. ⁹But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again? ¹⁰You observe days, months, seasons, and years. ¹¹I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. ¹²I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, ¹³but you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the Good News to you the first time. ¹⁴That which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn't despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. ¹⁵What was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? ¹⁷They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them. ¹⁸But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you. ¹⁹My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you— ²⁰but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. ²¹Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don't you listen to the law? ²²For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant, and one by the free woman. ²³However, the son by the servant was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise. ²⁴These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar. ²⁵For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children. ²⁶But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is the mother of us all. ²⁷Break out and shout, you that don't travail. ^{xv} "Rejoice, you barren who don't bear. For it is written, ²⁸Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are children of promise. ²⁹But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. ³⁰However what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the servant and her son, for the son of the servant will not inherit with the son of the free woman." ^{xvi} ³¹So then, brothers, we are not children of a servant, but of the free woman.

⁵Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. ²Behold, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. ³Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. ⁴You are alienated from Christ, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. ⁵For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. ⁶For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. ⁷You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? ⁸This persuasion is not from him who calls you. ⁹A little yeast grows through the whole lump. ¹⁰I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is. ¹¹But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. ¹²I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. ¹³For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. ¹⁴For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ^{xvii} ¹⁵But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another. ¹⁶But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh. ¹⁷For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. ¹⁸But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. ¹⁹Now the deeds of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, ²¹envy, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit God's Kingdom. ²²But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faith, ^{xviii} ²³gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law. ²⁴Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. ²⁵If we live by the Spirit, let's also walk by the Spirit. ²⁶Let's not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.

^{xvi}Galatians 4:30 Genesis 21:10

⁶Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted. ²Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. ³For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. ⁴But let each man test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor. ⁵For each man will bear his own burden. ⁶But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. ⁷Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. ⁸For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. ⁹Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up.

^{xviii}Galatians 5:22 or, faithfulness

¹⁰So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith. ¹¹See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand. ¹²As many as desire to look good in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. ¹⁴But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵For in Christ Jesus neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. ¹⁶As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel. ¹⁷From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus branded on my body. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

1Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus: 2Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ; 4even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without defect before him in love; 5having predestined us for adoption as children through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, 6to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he freely gave us favor in the Beloved, 7in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, 8which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him 10to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; 11in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who does all things after the counsel of his will; 12to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ: 13in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, 14who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. 15For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints, 16don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; 18having the eyes of your hearts ⁱenlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might 20which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. 22He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the assembly, 23which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

2You were made alive when you were dead in transgressions and sins, 2in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the children of disobedience; 3among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. 4But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us, 5even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), 6and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus; 8for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9not of works, that no one would boast. 10For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them. 11Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called “uncircumcision” by that which is called “circumcision”, (in the flesh, made by hands); 12that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world. 13But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ. 14For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, 15having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace; 16and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility thereby. 17He came and preached peace to you who were far off and to those who were near. 18For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. ¹⁹So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God, ²⁰being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone; ²¹in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; ²²in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

3For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles, ²if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you; ³how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, ⁴by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; ⁵which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; ⁶that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of his promise in Christ Jesus through the Good News, ⁷of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power. ⁸To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹and to make all men see what is the administration ⁱⁱ of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ; ¹⁰to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places, ¹¹according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord; ¹²in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him. ¹³Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory. ¹⁴For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, ¹⁶that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; ¹⁷that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and height and depth, ¹⁹and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. ²⁰Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, ²¹to him be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

4I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, ²with

all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love; ³being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all. ⁷But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ⁸Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men." ⁱⁱⁱ ⁹Now this, "He ascended", what is it but that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things. ¹¹He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds ^{iv} and teachers; ¹²for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ; ¹³until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; ¹⁴that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; ¹⁵but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Christ; ¹⁶from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love. ¹⁷This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind, ¹⁸being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; ¹⁹who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. ²⁰But you did not learn Christ that way; ²¹if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus: ²²that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; ²³and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, ²⁴and put on the new man, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth. ²⁵Therefore putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members of one another. ²⁶"Be angry, and don't sin." ^v Don't let the sun go down on your wrath, ²⁷and don't give place to the devil. ²⁸Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, producing with his hands something that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. ²⁹Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but only what is good for building others up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. ³⁰Don't grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. ³²And be kind to one another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.

5Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. ²Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. ³But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints; ⁴nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks. ⁵Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God. ⁶Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. ⁷Therefore don't be partakers with them. ⁸For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, ⁹for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, ¹⁰proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. ¹¹Have no fellowship with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather even reprove them. ¹²For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. ¹³But all things, when they are reprov'd, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. ¹⁴Therefore he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you." ¹⁵Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise; ¹⁶redeeming the time, because the days are evil. ¹⁷Therefore don't be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. ¹⁸Don't be drunken with wine, in which is dissipation, but be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; singing, and making melody in your heart to the Lord; ²⁰giving thanks always concerning all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God, even the Father; ²¹subjecting yourselves to one another in the fear of Christ. ²²Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife, and Christ also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body. ²⁴But as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything. ²⁵Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it; ²⁶that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, ²⁷that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without defect. ²⁸Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. ²⁹For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord also does the assembly; ³⁰because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones. ³¹"For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh." ^{vi} ³²This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Christ and of the assembly. ³³Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

6Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ²"Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with a promise: ³"that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth." ^{vii} ⁴You fathers, don't provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. ⁵Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ; ⁶not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men pleasers; but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; ⁷with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men; ⁸knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is bound or free. ⁹You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him. ¹⁰Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. ¹¹Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. ¹²For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. ¹³Therefore put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. ¹⁴Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace; ¹⁶above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. ¹⁷And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word ^{viii} of God; ¹⁸with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints: ¹⁹on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. ²¹But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you all things; ²²whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts. ²³Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptible love. Philippians

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ; ⁱ and servants ⁱⁱ : ² Grace to you, and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³ I thank my God whenever I remember you, ⁴ always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, ⁵ for your partnership ⁱⁱⁱ in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; ⁶ being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. ⁷ It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. ⁸ For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. ⁹ This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; ¹⁰ so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ; ¹¹ being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. ¹² Now I desire to have you know, brothers, ^{iv} that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; ¹³ so that it became evident to the whole palace ^v guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Christ; ¹⁴ and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. ¹⁵ Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. ¹⁶ The former insincerely preach Christ from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains; ¹⁷ but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News. ¹⁸ What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. ¹⁹ For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, ²⁰ according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. ²¹ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. ²² But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I don't know what I will choose. ²³ But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. ²⁴ Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. ²⁵ Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶ that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again. ²⁷ Only let your way of life be worthy of the Good News of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; ²⁸ and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God. ²⁹ Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, ³⁰ having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

2 If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion, ² make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; ³ doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; ⁴ each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others. ⁵ Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus, ⁶ who, existing in the form of God, didn't consider equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷ but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. ⁸ And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross. ⁹ Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name; ¹⁰ that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth, ¹¹ and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. ¹²So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. ¹⁴Do all things without murmurings and disputes, ¹⁵that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without defect in the middle of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain. ¹⁷Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me. ¹⁹But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. ²⁰For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. ²¹For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. ²²But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News. ²³Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. ²⁴But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly. ²⁵But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your apostle and servant of my need; ²⁶since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. ²⁷For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. ²⁸I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. ²⁹Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor, ³⁰because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

³Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. ²Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. ³For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh; ⁴though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: ⁵circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; ⁶concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless. ⁷However, I consider those things that were gain to me as a loss for Christ. ⁸Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be a loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ ⁹and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; ¹⁰that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; ¹¹if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. ¹²Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Christ Jesus. ¹³Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you. ¹⁶Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule. Let us be of the same mind. ¹⁷Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. ¹⁸For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ, ¹⁹whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. ²⁰For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ; ²¹who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.

⁴Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, my beloved. ²I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord. ³Yes, I beg you also, true partner, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. ⁴Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, "Rejoice!" ⁵Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. ⁶In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus. ⁸Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things. ⁹The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you. ¹⁰But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. ¹¹Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. ¹²I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need. ¹³I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me. ¹⁴However you did well that you shared in my affliction. ¹⁵You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. ¹⁶For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. ¹⁷Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. ¹⁸But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God. ¹⁹My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen. ²¹Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. ²²All the saints greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household. ²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Colossians

1Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, ²to the saints and faithful brothers ¹ in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. ³We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, ⁴having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints, ⁵because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, ⁶which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; ⁷even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on our behalf, ⁸who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. ⁹For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰that you may walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; ¹¹strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; ¹³who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love; ¹⁴in whom we have our redemption, ⁱⁱ the forgiveness of our sins; ¹⁵who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. ¹⁶For by him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and for him. ¹⁷He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. ¹⁸He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. ¹⁹For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him; ²⁰and through him to reconcile all things to himself, by him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of his cross. ²¹You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil deeds, ²²yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without defect and blameless before him, ²³if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant. ²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly; ²⁵of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, ²⁶the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints, ²⁷to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; ²⁸whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; ²⁹for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

2For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; ²that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, ³in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. ⁴Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. ⁵For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. ⁶As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. ⁸Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Christ. ⁹For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily, ¹⁰and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; ¹¹in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; ¹²having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. ¹³You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, ¹⁴wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; ¹⁵having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it. ¹⁶Let no one therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, ¹⁷which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's. ¹⁸Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshiping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, ¹⁹and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. ²⁰If you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, ²¹"Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch" ²²(all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? ²³Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

love, which is the bond of perfection. ¹⁵And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord. ¹⁷Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father, through him. ¹⁸Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. ¹⁹Husbands, love your wives, and don't be bitter against them. ²⁰Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord. ²¹Fathers, don't provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged. ²²Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. ²³And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men, ²⁴knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ. ²⁵But he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.

⁴Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven. ²Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; ³praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds; ⁴that I may reveal it as I ought to speak. ⁵Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. ⁶Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one. ⁷All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in the Lord. ⁸I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts, ⁹together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here. ¹⁰Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments, "if he comes to you, receive him"), ¹¹and Jesus who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for God's Kingdom who are of the circumcision, men who have been a comfort to me. ¹²Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. ¹³For I testify about him, that he has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. ¹⁴Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. ¹⁵Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly that is in his house. ¹⁶When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans; and that you also read the letter from Laodicea. ¹⁷Tell Archip-pus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it." ¹⁸The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand: remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

1Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, 3remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father. 4We know, brothers ⁱ loved by God, that you are chosen, 5and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. 6You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, 7so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. 8For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we need not to say anything. 9For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, 10and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

2For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you wasn't in vain, 2but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. 3For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. 4But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. 5For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), 6nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ. 7But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children. 8Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to

you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. 9For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. 10You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. 11As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a father does his own children, 12to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own Kingdom and glory. 13For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. 14For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews; 15who killed both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and didn't please God, and are contrary to all men; 16forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost. 17But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, 18because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. 19For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord Jesus ⁱⁱ at his coming? 20For you are our glory and our joy.

3Therefore when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone, 2and sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the Good News of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith; 3that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. 4For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. 5For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. ⁶But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; ⁷for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. ⁸For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. ⁹For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; ¹⁰night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? ¹¹Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you; ¹²and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, ¹³to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

⁴Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more and more. ²For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. ³For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, ⁴that each one of you know how to control his own body ⁱⁱⁱ in sanctification and honor, ⁵not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who don't know God; ⁶that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. ⁷For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. ⁸Therefore he who rejects this doesn't reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you. ⁹But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, ¹⁰for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; ¹¹and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; ¹²that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing. ¹³But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. ¹⁴For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. ¹⁵For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet.

The dead in Christ will rise first, ¹⁷then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. ¹⁸Therefore comfort one another with these words.

⁵But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. ²For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. ³For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. ⁴But you, brothers, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. ⁵You are all children of light, and children of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness, ⁶so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let's watch and be sober. ⁷For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. ⁸But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. ⁹For God didn't appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. ¹¹Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. ¹²But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you, ¹³and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves. ¹⁴We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. ¹⁵See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all. ¹⁶Rejoice always. ¹⁷Pray without ceasing. ¹⁸In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you. ¹⁹Don't quench the Spirit. ²⁰Don't despise prophecies. ²¹Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good. ²²Abstain from every form of evil. ²³May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴He who calls you is faithful, who will also do it. ²⁵Brothers, pray for us. ²⁶Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. ²⁷I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers. ²⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

ⁱⁱⁱ1 Thessalonians 4:4 literally, possess his own vessel

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers, ¹ even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds; 4 so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. 5 This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of God's Kingdom, for which you also suffer. 6 Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, 7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, 8 giving vengeance to those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus, 9 who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, 10 when he comes to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day. 11 To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; 12 that the name of our Lord Jesus ⁱⁱ may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to him, we ask you 2 not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of Christ had come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the departure comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction, 4 he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself up as God.

ⁱⁱ² Thessalonians 1:12 TR adds "Christ"

5 Don't you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? 6 Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. 8 Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; 9 even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 10 and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie; 12 that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. 13 But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; 14 to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter. 16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, 17 comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; 2 and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. 4 We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. 5 May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ. 6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us. 7 For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you, 8 neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; ⁹not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. ¹⁰For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, don't let him eat." ¹¹For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies. ¹²Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. ¹³But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing well. ¹⁴If any man doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. ¹⁵Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. ¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all. ¹⁷The greeting of me, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Savior, and Christ Jesus our hope; 2to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. 3As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, 4and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith— 5but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith; 6from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; 7desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. 8But we know that the law is good, if a man uses it lawfully, 9as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man slayers, 10for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; 11according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. 12And I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; 13although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. 14The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 16However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life. 17Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. 18This instruction I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare; 19holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith; 20of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to

2I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all men: 2for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. 3For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; 4who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. 5For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, 6who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; 7to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth in Christ, not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. 8I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. 9In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just ⁱ with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; 10but (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. 11Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. 12But I don't permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. 13For Adam was first formed, then Eve. 14Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; 15but she will be saved through her child-bearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety.

3This is a faithful saying: if a man seeks the office of an overseer, ⁱⁱ he desires a good work. 2The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching; 3not a drinker, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous; 4one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence; 5(but if a man doesn't know how to rule his own house, ⁱ1 Timothy 2:9 The word "just" is inserted here in English to preserve the meaning of the whole original Greek sentence in context. The word for "not" is the negative particle " " which denies an expected idea, as opposed to the usual word for "not" () which denies a fact. Thus " " in this context is denying an expected idea (that women can be properly dressed without good works).

ⁱⁱ1 Timothy 3:1 or, superintendents, or bishops

how will he take care of the assembly of God?) ⁶not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. ⁷Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil. ⁸Servants, ⁱⁱⁱ in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for money; ⁹holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. ¹⁰Let them also first be tested; then let them serve ^{iv} if they are blameless. ¹¹Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things. ¹²Let servants ^v be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well. ¹³For those who have served well ^{vi} gain for themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; ¹⁵but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in God's house, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. ¹⁶justified in the spirit, seen by angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, and received up in glory. ^{vii} was revealed in the flesh, Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great:

⁴But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, ²through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; ³forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. ⁴For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. ⁵For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. ⁶If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. ⁷But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward godliness. ⁸For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. ⁹This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. ¹⁰For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. ¹¹Command and teach these things. ¹²Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. ¹³Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching.

¹⁴Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. ¹⁵Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. ¹⁶Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

⁵Don't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; ²the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. ³Honor widows who are widows indeed. ⁴But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is ^{viii} acceptable in the sight of God. ⁵Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. ⁶But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. ⁷Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. ⁸But if anyone doesn't provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. ⁹Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, ¹⁰being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work. ¹¹But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Christ, they desire to marry; ¹²having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. ¹³Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. ¹⁴I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for insulting. ¹⁵For already some have turned aside after Satan. ¹⁶If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve those who are widows indeed. ¹⁷Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. ¹⁸For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain." ^{ix} And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages." ^x ¹⁹Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. ²⁰Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. ²¹I command you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. ²²Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure. ²³Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities. ²⁴Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. ²⁵In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.

6Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. ²Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things. ³If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, ⁴he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, insulting, evil suspicions, ⁵constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such. ^{xi} ⁶But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out. ⁸But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. ⁹But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction. ¹⁰For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows. ¹¹But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. ¹²Fight the good fight of faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. ¹³I command you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, ¹⁴that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ; ¹⁵which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; ¹⁶who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen. ¹⁷Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; ¹⁸that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; ¹⁹laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life. ²⁰Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of what is falsely called knowledge; ²¹which some profess, and thus have wandered from the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

1Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus, 2to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. 3I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day 4longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; 5having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also. 6For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. 7For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control. 8Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, 9who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, 10but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. 11For this, I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. 12For this cause I also suffer these things. Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day. 13Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us. 15This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. 16May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, 17but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me 18(the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

2You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. 3You therefore must endure hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. 4No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. 5Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he isn't crowned unless he has competed by the rules. 6The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops. 7Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things. 8Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the offspring ⁱ of David, according to my Good News, 9in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained. 10Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 11we will also live with him. "For if we died with him, This saying is trustworthy: 12we will also reign with him. he also will deny us. If we endure, If we deny him, 13he remains faithful. He can't deny himself." If we are faithless, 14Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord, that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear. 15Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. 16But shun empty chatter, for it will go further in ungodliness, 17and those words will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; 18men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. 19However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are his," ⁱⁱ and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord ⁱⁱⁱ depart from unrighteousness." 20Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. 21If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work. 22Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife. ²⁴The Lord's servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient, ²⁵in gentleness correcting those who oppose him: perhaps God may give them repentance leading to a full knowledge of the truth, ²⁶and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.

4I command you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his Kingdom: ²preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. ³For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; ⁴and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. ⁵But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry. ⁶For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. ⁸From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing. ⁹Be diligent to come to me soon, ¹⁰for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. ¹²But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. ¹⁴Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord will repay him according to his deeds, ¹⁵of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words. ¹⁶At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. ¹⁷But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁸And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for his heavenly Kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ¹⁹Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus. ²⁰Erastus remained at Corinth, but I left Trophimus at Miletus sick. ²¹Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus salutes you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers. ²²The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

Titus

1Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's chosen ones, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, 2in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before time began; 3but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior; 4to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior. 5I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you; 6if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. 7For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; 8but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; 9holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him. 10For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake. 12One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." 13This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 15To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. 16They profess that they know God, but by their deeds they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

2But say the things which fit sound doctrine, 2that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience: 3and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; 4that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God's word may not be blasphemed. 6Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded; 7in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in your teaching showing integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility, 8and soundness of speech that can't be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us. 9Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; 10not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. 11For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 12instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; 13looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ; 14who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. 15Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise you.

3Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, 2to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men. 3For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. 4But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared, 5not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit, 6whom he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior; 7that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men; 9but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. 10Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning; ¹¹knowing that such a one is perverted and sins, being self-condemned. ¹²When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. ¹³Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. ¹⁴Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful. ¹⁵All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Philemon

¹Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, ²to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: ³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, ⁵hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; ⁶that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Christ Jesus. ⁷For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother. ⁸Therefore though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate, ⁹yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰I beg you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus, ⁱ ¹¹who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. ¹²I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, ¹³whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. ¹⁴But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. ¹⁵For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, ¹⁶no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. ¹⁷If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. ¹⁸But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. ¹⁹I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). ²⁰Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord. ²¹Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say. ²²Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you. ²³Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, ²⁴as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. ²⁵The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

1 God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, 2 has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds. 3 His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purified us of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4 having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they have. ^{5i ii} “You are my Son. “I will be to him a Father, For to which of the angels did he say at any time, and again, ⁶ When he again brings in the firstborn into the world he says, “Let all the angels of God worship him.” ^{iii 7iv} “Who makes his angels winds, Of the angels he says, ⁸ The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your Kingdom. “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever. But of the Son he says, ^{9v} You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; ¹⁰ The heavens are the works of your hands. “You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth. And, ¹¹ They all will grow old like a garment does. They will perish, but you continue. ¹² and they will be changed; ^{vi} You will roll them up like a mantle, but you are the same. ^{13vii} “Sit at my right hand, But which of the angels has he told at any time, ¹⁴ Aren’t they all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away. 2 For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; 3 how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; 4 God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, ac-

ording to his own will? 5 For he didn’t subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels. 6 Or the son of man, that you care for him? “What is man, that you think of him? But one has somewhere testified, saying, ^{7viii} You made him a little lower than the angels. 8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet.” ^{ix} For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don’t see all things subjected to him, yet. 9 But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone. 10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. 11 For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers, ^{x 12xi} “I will declare your name to my brothers. saying, ¹³ Again, “I will put my trust in him.” ^{xii} Again, “Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me.” ^{xiii} 14 Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in the same way partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵ and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For most certainly, he doesn’t give help to angels, but he gives help to the offspring ^{xiv} of Abraham. 17 Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. 18 For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

ing, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus; ²who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house. ³For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, because he who built the house has more honor than the house. ⁴For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. ⁵Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, ⁶but Christ is faithful as a Son over his house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end. ⁷“Today if you will hear his voice, Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says, ⁸like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness, don’t harden your hearts, as in the rebellion, ⁹and saw my deeds for forty years. where your fathers tested me by proving me, ¹⁰and said, ‘They always err in their heart, but they didn’t know my ways;’ Therefore I was displeased with that generation, ¹¹^{xv} as I swore in my wrath, ¹²Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; ¹³but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called “today”; lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: ¹⁵^{xvi} “Today if you will hear his voice, while it is said, ¹⁶For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, didn’t all those who came out of Egypt by Moses? ¹⁷With whom was he displeased forty years? Wasn’t it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸To whom did he swear that they wouldn’t enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? ¹⁹We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

⁴Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. ²For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn’t profit them, because it wasn’t mixed with faith by those who heard. ³For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, “As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest”; ^{xvii} although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. ⁴For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, “God rested on the seventh day from all his works”; ^{xviii} ⁵and in this place again, “They will not enter into my rest.” ^{xix} ⁶Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, ⁷^{xx} “Today if you will hear his voice, he again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said), ⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. ⁹There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. ¹⁰For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. ¹¹Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. ¹²For the word of God is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him to whom we must give an account. ¹⁴Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession. ¹⁵For we don’t have a high priest who can’t be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

⁵For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. ³Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. ⁴Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was. ⁵^{xxi} “You are my Son. So also Christ didn’t glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him, ⁶^{xxii} “You are a priest forever, As he says also in another place, ⁷He, in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, ⁸though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered. ⁹Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation, ¹⁰named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. ¹¹About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. ¹²For although by this time you should be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the revelations of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. ¹³For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. ¹⁴But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 Therefore leaving the teaching of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, ²of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. ³This will we do, if God permits. ⁴For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, ⁵and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, ⁶and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame. ⁷For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and produces a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; ⁸but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned. ⁹But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. ¹⁰For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the saints, and still do serve them. ¹¹We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, ¹²that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. ¹³For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, he swore by himself, ¹⁴saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you." ^{xxiii} ¹⁵Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. ¹⁶For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. ¹⁷In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; ¹⁸that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. ¹⁹This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; ²⁰where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ²to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace; ³without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually. ⁴Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best plunder. ⁵They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, ⁶but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. ⁷But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. ⁸Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. ⁹We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, ¹⁰for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him. ¹¹Now if there were perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? ¹²For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. ¹³For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. ¹⁴For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. ¹⁵This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, ¹⁶who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life: ^{17xxiv} "You are a priest forever, for it is testified, ¹⁸For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness ¹⁹(for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. ²⁰Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath ²¹"You are a priest forever, ^{xxv} "The Lord swore and will not change his mind, (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), but he with an oath by him that says of him, ²²By so much, Jesus has become the collateral of a better covenant. ²³Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. ²⁴But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. ²⁵Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them. ²⁶For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; ²⁷who doesn't need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. ²⁸For the law appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the law appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

8 Now in the things which we are saying, the main point

^{xxiii}Hebrews 6:14 Genesis 22:17

^{xxiv}Hebrews 7:17 Psalm 110:4

is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, ²a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. ³For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. ⁴For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law; ⁵who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, “See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain.” ^{xxvi} ⁶But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as law. ⁷For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. ⁸“that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah; ^{xxvii} the days come”, says the Lord, For finding fault with them, he said, ⁹in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; and I disregarded them,” says the Lord. not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, for they didn’t continue in my covenant, ¹⁰After those days,” says the Lord; I will also write them on their heart. and they will be my people. “For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. “I will put my laws into their mind, I will be their God, ¹¹and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for all will know me, from their least to their greatest. They will not teach every man his fellow citizen, ^{xxviii} ^{12xxix} For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness. ¹³In that he says, “A new covenant”, he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

9Now indeed even the first ^{xxx} covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. ²For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the lamp stand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place. ³After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, ⁴having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; ⁵and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can’t speak now in detail. ⁶Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services, ⁷but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people. ⁸The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place wasn’t yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing; ⁹which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshiper perfect; ¹⁰being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation. ¹¹But Christ having come as a high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, ¹²nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: ¹⁴how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without defect to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? ¹⁵For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. ¹⁶For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it. ¹⁷For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives. ¹⁸Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. ¹⁹For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, ²⁰saying, “This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you.” ^{xxxi} ²¹Moreover he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry in the same way with the blood. ²²According to the law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. ²³It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ hasn’t entered into holy places made with hands, which are representations of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; ²⁵nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own, ²⁶or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment, ²⁸so Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are

10For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. ²Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins? ³But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins. ⁴For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. ⁵but you prepared a body for me. "Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire, Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, ⁶You had no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin. ⁷Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of me) ^{xxxii} ⁸Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to the law), ⁹then he has said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, ¹⁰by which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. ¹¹Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, ¹²but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God; ¹³from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet. ¹⁴For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. ¹⁵The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, ¹⁶'After those days,' says the Lord, ^{xxxiii} "This is the covenant that I will make with them: 'I will put my laws on their heart, then he says, ¹⁷"I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more." ^{xxxiv} ¹⁸Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. ¹⁹Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; ²¹and having a great priest over God's house, ²²let's draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, ²³let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, ²⁵not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching. ²⁶For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. ²⁸A man who disregards Moses' law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. ²⁹How much worse punishment do you think he will be judged worthy of who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰For we know him who said, "Vengeance belongs to me," says the Lord, "I will repay." ^{xxxv} Again, "The Lord will judge his people." ^{xxxvi} ³¹It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. ³²But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings; ³³partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so. ³⁴For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens. ³⁵Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. ³⁶For you need endurance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise. ³⁷he who comes will come, and will not wait. "In a very little while, ^{38xxxvii} But the righteous will live by faith. ³⁹But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

11Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen. ²For by this, the elders obtained testimony. ³By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. ⁴By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks. ⁵By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that he wouldn't see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God. ⁶Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. ⁷By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, ^{xxxviii} prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. ⁸By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went. ⁹By faith, he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God. ¹¹By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised. ¹²Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead. ¹³These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen ^{xxxix} them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. ¹⁴For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. ¹⁵If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. ¹⁶But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them. ¹⁷By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son; ¹⁸even he to whom it was said, “your offspring ^{xi} will be accounted as from Isaac”; ^{xli} ¹⁹concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. ²⁰By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. ²¹By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. ²²By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning his bones. ²³By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king’s commandment. ²⁴By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter, ²⁵choosing rather to share ill treatment with God’s people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time; ²⁶accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward. ²⁷By faith, he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. ²⁸By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. ²⁹By faith, they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up. ³⁰By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days. ³¹By faith, Rahab the prostitute, didn’t perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace. ³²What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets; ³³who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ^{xlii} ³⁴quenched the power of fire, ^{xliii} escaped the edge of the sword, ^{xliiv} from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee. ³⁵Women received their dead by resurrection. ^{xlv} Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. ³⁶Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. ³⁷They were stoned. ^{xlvi} They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword. ^{xlvii} They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated ³⁸(of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. ³⁹These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn’t receive the promise, ⁴⁰God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

12Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. ³For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don’t grow weary, fainting in your souls. ⁴You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin; ⁵nor faint when you are reproved by him; “My son, don’t take lightly the chastening of the Lord, and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children, ^{6xlviii} For whom the Lord loves, he chastens, ⁷It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with children, for what son is there whom his father doesn’t discipline? ⁸But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children. ⁹Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? ¹⁰For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. ¹¹All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby. ¹²Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees, ^{xlix} ¹³and

make straight paths for your feet,¹ so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. ¹⁴Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord, ¹⁵looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled by it; ¹⁶lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal. ¹⁷For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears. ¹⁸For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, storm, ¹⁹the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them, ²⁰for they could not stand that which was commanded, “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned”^{li}; ^{lii} ²¹and so fearful was the appearance that Moses said, “I am terrified and trembling.”^{liii} ²²But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels, ²³to the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, ²⁴to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant,^{liv} and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel. ²⁵See that you don’t refuse him who speaks. For if they didn’t escape when they refused him who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven, ²⁶whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens.”^{lv} ²⁷This phrase, “Yet once more”, signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. ²⁸Therefore, receiving a Kingdom that can’t be shaken, let us have grace, through which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe, ²⁹for our God is a consuming fire.^{lvi}

13Let brotherly love continue. ²Don’t forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. ⁵Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, “I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you.”^{lvii} ⁶^{lviii} “The Lord is my helper. I will not fear. So that with good courage we say, ⁷Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. ⁹Don’t be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited. ¹⁰We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat. ¹¹For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.^{lix} ¹²Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate. ¹³Let us therefore go out to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. ¹⁴For we don’t have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come. ¹⁵Through him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God^{lx} continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to his name. ¹⁶But don’t forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. ¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you. ¹⁸Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. ¹⁹I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner. ²⁰Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus, ²¹make you complete in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen. ²²But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. ²³Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. ²⁴Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. James 1James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion: Greetings. 2Count it all joy, my brothers, ⁱ when you fall into various temptations, ³knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. 4Let endurance have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given to him. 6But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed. 7For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord. 8He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. 9But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; 10and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. 11For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits. 12Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love him. 13Let no man say when he is tempted, “I am tempted by God,” for God can’t be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. 14But each one is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. 15Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, produces death. 16Don’t be deceived, my beloved brothers. 17Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. 18Of his own will he gave birth to us by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures. 19So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; 20for the anger of man doesn’t produce the righteousness of God. 21Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. ⁱⁱ 22But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves.

23For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror; 24for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. 25But he who looks into the perfect law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does. 26If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious while he doesn’t bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man’s religion is worthless. 27Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

2My brothers, don’t hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory with partiality. 2For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your synagogue, ⁱⁱⁱ and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in; 3and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing, and say, “Sit here in a good place”; and you tell the poor man, “Stand there,” or “Sit by my footstool”; 4haven’t you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? 5Listen, my beloved brothers. Didn’t God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the Kingdom which he promised to those who love him? 6But you have dishonored the poor man. Don’t the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts? 7Don’t they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called? 8However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” ^{iv} you do well. 9But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. 10For whoever keeps the whole law, and yet stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. 11For he who said, “Do not commit adultery,” ^v also said, “Do not commit murder.” ^{vi} Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom. 13For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

^{vi}James 2:11 Exodus 10:13; Deuteronomy 5:17

¹⁴What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? ¹⁵And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, ¹⁶and one of you tells them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled”; and yet you didn’t give them the things the body needs, what good is it? ¹⁷Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. ¹⁸Yes, a man will say, “You have faith, and I have works.” Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith. ¹⁹You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. ²⁰But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? ²¹Wasn’t Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? ²²You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected; ²³and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness”; ^{vii} and he was called the friend of God. ²⁴You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith. ²⁵In the same way, wasn’t Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? ²⁶For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. ²For in many things we all stumble. If anyone doesn’t stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. ³Indeed, we put bits into the horses’ mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body. ⁴Behold, ^{viii} the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. ⁵So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! ⁶And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna. ^{ix} ⁷For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and sea creature, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind. ⁸But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God. ¹⁰Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. ¹¹Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? ¹²Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water. ¹³Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don’t boast and don’t lie against the truth. ¹⁵This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. ¹⁶For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. ¹⁷But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. ¹⁸Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

4Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don’t they come from your pleasures that war in your members? ²You lust, and don’t have. You murder and covet, and can’t obtain. You fight and make war. You don’t have, because you don’t ask. ³You ask, and don’t receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures. ⁴You adulterers and adulteresses, don’t you know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. ⁵Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, “The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously”? ⁶But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble.” ^x ⁷Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. ⁹Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. ¹⁰Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you. ¹¹Don’t speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. ¹²Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another? ¹³Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow let’s go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit.” ¹⁴Whereas you don’t know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. ¹⁵For you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that.” ¹⁶But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷To him therefore who knows to do good, and doesn’t do it, to him it is sin.

5Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you. ²Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. ³Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. ⁴Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Armies. ^{xi} ⁵You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. ⁶You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn't resist you. ⁷Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. ⁸You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. ⁹Don't grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door. ¹⁰Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the Lord is full of compassion and mercy. ¹²But above all things, my brothers, don't swear—not by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes", and your "no", "no"; so that you don't fall into hypocrisy. ^{xii} ¹³Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. ¹⁴Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, ¹⁵and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶Confess your offenses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective. ¹⁷Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months. ¹⁸He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit. ¹⁹Brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth and someone turns him back, ²⁰let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, ²according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. ³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy became our father again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in Heaven for you, ⁵who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials, ⁷that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ— ⁸whom not having known you love; in whom, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory— ⁹receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, ¹¹searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that would follow them. ¹²To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into. ¹³Therefore prepare your minds for action, ⁱ be sober, and set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ— ¹⁴as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance, ¹⁵but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; ¹⁶because it is written, "You shall be ⁱ1 Peter 1:13 literally, "gird up the waist of your mind" or "put on the belt of the waist of your mind"

holy; for I am holy." ⁱⁱ ¹⁷If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear: ¹⁸knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers, ¹⁹but with precious blood, as of a faultless and pure lamb, the blood of Christ; ²⁰who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of times for your sake, ²¹who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God. ²²Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently: ²³having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever. ²⁴and all of man's glory like the flower in the grass. "All flesh is like grass, The grass withers, and its flower falls; For, ²⁵but the Lord's word endures forever." ⁱⁱⁱ This is the word of Good News which was preached to you.

2Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking, ²as newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the Word, that with it you may grow, ³if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious: ⁴coming to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious. ⁵You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ^{6iv} ^v I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen, and precious: Because it is contained in Scripture, ^{7vi} "The stone which the builders rejected, For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who are disobedient, ^{8vii} and, For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed. ⁹But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: ¹⁰who in time past were no people, but now are God's people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. ¹¹Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; ¹²having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation. ¹³Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme; ¹⁴or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well. ¹⁵For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: ¹⁶as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God. ¹⁷Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. ¹⁸Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked. ¹⁹For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God. ²⁰For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God. ²¹For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving you ^{viii} an example, that you should follow his steps, ²²who did not sin, "neither was deceit found in his mouth." ^{ix} ²³Who, when he was cursed, didn't curse back. When he suffered, didn't threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously; ²⁴who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. ²⁵For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer ^x of your souls.

3In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don't obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; ²seeing your pure behavior in fear. ³Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; ⁴but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious. ⁵For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: ⁶as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror. ⁷You husbands, in the same way, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered. ⁸Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tender hearted, courteous, ⁹not rendering evil for evil, or insult for insult; but instead blessing; knowing that to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing. ¹⁰and see good days, and his lips from speaking deceit. "He who would love life, let him keep his tongue from evil, For, ¹¹Let him seek peace, and pursue it. Let him turn away from evil, and do good. ¹²and his ears open to their prayer; ^{xi} For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, ¹³Now who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good? ¹⁴But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Don't fear what they fear, neither be troubled." ^{xii} ¹⁵But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear: ¹⁶having a good conscience; that, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your good way of life in Christ. ¹⁷For it is better, if it is God's will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil. ¹⁸Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; ¹⁹in which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison, ²⁰who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ship was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water. ²¹This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²²who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

4Therefore, since Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; ²that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God. ³For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. ⁴They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming: ⁵who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit. ⁷But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer. ⁸And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins. ⁹Be hospitable to one another without grumbling. ¹⁰As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms. ¹¹If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. ¹²Beloved, don't be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you. ¹³But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy. ¹⁴If you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified. ¹⁵For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other men's matters. ¹⁶But if one of you suffers for being a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this matter. ¹⁷For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of God? ¹⁸"If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?" ^{xiii} ¹⁹Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

5I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed. ²Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly; ³neither as lording it over those entrusted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock. ⁴When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away. ⁵Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." ^{xiv} ⁶Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; ⁷casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you. ⁸Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. ⁹Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings. ¹⁰But may the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. ¹¹To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen. ¹²Through Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand. ¹³She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you; and so does Mark, my son. ¹⁴Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue; 4 by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. 5 Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; 6 and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; 7 and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. 8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10 Therefore, brothers, 1 be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. 11 For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. 12 Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. 13 I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; 14 knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me. 15 Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. 16 For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” ii 18 We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain. 19 We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: 20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. 21 For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. 2 Many will follow their immoral ⁱⁱⁱ ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. 3 In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn’t linger, and their destruction will not slumber. 4 For if God didn’t spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus, ^{iv} and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; 5 and didn’t spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; 6 and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly; 7 and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked 8 (for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds): 9 the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; 10 but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; 11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don’t bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord. 12 But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, 13 receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and defects, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; ¹⁴having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing; ¹⁵forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing; ¹⁶but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet. ¹⁷These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. ¹⁸For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error; ¹⁹promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him. ²⁰For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. ²¹For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. ²²But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again," ^v and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

3This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; ²that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior: ³knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts, ⁴and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." ⁵For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God; ⁶by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. ⁷But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. ⁸But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. ⁹The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. ¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. ¹¹Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, ¹²looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? ¹³But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells. ¹⁴Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without defect and blameless in his sight. ¹⁵Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you; ¹⁶as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. ¹⁷You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness. ¹⁸But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

1That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life ²(and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us); ³that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ. ⁴And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled. ⁵This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ⁶If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth. ⁷But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor ⁱ with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous. ²And he is the atoning sacrifice ⁱⁱ for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. ³This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. ⁴One who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth isn't in him. ⁵But whoever keeps his word, God's love has most certainly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him: ⁶he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked. ⁷Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning. ⁸Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. ⁹He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. ¹⁰He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. ¹¹But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes. ¹²I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. ¹³I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, little children, because you know the Father. ¹⁴I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one. ¹⁵Don't love the world or the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love isn't in him. ¹⁶For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's. ¹⁷The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever. ¹⁸Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour. ¹⁹They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. ²⁰You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge. ⁱⁱⁱ ²¹I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. ²²Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. ²³Whoever denies the Son, the same doesn't have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also. ²⁴Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father. ²⁵This is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life. ²⁶These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. ²⁷As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him. ²⁸Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. ²⁹If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him.

3See how great a love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him. ²Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. But we know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. ³Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. ⁴Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and in him is no sin. ⁶Whoever remains in him doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him and doesn't know him. ⁷Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. ⁸He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed: that he might destroy the works of the devil. ⁹Whoever is born of God doesn't commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he can't sin, because he is born of God. ¹⁰In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who doesn't love his brother. ¹¹For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; ¹²unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's righteous. ¹³Don't be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. ¹⁴We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother remains in death. ¹⁵Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him. ¹⁶By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. ¹⁷But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of God remain in him? ¹⁸My little children, let's not love in word only, or with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. ¹⁹And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before him, ²⁰because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. ²¹Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God; ²²and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. ²³This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded. ²⁴He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. ²By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, ³and every spirit who doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of the Antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. ⁴You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. ⁵They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. ⁶We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. ⁷Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves has been born of God, and knows God. ⁸He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love. ⁹By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice ^{iv} for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us. ¹³By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God. ¹⁶We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. ¹⁷In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. ¹⁹We love him, because he first loved us. ²⁰If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? ²¹This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

^{iv}1 John 4:10 "atoning sacrifice" is from the Greek "ἱλαστήριον", an appeasing, propitiating, or the means of appeasement or propitiation—the sacrifice that turns away God's wrath because of our sin.

born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. ²By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments. ³For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous. ⁴For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith. ⁵Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? ⁶This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three who testify ^v : ⁸the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. ⁹If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony which he has testified concerning his Son. ¹⁰He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. ¹¹The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. ¹²He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn't have God's Son doesn't have the life. ¹³These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God. ¹⁴This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. ¹⁵And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him. ¹⁶If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this. ¹⁷All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. ¹⁸We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but he who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one doesn't touch him. ¹⁹We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. ²⁰We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. ²¹Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

^v1 John 5:7 Only a few recent manuscripts add "in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. And there are three that testify on earth"

2 John

¹The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth; ²for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever: ³Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. ⁴I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father. ⁵Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. ⁶This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. ⁷For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Antichrist. ⁸Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward. ⁹Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ, doesn't have God. He who remains in the teaching, the same has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him, ¹¹for he who welcomes him participates in his evil deeds. ¹²Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full. ¹³The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

¹The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.
²Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers. ³For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. ⁴I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth. ⁵Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. ⁶They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a way worthy of God, ⁷because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles. ⁸We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth. ⁹I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say. ¹⁰Therefore if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly. ¹¹Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God. ¹²Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true. ¹³I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen; ¹⁴but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

1Jude, ⁱ a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: ²Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied. ³Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints. ⁴For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into indecency, and denying our only Master, God, and Lord, Jesus Christ. ⁵Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe. ⁶Angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. ⁷Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are shown as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. ⁸Yet in the same way, these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. ⁹But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" ¹⁰But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. They are destroyed in these things that they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason. ¹¹Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion. ¹²These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; ¹³wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. ¹⁴About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, ⁱⁱ the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, ¹⁵to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." ¹⁶These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage. ¹⁷But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁸They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts." ¹⁹These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. ²⁰But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. ²¹Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. ²²On some have compassion, making a distinction, ²³and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh. ²⁴Now to him who is able to keep them ⁱⁱⁱ from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, ²⁵to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

Revelation

1This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel ⁱ to his servant, John, ²who testified to God's word, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he saw. ³Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand. ⁴John, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; ⁵and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins by his blood; ⁶and he made us to be a Kingdom, priests ⁱⁱ to his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. ⁷Behold, ⁱⁱⁱ he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen. ⁸"I am the Alpha and the Omega, ^{iv} " says the Lord God, ^v "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty." ⁹I John, your brother and partner with you in oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Christ Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God's Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a trumpet ¹¹saying, " ^{vi} What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies ^{vii} : to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea." ¹²I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden lamp stands. ¹³And among the lamp stands was one like a son of man, ^{viii} clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, and with a golden sash around his chest. ¹⁴His head and his hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. ¹⁵His feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters. ¹⁶He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. ¹⁷When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man. "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last, ¹⁸and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forever more. Amen. To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my God. ⁸"To the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write: "The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things: ⁹"I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰Don't be afraid of

Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. ¹¹He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death. ¹²To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write: "He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things: ¹³"I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn't deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. ¹⁴But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. ¹⁵So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise ^{xii}. ¹⁶Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth. ¹⁷He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give of the hidden manna, ^{xiii} and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it. ¹⁸To the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write: "The Son of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things: ¹⁹"I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first. ²⁰But I have this against you, that you tolerate your ^{xiv} woman, Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. ²¹I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. ²²Behold, I will throw her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great oppression, unless they repent of her works. ²³I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. ²⁴But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don't have this teaching, who don't know what some call 'the deep things of Satan,' to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you. ²⁵Nevertheless, hold that which you have firmly until I come. ²⁶He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. ²⁷He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; ^{xv} as I also have received of my Father: ²⁸and I will give him the morning star. ²⁹He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

3"And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write: "He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. ²Wake up, and keep the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God. ³Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you won't watch, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come upon you. ⁴Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. ⁶He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. ⁷To the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write: "He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these things: ⁸"I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn't deny my name. ⁹Behold, I give some of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. ¹⁰Because you kept my command to endure, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹I am coming quickly! Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown. ¹²He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my own new name. ¹³He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. ¹⁴To the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write: "The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Head of God's creation, says these things: ¹⁵"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. ¹⁶So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth. ¹⁷Because you say, 'I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;' and don't know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked; ¹⁸I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. ¹⁹As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. ²⁰Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me. ²¹He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²²He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

4After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, “Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this.” ²Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne ³that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at. ⁴Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. ⁵Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. ⁶Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the middle of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. ⁷The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. ⁸The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, “Holy, holy, holy ^{xvi} is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!” ⁹When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, ¹¹“Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One, ^{xvii} to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!”

5I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. ²I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?” ³No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it. ⁴And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look in it. ⁵One of the elders said to me, “Don’t weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome; he who opens the book and its seven seals.” ⁶I saw in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. ⁷Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. ⁸Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹and to open its seals: and bought us for God with your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and nation, “You are worthy to take the book, for you were killed, They sang a new song, saying, ¹⁰and we will reign on earth.” and made us kings and priests to our God, ¹¹I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; ¹²saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!” ¹³I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!” ^{xviii} ¹⁴The four living creatures said, “Amen!” The ^{xix} elders fell down and worshiped. ^{xx}

6I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, “Come and see!” ²And behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer. ³When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!” ⁴Another came out, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword. ⁵When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come and see!” And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. ⁶I heard a voice in the middle of the four living creatures saying, “A choenix ^{xxi} of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don’t damage the oil and the wine!” ⁷When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, “Come and see!” ⁸And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. Hades ^{xxii} followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him. ⁹When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had. ¹⁰They cried with a loud voice, saying, “How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?” ¹¹A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers, ^{xxiii} who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course. ¹²I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. ¹³The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. ¹⁴The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. ¹⁵The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶They told the mountains and the rocks, “Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁷for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?”

⁷After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. ²I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, ³saying, “Don’t harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!” ⁴I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel: ⁵of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand, of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand, ⁶of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, ⁷of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, ⁸of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand. ⁹After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰They cried with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” ¹¹All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God, ¹²saying, “Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen.” ¹³One of the elders answered, saying to me, “These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?” ¹⁴I told him, “My lord, you know.” He said to me, “These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb’s blood. ¹⁵Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them. ¹⁶They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; ¹⁷for the Lamb who is in the middle of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

⁸When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ²I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. ³Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, that he should add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne. ⁴The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel’s hand. ⁵The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake. ⁶The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound. ⁷The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burnt up, ^{xxiv} and one third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. ⁸The second angel sounded, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, ⁹and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed. ¹⁰The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. ¹¹The name of the star is called “Wormwood.” One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter. ¹²The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn’t shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. ¹³I saw, and I heard an eagle, ^{xxv} flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, “Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound!”

9The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. ²He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a ^{xxvi} burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. ³Then out of the smoke came locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. ⁴They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads. ⁵They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person. ⁶In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them. ⁷The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces. ⁸They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. ⁹They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war. ¹⁰They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails they have power to harm men for five months. ¹¹They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon", ^{xxvii} but in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon". ^{xxviii} ¹²The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this. ¹³The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, ¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who had one trumpet, "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!" ¹⁵The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. ¹⁶The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million. ^{xxix} I heard the number of them. ¹⁷Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. ¹⁸By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. ¹⁹For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm. ²⁰The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. ²¹They didn't repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, ^{xxx} nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

10I saw a mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. ²He had in his hand a little open book. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. ³He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. ⁴When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them." ⁵The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky, ⁶and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, ⁷but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets. ⁸The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land." ⁹I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book. He said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey." ¹⁰I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. ¹¹They told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

11A reed like a rod was given to me. Someone said, "Rise, and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it. ²Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. ³I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." ⁴These are the two olive trees and the two lamp stands, standing before the Lord of the earth. ⁵If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. ⁶These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. ⁷When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. ⁸Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. ⁹From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. ¹⁰Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. ¹²I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them. ¹³In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven. ¹⁴The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly. ¹⁵The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ. He will reign forever and ever!" ¹⁶The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who was ^{xxxix}; because you have taken your great power, and reigned. ¹⁸The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your bondservants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the saints, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth." ¹⁹God's temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of the Lord's covenant was seen in his temple. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.

12A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. ²She was with child. She cried out in pain, laboring to give birth. ³Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns. ⁴His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. ⁵She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. ⁶The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days. ⁷There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war. ⁸They didn't prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven. ⁹The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. ¹⁰I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ has come; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. ¹¹They overcame him because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life, even to death. ¹²Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time." ¹³When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. ¹⁴Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. ¹⁵The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. ¹⁶The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. ¹⁷The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her offspring, ^{xxxix} who keep God's commandments and hold Jesus' testimony.

13Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names. ²The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. ³One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast. ⁴They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" ⁵A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two months was given to him. ⁶He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. ⁷It was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him. ⁸All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. ⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear. ¹⁰If anyone is to go into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must be killed. ^{xxxiii} Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints. ¹¹I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. ¹²He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. ¹³He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the sight of people. ¹⁴He deceives my own ^{xxxiv} people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived. ¹⁵It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given marks on their right hands, or on their foreheads; ¹⁷and that no one would be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of his name. ¹⁸Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

^{xxxix}Revelation 12:17 or, seed

14I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads. ²I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. ³They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. ⁴These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed by Jesus from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. ⁵In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless. ^{xxxv} ⁶I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people. ⁷He said with a loud voice, "Fear the Lord, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!" ⁸Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality." ⁹Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand, ¹⁰he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. ¹²Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus." ¹³I heard the voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'" "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them." ¹⁴I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man, ^{xxxvi} having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. ¹⁵Another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Send your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!" ¹⁶He who sat on the cloud thrust his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped. ¹⁷Another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth's grapes are fully ripe!" ¹⁹The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great wine press of the wrath of God. ²⁰The wine press was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out of the wine press, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia. ^{xxxvii}

15I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God's wrath is finished. ²I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who overcame the beast, his image, ^{xxxviii} and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. ³Righteous and true are your ways, you King of the nations. "Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God, the Almighty! They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, ⁴and glorify your name? For all the nations will come and worship before you. For your righteous acts have been revealed." Who wouldn't fear you, Lord, For you only are holy. ⁵After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened.

16I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!” ²The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image. ³The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died. ⁴The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. ⁵I heard the angel of the waters saying, “You are righteous, who are and who were, you Holy One, because you have judged these things. ⁶For they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this.” ⁷I heard the altar saying, “Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments.” ⁸The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire. ⁹People were scorched with great heat, and people blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They didn’t repent and give him glory. ¹⁰The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, ¹¹and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They didn’t repent of their works. ¹²The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be prepared for the kings that come from the sunrise. ¹³I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; ¹⁴for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go out to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty. ¹⁵“Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he doesn’t walk naked, and they see his shame.” ¹⁶He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Megiddo. ¹⁷The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, “It is done!” ¹⁸There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. ¹⁹The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. ²⁰Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. ²¹Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, ^{xxxix} came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

17One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, ²with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality.” ³He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. ⁴The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth. ⁵And on her forehead a name was written, “MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” ⁶I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. ⁷The angel said to me, “Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and shall be present. ^{x1} ⁹Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. ¹⁰They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. ¹¹The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. ¹²The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. ¹³These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and those who are with him are called, chosen, and faithful.” ¹⁵He said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. ¹⁶The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate, and will make her naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. ¹⁷For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. ¹⁸The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.”

18After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory. ²He cried with a mighty voice, saying, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird! ³For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury.” ⁴I heard another voice from heaven, saying, “Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don’t receive of her plagues, ⁵for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. ⁶Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. ⁷However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, ‘I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.’ ⁸Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong. ⁹The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, ¹⁰standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.’ ¹¹The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more; ¹²merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; ¹³and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, and people’s bodies and souls. ¹⁴The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. ¹⁵The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; ¹⁶saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls! ¹⁷For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.’ Every ship master, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, ¹⁸and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘What is like the great city?’ ¹⁹They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, ‘Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!’ For she is made desolate in one hour. ²⁰“Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, apostles, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her.” ²¹A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, “Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. ²²The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. ²³The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. ²⁴In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth.”

19After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Hallelujah! Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God: ²for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.” ³A second said, “Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever.” ⁴The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, “Amen! Hallelujah!” ⁵A voice came from the throne, saying, “Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!” ⁶I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns! ⁷Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.” ⁸It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. ⁹He said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.’” He said to me, “These are true words of God.” ¹⁰I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, “Look! Don’t do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy.” ¹¹I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. ¹²His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself. ¹³He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called

“The Word of God.” ¹⁴The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. ¹⁵Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. ^{xli} He treads the wine press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. ¹⁶He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, “KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.” ¹⁷I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, “Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God, ^{xlii} ¹⁸that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, and small and great.” ¹⁹I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. ²⁰The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²¹The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

²⁰I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. ²He seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years, ³and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. ⁴I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as didn’t worship the beast nor his image, and didn’t receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵The rest of the dead didn’t live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years. ⁷And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, ⁸and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. ⁹They went up over the width of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God, and devoured them. ¹⁰The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever. ¹¹I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. ¹²I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. ¹³The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades ^{xliii} gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. ¹⁴Death and Hades ^{xliv} were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. ¹⁵If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

²¹I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. ²I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. ³I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, “Behold, God’s dwelling is with people, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. ⁴He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away.” ⁵He who sits on the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new.” He said, “Write, for these words of God are faithful and true.” ⁶He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life. ⁷He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son. ⁸But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, ⁹One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were loaded with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb’s bride.” ¹⁰He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal; ¹²having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. ¹³On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. ¹⁴The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb. ¹⁵He who spoke with me had for a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. ¹⁶The city is square, and its length is as great as its width. He measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand twelve stadia. ^{xlv} Its length, width, and height are equal. ¹⁷Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits, ^{xlvi} by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. ¹⁸The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass. ¹⁹The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; ^{xlvii} the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; ²⁰the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst. ²¹The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. ²²I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple. ²³The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. ²⁵Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there), ²⁶and they shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it so that they may enter. ²⁷There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

22 He showed me a ^{xlviii} river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, ²in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. ³There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants serve him. ⁴They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. ⁵There will be no night, and they need no lamp light; for the Lord God will illuminate them. They will reign forever and ever. ⁶He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to show to his bondservants the things which must happen soon." ⁷"Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book." ⁸Now I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. ⁹He said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God." ¹⁰He said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. ¹¹He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is holy, let him be holy still." ¹²"Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each man according to his work. ¹³I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. ¹⁴Blessed are those who do his commandments, ^{xlix} that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city. ¹⁵Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. ¹⁶I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David; the Bright and Morning Star." ¹⁷The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely. ¹⁸I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, may God add to him the plagues which are written in this book. ¹⁹If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, may God take away his part from the tree ¹ of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book. ²⁰He who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly." Amen! Yes, come, Lord Jesus. ²¹The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with all the saints. Amen.
